I am strongly against the recent Justice Department decision which recently reversed course on UnitedHealth Group's proposed $3.3 billion acquisition of home health and hospice care provider Amedisys.

I am a firm believer in and advocate for free market competition. In this instance, I believe competition benefits workers and patients alike. Big business monopolies only benefit those higher up in the business & shareholders.

Did we just forget about Ma Bell, or has our moral compass changed that much?

This decision is reprehensible.

Respectfully, but with much disgust & anger,

Mary Schmidt
