THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

VS.

THE MASTER HORSESHOER'S NATIONAL PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA ET AL.

DECREE.

And now, to-wit, March 16, 1914, this cause came on to be heard at this term and was argued by counsel, and thereupon, upon consideration thereof, it was ordered, adjudged and decreed as follows:—that the defendant, United States Horse Shoe Company, be and is hereby perpetually enjoined from doing any act in pursuance of or for the purpose of carrying out such combination and conspiracy as is set forth in the Bill of Complaint and that they be and are hereby required to desist and withdraw from all connection with such conspiracy and to cancel and abate all the agreements and contracts set forth and referred to in said Bill of Complaint to which they are parties and entered into in pursuance of said combination and conspiracy.

That they be perpetually enjoined and restrained from agreeing together or with any other or with all of the respondents in said case expressly or impliedly, directly or indirectly, concerning the prices, at which drilled horse shoes shall be sold and from agreeing together or with any other or with all of the respondents in said case, expressly, or impliedly, directly or indirectly, to prevent any individual, corporation or copartnership from buying or selling drilled horse shoes freely in the open market, or to impose any burden, or condition upon the purchase, sale or transportation of the same among the several states, or between the United States and any foreign country and that they be perpetually enjoined and restrained from agreeing with each other or with any or all of the other respondents in said cause expressly or impliedly, directly or indirectly to discriminate, and from urging and inducing others to discriminate against any manufacturer, jobber, wholesale dealer or retail dealer in drilled horse shoes because of such manufacturer, jobber, wholesale or retail dealer having refused to confine his sales of drilled horse shoes to customers of a certain class or to customers standing in a certain relation to the trade in said articles or because of such manufacturer, jobber, wholesale, or retail dealer having failed to discriminate in favor of any class of customers or in favor of customers standing in a special relation to the trade in such articles.

That upon the entry of this decree said cause shall be finally terminated as to said United States Horse Shoe Company and that no costs of any kind shall be taxed against said defendant in said case.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the entry of this decree and this decree and any of its provisions hereof shall be without prejudice to the rights and interests of the United States Horse Shoe Company and to the rights and interests of any and all of the officers and directors of said corporation who were officers and directors during the period embraced by the allegations in said Bill of Complaint in any proceeding, civil or criminal, which may hereafter be brought, except its recitals shall be conclusive as to the matters recited in all proceedings brought to enforce an observance of this decree or any part thereof.
