 IN VIOLATION OF THE SHERMAN ANTITRUST ACT
 (15 U.S.C. § 1)

DESCRIPTION OF THE OFFENSE

1. ARCHITECTURAL PRODUCTS CO., INC.; EL PASO STEEL DOORS
 AND FRAMES, INC.; LINDSAY B. HOLT, SR.; and HUMBERTO LOPEZ, also known as BETO LOPEZ, are hereby indicted and made defendants on the charge stated below.

2. Beginning in the early 1990's, and continuing thereafter until at least May 2006, the exact dates being unknown to the Grand Jury, the defendants and co-conspirators entered into and engaged in a combination and conspiracy to suppress and eliminate competition by rigging bids and allocating customers for certain contracts to supply and install doors and hardware for construction projects in the El Paso, Texas, area. The combination and conspiracy engaged in by the defendants and co-conspirators was in unreasonable restraint of interstate trade and commerce in violation of Section 1 of the Sherman Act (15 U.S.C. § 1).

3. #### MEANS AND METHODS OF THE CONSPIRACY

4. For the purpose of forming and carrying out the charged combination and conspiracy, the defendants and co-conspirators did those things that they combined and conspired to do, including, among other things:

- (a) participated in meetings and engaged in discussions concerning upcoming quotes or bids for certain contracts to supply and install doors and hardware for construction projects in the El Paso, Texas, area;
- (b) agreed during those meetings and discussions not to compete on quotes or bids for certain contracts to supply and install doors and hardware for construction projects in the El Paso, Texas,

- (e) gave to and obtained from co-conspirators information that was used to prepare and submit intentionally high, complementary and noncompetitive quotes or bids for certain contracts to supply and install doors and hardware for construction projects in the El Paso, Texas, area;
- (f) refrained from bidding or submitted intentionally high, complementary and noncompetitive quotes or bids for certain contracts to supply and install doors and hardware for construction projects in the El Paso, Texas, area; and

THE DEFENDANT

16. LINDSAY B. HOLT, SR. is hereby indicted and made a defendant on the charge stated below.

BACKGROUND

17. From in or about November 2005 to the present, a federal Grand Jury sitting in the Western District of Texas has been investigating, among other things, whether any company or individual engaged in the business of selling and installing doors and hardware for construction projects had violated or were violating any federal criminal laws, including engaging in bid rigging or customer allocation activity in violation of Section I of the Sherman Antitrust Act (15 U.S.C. § 1). This investigation has included the Defendants ARCHITECTURAL PRODUCTS CO., INC. and LINDSAY B. HOLT as well as others in the door and hardware industry.

DESCRIPTION OF THE OFFENSE

18. In furtherance of the aforesaid Grand Jury investigation, a Grand Jury subpoena for documents addressed to ARCHITECTURAL PRODUCTS CO., INC. was served on LINDSAY B. HOLT, SR. on May 3, 2006. The subpoena required ARCHITECTURAL PRODUCTS CO. INC. to produce, for the period January 1, 2000, through September 26, 2006, documents reflecting or relating to contacts and agreements with representatives of other companies that sell doors and hardware; bids or quotes submitted by the company under subpoena; matters discussed by or communications between members of any door and hardware trade association; and other documents that could reveal the existence of a bid-rigging or customer-allocation conspiracy.

19. Also in furtherance of the aforesaid Grand Jury investigation, a Grand Jury subpoena for documents addressed to the Association of Door and Hardware Installers (ADHI), a local door and hardware trade association based in El Paso, Texas, was served on Thomas M. Buck, on May 3, 2006, in the presence of LINDSAY B. HOLT, SR. Among other things, the subpoena required ADHI to produce, for the period January 1, 2000, through May 3, 2006, documents constituting minutes and agendas relating to meetings of the Association. At the time the subpoena was served, and for several years prior to that date, LINDSAY B. HOLT, SR. was President of ADHI and documents responsive to the ADHI subpoena were located in the custody and control of ARCHITECTURAL PRODUCTS CO., INC.

20. On May 4, 2006, LINDSAY B. HOLT, SR. willfully, knowingly and corruptly endeavored to influence, obstruct and impede the due administration of justice, namely, the aforesaid Grand Jury investigation, by meeting with his co-conspirators in his vehicle in a commercial parking lot on Woodrow Bean Transmountain Drive in El Paso, and instructing them to conceal the existence of the bid-rigging and customer-allocation conspiracy that is the subject of Count One, by denying it, lying about it, or otherwise refusing to acknowledge its existence or provide information about it to anyone, including law enforcement officials.

21. Between May 3, 2006, and September 26, 2006, the exact dates being unknown to the Grand Jury, LINDSAY B. HOLT, SR. willfully, knowingly and corruptly endeavored to influence, obstruct and impede the due administration of justice, namely, the aforesaid Grand Jury investigation, by instructing an APCO employee, who was also an officer and director of the company, to destroy any records responsive to the Grand Jury's subpoena that might reveal the bid-rigging and customer-allocation conspiracy that is the subject of Count One, rather than produce such records to the Grand Jury.

22. It was also part of the corrupt endeavor that LINDSAY B. HOLT, SR. instructed an APCO employee, who was also an officer and director of the company and a director of ADHI, not to produce to the Grand Jury the minutes of an ADHI meeting held on October 28, 2003, that the defendant HOLT knew were called for by the Grand Jury's subpoena, and to deny the existence of such minutes if asked.

23. It was further part of the corrupt endeavor that LINDSAY B. HOLT, SR. instructed an employee, who was also an officer and director of the company and director of ADHI, to create false and fictitious minutes of ADHI meetings for production to the Grand Jury.

24. The aforesaid corrupt endeavor to influence, obstruct and impede the due administration of justice was carried out by the Defendant LINDSAY B. HOLT, SR. within the Western District of Texas within the five years preceding the return of this Indictment.
