UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO JUDICIAL DISTRICT

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, et al.,

 Plaintiffs,

 v.

ORACLE CORPORATION,

 Defendant.

CASE NO. C 04-0807 VRW

PROTECTIVE ORDER

In the interest of ensuring an efficient and prompt resolution of this action and of protecting confidential information from improper disclosure, the undersigned hereby stipulate, subject to approval and entry by the Court, to the following Protective Order issued pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c):

A. DEFINITIONS

1. As used herein:

- a. "This action" means the above-captioned action pending in this Court, including any related discovery, pretrial, trial, post-trial, or appellate proceedings.
- b. "Party" means a plaintiff or a defendant in this action.
- c. "Protected third party" means a non-party that produced or produces any investigation material or litigation material to a party.
- d. "Investigation material" means any information, documents, testimony, declarations, oral examination transcripts, depositions, presentations, or other materials produced to a party in connection with plaintiff Department of Justice's or plaintiff States' investigations of Oracle Corp.'s proposed acquisition of PeopleSoft, Inc. (hereinafter, the "Proposed Acquisition") or otherwise relating to the Proposed Acquisition, regardless of whether those

1 materials are produced voluntarily or in response to a Civil Investigative Demand, subpoena, or 2 other formal or informal discovery process.

3 e. "Litigation material" means information, documents, testimony, 4 declarations, oral examination transcripts, depositions, presentations, or any other materials 5 produced to a party in connection with this action, regardless of whether those materials are 6 produced voluntarily or in response to a Civil Investigative Demand, subpoena, or other formal 7 or informal discovery process.

8 f. "Confidential information" means any party's or protected third party's 9 trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, as such 10 terms are used in Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c)(7).

11 g. "Protected information" means information designated as "BUSINESS 12 SENSITIVE" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" under Paragraphs 2 and 3, below.

13 h. "Produce" means directly or indirectly show, divulge, reveal, disclose, 14 describe, transmit, publish or otherwise communicate, in whole or in part.

15 i. "Document" is defined as the term is used in Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(a).

16 B. DESIGNATION OF PROTECTED INFORMATION

17 2. A party or protected third party may designate as "BUSINESS SENSITIVE" any 18 investigation materials or litigation materials it produced or produces, either voluntarily or 19 pursuant to discovery in this action, to any party in connection with this action, to the extent such 20 information constitutes confidential information as defined in this Order. Such designations 21 shall constitute a representation to the Court that such party or protected person (and counsel, if 22 any) in good faith believes that the information so designated constitutes confidential 23 information.

24 3. A party or protected third party may designate as "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" 25 any investigation materials or litigation materials it produced or produces, either voluntarily or 26 pursuant to discovery in this action, to any party in connection with this action, if the party or 27 protected third party believes in good faith that the material contains confidential information, 28 that such material is highly sensitive, and that disclosure to persons other than those listed in 1 Paragraph 9 is likely to cause substantial competitive harm.

2 4. Investigation materials or litigation materials that a party or protected third person 3 seeks to designate as “BUSINESS SENSITIVE” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” in accordance 4 with this Order shall be designated as such by placing on or affixing to the document or 5 transcript containing confidential information (in such a manner as will not interfere with the 6 document’s legibility), the designation “BUSINESS SENSITIVE” or “HIGHLY 7 CONFIDENTIAL” as appropriate, or any other appropriate notice, together with an indication of 8 the portion or portions of the document considered to be confidential information. With respect 9 to electronic documents, the party or protected third party at the time such information is 10 produced shall specify in writing the information that is “BUSINESS SENSITIVE” or 11 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL.” Investigation material previously produced to a party shall be 12 designated as “BUSINESS SENSITIVE” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” by forwarding a 13 letter to all parties identifying the confidential information (by ranges of document identification 14 numbers or page and line numbers where applicable, or other appropriate means) to be so 15 designated. If the entire document is not confidential, the party or protected third party shall 16 specify the portions of the document that contains confidential information.

17 5. Within five business days of notice of entry of this Order, any party who 18 previously produced investigation materials to another party shall designate any such materials
19 as “BUSINESS SENSITIVE” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL,” to the extent such information 20 constitutes protected information as defined in this Order.

21 6. Within three business days of notice of entry of this Order, any party who 22 previously received investigation materials or litigation materials from any protected third party 23 will provide a written notice and a copy of this Order to that protected third party, with a copy of 24 the notice to all other parties. A protected third party may, within ten business days of receiving 25 notice of this Order from a party, designate any such materials as “BUSINESS SENSITIVE” or 26 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL,” to the extent such information constitutes protected information 27 as defined in this Order. In the meantime, the parties shall treat all material as “HIGHLY 28 CONFIDENTIAL” pursuant to this Order. Any third party that concludes that this Order does

1 not adequately protect its confidential information must within ten business days of receiving 2 notice of this Order from a party seek additional protection from the Court for its confidential
3 information. All material will be treated as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” pursuant to this Order 4 pending the resolution of any third party’s request for additional confidential protection.

5 7. Any investigation material delivered to one or more of the plaintiffs prior to the 6 filing of the Complaint in this action by any party or protected third party may be presumptively
7 designated, in whole or in part, “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” by the party or protected third 8 party producing such documents or other information by communicating such designation to the 9 receiving party. Such designations shall be communicated to all parties, who shall then treat all 10 such documents or other information produced by that party or protected third party as 11 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL.”

12 8. All transcripts of depositions taken in this action after the filing of the Complaint
13 shall be treated as if designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” for a period of five business days 14 after a full and complete copy of the transcript has been available to the deponent or deponent’s 15 counsel. Any deponent or counsel for that deponent or counsel for a party may designate during 16 the deposition or during the five-day period after the transcript is available from the court 17 reporter any portion of the transcript as “BUSINESS SENSITIVE” or “HIGHLY 18 CONFIDENTIAL” by denominating by page and line, and by designating any exhibits, that are 19 to be considered “BUSINESS SENSITIVE” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL.” Such designation 20 shall be communicated to all parties.

21 C. DISCLOSURE OF “BUSINESS SENSITIVE” INFORMATION

22 9. Except as otherwise authorized by this Order, information designated as 23 “BUSINESS SENSITIVE” shall be used only in connection with this action, shall not be 24 disclosed to any person other than the individuals set forth below, and may be disclosed only as 25 necessary in connection with this action to the individuals set forth below:

26 a. The Court and all persons assisting the Court in this action, including 27 court reporters and stenographic or clerical personnel;

28

2 plaintiffs in the preparation or trial of this action, including contract paralegals, secretaries, other 3 administrative personnel and any persons employed or retained as data base managers and their 4 employees;

5 c. Up to two of Defendant's inside counsel, who shall be designated by name 6 as of the entry of this Order, and their necessary secretarial, clerical, administrative, or support 7 staff provided that these attorneys and their staff are not involved in and do not provide legal 8 services to business personnel involved in competitive decision making for the party (i.e. , 9 development , marketing or pricing decisions) as to the subjects of the information designated as 10 "BUSINESS SENSITIVE" and provided that these attorneys and their staff have not been and 11 are not currently involved in providing legal services relating to Oracle's unsolicited bid to 12 acquire PeopleSoft, Inc. other than participating in this litigation;

13 d. Defendant's outside counsel of record and the employees of such outside 14 counsel including paralegals, secretaries, and other administrative personnel and any persons 15 employed or retained as data base managers and their employees, provided that counsel and its 16 employees are not employed or affiliated in any other way with any defendant, did not 17 previously participate in the representation of SSA/Baan in connection with the United States'
18 investigation of Oracle's unsolicited offer to acquire PeopleSoft, Inc., and do not represent 19 SSA/Baan on an ongoing basis;

20 e. Employees of third-party contractors of the parties involved solely in 21 providing copying services or litigation support services such as organizing, filing, coding,
22 converting, storing, or retrieving material connected with this action, provided that such persons
23 are not employed or affiliated in any other way with any defendant;

24 f. Experts or consultants retained by a party solely to assist in the conduct of 25 this action, including employees of the firm with which the expert or consultant is associated to 26 the extent necessary for purposes of this action only, provided that such experts and staff are not 27 employed or affiliated in any other way with any defendant and provided that such expert or 28 consultant has executed Appendix A hereto;

1 g. Authors, addressees, and recipients of particular information designated as 2 confidential solely to the extent of disclosing such information of which they are an author,
3 addressee, or recipient;

4 h. Persons who have had, or whom any counsel for any party in good faith 5 believes to have had, prior access to confidential information, or who have been participants in a 6 communication that is the subject of the confidential information and from whom verification of 7 or other information about that access or participation is sought, solely to the extent of disclosing 8 such information to which they have or may have had access or that is the subject of the 9 communication in which they have or may have participated, except that, unless and until 10 counsel confirms that any such persons have had access or were participants, only as much of the 11 information may be disclosed as may be necessary to confirm the person's access or 12 participation.

13 i. Subject to the provisions of Paragraph 11, other persons not included in 14 the above subparagraphs who are examined by deposition in this action.

15 D. DISCLOSURE OF "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" INFORMATION

16 10. Except as otherwise authorized by this Order, information designated as 17 "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" shall be used only in connection with this action, shall not be 18 disclosed to any person other than the individuals set forth below, and may be disclosed only as 19 necessary in connection with this action to the individuals set forth below:

20 a. The Court and all persons assisting the Court in this action, including 21 court reporters and stenographic or clerical personnel;

22 b. Plaintiffs' attorneys and employees, and anyone retained to assist the 23 plaintiffs in the preparation or trial of this action, including contract paralegals, secretaries, other 24 administrative personnel and any persons employed or retained as data base managers and their 25 employees;

26 c. Outside counsel of record for defendants and the employees of such 27 outside counsel including paralegals, secretaries, and other administrative personnel and any 28 persons employed or retained as data base managers and their employees, provided that counsel

1 and its employees are not employed or affiliated in any other way with any defendant, did not
2 previously participate in the representation of SSA/Baan in connection with the United States'
3 investigation of Oracle's unsolicited offer to acquire PeopleSoft, Inc., and do not represent 4 SAA/Baan on an ongoing basis;

5 d. Employees of third-party contractors of the parties involved solely in 6 providing copying services or litigation support services such as organizing, filing, coding,
7 converting, storing, or retrieving material connected with this action, provided that such persons
8 are not employed or affiliated in any other way with any defendant;

9 e. Experts or consultants retained by a party solely to assist in the conduct of 10 this action, including employees of the firm with which the expert or consultant is associated to 11 the extent necessary for purposes of this action only, provided that such experts and staff are not 12 employed or affiliated in any other way with any defendant and provided that such expert or 13 consultant has executed Appendix A hereto;

14 f. Authors, addressees, and recipients of particular information designated as 15 confidential solely to the extent of disclosing such information of which they are an author, 16 addressee, or recipient;

17 g. Persons who have had, or whom any counsel for any party in good faith 18 believes to have had, prior access to information designated "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL," or 19 who have been participants in a communication that is the subject of the information designated 20 "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" and from whom verification of or other information about that 21 access or participation is sought, solely to the extent of disclosing such information to which they 22 have or may have had access or that is the subject of the communication in which they have or 23 may have participated, except that, unless and until counsel confirms that any such persons have 24 had access or were participants, only as much of the information may be disclosed as may be 25 necessary to confirm the person's access or participation.

26 h. Subject to the provisions of Paragraph 11, other persons not included in 27 the above subparagraphs who are examined by deposition in this action.

28 11. Subject to the exceptions stated in this Paragraph, before disclosure of protected

1 information is made to any person or persons not authorized to receive the information under the 2 provisions of Paragraph 9 or 10 of this Order, the party wishing to make such a disclosure shall 3 give at least five business days' advance notice in writing, via facsimile, to the party or 4 protected third party who provided the protected information, stating the names, addresses, and 5 employers of the person(s) to whom the disclosure will be made. The notice shall identify with 6 particularity the documents or specific parts of the information to be disclosed, including the 7 production number of the documents and provide a description of the basis for the disclosure. If, 8 within the five-business-day period, an objection is made regarding a disclosure, disclosure of 9 the protected information shall not be made pending a ruling by the Court. The Court will permit 10 access upon such terms as it deems proper, unless the party or protected third party objecting to 11 the proposed disclosure shows good cause why the proposed disclosure should not be permitted.
12 The notice provisions of this Paragraph shall not apply with respect to any deposition, pretrial, or 13 trial testimony of any employee of any party or protected third party designating particular 14 information as protected information; any author, addressee, or recipient of particular 15 information designated protected information; or any persons who have had, or whom any 16 counsel for any party in good faith believes to have had, prior access to information designated 17 as protected information, or who have been participants in a communication that is the subject of 18 the protected information at issue in the deposition or testimony of such witness.

19 12. Each individual described in Paragraph 8, 9 and 10 above, to whom protected 20 information is disclosed, shall not disclose that information to any other individual, except as 21 provided in this Order, or use it for any purpose other than in connection with this action. Before 22 any protected information may be disclosed to any person described in Paragraph 9, 10 or 11 23 above, he or she shall have first read this Order or shall have otherwise been instructed in his or 24 her obligations under the Order by counsel for a party. Additionally, before any protected 25 information may be disclosed to any expert or consultant described in Subparagraph 9(f) or 26 10(e), he or she shall have executed the agreement included as Appendix A hereto. Counsel for 27 the party making the disclosure shall maintain the original of such executed agreement for a 28 period of at least one year following the final resolution of this action.

1 13. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Protective Order, nothing in this Order 2 shall:

3 a. Limit a party's or protected third party's use or disclosure of its own 4 protected information;

5 b. Prevent disclosure of protected information with the consent of counsel for 6 the designating party or protected third party;

7 c. Prevent plaintiffs, subject to taking appropriate steps to preserve the 8 confidentiality of such information, from disclosing protected information: (i) to duly-authorized 9 representatives of the Executive Branch of the United States Government; (ii) in the course of 10 legal proceedings to which the United States or any plaintiff State is a party; (iii) for the purpose
11 of securing compliance with any Final Judgment in this action; or (iv) for law enforcement 12 purposes or as otherwise required by law. Unless otherwise prohibited by law or regulation, the 13 plaintiffs will endeavor to promptly inform the party or protected third party who designated the 14 information as protected information if disclosure pursuant to this Paragraph is made.

15 E. USE OF PROTECTED INFORMATION IN LITIGATION

16 14. All protected information contained or discussed in any pleading, motion, exhibit, 17 or other paper filed with the Court shall be filed under seal. Where possible, only portions of 18 filings with the court containing protected information shall be filed under seal. Information 19 filed under seal shall be placed in a sealed envelope/box with the endorsements required by the 20 applicable rules of the Court and/or filed in accordance with the electronic filing rules of the 21 Court. The Clerk shall keep such papers under seal until further order of this Court; provided 22 however, that such papers shall be furnished to the Court and to persons and entities who may 23 receive protected information pursuant to the Protective Order. Upon or within five business 24 days after the filing of any paper containing protected information, the filing party shall file on 25 the public record a copy of the paper with the protected information deleted.

26 F. OTHER PROCEDURES

27 15. If a party believes that another party or protected third party has designated 28 material as "BUSINESS SENSITIVE" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" that is not entitled to 1 such protection, the party seeking disclosure shall make a good faith attempt to resolve the 2 disagreement over the classification of the material with the protected third party or party. If the 3 parties and/or the protected third party cannot resolve the matter, the party seeking disclosure has 4 the burden to file a motion, notify all parties and affected protected third parties of the filing of 5 the motion, identify each document that is the subject of the motion (e.g., by Bates-number or 6 title, author, recipient and date), and submit the matter to the Court for resolution. In the event 7 that a motion is filed challenging a confidentiality designation, the person designating the 8 material shall respond within ten business days. Failure to respond shall constitute a waiver of 9 opposition to the motion. The party that has designated the records as “BUSINESS 10 SENSITIVE” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” shall bear the burden of showing that the 11 materials in question constitute protected information.

12 16. This Order shall be without prejudice to the right of any party to bring before the 13 Court the question of whether any particular information designated “BUSINESS SENSITIVE” 14 or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” is appropriately designated, or whether any particular 15 information designated “BUSINESS SENSITIVE” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” is or is not 16 discoverable or admissible evidence at any hearing or trial of this action. Nothing in this Order 17 shall be construed to effect an abrogation, waiver or limitation of any kind on the right of the 18 parties or protected third parties to assert any applicable discovery or trial privilege. No party 19 concedes by complying with this Order that any information designated by any party or protected 20 third party as protected information is in fact confidential as that term is defined in Paragraph 21 1(a) of this Order. However, no information designated as “BUSINESS SENSITIVE” or 22 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” pursuant to this Order shall be disclosed except as provided 23 herein unless and until the Court orders the release of such information from the confidentiality 24 provisions of this Order.

25 17. Any production of information without its being designated as “BUSINESS 26 SENSITIVE” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” shall not thereby be deemed a waiver of any 27 claim of confidentiality as to such information, and the same may thereafter be designated 28 “BUSINESS SENSITIVE” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL.” Upon receiving notice from a

1 party or protected third party that confidential information has not been previously denominated, 2 all such information shall be redenominated and treated appropriately. Any such subsequent 3 designation, however, shall not apply retroactively to any previously disclosed information for 4 which disclosure was proper when made.

5 18. This Order shall not apply to information in the public domain or obtained from 6 other sources regardless of whether such information is also contained in materials designated as 7 confidential pursuant to this Order.

8 19. Upon entry of this Order, the parties shall provide notice and a copy of this Order 9 to all protected third parties who provided them documents or information in this action prior to 10 entry of this Order.

11 20. The parties, in conducting discovery from non-parties, shall attach to such 12 discovery requests a copy of this Order so as to appraise such non-parties of their rights.

13 G. PROCEDURES UPON TERMINATION OF LITIGATION

14 21. Within 90 days after receiving notice of the entry of an order, judgment or decree 15 terminating this action and after the conclusion of any appeals, all persons having received 16 protected information shall, at the election of the party or protected third party who produced the 17 information, either return such material containing such information and all copies thereof to 18 counsel for the party or protected third party that produced it, or destroy all such material and 19 certify that fact in writing. The plaintiffs and their counsel and outside counsel for any defendant 20 shall be entitled to retain court papers, deposition and trial transcripts and exhibits, and attorney-21 work product (including discovery material containing protected information), provided that 22 plaintiffs' employees, and defendants' outside counsel, and employees of such outside counsel 23 shall not disclose the portions of court papers, deposition transcripts, exhibits or attorney-work 24 product containing protected information to any person except pursuant to court order, or 25 agreement with the party or protected third party that produced the protected information. All 26 protected information returned to the parties or their counsel by the Court likewise shall be 27 disposed of in accordance with this Paragraph. Nothing in this provision, however, shall restrict 28 the rights of any Plaintiff to retain and use confidential information for law enforcement

1 purposes, in accordance with the statutory provisions of the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act, insofar as 2 applicable, or as otherwise authorized by law.

3 H. RIGHT TO SEEK MODIFICATION

4 22. The parties reserve the right to apply to the Court for any order modifying this 5 Order or seeking further protections against discovery or other use of protected information.
6 Any protected third party requiring further confidentiality protection than is provided by this 7 Order may petition the Court for a separate order governing disclosure of its confidential 8 material.

9 23. All hearings in this action, including the trial, will presumptively be open to the 10 public, except that this Court will issue further orders as necessary to protect any protected third 11 party's or party's protected information from improper disclosure.
