NOTICE & ORDER – COMPLAINANT OPPORTUNITY TO E-FILE RESPONSE

This case arises under the antidiscrimination provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1324b. On November 15, 2023, Complainant, Zaji Obatala Zajradhara, filed a complaint with the Office of the Chief Administrative Hearing Officer (OCAHO) against Respondent, Blossom Corporation.

On August 27, 2024, Respondent filed its Motion for Summary Decision and for Sanctions. Complainant attempted to respond to this motion; however, his filing was rejected.

OCAHO ALJs “shall have all appropriate powers necessary to conduct fair and impartial hearings.” 28 C.F.R. § 68.28(a). This Complainant is pro se and has demonstrated a desire to participate in these proceedings. To the extent this Complainant desires an opportunity to be heard, (and he has been unable to re-submit his filing by mail), the Court now permits him to re-file his submission electronically. This submission must include a certificate of service and must be served on Respondent. Complainant may submit this filing electronically by sending it to: sctc.ocado@usdoj.gov. Any response filed after January 31, 2025 may be deemed untimely.

SO ORDERED.

Dated and entered on December 4, 2024.
