ANGELA E. NOBLE
CLERK U.S. DIST. CT.
S. D. OF FLA. - MIAMI

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT,

Defendant.

INDICTMENT

The Grand Jury charges that:

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

At all times relevant to this Indictment, unless otherwise specified:

RELEVANT INDIVIDUALS AND ENTITIES

1. JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT was a citizen of the United States of America residing in the Southern District of Florida and was a son of Carlos Ramon Polit Faggioni ("Carlos Polit").

2. JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT controlled several companies, incorporated in Florida, including among others, Florida Company 1 through Florida Company 14 (together, the "Florida Companies"), the identities of which are known to the Grand Jury. The Florida Companies maintained bank accounts in the Southern District of Florida.

3. Carlos Polit was a citizen of Ecuador, the United States, and Italy, and served as the comptroller general ("comptroller") of Ecuador from in or around 2007 to 2017 ("the relevant time period”). Ecuador created the office of comptroller to prevent fraud and corruption relating to the use of Ecuador’s public funds. In that role, Carlos Polit had the power to initiate investigations, to impose fines, and to prepare reports relating to the misuse of public funds, including recommending prosecutions.

4. Intermediary Companies 1, 2, and 3 (together, the “Intermediary Companies”) maintained bank accounts in Panama.

5. Odebrecht S.A. was a Brazilian holding company that, through its subsidiaries and companies in which it was a majority shareholder (collectively “Odebrecht”), conducted business in multiple industries, including engineering, construction, infrastructure, energy, chemicals, utilities, and real estate. Odebrecht had its headquarters in Salvador, state of Bahia, Brazil, and operated in at least 27 other countries, including Ecuador.

6. Co-Conspirator 1, an individual whose identity is known to the Grand Jury, was a senior manager at Odebrecht from approximately 2010 to 2016, whose regional responsibility included Ecuador during the relevant time period.

7. Seguros Sucre S.A. and Rocaforte Seguros S.A. (together, “Seguros Sucre”) were state-owned insurance companies of Ecuador controlled by the government of Ecuador.

8. Juan Ribas Domenich (“Juan Ribas”) was the Chairman of Seguros Sucre during part of the relevant time period.

9. Co-Conspirator 2, an individual whose identity is known to the Grand Jury, was an Ecuadorian businessperson who was an insurance broker on certain contracts with Seguros Sucre.

10. Jose Gomez Aviles (“Jose Gomez”), an Ecuadorian citizen and U.S. lawful permanent resident residing in the Southern District of Florida, was an insurance broker on certain contracts with Seguros Sucre.

11. Co-Conspirator 3, an individual whose identity is known to the Grand Jury, was a Spanish businessperson who operated a business in Ecuador.

Conspiracy to Commit Money Laundering
(18 U.S.C. § 1956(h))

1. Paragraphs 1 through 11 of the General Allegations Section are re-alleged and incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

2. From in or around January 2010, continuing until at least December 2018, in the Southern District of Florida, and elsewhere, the defendant, did knowingly and voluntarily combine, conspire, confederate and agree with Carlos Polit, Co-Conspirator 1, Co-Conspirator 2, Co-Conspirator 3, Juan Ribas, Jose Gomez, and others, known and unknown to the Grand Jury, to commit offenses under Title 18, United States Code, Section 1956 and 1957, as follows:

JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT,

a. to knowingly conduct a financial transaction which involved the proceeds of specified unlawful activity, knowing that the property involved in the financial transaction represented the proceeds of some form of unlawful activity, and knowing that the transaction was designed, in whole and in part, to conceal and disguise the nature, location, source, ownership and control of the proceeds of said specified unlawful activity, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1956(a)(1)(B)(i);

b. to knowingly transport, transmit, and transfer a monetary instrument and funds from a place in the United States to and through a place outside the United States, and to a place in the United States from and through a place outside the United States, with the intent to promote the carrying on of specified unlawful activity, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1956(a)(2)(A); and

c. to knowingly engage in a monetary transaction, affecting interstate commerce, by, through, and to a financial institution, in criminally derived property of a value greater than $10,000 that is derived from specified unlawful activity, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1957.

It is further alleged that the specified unlawful activity is an offense against a foreign nation, specifically Ecuador, involving bribery of a public official, and the misappropriation, theft, and embezzlement of public funds by and for the benefit of a public official, as provided by Title 18, United States Code, Section 1956(c)(7)(B)(iv).

PURPOSE OF THE CONSPIRACY

3. It was the purpose of the conspiracy for JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT and Carlos Polit to unlawfully enrich themselves by laundering bribes that Carlos Polit, in his capacity as Comptroller General of Ecuador, solicited and received from Co-Conspirators 1, 2 and 3, among others, into and through bank accounts controlled by JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT in the Southern District of Florida and elsewhere, as well as through the purchase of real estate and other assets in South Florida and elsewhere.

MANNER AND MEANS OF THE CONSPIRACY

The manner and means by which JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT, Carlos Polit, and their co-conspirators sought to accomplish the purpose of the conspiracy included, among other things, the following conduct in the Southern District of Florida and elsewhere:

The Overall Scheme

4. From in or around 2010, and continuing until at least December 2018, JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT caused the proceeds of Carlos Polit's bribery schemes to "disappear" by (a) registering the Florida Companies in Florida in the names of associates; (b) using funds received from Carlos Polit's bribery schemes to purchase and renovate real estate in South Florida and elsewhere and to purchase restaurants, a dry cleaner, and other businesses; and (c) causing these real estate assets and other businesses to be held in the name of the Florida Companies to conceal that these assets were for the benefit of Carlos Polit, JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT, and their relatives.

Laundering of Odebrecht Bribes

5. Beginning in or around 2010, and continuing until at least 2014, Carlos Polit solicited and received bribe payments from Co-Conspirator 1 in exchange for using Carlos Polit's official position and influence as comptroller of Ecuador to remove and prevent the imposition of large fines on Odebrecht by the comptroller's office relating to Odebrecht's construction projects in Ecuador.

6. From in or around 2010 to 2014, Co-Conspirator 1 paid approximately $11 million in cash bribes to Carlos Polit in exchange for Carlos Polit using his official position as comptroller to influence official actions by the Ecuador comptroller's office in order to benefit Odebrecht and its business in Ecuador. In furtherance of the scheme, Carlos Polit told Co-Conspirator 1 that JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT made the money "disappear."

7. In or around 2013 and 2014, Carlos Polit provided cash to Co-Conspirator 2 in Ecuador. At the direction of JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT and Carlos Polit, Co-Conspirator 2 used some of the cash to fund wire transfers to accounts in South Florida controlled by JOHN

CHRISTOPHER POLIT. At the direction of Carlos Polit, Co-Conspirator 2 also used the cash to purchase an apartment in Ecuador under the name of a Panamanian shell company for use by Carlos Polit ("Ecuador Apartment").

8. In or around 2014, Co-Conspirator 1 requested that Carlos Polit accept bribe payments from Odebrecht through bank wire transfers rather than in cash and requested that Carlos Polit provide bank account wiring instructions to facilitate making bribe payments.

9. In or around 2014, JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT provided Carlos Polit with bank account wiring information for accounts of Intermediary Companies 1, 2, and 3 in Panama to receive the Odebrecht bribe payments.

10. From in or around April to November 2014, Carlos Polit caused Odebrecht to make at least three million dollars in bribe payments for the benefit of Carlos Polit by wire transfer to accounts in Panama of Intermediary Companies 1, 2 and 3. By causing these international wire transfers, for which payment cleared through U.S. correspondent banks, JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT, Odebrecht, Carlos Polit, and others promoted the unlawful scheme to bribe Carlos Polit to influence official actions of the Ecuadorian comptroller's office.

11. From in or around June 2014 through March 2016, JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT and Intermediary Companies 1, 2 and 3 wire transferred millions of dollars in funds from accounts in Panama to an account of Florida Company 1 at a bank in South Florida and subsequently to other accounts, including accounts of other Florida Companies, for the purchase of assets in South Florida and elsewhere for the benefit of Carlos Polit, JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT, and their relatives.

12. From in or around 2014 through in or around 2015, JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT and Carlos Polit caused funds derived from the bribes Carlos Polit received from Odebrecht and Co-Conspirator 2 to be used to upgrade a luxury residence in Coral Gables held in the name of Florida Company 4.

13. In or around May 2016, JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT and Carlos Polit caused funds derived from bribes Carlos Polit received from Odebrecht to be used to purchase an office building in Coral Gables for $2.6 million, held in the name of Florida Company 5 for the benefit of Carlos Polit, JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT, and their relatives.

Laundering of Bribes Related to Seguro Sucre Contracts & Other Matters

14. In or around 2015, Carlos Polit solicited and agreed to receive a bribe of approximately $500,000 from Co-Conspirator 2 in exchange for using Carlos Polit's official position and influence as comptroller to assist Co-Conspirator 2 in obtaining contracts from Seguros Sucre that benefitted Co-Conspirator 2's company.

15. In or around 2015, Carlos Polit caused Juan Ribas (then head of Seguros Sucre) to award Seguros Sucre contracts in a manner that benefitted Co-Conspirator 2's company.

16. In or around December 2015, JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT and Carlos Polit caused Co-Conspirator 2 to wire transfer the bribe payment of approximately $510,000 to an account of Florida Company 2 in South Florida on or about December 2, 2015, for the benefit of Carlos Polit, JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT, and their relatives. JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT referred to Carlos Polit as the "amigo" or "friend" when discussing the matter with Co-Conspirator 2. JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT created and caused to be sent to Co-Conspirator 2 a false and fraudulent invoice for purported "technical advice" in connection with this payment.

17. In or around 2015, JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT e-mailed Co-Conspirator 3 to request the payment of a bribe for the "amigo."

18. In or around 2015, Carlos Polit e-mailed and communicated by phone with JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT with regard to Carlos Polit providing assistance with a tax matter involving Co-Conspirator 3's company by seeking to influence the President's office in Ecuador.

19. In or around late 2015, JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT and Jose Gomez met at JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT's residence in Coral Gables. At this meeting, JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT explained how his father, Carlos Polit, could influence the award of a Seguros Sucre contract for a particular project (the "Coca Codo Sinclair project") to benefit Jose Gomez's company. During that meeting, JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT and Jose Gomez agreed that, in exchange for Carlos Polit influencing the award of the Coca Codo Sinclair policy to benefit Jose Gomez's company, Jose Gomez would use the approximately $2 million commission to pay an approximately $1 million bribe for the benefit of JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT and Carlos Polit.

20. In or around June 2016, Carlos Polit met with Juan Ribas at the comptroller's office in Ecuador. At this meeting, Carlos Polit told Juan Ribas to award the contract for the Coca Codo Sinclair project for Seguros Sucre through the company that would benefit Jose Gomez and his business partner.

21. Later in 2016, JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT met with Juan Ribas at a restaurant in Coral Gables and told Juan Ribas to inform him, JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT, when Seguros Sucre made payments on the Coca Codo Sinclair policy because he, JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT, was helping his father collect "commissions."

22. On or about April 28, 2017, JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT sold a luxury residence in Coral Gables, upgraded with proceeds derived from the Odebrecht and Seguros Sucre bribery schemes, for approximately $4.1 million. JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT transferred the proceeds from the sale to accounts controlled by him and used proceeds from the sale for his and his family's personal benefit.

23. In or around December 2018, Carlos Polit and Co-Conspirator 2 met in downtown Miami. At this meeting, Carlos Polit offered Co-Conspirator 2 to keep the Ecuador Apartment to repay a real estate investment made by Co-Conspirator 2 with JOHN CHRISTOPHER POLIT in South Florida. Co-Conspirator 2 agreed.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1956(h).

COUNTS 2 - 4
Money Laundering
