II. Objectives

The Final Judgment filed in this case is meant to ensure Cinemark's and Alder Wood Partners' prompt divestiture of their respective Divestiture Assets for the purpose of establishing one or more viable competitors in the exhibition of first-run, commercial motion pictures in order to remedy the effects that the Plaintiffs allege would otherwise result from Cinemark's acquisition of Rave Cinemas. This Hold Separate Stipulation and Order ensures, prior to such divestitures, that the Divestiture Assets remain independent, economically viable, and ongoing business concerns, and that competition is maintained and not diminished during the pendency of the ordered divestitures.

III. Jurisdiction

The Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action and over each of the parties hereto, and venue of this action is proper in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

IV. Compliance With and Entry of Final Judgment

A. The parties stipulate that a Final Judgment in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A may be filed with and entered by the Court, upon the motion of any party or upon the Court's own motion, at any time after compliance with the requirements of the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act ("APPA"), 15 U.S.C. § 16, and without further notice to any party or other proceedings, provided that the United States has not withdrawn its consent, which it may do at any time before the entry of the proposed Final Judgment by serving notice thereof on Defendants and by filing that notice with the Court. Defendants agree to arrange, at their expense, publication as quickly as possible of the newspaper notice required by the APPA, which shall be drafted by the United States in its sole discretion. The publication shall be arranged no later than five (5) calendar days after Defendants' receipt from the United States of the text of the notice and the identity of the newspaper within which the publication shall be made.

Defendants shall promptly send to the United States (1) confirmation that publication of the newspaper notice has been arranged, and (2) the certification of the publication prepared by the newspaper within which the notice was published.

B. Defendants shall abide by and comply with the provisions of the proposed Final Judgment, pending the Judgment's entry by the Court, or until expiration of time for all appeals of any Court ruling declining entry of the proposed Final Judgment, and shall, from the date of the signing of this Stipulation by the parties, comply with all the terms and provisions of the proposed Final Judgment. The United States shall have the full rights and enforcement powers in the proposed Final Judgment, including Section XI, as though the same were in full force and effect as an order of the Court.

C. Defendants shall not consummate the transaction sought to be enjoined by the Complaint herein before the Court has signed this Hold Separate Stipulation and Order.

D. This Stipulation shall apply with equal force and effect to any amended proposed Final Judgment agreed upon in writing by the parties and submitted to the Court.

E. In the event that (1) the United States has withdrawn its consent, as provided in Section IV(A) above, or (2) the proposed Final Judgment is not entered pursuant to this Stipulation, the time has expired for all appeals of any Court ruling declining entry of the proposed Final Judgment, and the Court has not otherwise ordered continued compliance with the terms and provisions of the proposed Final Judgment, then the parties are released from all further obligations under this Stipulation, and the making of this Stipulation shall be without prejudice to any party in this or any other proceeding.

F. Defendants represent that the divestitures ordered in the proposed Final Judgment can and will be made, and that Defendants will later raise no claim of mistake, hardship, or difficulty of compliance as grounds for asking the Court to modify any of the provisions contained therein.

V. Hold Separate Provisions

Until the divestitures required by the Final Judgment have been accomplished:

A. Defendants shall take all steps necessary to ensure that their respective Divestiture Assets will be maintained and operated as ongoing, economically viable, and active competitors in the exhibition of first-run, commercial motion pictures. (For Cinemark, its respective Divestiture Assets are the Cinemark Divestiture Assets; and for Alder Wood Partners, its respective Divestiture Assets are the Movie Tavern Divestiture Assets.) Defendants shall maintain the viability, marketability, and competitiveness of their respective Divestiture Assets, and shall not cause the wasting or deterioration of their respective Divestiture Assets, nor shall they cause their respective Divestiture Assets to be operated in a manner inconsistent with applicable laws, nor shall they sell, transfer, encumber, or otherwise impair the viability, marketability, or competitiveness of their respective Divestiture Assets. Defendants shall conduct the business of their respective Divestiture Assets in the regular and ordinary course and in accordance with past practice, except as otherwise approved by the United States, and shall use their best efforts to preserve the existing relationships with suppliers, customers, employees, and others having business relations with their respective Divestiture Assets. Defendants shall use their best efforts to keep the organization and properties of each of their respective Divestiture Assets intact, including current business operations, physical facilities, and working conditions. Within twenty (20) days after the entry of the Hold Separate Stipulation and Order,

Defendants will inform the United States of the steps taken to comply with the Hold Separate Stipulation and Order.

B. Defendants shall use all reasonable efforts to maintain and increase the sales and revenues of their respective Divestiture Assets, and shall maintain at 2012 or previously approved levels for 2013, whichever are higher, all promotional, advertising, sales, technical assistance, marketing, and merchandising support for their respective Divestiture Assets. Defendants, however, are not obligated to maintain movie-specific promotions at any particular level.

C. Defendants shall provide sufficient working capital and lines and sources of credit to continue to maintain their respective Divestiture Assets as economically viable and competitive, ongoing businesses, consistent with the requirements of Sections V(A) and (B).

D. Defendants shall take all steps necessary to ensure that their respective Divestiture Assets are fully maintained in operable condition at no less than their current capacity and sales, and shall maintain and adhere to normal product and service improvement, upgrade, repair, and maintenance schedules for their respective Divestiture Assets.

E. Defendants shall not, except as part of a divestiture approved by the United States in accordance with the terms of the proposed Final Judgment, remove, sell, lease, assign, transfer, pledge, or otherwise dispose of any of their respective Divestiture Assets.

F. Defendants shall maintain, in accordance with sound accounting principles, separate, accurate, and complete financial ledgers, books, and records that report on a periodic basis, such as the last business day of every month, consistent with past practices, the assets, liabilities, expenses, revenues, and income of their respective Divestiture Assets.

G. Defendants shall take no action that would jeopardize, delay, or impede the sale of any Divestiture Assets.

H. Defendants' employees with primary responsibility for the operation of their respective Divestiture Assets shall not be transferred or reassigned to other areas within the company except for transfer bids initiated by employees pursuant to Defendants' regular, established job posting policy. Defendants shall provide the United States with ten (10) calendar days notice of such transfer.

I. Cinemark shall appoint, subject to the approval of the United States, a person or persons to oversee the Cinemark Divestiture Assets, who will be responsible for Cinemark's compliance with this Section. This person or persons shall have complete managerial responsibility for the Cinemark Divestiture Assets, subject to the provisions of this Final Judgment, and shall make all business decisions relating to the operations of the Cinemark Divestiture Assets, including all pricing and discounting decisions, independent of any Defendant. In the event such person or persons are unable to perform the required duties, Cinemark shall appoint, subject to the approval of the United States, a replacement within ten (10) working days. Should Cinemark fail to appoint a replacement acceptable to the United States within this time period, the United States shall appoint a replacement.

J. Alder Wood Partners shall appoint, subject to the approval of the United States, a person or persons, to oversee the Movie Tavern Divestiture Assets, who will be responsible for Alder Wood Partners' compliance with this Section. This person or persons shall have complete managerial responsibility for the Movie Tavern Divestiture Assets, subject to the provisions of this Final Judgment, and shall make all business decisions relating to the operations of the Movie Tavern Divestiture Assets, including all pricing and discounting decisions, independent of any Defendant. This person or persons also shall not communicate with the partners of Alder Wood Partners or the officers or directors of Cinemark, except as may be reasonably necessary to reasonably fulfill the obligations and purposes of the proposed Final Judgment and this Hold Separate Stipulation and Order. In the event such person or persons are unable to perform the required duties, Alder Wood Partners, shall appoint, subject to the approval of the United States, a replacement within ten (10) working days. Should Alder Wood Partners fail to appoint a replacement acceptable to the United States within this time period, the United States shall appoint a replacement.

K. Defendants shall take no action that would interfere with the ability of any trustee appointed pursuant to the Final Judgment to complete the divestitures pursuant to the Final Judgment to an Acquirer or Acquirers acceptable to the United States.

VI. Duration of Hold Separate and Asset Preservation Agreement

Defendants' obligations under Section V of the Hold Separate Stipulation and Order shall remain in effect until (1) consummation of the divestitures required by the proposed Final Judgment or (2) further order of the Court. If the United States voluntarily dismisses the Complaint in this matter, Defendants are released from all further obligations under this Hold Separate Stipulation and Order.
