imum price provisions of the agreements declared in this judgment to be illegal.

ARTICLE V

A. Defendants Line Material Company and Southern States Equipment Corporation are hereby ordered and directed to file with the Clerk of this Court, within sixty (60) days after the effective date of this judgment, a list of the principal patents under their respective ownership or control, under which either has the power to license or sublicense, and which were, on March 8, 1948, licensed by or pursuant to one or more of the agreements listed in Article IV B of this judgment. The said list is referred to hereinafter in this judgment as "Schedule A" and is hereby made a part of this judgment as though it were fully set forth herein.

B. Within thirty (30) days from the date of this judgment, any licensee designated under Article IV B may cancel its said license agreement by giving written notice thereof to the licensor, said cancellation to be effective ten (10) days after the receipt of such notice of cancellation by the licensor. However, any such licensee so cancelling the license agreement may have the right to apply for a license under the provisions for compulsory licenses hereinafter described.

C. Defendants Line Material Company and Southern States Equipment Corporation, their successors and assigns, are hereby ordered and directed with respect to the patents listed in said "Schedule A" and all patents on inventions made prior to March 24, 1944 pertaining to dropout fuse cutouts hereafter acquired by them, or either of them, during the life of Schultz et al. Patent Re. 22,412 and any reissue thereof, to grant to each applicant therefor a non-exclusive license to make, use, and vend dropout fuse cutouts and their parts under any, some, or all of said patents, or under any claim or claims thereof. Said defendants, their successors and assigns, are further ordered and directed with respect to all claims of Schultz et al. Patent Re. 22,412, and with respect to all claims of Lemmon Patent No. 2,150,102, which read on a structure claimed by said Schultz et al., patent, to grant each applicant therefor a non-exclusive license to make, use, and vend under any claim or claims thereof. Each of said two defendants, its successors and assigns, are hereby enjoined and restrained from making any assignment, sale, or other disposition of any of said patents which would deprive it, or them, of the power or authority to grant such licenses, unless it is required, as a condition of such assignment, sale, or other disposition, that the purchaser, transferee, or assignee, shall observe the requirements of Articles V and VI of this judgment; and the purchaser, transferee, or assignee shall file with this Court, prior to consummation of said transaction a consent to be bound by the provisions of said Articles V and VI of this judgment.

D. Defendants Line Material Company and Southern States Equipment Corporation, their successors and assigns, are hereby enjoined and restrained from including any restriction or condition whatsoever in any license granted to others pursuant to the provisions of this Article except that: (1) the license may be non-transferable; (2) a reasonable non-discriminatory royalty may be charged; (3) reasonable provision may be made for inspection of the books and records of the licensee by an independent auditor, or any person acceptable to the licensee, who shall report to the licensor only the amount of the royalty due and payable; (4) reasonable provision may be made for cancellation of the license upon failure of the licensee to pay the royalties or to permit the inspection of the books and records as hereinabove provided; (5) the license shall provide that the licensee may cancel the license at any time after one year from the initial date thereof by giving ninety (90) days' notice in writing to the licensor; (6) the license shall provide that the licensee shall immediately have the benefit of any more favorable terms granted any other licensee; and (7) such other restrictions or conditions as may be approved by the court.

E. Upon receipt of written request for a license under the provisions of this Article, the defendant receiving such request shall advise the license-applicant in writing of the royalty which it deems reasonable and will require to be paid for a license under the patent or patents to which the request pertains. If the parties are unable to agree upon a reasonable royalty within sixty (60) days from the date such request for license was received by the defendant, the license-applicant may apply forthwith to this Court for the determination of a reasonable royalty; and defendant shall, upon receipt of notice of the filing of such court application, promptly give notice thereof to the Attorney General. In any such court proceeding the burden of proof shall be on the defendant to establish the reasonableness of the royalty requested by it; and the reasonable royalty rates, if any, determined by the Court shall apply to the license-applicant, and shall also apply to all other licensees, under the same claim or claims of the patent or patents, whose licenses provide for payment of a higher royalty rate than that determined by the Court. For said sixty (60) day period and pending the completion of any such court proceeding, the license-applicant shall have the right to make, use, and vend under the claim or claims of the patent or patents to which his application pertains without payment of royalty or other compensation, but subject to the final judgment and order of the Court in such proceeding, and further subject to the following provisions: The defendant may apply to the Court to fix an interim royalty rate, pending final determination of what constitutes a reasonable royalty, if any. If the Court fixes such interim royalty rate, the defendant shall then issue and the license-applicant shall accept a license, or as the case may be, a sublicense, providing for the periodic payment of royalties at such interim rate from the date of the filing of such court-application by the license-applicant. If the license-applicant fails to accept such license or fails to pay the interim royalty in accordance therewith, such failure shall be ground for dismissal of his application and for the rescission of any and all of the license-applicant's rights under this paragraph. Where an interim license or sublicense has been issued pursuant to this paragraph, or where the license-applicant has exercised a right to make, use, and vend hereunder, reasonable royalty rates, if any, as finally determined by the Court may be retroactive for the license-applicant, and for all other licensees, under the same claim or claims of the patents, whose licenses provide for payment of a higher royalty rate than that determined by the Court, to a date to be fixed by the Court.

F. Defendants Line Material Company and Southern States Equipment Corporation are hereby ordered and directed to take such steps as may be necessary, within ninety (90) days after the effective date of this judgment, to list the patents in said "Schedule A" with the United States Patent Office for inclusion in the "Register of Patents Available for Licensing or Sale."

G. Nothing herein shall prevent any applicant for a license from attacking at any time the validity or scope of any patent, nor shall this judgment be construed as importing any validity or value to any patent.

ARTICLE VI

A. Defendants Line Material Company and Southern States Equipment Corporation, their successors and assigns, are hereby enjoined and restrained from instituting, maintaining, or continuing any suit for an infringement, occurring prior to the effective date of this judgment, of any claim of Schultz et al. Patent Re. 22,412 or of any claim of Lemmon Patent No. 2,150,102 which reads on a structure claimed by said Schultz et al. patent.

B. Defendants Line Material Company and Southern States Equipment Corporation, their successors and assigns, are hereby enjoined and restrained from instituting, maintaining, or continuing any suit for an infringement of any United States Letters Patent occurring prior to the effective date of this judgment by reason of the making, using or selling of dropout fuse cutouts or their parts.

C. Defendants Line Material Company and Southern States Equipment Corporation, their successors and assigns, are hereby enjoined and restrained from instituting, maintaining, or continuing any suit for an infringement, occurring after the effective date of this judgment, of any United States Letters Patent which is not listed in said "Schedule A" and is on an invention made prior to March 24, 1944, by reason of the making, using, or selling of dropout fuse cutouts or their parts, when the accused structure of the alleged infringer, during the period of alleged infringement, was licensed under either Schultz et al. Patent Re. 22,412 or Lemmon Patent 2,150,102, or any reissue or extension thereof.

ARTICLE VII

Each defendant, its agents, employees, successors and assigns, and each person acting or claiming to act under, through, or for it or him, and, except as to the individual defendant T. F. Johnson, each and all of its officers, directors, and subsidiaries are hereby enjoined and restrained from taking concerted action or agreeing, combining, or conspiring, or from performing or adhering to any program, understanding, plan or arrangement with any other manufacturer of electrical current interrupting devices, or any person acting or claiming to act under, through, or for such other manufacturer:

(a) To fix or have fixed, maintain, or control the prices, sales conditions, or terms at which any dropout fuse cutout or part thereof, shall be sold, except that the defendant may agree with an individual customer upon prices to be charged by it on sales to such customer;

(b) To quote or sell, or to refuse to quote or sell, dropout fuse cutouts or their parts under any specified sales price, condition, or term.

ARTICLE VIII

A. Each defendant, its successors and assigns, are hereby ordered and directed, within thirteen (13) months from the effective date of this judgment, to serve plaintiff with a statement, under oath, of:

(a) Its prices, terms, and conditions of sale that were in effect March 8, 1948 and that were applicable to dropout fuse cutouts;

(b) Each change made by it during the period between March 8, 1948 and one year after the effective date of this judgment with respect to any of said prices, terms, and conditions of sale;

(c) The effective date of each such change, the date it was announced to the trade, and the manner in which the announcement was made.

B. Within ninety (90) days after the service of the last of said statements upon plaintiff, plaintiff may move to amend this judgment in order more effectively to dissipate the effects of the said combination of defendants.

ARTICLE IX

Within sixty (60) days from the effective date of this judgment, each defendant, its successors and assigns, shall send to each of its agents, jobbers, salesmen, and distributors of dropout fuse cutouts in the United States a true and complete copy of this judgment and, within said sixty (60) day period, shall file with the Clerk of this Court its affidavit of mailing.

ARTICLE X

This judgment shall have no effect with respect to defendants' acts and operations without the continental United States or to their acts and operations within the continental United States relating exclusively to acts without the continental United States, or with respect to operations or activities, wherever performed, which are authorized or permitted by the Act of Congress of April 10, 1918, commonly called the Webb-Pomerene Act, the Act of Congress of August 17, 1937, commonly called the Miller-Tydings Act, or by acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto; provided, however, that nothing in this article shall be construed to permit any action which is or becomes unlawful under any existing or future law of the United States or of any political subdivision thereof.

ARTICLE XI

United States v. Brunswick-Balke-Collender Co., Wayne Iron Works, Universal Bleacher Co., Fred Medart Manufacturing Co., Consolidated Foundries and Manufacturing Corp., Safway Steel Products, Inc., and Fred H. Corray.

1962 Trade Cases ¶¶70,346. U.S. District Court, E.D. Wisconsin. Civil Action No. 59-C-163. Filed May 14, 1962. Case No. 1470 in the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice.

For the defendants: Erwin C. Heininger for Brunswick-Balke-Collender Co., Earl E. Pollock for Wayne Iron Works, Walker Smith for Universal Bleacher Co., Lewis A. Stocking for Safway Steel Products, Inc., and Floyd G. Kops for Consolidated Foundries and Manufacturing Corp.

Ordered, adjudged and decreed as follows:

I

[ Sherman Act]

This Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this action and of the parties hereto. The complaint states claims upon which relief may be granted against the defendants under Sections 1 and 2 of the Act of Congress of July 2, 1890, entitled "An act to protect trade and commerce against unlawful restraints and monopolies," commonly known as the Sherman Act., as amended.

II

[ Definitions]

As used in this Final Judgment:

- (A) "Person" shall mean an individual, partnership, firm, association, corporation or other legal or business entity;
- (B) "American Optical" shall mean the defendant American Optical Company, an association, and such defendants shall be deemed to be one defendant for the purposes of this Final Judgment;
- (C) "Bausch & Lomb" shall mean the defendant Bausch & Lomb Incorporated;
- (D) "Dispenser" shall mean any person engaged in the United States in selling spectacles, which incorporate ophthalmic lenses ground to prescription, to the ultimate user;
- (E) "Wholesale laboratory" shall mean any person engaged in the United States in servicing dispensers by maintaining and selling stocks of ophthalmic lenses, frames, mountings, and other materials to make complete or repair spectacles or by performing the precision operations involved in grinding, polishing, edging, and mounting lenses to prescriptions sent to them by dispensers.

III

[ Applicability]

The provisions of this Final Judgment applicable to a defendant shall also apply to each of its officers, directors, agents, employees, subsidiaries, successors, and assigns, and to all persons in active concert or participation with the defendant who receive actual notice of this Final Judgment by personal service or otherwise.

IV

[ Acquisition of Wholesalers]

Each defendant is enjoined from acquiring any wholesale laboratory for a period of 20 years from the date of entry of this Final Judgment.

Each defendant is enjoined from opening any new wholesale laboratory for a period of 20 years from the date hereof, where the effect of such opening would be that such defendant at the end of any calendar year was operating more than five more such wholesale laboratories than it was operating at the beginning of such calendar year.

Nothing contained in the preceding paragraphs shall prevent the defendant Bausch & Lomb from establishing a wholesale laboratory distribution system of not more than 38 branches in the territory set forth in Appendix 1 hereto. In the event it is proposed to establish such a system in whole or in part by the acquisition of existing wholesale laboratories Bausch & Lomb shall either (a) obtain the consent of the Department of Justice to any such acquisition or (b) apply to this Court for permission to acquire any such wholesaler. Such permission will be granted if Bausch & Lomb shall establish to the satisfaction of the Court that the acquisition will not substantially lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in the manufacture or distribution of ophthalmic goods in any section of the country. In the event such a system is established in the territory set forth in Appendix 1 by acquisitions approved by the Department of Justice or the Court or by the opening of new Bausch & Lomb branches, the new branches so opened or acquired shall not be taken into account in determining whether the limitations of the immediately preceding paragraph have been exceeded.

[ Acquisition of Dispensers]

Each defendant is enjoined from engaging in business as a dispenser for a period of 5 years from the date of entry of this Final Judgment.

For a further period of 15 years thereafter, each defendant is enjoined from directly or indirectly acquiring any dispenser without the consent of the Department of Justice or the approval of the Court. If after 60 days notice in writing with respect to any such proposed acquisition is not forthcoming, application for permission to make such acquisition may be made to this Court and such permission will be granted if the defendant establishes to the satisfaction of the Court that the acquisition will not substantially lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in the manufacture or distribution of ophthalmic goods in any section of the country.

VI

[ Contingent Divestiture]

A. If the defendants within 20 years from the date of entry of this Final Judgment should wilfully enter into any agreement between themselves to fix the factory or the wholesale prices of ophthalmic goods sold by them, for the purpose or with the effect of eliminating any independent wholesale laboratory, the plaintiff may apply to this Court for an order divesting defendants of all or any part of their wholesale laboratory branches and the Court shall order divestiture of any such branch or branches as to which the Court finds either (1) that such branch or branches were thus directly employed or intended to be employed as a means of eliminating or attempting to eliminate any independent wholesale laboratory or (2) that divestiture of such branch or branches is necessary to eliminate the effects or to preclude the intended effects of such agreement.

B. If either of the defendants within 20 years from the date of entry of this Final Judgment should wilfully enter into any agreement with any other manufacturer having any wholesale laboratory and having a substantial share of the market for ophthalmic goods at the factory to wholesale level, to fix the factory or the wholesale prices of ophthalmic goods sold by them, for the purpose or with the effect of eliminating any independent wholesale laboratory, the plaintiff may apply to this Court for an order divesting said defendant of all or any part of its wholesale laboratory branches and, if divestiture of any wholesale laboratory of such other manufacturer shall have been ordered to a comparable extent in the same or in any other proceeding based on such agreement, the Court shall order divestiture of such branch or branches of such defendant as to which the Court finds either (1); that such branch or branches were thus directly employed or intended to be employed as a means of eliminating or attempting to eliminate any independent wholesale laboratory or (2) that divestiture of such branch or branches is necessary to eliminate the effects or to preclude the intended effects of such agreement.

G If an order of divestiture is entered it shall require the submission of a plan for divestiture within not more than 6 months from the date of such order and shall require that such divestiture be accomplished within a reasonable time after such plan is approved by the Court.

VII

[ Laboratories—Profit or Loss]

With respect to each of the 20 calendar years commencing January 1, 1967, each of the defendants shall prepare for each of its wholesale laboratories a statement of the profit or loss resulting from such laboratory's operations during such year. Such statements shall be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and shall treat such laboratory, as nearly as may be, as a separate economic unit. This shall mean among other things that

A. The prices charged such laboratory for goods manufactured or sold by such defendant shall be the same as would have been received by such defendant from an independent wholesale laboratory ordering on the same basis.

B. In respect of activities of such defendant at its head office, regional, or any other non-laboratory levels, such laboratory shall be charged the cost of all services received by it of a character which an independent wholesale laboratory would have to do for itself or pay another to do.

C. Account shall be taken of the income from and expenses incurred in connection with all operations relating to the sale of ophthalmic goods and associated supplies and equipment in which such laboratory participates (including, without limitation, prescription business generated in such laboratory's territory and processed at another location), and of such laboratory's role in selling to distributors in its territory.

Each year's statements shall be submitted to the Department of Justice by April 30 of the following calendar year.

Any laboratory which shall be shown to have operated at a loss for 3 years out of any 5-year period, 2 of which 3 years shall have been consecutive, shall be closed or sold and the defendant involved shall not open another wholesale laboratory within the same local trading area for a period of 2 years after such closing or sale, provided, however, that since the object of this provision is to protect against using such laboratories to compete unfairly with others engaged in the wholesale laboratory business, any year in which any such loss resulted from economic, casualty, or other forces or conditions beyond the control of such defendant shall not be counted for this purpose. Examples of such forces or conditions shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

- (i) Losses caused by the charging in good faith of prices to meet the prices charged by a competitor.
- (ii) Losses resulting from increased operating costs incurred in good faith to meet competitive forces or conditions.
- (iii) Losses of a start-up character of a newly-opened laboratory.
- (iv) Losses caused by economic conditions having an adverse effect on such defendant's operations, or by labor disputes, wartime, or other emergency conditions.

VIII

[ Refusal to Deal ]

For a period of 20 years after entry of this Final Judgment each defendant is enjoined and restrained from refusing to sell or threatening to refuse to sell ophthalmic goods to any wholesale laboratory because of the price or prices at which such wholesale laboratory has sold ophthalmic goods.

IX

[ Notice of Judgment ]

Each defendant is ordered and directed to furnish a copy of this Final Judgment to each of its present and future officials, including regional and branch officials, having duties or responsibilities relating to sales of ophthalmic goods and to retain in its files for a period of 20 years from the date of this Final Judgment a written statement signed by each such person setting forth the date he received and read a copy of this Final Judgment, his title, his place of employment, and the name of his immediate supervisor.
