Dear Tribal Leader,

We are pleased to invite you to government-to-government Tribal consultations and accompanying listening sessions with the Department of Justice's Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP) on OJJDP priorities, proposed regulations, and how OJJDP funding can best support Tribes to enhance and expand efforts to prevent and reduce delinquency and improve juvenile justice systems. A framing paper outlining issues for discussion accompanies this letter.

Sessions have been scheduled as follows:

Lower 48 Tribes

September 27, 2023, 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. ET

Registration: <https://ojpmeetings.webex.com/weblink/register/r05d1c1798da976efc7f787664fc7cd15>

Please note that you will be asked to provide your name, Tribal affiliation, Tribal leadership position, and email when registering or joining the call. Consultation with Tribal leaders will occur first, directly followed by listening sessions with other interested parties.

OJJDP welcomes your written comments which should be submitted either by email to OJJDP Tribal Consultation@ojp.usdoj.gov or by mail to OJJDP, Attention: Tribal Team, 810 Seventh Street NW, Washington, DC 20531 by November 27, 2023.

If you have any questions regarding this Tribal Consultation and Listening Session series, please contact OJJDP Senior Advisor Marcia Good at Marcia.good2@usdoj.gov, or by phone at 202–616–3534. We look forward to your participation in these important government-to-government consultations and listening sessions.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Ryan, Administrator
