Defendant.)

INFORMATION

The United States of America, acting through its attorneys, charges:

I

DESCRIPTION OF THE OFFENSE

- 1. Sarafan Auto Supply, Inc. is hereby made a defendant on the charge stated below.
- 2. Beginning at least as early as 1992 and continuing until at least October 1994, the exact dates being unknown to the United States, the defendant and co-conspirators entered into and participated in a combination and conspiracy to suppress and eliminate competition by rigging bids for the purchase of military surplus sold in interstate and foreign commerce by the Defense Reutilization and Marketing Service ("DRMS") at auctions located in Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania and Chambersburg, Pennsylvania. The combination and conspiracy engaged in by the defendant and co-conspirators unreasonably restrained interstate and foreign trade and commerce in violation of Title 15, United States Code, Section 1, commonly known as The Sherman Antitrust Act.
- 3. The charged combination and conspiracy consisted of an agreement, understanding and concert of action among the defendant and co-conspirators, the substantial term of which was to refrain from bidding against each other for the purchase of military surplus sold by DRMS at auctions in Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania and Chambersburg, Pennsylvania for the purpose of purchasing such military surplus at artificially low prices.

4. For the purpose of forming and carrying out the charged conspiracy, the defendant and co-conspirators did those things which they combined and conspired to do.

ΙI
