The accompanying Statement of Expenditures summarizes the financial activity of the Special Counsel's Office (SCO) of John Durham for the period October 1, 2022 through March 31, 2023. As an organization within the Department of Justice, the SCO is required to comply with the rules, regulations, procedures, practices, and policies of the Department of Justice.¹ SCO management is responsible for designing, operating, and maintaining a system of internal control to enable the SCO to accurately report its financial information to the Department and meet the requirements of applicable laws and regulations. In addition, SCO management is responsible for ensuring that controls exist to meet the requirements of DOJ Order 2030.4G, Control of Funds under Apportionment.

The Department recognizes the importance of maintaining adequate internal control and is committed to the continuous improvement and oversight of financial management controls. The Department has a network of internal review groups that provides assistance to components with their internal control programs. As part of the Department's annual assessment of internal control over financial reporting, the Justice Management Division, Internal Review and Evaluation Office conducted a review of SCO business processes related to budget, obligations and expenditures, and financial reporting during the assessment period of October 1, 2022 through March 31, 2023. The review identified no material weaknesses or significant deficiencies in the design or operation of SCO controls.

The Department will continue to dedicate and leverage resources to maintain strong program and financial management controls. Management takes its program and financial accountability seriously and is dedicated to ensuring that funds are used in a responsible and transparent manner.
