<sup>3</sup> This category includes investigations of potential violations of Clayton §§ 3, 7A, and 8, the Robinson-Patman Act, and Title 18, among other statutes.

Matters exit the preliminary inquiry phase by closing; in the case of criminal preliminary inquiries, becoming grand jury investigations; or in the case of civil preliminary inquiries, through the issuance of Civil Investigative Demands. This category only addresses investigations in the civil or criminal preliminary inquiry stage. Investigations opened with the purpose of exploring judgment modification or termination are not included here in the total number of preliminary inquiries initiated. Such judgment modification/termination investigations are addressed separately under the Judgment Enforcement sections.

<sup>14</sup> These are investigations to determine whether a judgment should be modified or terminated.

<sup>16</sup> "Fines imposed" are the total of criminal fines imposed by courts in judgments against defendants in Antitrust Division prosecutions. These totals do not include fines "agreed to" by defendants in plea agreements during the fiscal year but not yet imposed by the court. The Department tracks separately fine collection totals, see http://www.justice.gov/atr/public/press\_releases/2015/311240.htm, which include all fines, court costs, and other fees that have been paid in satisfaction of judgments in Antitrust Division prosecutions, and which may differ from fines imposed or agreed to due to the use of payment plans.

<sup>17</sup> Frequently restitution is not sought in criminal antitrust cases, as damages are obtained through treble damage actions filed by the victims.

<sup>18</sup> This is a new statistic as of the FY 2014 Workload Statistics Report. Disgorgements represent the total dollar amount paid by defendants to the government as equitable relief to prevent unjust enrichment from violating the antitrust laws.

<sup>19</sup> This is a new statistic as of the FY 2014 Workload Statistics Report. Civil Contempt Settlements represent the total dollar amount paid by defendants to the government to settle consent decree violations and may include the full costs of investigation related to consent decree violations. The settlement, in some cases, may also include disgorgement payments.

^ Value includes civil contempt cases where the payment included disgorgement of profits from the alleged violations.

<sup>23</sup> As of FY 2012, the Division's practice is to conduct a competitive analysis of all bank merger applications forwarded to the Division for review, and not to draw a distinction between transactions that require competitive screening and transactions that may be competitively neutral. Previously, applications involving formations of bank holding companies did not receive the same competitive analysis and were treated separately in the workload statistics.
