Hi Caryn,

I'd like to meet with you tomorrow to discuss the R&W role on my team. After 3:30 would probably be best for me-- let me know if you're free then. You do not need to prepare anything in advance. I am open to your input, however, so if you have ideas for how you would ideally like the role to function or work structures that you think would best fit you (e.g., having assignments flow through a single source vs. having team attorneys approach you directly as assignments come up; deadlines, etc.), please come prepared to discuss them.

JP
