

EXHIBIT C

COMPANY Obligations

1. Within thirty (30) days following distribution of COMPANY's Internet Product, COMPANY agrees to employ the advanced features of MS' Internet Explorer HTML extensions in the design of COMPANY's home page.
2. Include the "Best Viewed with Microsoft Internet Explorer" logo on the home page for COMPANY's Internet Product, along with a hot link www.microsoft.com/windows/ic/explorer.htm on the face of the home page.
3. Offer the Microsoft Internet Explorer as the only worldwide web browser for its Windows 95 customers.
4. Deploy the Internet Explorer internally on all COMPANY's Windows 95 workstations, and be solely responsible for training COMPANY's employees on using Microsoft Windows 95 and the Internet Explorer.
5. Use the Microsoft Internet Explorer name and logo in COMPANY's packaging, advertising and promotional materials. Such use shall be pursuant to MS' standard trademark policies as attached hereto and as may be provided by MS to COMPANY from time to time.
6. Issue a press release announcing that COMPANY has licensed the Internet Explorer within sixty days following execution of this Agreement. COMPANY shall provide any such press release to Microsoft for review at least five (5) days prior to release. If COMPANY chooses not to issue its own press release, then COMPANY agrees MS may use COMPANY's name in any press release MS issues regarding licensing the Internet Explorer.
7. Provide MS with a quarterly volume distribution summary for COMPANY's Internet Product. Such summary shall be provided to MS within forty five (45) days following the end of the quarter.
