JOSE GARCIA	:	18 U.S.C. § 371 and
	:	7 U.S.C. § 2024(b)

INFORMATION

The defendant having waived in open court prosecution by Indictment, the United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey charges:

COUNT 1
(Conspiracy to Defraud the United States)

1. At all times relevant to this Information:
 - a. JOSE GARCIA was a resident of Camden, New Jersey.
 - b. The Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (“SNAP”), formerly known as the “Food Stamp Program,” was a program funded by the United States Department of Agriculture (“USDA”) in accordance with the Food Stamp Act of 1977. The USDA works with state governmental agencies, such as the New Jersey Department of Human Services (“DHS”), to assist low-income individuals who qualify to purchase groceries and certain food items.
 - c. Between 1939 and 2001, Food Stamp Program beneficiaries were issued paper coupons, or food stamps, as a way to acquire low or no cost food for themselves and their families. In 2001, the program transitioned from the paper coupon system to the current electronic system of access devices to distribute SNAP benefits. Today, SNAP benefits are loaded onto Electronic Benefit Transfer (“EBT”) cards similar to commercial debit cards. The EBT cards have personal identifying information and other data concerning the applicant stored on them electronically. Each month, EBT cards are automatically credited with the appropriate level of food stamp benefits for each SNAP recipient to subsidize food purchases at participating supermarkets, convenience stores, and other food retailers. The balance of an EBT card may be ascertained by calling a customer service phone line, which is typically printed on the back of EBT cards.

d. SNAP benefits may only be used to purchase specific food items, and may not be used to purchase prepared foods, alcoholic beverages, pet food, or other non-food items. More fundamentally, SNAP benefits may not be exchanged for cash or other items of value, a practice known as “trafficking.”

e. Store owners seeking to participate in SNAP as SNAP merchants must prepare and file an application with USDA’s Food and Nutrition Service Agency (“FNS”) on a Form FNS 252, which discloses, among other things, the store owner’s identity and certain background information. The Form FNS 252 requires the store owner to certify that he/she provided truthful and complete information on the form; acknowledge that if he/she provides false information to FNS, the application may be withdrawn or denied; and accept responsibility on behalf of the store for violations of SNAP regulations. Specifically, the Form FNS 252 requires the store owner to acknowledge that trading cash for SNAP benefits is a violation of SNAP regulations. Further, by signing the Form FNS 252, the store owner certifies that he/she has read and understood the conditions of participating in SNAP, and agrees to follow program rules and regulations.

f. Once a store owner has been authorized to enroll in SNAP (thus becoming an “Authorized Retailer”), the Authorized Retailer will receive a valid FNS Number and will be required to use an EBT terminal, purchased through a third-party processor (“the Third-Party Processor”). The processing includes the electronic debiting of a SNAP beneficiary’s account and the crediting of the SNAP merchant's bank account. When purchasing food, the beneficiary provides the card to the merchant, who then swipes the EBT card through the EBT terminal. After the customer enters a confidential Personal Identification Number ("PIN"), the EBT terminal verifies the PIN, determines whether the customer's account balance is sufficient to cover the proposed transaction, and decides whether the transaction should be authorized or denied. If the transaction is authorized, the amount of the purchase is then deducted electronically from the SNAP benefits reserved for the customer, and the amount is credited to the SNAP merchant's designated bank account. Only the Third-Party Processor has contact with the SNAP merchants' bank accounts.

g. A financial intermediary ("the Financial Intermediary") assists DHS in processing SNAP benefits by facilitating transactions between DHS and the Third-Party Processor. In this role, the Financial Intermediary pulls funds from the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond and transfers to the Third-Party Processor, who then facilitates the crediting and debiting of SNAP beneficiary and SNAP merchant accounts.

2. From in or about February 2019 through in or about July 2019, in Camden County, in the District of New Jersey and elsewhere, the defendant, did knowingly combine, conspire, confederate, and agree with other persons, known and unknown, to defraud the United States, namely a federal agency, the United States Department of Agriculture, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371.

JOSE GARCIA,

Object of the Conspiracy

3. It was the object of the conspiracy for JOSE GARCIA and his co-conspirators to unlawfully enrich themselves by unlawfully trafficking SNAP benefits in exchange for cash, controlled substances, and/or other items of value.

Manner and Means of the Conspiracy

4. It was part of the conspiracy that, beginning in at least as early as February 2019 and continuing through approximately July 2019, JOSE GARCIA unlawfully redeemed and trafficked SNAP benefits in exchange for cash.

5. It was further part of the conspiracy that JOSE GARCIA and/or his co-conspirators sought out individuals who possessed or had access to EBT cards loaded with federal funds from SNAP.

6. It was further part of the conspiracy that JOSE GARCIA and his co-conspirators agreed to purchase EBT cards from such individuals in exchange for approximately half the value of the EBT card. The half value of the EBT card was paid in cash, controlled substances, or other items of value. For example, if an EBT card had $500 of EBT funds on it, JOSE GARCIA and his co-conspirators would give the cardholder approximately $250 in cash or controlled substances in exchange. This arrangement allowed the EBT cardholder to gain quick access to cash or controlled substances, which they otherwise could only spend on certain food items.

7. It was further part of the conspiracy that, upon purchasing the EBT cards, JOSE GARCIA and his co-conspirators would then utilize the EBT cards to purchase bulk goods and food items from nearby large-scale superstores. These goods and food items would often then be resold in stores managed by the co-conspirators.

8. It was further part of the conspiracy that JOSE GARCIA and his co-conspirators used hundreds of fraudulently procured EBT cards at large-scale superstores in and around Southern New Jersey for the purpose of purchasing bulk goods and food items for resale in local small convenience and grocery stores, including LOCAL STORE 1 managed by co-conspirator Luciano Estevez.

9. During the course of the conspiracy, JOSE GARCIA and his co-conspirators engaged in 43 controlled transactions with two confidential sources working with law enforcement (“CS-1” and “CS-2”) resulting in the trafficking of approximately $40,559.62 of SNAP benefits.

Overt Acts

10. In furtherance of the conspiracy and to effectuate its unlawful object, JOSE GARCIA and his co-conspirators committed, and caused to be committed, the following overt acts, among others, in the District of New Jersey and elsewhere:

a. On or about February 25, 2019, JOSE GARCIA and his co-conspirators, including co-conspirator Luciano Estevez, none of whom were lawful SNAP recipients, went to a superstore in New Jersey together (“SUPERSTORE 1”), opened a membership account, and used EBT cards at SUPERSTORE 1 to purchase several cases of baby formula for the purpose of reselling the baby formula at LOCAL STORE 1 and/or to resell to others for a profit.

b. On or about February 25, 2019, JOSE GARCIA and his co-conspirators, including co-conspirator Luciano Estevez, none of whom were lawful SNAP recipients, went to another superstore in New Jersey together (“SUPERSTORE 2”) and opened a membership account, allowing the co-conspirators to use the membership account to buy food and goods in bulk at SUPERSTORE 2 to be resold for a profit to grocery/convenience stores in and around the District of New Jersey.

c. On or about February 21, 2019, JOSE GARCIA and co-conspirator Luciano Estevez exchanged EBT cards valued at approximately $500 for cash at LOCAL STORE 1.

d. On or about April 5, 2019, JOSE GARCIA exchanged several EBT cards for cash in his vehicle.

e. On or about April 15, 2019, JOSE GARCIA exchanged several EBT cards for cash in his vehicle.

f. On or about May 1, 2019, JOSE GARCIA exchanged several EBT cards valued at approximately $1,000 for cash in his vehicle.

g. On or about May 14, 2019, JOSE GARCIA exchanged several EBT cards for cash in his vehicle.

h. On or about May 22, 2019, JOSE GARCIA exchanged several EBT cards for cash in his vehicle.

i. On or about June 5, 2019, JOSE GARCIA exchanged several EBT cards for cash in his vehicle.

j. On or about June 18, 2019, JOSE GARCIA exchanged several EBT cards valued at approximately $1,000 for cash in his vehicle.

k. On or about July 19, 2019, JOSE GARCIA exchanged several EBT cards valued at approximately $1,300 for cash in his vehicle.

l. On or about July 25, 2019, JOSE GARCIA exchanged several EBT cards valued at approximately $3,000 for cash in his vehicle.

m. Between approximately January 1, 2019 and May 1, 2019, JOSE GARCIA, who was not a lawful SNAP recipient, called the New Jersey and Pennsylvania EBT customer service lines approximately 62 times to ascertain the value of EBT cards.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371.
