Part 9: PROOF OF PRESENCE IN AN AFFECTED AREA.

This section describes methods to establish that the person who became ill was physically present in an affected area during the designated period.

In order to establish presence, you will need to submit certified or original documentation that demonstrates the presence of the person who became ill within an affected area for at least 2 years (24 months cumulatively or consecutively) after January 1, 1949.

For purposes of determining physical presence, a claimant must establish the following:

- The claimant's primary residence was in the affected area;
- The claimant's place of employment was in the affected area; or
- The claimant attended school in the affected area.

Acceptable presence documentation will include either (A) contemporaneous written residential documentation or at least 1 additional employer-issued or government-issued document that the claimant, for at least 2 years after January 1, 1949, was physically present in an affected area; or (B) the name of the person who became ill (or a member of his or her immediate family residing in the same household); indication of residence, employment, or education in an affected zip code; and a specific date.

Documents that can be used to establish presence include, but are not limited to, the following:

Tax Records (property tax rolls)	Personal Letters or Envelopes
School Records	Church/Religious Records
Employment Records	Voting Records
Birth and Marriage Records	Personal Diaries

Unless you file electronically, you must provide certain certified or original documents to establish presence in an affected area. Photocopies of these documents, even if notarized, are not sufficient unless they are certified by the issuing institution.

Generally, there are two ways to certify documents showing presence:

Certified photocopies are often stamped with the seal of the issuing institution. Typically, these seals are either raised, colored or signed in ink. If you have a document that has been stamped, send us that document.

OR

Ask the source of the record to attach a cover letter to the record (signed and dated on letterhead) stating, "the attached record(s) containing [#of pages] pertaining to [name of person in question] is a true and accurate copy of a record kept in our files." This cover page must be signed in ink and attached to the relevant record(s).

Part 10: COMPENSABLE DISEASES.

Examine the list of compensable diseases. Place a check next to the disease that the person who became ill developed. To qualify, the onset of any disease must have occurred at least 2 years after initial exposure. If you are not sure which disease the claimant contracted, you may check more than one box. The illnesses listed are the only diseases for which compensation is available under Section 5A of RECA.

For a complete list of the specific documents accepted for each illness, consult the Medical Records Attachment at the end of this form. To certify the record, ask your source of the record (hospital or doctor's office) to attach a cover letter to the record stating, "the attached medical records consisting of [# of] pages pertaining to [the person who became ill] are true and accurate copies of records kept in our files." Documentation that may be used to establish a diagnosis of a compensable disease includes, but is not limited to, the following:
