

Exhibit N*Select Evidence of the Allegiance-HCHC Agreement Implemented Over Time

Date	Document type	Description / Quotation	Bates Range	Exh.
12/2008	Allegiance-HCHC email exchange	Allegiance: "I am wondering if you would oppose me letting your primary care physicians know that this technique is available to their patients. . . . [I]f your physicians are performing this type of surgery I understand that you do not want me to market within the Hillsdale market, which we respect your wishes." HCHC: "I would respectfully ask that you not market the aforementioned procedure to Hillsdale docs." Allegiance: "I will . . . continue to seek your approval prior to meeting with any of your physicians."	HILL-SUBPOENA-DOJ-000003	F-3
03/2009	Allegiance internal	"I told him [HCHC CEO] that we specifically agreed to screen out Hillsdale zip codes, that we would find out what happened and be sure the appropriate apologies are send [sic]."	AH000980691	O-2

Date	Document type	Description / Quotation	Bates Range	Exh.
03/2009	Allegiance to Hillsdale County physician	“I am writing to apologize for a letter that was sent to Hillsdale-area residents regarding an Allegiance Health orthopedic community event. We routinely exclude residents from the Hillsdale community from our promotional mailings.”	HIL-DOJ-003916 (excerpted)	F-1
11/2009	Allegiance to HCHC	“I wanted to apologize for the packets that were mailed to Hillsdale. . . . It isn’t our style to purposely not honor our agreement.”	HIL-DOJ-003920 (excerpted)	F-1
11/2009	Allegiance internal	Allegiance mailing “is being sent to approximately [REDACTED] homes in our service areas (excluding several zips in the Hillsdale regionbased [sic] on our agreementto [sic] not market there)”	AH000437523	O-13
03/2011	Allegiance internal	“HCHC approval to market cardiovascular and hyperbaric only”	AH000445379, at 380	O-20
07/2011	Allegiance internal	“[W]e [Allegiance] have Duke Anderson’s (CEO) approval to promote certain services in Hillsdale.”	AH000091369, at 372 (excerpted)	O-21
10/2011	Allegiance internal	HCHC “does not want the marketing of the [Allegiance] cancer center in the area yet. . . . Our cancer center will pull from [HCHC].”	AH000249623, at 624	O-19

Date	Document type	Description / Quotation	Bates Range	Exh.
11/2011	Allegiance internal	“[D]ue to an agreement with the [CEO of HCHC], [oncology] marketing activity will not include Hillsdale County.”	AH000442389, at 391 (excerpted)	O-14
11/2011	Allegiance to Navigant Consulting	“Our relationship with HCHC is transactional and one of seeking ‘approval’ to provide services in their market.”	AH000413603, at 604	O-12
04/2012	Allegiance internal	Cardiologists “don’t understand the gentleman’s agreement approach to Hillsdale and believe we should try to penetrate that market more aggressively.”	AH000345985, at 986-87 (excerpted)	O-16
02/2013	Allegiance internal	“We are only allowed to market open-heart per our agreement with Duke [Anderson]. This has been the case for the entire 6+ years I have worked here.”	AH000635931	O-3
04/2013	Allegiance internal	Asking whether Allegiance could market certain orthopedic services in Hillsdale County because doing so “would not be in-line with our gentleman[’]s agreement with Duke [Anderson]”	AH000551704	O-4

Date	Document type	Description / Quotation	Bates Range	Exh.
10/2013	Allegiance internal	One Allegiance employee: “What is the current status in Hillsdale as far as what we can/can[']t do there?” Another Allegiance employee: “We can promote services that they do not offer or a service that has been mutually agreed upon.”	AH000396819-20 (excerpted)	O-17
12/2013	Allegiance email exchange with recruiter for HCHC	Allegiance requested to introduce its thoracic surgeon to a Hillsdale County physician. Recruiter for HCHC: “I needed to let you know that [HCHC doctors] do the same work [as the Allegiance thoracic surgeon] so we wouldn’t want to interfere with that. . . . I received some concern from Hillsdale and wanted to let you know.” Allegiance: “will not push the introduction because we do not want to steer business from Hillsdale that can be performed in Hillsdale by your docs.”	HILL-ANDE-00017933-35	F-2