APPENDIX A

Re: United States v. Pacific Electrical Contractors Association (Civil No. _____)

Dear Sir or Madam:

The Pacific Electrical Contractors Association ("PECA") has recently entered into a Final Judgment with the United States Department of Justice to settle a civil antitrust case filed against the Association. That case, United States v. Pacific Electrical Contractors Association (Civil No. _____), concerned PECA's bidding procedure that governed a substantial number of electrical subcontracts on construction projects in the State of Hawaii. Our Association has been cooperating with the Department of Justice regarding this matter, and we have voluntarily agreed to the revisions of our bid depository rules outlined below. This Final Judgment does not constitute a finding or admission of wrongdoing.

Under the terms of the Final Judgment signed by Judge _____ of the District of Hawaii, PECA has agreed to eliminate all bid procedures or practices that in any manner may:

1. Restrict or discourage specialty contractors or material suppliers and general contractors from negotiating electrical sub-bids; or
2. Restrict or discourage electrical contractors or material suppliers from offering sub-bids to, or accepting subcontracts from, a general contractor on any project.

Specifically, PECA has agreed to delete from its bidding procedure rules which provide that:

1. Confirmation bids for electrical subcontracts or material supplies must be filed with the PECA bid depository as well as with the relevant general contractor association bid depository;
2. Filed bids may not be altered or changed after the deadline for their filing;
3. A specialty contractor or material supplier who withdraws a filed bid may not rebid or negotiate a subcontract with the general contractor;
4. Filed bids shall be frozen if there is a postponement of less than 15 days in the time for the submission of prime bids, and, if there is a longer postponement, must be formally resubmitted through the bid depository; and
5. If any filed bids are considerably lower than the other bids, such low bidders are so notified.

The General Contractors Association of Hawaii, Hawaii Island Contractors Association, Gypsum Drywall Contractors of Hawaii, Maui Contractors Association, Mason Contractors Association of Hawaii, Painting & Decorating Contractors Association of Hawaii, Plumbing & Mechanical Contractors Association of Hawaii, and Sheet Metal Contractors Association have also recently settled civil antitrust cases and have agreed to eliminate provisions in their bidding procedures similar to the PECA rules being eliminated.

A copy of the entire Final Judgment is enclosed with this letter and will in the future be available upon request. I urge you to read it carefully.

Sincerely yours,
