in the form of free goods or otherwise, or other terms or conditions of sale at or upon which any liquor product is to be or has been sold to any third person prior to any communication of such information to the public or customers generally.

VI

Each defendant is ordered and directed:

(A) Within ninety (90) days after the entry of this Final Judgment, to serve a conformed copy of this Final Judgment upon each of its respective officers, directors, and managing agents and upon each of its employees who have any responsibility for the establishment of wholesale prices of liquor products;

(B) Within ninety (90) days after entry of this Final Judgment, advise and inform each such officer, director, managing agent and employee upon whom this Final Judgment is served as described in Subsection (A) above, that violations by him of the terms of this Final Judgment could result in conviction of contempt of court and could subject him to a fine or imprisonment or to both fine and imprisonment;

(C) Within one hundred and twenty (120) days after the entry of this Final Judgment to serve upon plaintiff affidavits concerning the fact and manner of compliance with Subsections (A) and (B) of this Section VI.

Each defendant is ordered and directed for a period of ten (10) years after the entry of this Final Judgment to serve a copy of this Final Judgment upon each successor to each of those officers, directors, agents and employees of defendant described in Subsection (A) of Section VI above, correspondence, memoranda, and other records and documents in the possession or control of defendant relating to any of the matters contained in this Final Judgment; and

(B) Subject to the reasonable convenience of defendant and without restraint or interference from it, to interview the officers, agents and employees of defendant who may have counsel present, regarding any such matters.

Upon written request of the Attorney General, or the Assistant Attorney General in charge of the Antitrust Division, each defendant shall submit such reports in writing with respect to the matters contained in this Final Judgment as may from time to time be requested.

No information obtained by the means permitted in this Section IX shall be divulged by any representatives of the Department of Justice to any person other than a duly authorized representative of the Executive Branch of the plaintiff, except in the course of legal proceedings to which the United States is a party for the purpose of securing compliance with this Final Judgment, or as otherwise required by law.

Х

Jurisdiction is retained by this Court for the purpose of enabling any party to this Final Judgment to apply to this Court at any time for such further orders and directions as may be necessary or appropriate for the construction or carrying out of this Final Judgment, for the modification of any of the provisions contained therein, for the enforcement of compliance therewith and for the punishment of violations thereof.
