ANOTHER PLEADS GUILTY IN BATON ROUGE, LOUISIANA, ON DISASTER RELIEF FRAUD CHARGES

BATON ROUGE, LA – United States Attorney David R. Dugas announced that another Louisiana resident pled guilty today in federal court on fraud charges related to a hurricane disaster relief program.

JOYCE G. MAYFIELD, age 53, of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, pled guilty today before U.S. District Court Judge John V. Parker to Count One of an indictment charging her with making a false and fraudulent claim for disaster assistance benefits. The indictment charged that MAYFIELD filed a false and fraudulent application with the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) for Hurricane Katrina disaster assistance benefits, falsely claiming that she had been living in Gretna, Louisiana, at the time of the storm. The case was investigated by the U.S. Postal Service's Office of Inspector General and the U.S. Department of Homeland Security's Office of Inspector General. As a result of her guilty plea to Count One, MAYFIELD faces a maximum sentence of five years imprisonment, a $250,000 fine, or both. As part of the plea agreement, the U.S. Attorney's Office will dismiss Count Two of the indictment when MAYFIELD is sentenced on Count One.

The number of individuals who have been charged in the Middle District of Louisiana with violations related to hurricane disaster relief funds stands at one hundred forty-five.
