

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,

v.

CHICAGO TRIBUNE-NEW YORK NEWS
SYNDICATE, INC., et al.,
Defendants.

1:20-mc-795

(originally Civil Action Nos. 67 Civ.
4596, 67 Civ. 4597, 67 Civ. 4598)

DECLARATION OF PHILIP ANDRIOLE

I, Philip Andriole, do hereby declare and state as follows:

1. I am an attorney admitted to practice in New York State. I have served as a Trial Attorney in the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice since my admission in February, 2020. Prior to my admission, since September 9, 2019, I served as a law clerk in the Antitrust Division in substantially the same capacity.

2. This Declaration is being submitted in support of the United States of America's Motion to Terminate A Legacy Antitrust Judgment in the above-captioned matter.

3. The statements made in this Declaration are based on the knowledge acquired by me in the performance of my official duties and in conjunction with factual research conducted by other attorneys and staff in the Antitrust Division.

4. In early 2018, the Department of Justice Antitrust Division implemented a program to review and, when appropriate, seek termination of older antitrust judgments in which parties were subjected to some type of affirmative obligation or express prohibition that did not have an expiration date. As part of this process, the Division researched the corporate status of entities subject to these older, legacy antitrust judgments.

5. For the judgment in this case, librarians of the Antitrust Division were instructed to research and confirm the corporate status of the corporate defendants. The librarians searched the following public sources to determine corporate status.

- a. A search of the New York Department of State Division of Corporations database. If the final judgment (as submitted to this Court) or other web search (see below) suggested incorporation information for a defendant in another state, the librarians also checked that state for corporate status.
- b. A search of the Encyclopedia of Associations and IRS Tax Exempt Organization Search, where such organizations or associations were subject to a judgment.
- c. A search of web-based resources for the existence (or succession) of the entity. In addition to general web-based searches, the search included research in one or more of the following resources:
 - i. Lexis and/or Westlaw (news, company, and/or litigation search);
 - ii. historical newspapers from Newsbank, ProQuest, and/or Newspapers.com; and
 - iii. historical company directories held by the Antitrust Division Library.

6. Based on the information provided to me by the librarians, I believe that the sole bound defendant from the 1975 judgment, Globe Newspaper Company, the parent company of the Boston Globe Newspaper, is still in business as Boston Globe Media. However, in September 1993, the Boston Globe was sold to the New York Times Company. Subsequently, in August 2013, the New York Times sold the Boston Globe to the businessman John Henry. On November 25, 2020, I contacted Mr. Dan Krockmalnic, General Counsel of Boston Globe

Media. That day, he confirmed that defendant did not object to the termination of the above-captioned judgment.

Having reviewed this Declaration, I declare, under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
