IV

The defendants are jointly and severally enjoined and restrained from entering into, adhering to, maintaining or furthering, any contract,

(E) Induce, compel or coerce, or attempt to induce, compel or coerce any manufacturer or wholesaler of floor covering materials to refuse to deal with or discriminate against any person or group or class of persons in connection with the purchase, sale or distribution of floor covering materials.

V

Each defendant is enjoined and restrained from directly or indirectly:

(A) Inducing, compelling or coercing, or attempting to induce, compel or coerce any manufacturer, wholesaler or retailer to refrain from purchasing, selling or discriminating in the purchase, sale or distribution of floor covering materials from or to any person or group or class of persons; and

(B) Belonging to, organizing, becoming a member of, or participating in the activities of any trade association or other organization, the activities of which are or may be inconsistent with any provision of this Final Judgment.

(D) To expel promptly from membership any present or future member who shall violate any of those provisions of its by-laws which incorporate Sections IV and V of this Final Judgment when said Association shall have knowledge of such violation; and

(E) Within four months after the date of entry of this Final Judgment to file with this Court and serve upon the plaintiff an affidavit setting forth the fact and manner of its compliance with this Section VI.

VII

For the purpose of securing compliance with this Final Judgment, duly authorized representatives of the Department of Justice shall, on written request of the Attorney General or the Assistant Attorney General in charge of the Antitrust Division, and on reasonable notice to any defendant, be permitted,

(A) Access, during the office hours of said defendant, to all books, ledgers, accounts, correspondence, memoranda, and other records and documents in the possession or under the control of said defendant relating to any of the matters contained in this Final Judgment; and
