I understand. My comments were directed as much at the being exposed to child molestation parts as the office drama. We tend to laugh it off day to day, but everyone of us have suffered through it and it really is okay to talk about it if you need to.

I'm totally fine, we are figuring out a ton of useful information about this case and connecting some dots. It is just intense to read about child molestation all day.

Strickland v. US
Trial Ex.
177

US00007551

The meeting was primarily to inform Mr. [REDACTED]. I don't need you to go with me; I just asked if you wanted to go and took your response as a yes. It's fine for you to not.

I did notice that you looked pretty unhappy earlier. I hope you feel better. I'm happy to offer a drink and an ear if you need one, though I get the feeling you are not comfortable talking to me about it. Might I suggest Mary Ellen? She's completely separate from all aspects of this and would give you some good perspective.

My apologies, I have been completely absorbed in the Dixon matter. I am doing some more research here and then I was planning on leaving a little early. I am completely mentally and emotionally exhausted.

This is to discuss with him the plea options? Not sure if you really need me to go with you but if so then Monday would probably work better for me. Thanks, Caryn
