2. The purpose of the SCRA is to provide servicemembers with protections to enable them to devote their entire energy to the defense needs of the Nation and to protect their civil rights during military service. See 50 U.S.C. § 3902. One of those protections is that, for mortgage obligations that originated before the period of the servicemember's military service, the servicemember's home may not be sold or foreclosed upon for breach of that obligation during, or within one year after, the period of the servicemember's military service, unless there is a court order or valid waiver of SCRA rights. See 50 U.S.C. § 3953.

3. A person or entity who forecloses, without a court order, on property owned by a servicemember protected under Section 3953(a) of the SCRA violates that servicemember's federally protected rights under the SCRA. This lawsuit is brought to vindicate the rights of servicemembers whose homes were wrongly foreclosed upon by Defendant, to vindicate the public interest, and to protect servicemembers from future violations of their rights. See 50 U.S.C. § 4041(b).

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1345, and 50 U.S.C. § 4041.

5. The United States District Court for the Western District of Washington is a proper venue for this action under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) because Defendant's principal place of business is in the Western District of Washington, Defendant conducts business within the Western District of Washington, and a substantial part of the events and omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in the Western District of Washington.

III. DEFENDANT

6. Defendant is a Washington corporation, with a principal place of business at 13555
SE 36th St., Bellevue, Washington. Defendant is a trustee company that, until it ceased active operations on or about December 12, 2017, provided default services to mortgage lenders in the Western United States. Defendant has conducted foreclosures without court orders (also known as non-judicial foreclosures) on behalf of mortgage lenders in Alaska, California, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Oregon, and Washington.

IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

7. Between January 1, 2010 and the present, Defendant initiated and completed at least 28 foreclosures, without court orders, of real property owned by SCRA-protected servicemembers.

8. At the time of the foreclosures, the individuals who owned the foreclosed properties were servicemembers who were in military service, as defined by 50 U.S.C. § 3911(1) and (2), had completed a period of military service within the past year (or nine months for foreclosures before February 2, 2013), see 50 U.S.C. § 3953(c), or were members of a reserve component who had been ordered to report for military service, as defined by 50 U.S.C § 3917(a).

9. Defendant conducted non-judicial foreclosures even when it knew or should have known that borrowers were SCRA-protected servicemembers.

10. The Department of Defense provides those seeking to comply with the SCRA an automated database run by the Defense Manpower Data Center ("DMDC database"), to check whether individuals are SCRA-protected servicemembers. Defendant failed to take adequate steps to identify protected servicemembers.

Case 2:17-cv-01686-JLR Document 10 Filed 01/08/18 Page 4 of 9

11. On December 6, 2006, Jacob McGreevey, a Marine veteran who had served three tours of duty in the Middle East, most recently in Iraq, refinanced his home mortgage loan for his house in Vancouver, Washington with PHH Mortgage Corporation ("PHH"). On May 18, 2009, Mr. McGreevey was called to active military service in the United States Marine Corps, to serve a fourth tour of duty, again in Iraq. Defendant, as trustee for PHH, had begun foreclosure proceedings on the property prior to Mr. McGreevey's active service, on January 16, 2009, but those proceedings were placed on hold in November 2009 due to an attempt at a loss mitigation workout. Defendant again began non-judicial foreclosure proceedings on May 20, 2010, while Mr. McGreevey was serving in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom.

12. On June 21, 2010, Mr. McGreevey was released from active service. On August 20, 2010, Defendant completed a foreclosure sale on PHH's behalf. In completing the foreclosure, Defendant did not obtain a court order. Defendant maintained notes of the foreclosure process, which show that Defendant knew that Mr. McGreevey had recently left military service. The relevant entry, dated August 19, 2010, states: "SCRA Search - Active Duty No – Active Duty End Date 6/21/2010."

13. On May 6, 2016, Mr. McGreevey filed a lawsuit against PHH in this Court, alleging SCRA violations, among other claims. Also on May 6, 2016, Mr. McGreevey submitted a complaint to the Department of Justice's Servicemembers and Veterans Initiative website, at www.servicemembers.gov. The United States did not learn, and reasonably could not have known, about Defendant's conduct with regard to Mr. McGreevey's property until after Mr. McGreevey submitted his complaint to DOJ. On September 23, 2016, after receiving information from PHH about Defendant's role in the foreclosure, Mr. McGreevey filed an amended complaint adding Northwest Trustee Services as a defendant. Defendant moved to dismiss Mr. McGreevey's lawsuit

1 on statute of limitations grounds. On December 15, 2016, the Court granted Defendant's motion
2 and dismissed the amended complaint.

14. After the dismissal of Mr. McGreevey's suit, on February 2, 2017, the Department of Justice notified Defendant that it was opening an investigation into Defendant's foreclosure practices. The Department requested and obtained documents and information from Defendant, including a list of foreclosures that Defendant had conducted without a court order since January 1, 2010. For each such foreclosure, Defendant provided the property address, foreclosure sale date, and the names and Social Security Numbers of all borrowers and co-borrowers on the mortgage. The documents and information revealed that Defendant had conducted unlawful foreclosures against Mr. McGreevey and at least 27 other protected servicemembers.

15. Prior to filing the initial Complaint in this action, the United States informed Defendant of the 28 specific foreclosure sales between 2010 and 2014 that it believes violated Section 3953 of the SCRA. The majority of these foreclosures took place in Washington, with the rest occurring in Arizona, California, Idaho, Montana, and Oregon.

V. CLAIM FOR RELIEF

16. Paragraphs 1 through 15 are re-alleged and incorporated by reference.

17. The SCRA provides that, for an "obligation on real or personal property owned by a servicemember that – (1) originated before the period of the servicemember's military service and for which the servicemember is still obligated; and (2) is secured by a mortgage, trust deed, or other security in the nature of a mortgage," 50 U.S.C. § 3953(a), "[a] sale, foreclosure, or seizure of property for a breach of [such] an obligation...shall not be valid if made during, or within one year after,¹ the period of the servicemember's military service except -(1) upon a court order granted before such sale, foreclosure, or seizure with a return made and approved by the court; or (2) if made pursuant to an agreement as provided in section 3918 of this title." 50 U.S.C. § 3953(c).

4 18. By the conduct referred to in the foregoing paragraphs, Defendant has engaged in 5 a pattern or practice of violating Section 3953 of the SCRA, 50 U.S.C. § 3953, by foreclosing, 6 without court orders, upon at least 28 homes owned by SCRA-protected servicemembers.

19. Defendant's violations of Section 3953 of the SCRA, 50 U.S.C. § 3953, including the foreclosure of Mr. McGreevey's home, raise issues of significant public importance.

9 20. The servicemembers whose homes were foreclosed upon without court orders in 10 violation of the SCRA are "person[s] aggrieved" pursuant to 50 U.S.C. § 4041(b)(2) and have 11 suffered damages as a result of Defendant's conduct.

21. Defendant's conduct was intentional, willful, and taken in disregard for the rights of servicemembers.
