And each and all of the above-named defendants, their officers, directors, agents, servants and employees, are hereby restrained and enjoined from hereafter acquiring any shares of The Temple Iron Company; from voting or attempting to vote any of such shares at any meeting of stockholders of said The Temple Iron Company; from collecting or receiving any dividends or other profits thereon; and from exercising or attempting to exercise any control, direction, supervision or influence what so ever over the acts of said corporation. And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that The Temple Iron Company be, and it is hereby, restrained and enjoined from permitting shares held by any of said defendants, or any company controlled by any of them, to be voted at any corporate meeting of the said The Temple Iron Company; from paying to any of them any dividends on account of such shares, and from permitting or suffering any of them to exercise any control over its affairs.

And the defendant The Temple Iron Company, its officers, agents, or representatives, are hereby further enjoined from exercising any control over any of the property or assets of the Northwest Coal Company, Edgerton Coal Company, Sterrick Creek Coal Company, Forty Fort Coal Company, and Lackawanna Coal Company, Limited; from voting the shares of capital stock of such companies; and from receiving any dividends or other profits accruing thereon.

Third. That the charge made in paragraph seven (c) of the petition concerning the combination by which it is alleged the Reading Company acquired a majority of the capital stock of the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey, in violation of the act entitled "An Act to protect trade and commerce against unlawful restraints and monopolies," approved July 2, 1890, is not sustained, and the petition in respect of that charge is dismissed.

Fourth. That the general charge in paragraph seven of the petition concerning an alleged combination or conspiracy in violation of the act entitled "An Act to protect trade and commerce against unlawful restraints and monopolies," approved July 2, 1890, in the development of which it is averred the other combinations set forth in said petition were used as steps, is not sustained, and the petition in respect of that general charge is dismissed.

Fifth. That the charge in paragraph seven (a) of the petition concerning an alleged combination for making and maintaining the so-called 65 per cent. contracts is not sustained, and the petition in respect of that charge is dismissed.
