RE: Closing Memorandum -- Antanas POCIUS (OSI #596)

Antanas POCIUS came to the attention of OSI during this Office's Project 4 investigations of Lithuanian Schutzmannschaft 12th Battalion members. A person of the same name is shown in Battalion records to have been a private, rifleman in the 2nd Squad, 1st Platoon of the 2nd Company. Also, an arrest warrant for a 12th Battalion deserter named Antanas POCIUS reported a date and place of birth of January 25, 1916 in Vilnius, Lithuania.

POCIUS was born January 1, 1917 in Janapolis, Lithuania. On his immigrant visa, he claimed to have resided in Wilna from 1939 to 1941, in Kelme from 1941 to 1944, in Salaspils concentration camp from May to August 1944, and that his occupation had been a teacher. He applied for and obtained an immigrant visa under the Immigration Act of 1924, and entered the United States on June 13, 1948. He became a United States Citizen on June 14, 1954. POCIUS' current address is (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) Elizabeth, New Jersey 07208.

In order to confirm the statements about his wartime activities and to determine if he might have been involved in or assisted with acts of persecution or war crimes, the standard domestic and foreign checks were requested, and the results are as follows:

FBI: Negative -- reported they possessed information pertaining to an "Antanas POCIUS," but it did not relate to the POCIUS who is the subject of this investigation.

Closing form to (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) 4/19/94

DIS: Negative -- no information.

CIC: Negative -- reported they possessed information pertaining to an "Antanas POCIUS," but it did not relate to the POCIUS who is the subject of this investigation.

ITS: Positive -- report confirms information as reported on immigration paperwork.

BDC: Negative -- no information.

WASt: Negative -- no information.

KBL: Negative -- no information.

While POCIUS date and place of birth was different than that on the arrest warrant, it was thought that he could have lied about it to alter his age. The suspicion of his 12th Battalion membership was fueled by his admission that he had been in Salispils in 1944, since the POCIUS who was in the 12th battalion deserted in September 1943 and, if he had been caught, may well have been sent to Salispils, which had a special punishment camp for Schuma men. An interview was attempted to clarify the situation.

On September 10, 1993, Trial Attorney (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and Criminal Investigator (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) visited POCIUS at his residence to discuss with him information about his possible Lithuanian Schutzmannschaft membership. POCIUS voluntarily agreed to meet with Trial Attorney (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and Criminal Investigator (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) POCIUS denied service in any military or police organizations during the German occupation of Lithuania, and claimed to be a teacher until the time of his arrest by the Germans, in May 1944. POCIUS claimed he had been arrested because of his involvement in underground activities. After his arrest, POCIUS was imprisoned in Kaunas Fort VI, then Salaspils, and then Danzig, from which he escaped. POCIUS and his wife explained his name on a 12th Battalion roster by stating that his name is a common name (so common, they claimed, that there are several people in the United States and Canada by the same name).

Trial Attorney (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and Criminal Investigator (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) also report that POCIUS appeared quite frail, and stated that he was still recovering from open heart surgery he had undergone in January 1993.

Given that POCIUS' story is consistent with that in his immigration paperwork, and inconsistent with the arrest order that describes the POCIUS who was in the 12th Battalion, it appears that he is not the right man. For this reason, we recommend that this case be closed. POCIUS' health situation merely underscores the correctness of closing this case.
