3. a non-exclusive, non-transferable, fully paid-up license(s) for the use of the name "Falconbridge," the duration and terms of which shall be negotiated by the defendants and the Acquirer and limited to the field of use of the Nikkelverk Refinery Products, provided that any such license(s) may be transferable to any future purchaser of the Nikkelverk Refinery;
4. a non-exclusive, non-transferable, fully paid-up license(s) for use of any intangible asset that has been used by both the Divested Business and any of Falconbridge's non-divested businesses, provided that such license(s) may be transferable to any future purchaser of Nikkelverk Refinery; and
5. all research data concerning historic and current research and development efforts conducted at or for the Divested Business, including designs of experiments, and the results of unsuccessful designs and experiments.

The term “Divested Business” shall not include tangible or intangible assets exclusively used in, or personnel exclusively responsible for, the production or sale of products other than the Nikkelverk Refinery Products.

H. “Nikkelverk Refinery” means the nickel, copper, cobalt, and precious metals refinery owned by Falconbridge’s subsidiary Falconbridge Nikkelverk A/S and located in Kristiansand, Norway.

I. “Nikkelverk Refinery Products” means the finished nickel, copper, cobalt, precious metals, and other products produced at the Nikkelverk Refinery.

II.

OBJECTIVES

The Final Judgment filed in this case is meant to ensure defendants' prompt divestiture of the Divested Business, along with secure sources of Feedstock, for the purpose of ensuring the establishment of a viable competitor in the production and sale of High-Purity Nickel in order to remedy the anticompetitive effects that the United States alleges would otherwise result from Inco's acquisition of Falconbridge. This Hold Separate Stipulation and Order ensures that, prior to such divestiture and arrangements for secure sources of Feedstock, the Divested Business is operated as a competitively independent, economically viable, and ongoing business concern that will remain independent and uninfluenced by the proposed consummation of Inco's acquisition of Falconbridge, and that competition is maintained during the pendency of the ordered divestiture.

III.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of plaintiff's Complaint alleging that the proposed acquisition of Falconbridge by Inco would violate Section 7 of the Clayton Act (15 USC §18), and the parties do not object either to the Court's exercise of personal jurisdiction over them in this case, or to the propriety of venue of this action in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia. The defendants authorize Howrey LLP to accept service of all process in this matter on their behalf.

IV.

COMPLIANCE WITH AND ENTRY OF FINAL JUDGMENT

A. The parties stipulate that a Final Judgment in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A may be filed with and entered by the Court, upon the motion of any party or upon the Court's own motion, at any time after compliance with the requirements of the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act (15 U.S.C. § 16), and without further notice to any party or other proceedings, provided that the United States has not withdrawn its consent, which it may do at any time before the entry of the proposed Final Judgment by serving notice thereof on defendants and by filing that notice with the Court.

B. Defendants shall abide by and comply with the provisions of the proposed Final Judgment, pending entry of the Final Judgment by the Court, or until expiration of time for all appeals of any Court ruling declining entry of the proposed Final Judgment, and shall, from the date of the signing of this Stipulation by the parties, comply with all the terms and provisions of the proposed Final Judgment as though the same were in full force and effect as an order of the Court.

C. Defendants shall not consummate the transaction sought to be enjoined by the Complaint herein before the Court has signed this Hold Separate Stipulation and Order.

D. This Stipulation shall apply with equal force and effect to any amended proposed Final Judgment agreed upon in writing by the parties and submitted to the Court.

E. In the event (1) the United States has withdrawn its consent, as provided in Section IV(A) above; or (2) the proposed Final Judgment is not entered pursuant to this Stipulation, the time has expired for all appeals of any Court ruling declining entry of the proposed Final Judgment, and the Court has not otherwise ordered continued compliance with the terms and provisions of the proposed Final Judgment, then the parties are released from all further obligations under this Hold Separate Stipulation and Order, and the making of this Hold Separate Stipulation and Order shall be without prejudice to any party in this or any other proceeding.

F. Defendants represent that the divestiture ordered in the proposed Final Judgment can and will be made, and that defendants will later raise no claim of mistake, hardship, or difficulty of compliance as grounds for asking the Court to modify any of the provisions contained therein.

V.

PRESERVATION OF ASSETS

After entry of this Hold Separate Stipulation and Order and until the Acquisition of Falconbridge:

A. Falconbridge shall preserve, maintain, and continue to operate the Divested Business as an ongoing, economically viable competitive business.

B. Falconbridge shall use all reasonable efforts to maintain the sales and revenues of the products produced by or sold by the Divested Business, and shall maintain at 2005 or previously approved levels for 2006, whichever are higher, all promotional, advertising, sales, technical assistance, marketing and merchandising support for the Divested Business.

C. Falconbridge shall provide sufficient working capital and lines and sources of credit to continue to maintain the Divested Business as an economically viable and competitive, ongoing business, consistent with the requirements of Section V(A).

D. Falconbridge shall take all steps necessary to ensure that the Divested Business is fully maintained in operable condition at no less than its current capacity and sales, and shall maintain and adhere to normal repair and maintenance schedules for the Divested Business.

E. Falconbridge shall not, except as part of a divestiture approved by the United States in accordance with the terms of the proposed Final Judgment, remove, sell, lease, assign, transfer, pledge or otherwise dispose of any of the Divested Business.

F. Falconbridge's employees with primary responsibility for the research, development, operation, and sale of Nikkelverk Refinery Products and procurement of Feedstock from third parties for the Divested Business shall not be transferred or reassigned to other areas within the company except for transfer bids initiated by employees pursuant to Falconbridge's regular, established job posting policy. Defendants shall provide the United States with ten (10) calendar days notice of any such transfer.

G. Falconbridge shall take no action that would jeopardize, delay, or impede the sale of the Divested Business.

VI.

HOLD SEPARATE PROVISIONS

Beginning at the time Inco acquires the first share of Falconbridge common shares pursuant to Inco's Offer to Purchase All of the Outstanding Shares of Falconbridge, dated October 24, 2005, as amended, and until the divestiture required by the Final Judgment has been accomplished:

A. Defendants shall preserve, maintain, and continue to operate the Divested Business as an independent, economically viable ongoing competitive business, with management, research, design, development, promotions, marketing, sales, and operations of such assets held entirely separate, distinct, and apart from Inco's other operations. Inco shall not coordinate its production, marketing, or terms of sale of any products with those produced by or sold under the Divested Business. Within twenty (20) days after entry of this Hold Separate Stipulation and Order, Inco will inform the United States of the steps the company has taken to comply with this Hold Separate Stipulation and Order.

B. Defendants shall take all steps necessary to ensure that (1) the Divested Business will be maintained and operated as an independent, ongoing, economically viable and active competitor in the production and sale of High-Purity Nickel; (2) management of the Divested Business will not be influenced by Inco, except to the extent necessary to carry out Inco's obligations under this Hold Separate Stipulation and Order and the proposed Final Judgment; and (3) the books, records, competitively sensitive sales, marketing and pricing information, and decision-making concerning the Divested Business will be kept separate and apart from Inco's other operations.

C. Defendants shall use all reasonable efforts to maintain the research, development, sales, and revenues of the products produced or sold by the Divested Business, and shall maintain at 2005 levels or previously approved levels for 2006, whichever are higher, all research, development, product improvement, promotional, advertising, sales, technical assistance, marketing and merchandising support for any product developed, produced, or sold by the Divested Business.

D. Defendants shall provide sufficient working capital and lines and sources of credit to continue to maintain the Divested Business as an independent, economically viable and competitive, ongoing business, consistent with the requirements of Sections VI(A) and VI(B).

E. Defendants shall take all steps necessary to ensure that the assets of the Divested Business are fully maintained in operable condition at no less than capacity and sales levels as of the date of the acquisition of the first share by Inco, and shall maintain and adhere to normal product improvement and upgrade and repair and maintenance schedules for each of those assets.

F. Defendants shall not, except as part of a divestiture approved by the United States in accordance with the terms of the proposed Final Judgment, remove, sell, lease, assign, transfer, pledge or otherwise dispose of any assets of the Divested Business.

G. Defendants shall maintain, in accordance with sound accounting principles, separate, accurate and complete financial ledgers, books and records that report on a periodic basis, such as the last business day of every month, consistent with past practices, the assets, liabilities, expenses, revenues and income of the Divested Business.

H. Defendants shall take no action that would jeopardize, delay, or impede the sale of the Divested Business.

I. Defendants' employees with exclusive or primary responsibility for the research, development, operation, and sale of Nikkelverk Refinery Products and procurement of Feedstock from third parties for the Divested Business shall not be transferred or reassigned to other areas within Inco or Falconbridge, except for transfer bids initiated by employees pursuant to defendants' regular, established job posting policy. Defendants shall provide the United States with ten (10) calendar days notice of any such transfer.

J. Within ten (10) days of the Acquisition of Falconbridge, defendants shall appoint, subject to the approval of the United States, a person or persons to oversee the Divested Business, who will also be responsible for Inco's and Falconbridge's compliance with this section. This person or persons shall have complete managerial responsibility for the Divested Business, subject to the provisions of the Final Judgment. In the event that any such person is unable to perform his or her duties, defendants shall appoint, subject to the approval of the United States, a replacement within ten (10) working days. Should defendants fail to appoint a replacement acceptable to the United States within this time period, the United States shall appoint a replacement at defendants' expense.

K. Defendants shall take no action that would interfere with the ability of any trustee appointed pursuant to the Final Judgment to complete the divestiture and make arrangements for secure sources of Feedstock pursuant to the Final Judgment to an Acquirer acceptable to the United States.

L. This Hold Separate Stipulation and Order shall remain in effect until consummation of the divestiture required by the proposed Final Judgment or until further order of the Court.
