PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

The United States Department of Justice is authorized to solicit the information on this form pursuant to the Gambling Devices Act of 1962, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1171–1178 (“the Act”). It is mandatory for persons subject to the Act to disclose, in full, the information solicited on this form to the Department of Justice. Persons who fail to register, in full or in part, when engaged in activities that require such registration can face fines of up to $5,000 and imprisonment of up to two years.

The principal purpose for collecting this information is to control, track, validate, and maintain gambling device registrations in compliance with the Act. In addition to disclosing this information to the appropriate officials and employees within the Department of Justice for the purposes of controlling, tracking, validating and maintaining gambling device registrations, routine uses which may be made of the information collected on this form include, but are not limited to: any criminal, civil, or regulatory law enforcement authority (whether federal, state, local, territorial, tribal, foreign, or international) where the information is relevant to the recipient entity’s law enforcement responsibilities; to contractors, grantees, experts, consultants, students, and others performing or working on a contract, service, grant, cooperative agreement, or other assignment for the Federal government, when necessary to accomplish an agency function related to the corresponding system of records; and to such recipients and under such circumstances and procedures as are mandated by federal statute or treaty.
