United States v. Westinghouse Electric Corporation; Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Company; General Electric Company; McGraw-Edison Company; Moloney Electric Company; and Wagner Electric Corporation.

1963 Trade Cases ¶70,885. U.S. District Court, E.D. Pennsylvania. Civ. Action No. 28,105. Filed August 30, 1963. Case No. 1524 in the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice.

Headnote

Sherman Act

Collusive Bidding—Restrictive Practices—Power Transformers—Consent Judgment.—A consent judgment (1962 TRADE CASES ¶70,504) was modified to permit defendants to itemize total cost for power transformers instead of providing individual cost itemizations for each power transformer covered by bids which include other major equipment.

For the plaintiff: Donald G. Bathis, John E. Sarbaugh, and Walter L. Devany, Attorneys, Department of Justice.

For the defendants: Cravath, Swaine & Moore, by George B. Turner, for Westinghouse Electric Corp.; Schnader, Harrison, Segal & Lewis, by W. Bradley Ward, and Edward W. Mullinix, for Allis-Chalmers Mfg. Co.; Thomas, Raymond, Mayer & Jenner, by Edward R. Johnston, for McGraw-Edison Co.; Keefe, Schlafly, Griesedieck & Ferrell, by William H. Ferrell, for Moloney Electric Company, and Lewis, Rice, Tucker, Allen and Chubb, by R. Walston Chubb, for Wagner Electric Corp.

Stipulation

GANEY, Circuit Judge [In full text]: Final Judgment having been entered herein on October 1, 1962, and the plaintiff and the defendants signatory hereto desiring to modify subsection (D) of Section VI thereof, it is hereby stipulated that the said subsection be stricken as to the defendants signatory hereto and in lieu thereof a new subsection be inserted as to such defendants to read as follows:

(D) Each consenting defendant is ordered and directed, for a period of ten (10) years from the effective date of this subsection (D), when submitting a bid or quotation for the sale of any power transformer, except rectifier transformers (for which a price is included by such defendant in the calculation of its bid or quotation), combined with other major items or electrical equipment to set forth and itemize separately the total amount included in such bid or quotation for power transformers.
