Don't allow United's 3.5 million acquisition of Amedisis. I have had an extremely hard time with United in the past sending them money to be covered under their medical plan but never getting a card or any kind of proof that I was covered. I needed proof since I was set to travel. I made numerous calls even leaving messages with the VP but never got a call back or results. I eventually gave up lost 2 months premium cost and got coverage elsewhere. United is very poorly run.
