SUPERSEDING INDICTMENT

The Grand Jury in and for the District of New Jersey, sitting at Newark, charges:

COUNT ONE
(Racketeering Conspiracy)

The Racketeering Enterprise

1. At various times relevant to this Superseding Indictment, in the District of New Jersey, and elsewhere, defendants JASON FRANKLIN, a/k/a “Freak,” a/k/a “OG Freak” (“FRANKLIN”); ELIJAH WILLIAMS, a/k/a “Lil Smith” (“WILLIAMS”); TRE BYRD, a/k/a “Bandz,” a/k/a “G Bandz” (“BYRD”); Kareem Green, a/k/a “Try Me” (“GREEN”); Tyheim Terry, a/k/a “Ty,” a/k/a “Rollin’ Ty” (“TERRY”); AMIR WARDEN, a/k/a “Stampz,” a/k/a “Killa” (“WARDEN”); Rahjon Cox, a/k/a “Tsu Surf” (“COX”); Amir Edmonds, a/k/a “G Baby” (“EDMONDS”); Abdul Yarrell, a/k/a “Runit Up,” a/k/a “BB” (“YARRELL”); Nygee Johnson, a/k/a “Gito” (“JOHNSON”) and others, known and unknown, were members and associates of a criminal organization known as the Rollin’ 60s Neighborhood Crips (the “Rollin’ 60s” or the “Enterprise”). The Rollin’ 60s, including its leadership, members, and associates, constituted an enterprise, as defined in Title 18, United States Code, Section 1961(4), namely, a group of individuals associated in fact that engaged in, and the activities of which affected, interstate and foreign commerce. The enterprise constituted an ongoing organization whose members and associates functioned as a continuing unit for a common purpose of achieving the objectives of the enterprise.

History, Rules, and Organization of the Rollin’ 60s Crips

2. The Enterprise originated in the West Side of South Los Angeles and now operates in numerous states, including but not limited to California, Pennsylvania, North Carolina, Florida, Tennessee, and New Jersey. Members and associates of the Enterprise within the District of New Jersey operate under the umbrella of the Silverbacc Gorillas, or “SBG,” and are then further divided into “districts” and “units.”

3. The Rollin’ 60s operated throughout the District of New Jersey, including in Essex, Middlesex, and Mercer Counties, as well as within the New Jersey prison system. At all relevant times, FRANKLIN, WILLIAMS, BYRD, GREEN, TERRY, WARDEN, COX, EDMONDS, YARRELL, and JOHNSON operated in and around Essex County, and WARDEN also operated in and around Union County.

4. The Rollin’ 60s members and associates followed certain traditions and protocols of the Enterprise, including:

a. visible demonstrations of gang affiliation, such as an identification with the colors blue and white, which appear in clothing, hats, and bandanas that Rollin’ 60s members wear;

b. greeting each other with the phrase, “NH,” which is an acronym for “neighborhood,” and thus shorthand for “Neighborhood Crip,” and referring to each other as “Hoodsta” and “Loc”;

c. using of social media platforms to proclaim their affiliation and highlight the Enterprise by posting gang-related photographs and videos and to communicate with other members and associates; and

d. tattoos, slogans, and hand gestures signifying membership in the Rollin’ 60s.

5. The rules governing the Rollin' 60s establish, among other things:
 - a. a hierarchical power structure in which members are given designations or ranks signifying their status within the gang and;
 - b. a system of discipline and punishment for those members who violated rules or failed to carry out orders from higher-ups.

6. Members and associates of the Rollin' 60s engaged in, or controlled, drug trafficking and other criminal activities in various neighborhoods and public-housing complexes in and around Newark, Irvington, Elizabeth, and East Orange, including, among others:
 - a. Within Newark, between Sanford Avenue to Stuyvesant Avenue, from South Orange Avenue to Tremont Avenue, as well as in the Blue Hills region of Newark, located in the vicinity of Clifton Avenue and Victoria Avenue, and on Livingston Street, between 18th Avenue and Avon Avenue. The Enterprise's primary area for narcotics distribution within Newark was South Orange Avenue and Salem Street.
 - b. Within Irvington, the Crescent Lane public-housing complex ("Crescent Lane") and its surrounding vicinity, bordered by Nye and Lyons Avenues, from Lincoln Place to Ball Street. The Enterprise's primary area for narcotics distribution outside Crescent Lane was between Lyons and Union Avenues. Within Crescent Lane, the Enterprise operated primarily within Building Eight.
 - c. Within Elizabeth, the Mravlag Manor housing complex and its surrounding vicinity, located within the Bayway section of the City.

d. Within East Orange, on Ashland Avenue between Park Avenue and William Street, which was an area referred to as “Cashland.”

Purposes of the Rollin’ 60s Crips Enterprise

7. The purposes of the Rollin’ 60s included the following:

a. promoting and enhancing the Enterprise and the activities of its members and associates, both in and out of prison, which activities included, but were not limited to, drug trafficking, murder, robbery, automobile theft, and other criminal activities;

b. preserving and protecting the power, territory, reputation, and profits of the Enterprise and of its members and associates, both in and out of prison, through the use of intimidation, violence, threats of violence, assaults, and murder;

c. providing assistance to gang members and associates who were imprisoned after having committed crimes on behalf of the Enterprise;

d. confronting and retaliating against rival gangs through intimidation, threats of violence, and acts of violence; and

e. hindering, obstructing, and preventing law enforcement from identifying participants in the gang’s criminal activity, from apprehending the offenders of those crimes, and from successfully prosecuting and punishing those offenders.

Members and Associates of the Enterprise

8. FRANKLIN was a senior member of the Rollin’ 60s. Among other responsibilities, FRANKLIN communicated with leaders of the Rollin’ 60s in other states, to include California and Pennsylvania, and issued orders that lower members of the Rollin' 60s were expected to follow.

9. WARDEN was a senior member of the Rollin' 60s. Among other responsibilities, WARDEN organized the transport of large quantities of marijuana from California and other places to New Jersey and elsewhere. WARDEN also coordinated drug distribution, including heroin and marijuana, in and around Irvington and Elizabeth.

10. WILLIAMS, BYRD, TERRY, COX, EDMONDS, JOHNSON, and YARRELL were members of the Rollin' 60s who operated, among other places, in and around Smith Street and South Orange Avenue.

11. GREEN was a member of the Rollin' 60s who operated, among other places, in and around Crescent Lane.

The Racketeering Conspiracy

12. Beginning at least as early as in or about 2015, and continuing through the date of this Superseding Indictment, in the District of New Jersey, and elsewhere, the defendants,

NYGEE JOHNSON, and a/k/a “Gito”

together with others known and unknown, being persons employed by and associated with the Rollin’ 60s Crips, an enterprise engaged in, and the activities of which affected, interstate and foreign commerce, knowingly and intentionally conspired and agreed with others to violate Title 18, United States Code, Section 1962(c), that is to conduct and participate, directly and indirectly, in the conduct of the affairs of the Rollin’ 60s Crips enterprise through a pattern of racketeering activity, as defined in Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1961(1) and (5), which pattern of racketeering activity consisted of:

a. multiple offenses involving murder, contrary to N.J.S.A. 2C:11-3(a)(1), 2C:11-3(a)(2), 2C:5-1(a), 2C:5-2, and 2C:2-6;

b. multiple offenses involving robbery, contrary to N.J.S.A. 2C:15-1(a)(1), 2C:5-1(a), 2C:5-2, and 2C:2-6;

c. multiple offenses involving the felonious manufacture, importation, receiving, concealment, buying, selling, and otherwise dealing in a controlled substance punishable under the laws of the United States, in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Section 846 (conspiracy to distribute and possess with intent to distribute controlled substances), Section 841 (distribution and possession with intent to distribute controlled substances), and Section 843(b) (use of a communications facility to violate the Controlled Substances Act);

d. multiple offenses indictable under Title 18, United States Code, Section 1029 (relating to fraud and related activity in connection with access devices);

e. multiple offenses indictable under Title 18, United States Code, Section 1343 (relating to wire fraud);

f. multiple offenses indictable under Title 18, United States Code, Section 1344 (relating to financial institution fraud); and

g. multiple offenses indictable under Title 18, United States Code, Section 1512 (relating to tampering with a witness, victim, or an informant).

13. It was part of the conspiracy that each defendant agreed that a conspirator would commit at least two acts of racketeering activity in the conduct of the affairs of the Enterprise.

Manner and Means of the Conspiracy

14. Among the manner and means by which the defendants and other members and associates of the Rollin' 60s agreed to conduct and participate in the conduct of the affairs of the Enterprise were the following:

a. It was part of the conspiracy that the members and associates of the Rollin' 60s acquired and maintained weapons, including firearms, to commit violent criminal acts on behalf of the Enterprise.

b. It was further part of the conspiracy that the members and associates of the Rollin' 60s shared firearms to use in committing violent criminal acts.

c. It was further part of the conspiracy that the members and associates of the Rollin' 60s committed, attempted, agreed, and threatened to commit violent acts, including murder and assault with deadly weapons, to avenge attacks or perceived slights against other members and associates of the Rollin' 60s; to punish Enterprise members and associates who had been disloyal; to retaliate against rivals; to maintain and enhance the reputation of the Rollin' 60s; and to protect and otherwise assist their drug trafficking business.

d. It was further part of the conspiracy that participation in criminal activity by a member, particularly violent acts directed at rivals or as directed by the gang leadership, increased the respect accorded to that member, resulted in that member's maintaining and increasing position in the gang, and could result in a promotion to a leadership position.

e. It was further part of the conspiracy that members and associates of the Rollin' 60s used social media, including Instagram and Facebook, to intimidate witnesses and other members of the community, to promote the Rollin' 60s, and to share amongst members and associates information relating to members and associates of the Enterprise suspected of being disloyal to the Enterprise, as well as individuals who provided information to law enforcement related to the Enterprise's criminal activities.

f. It was further part of the conspiracy that members and associates of the conspiracy enriched themselves through drug trafficking, wire fraud, bank fraud, access device fraud, car theft, carjacking, and robberies.

Overt Acts

15. In furtherance of the conspiracy and to achieve its purposes, the defendants and their coconspirators committed the following overt acts, among others, in the District of New Jersey, and elsewhere:

a. Beginning at least as early as in or around 2015, numerous members and associates of the Rollin' 60s, including, but not limited to, the defendants, engaged in multiple acts of distribution of controlled substances, and possession with intent to distribute controlled substances, in and around the District of New Jersey.

b. Beginning at least as early as in or around 2015, the defendants and other members and associates of the Rollin' 60s used social media, to include Instagram and Facebook, to conduct the business of the enterprise, including: raising funds for the Enterprise's members; referencing penalties for violating the Rollin' 60s rules; discussing the initiation of new members; scheduling meetings; and paying homage to members and associates of the Rollin' 60s who were killed.

c. Beginning at least as early as in or around 2015, the defendants and other members and associates of the Rollin' 60s used social media, including: Instagram and Facebook, to conduct the illegal activities of the Enterprise, to include planning violent activities; purchasing, selling and exchanging firearms; and coordinating drug sales.

d. From at least as early as in or around 2017 through at least in or around 2020, FRANKLIN used social media, to include Instagram and Facebook, to vouch for other members and associates of the Rollin' 60s, or to confirm whether any such individuals were "certified"—or legitimate—members of the Enterprise.

e. On or about December 6, 2017, FRANKLIN, using Instagram user ID "6ig_kahuna," communicated with another member and associate of the Enterprise ("Co-Conspirator-1") regarding illegal drug sales.
