1. KI Consulting Group LLC (KI Consulting Group) and the Ingersoll Group, LLC (Ingersoll Group) were limited liability companies that were registered by KEITH INGERSOLL with the Florida Department of State in 2017 and 2018, respectively. KEITH INGERSOLL controlled both of those companies and their bank accounts.

respectively. JAMES P. ADAMCZYK controlled each of those corporations and their bank accounts.

4. Bank of America, BMO Harris Bank, Fifth Third Bank, Regions Bank, Seacoast National Bank (Seacoast Bank), and Wells Fargo Bank were financial institutions as defined by 18 U.S.C. § 20, the accounts and deposits of which were federally insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

B. Conspiracy

5. Beginning at a time unknown to the Grand Jury, but beginning at least by in or about April 2016, and continuing thereafter through and including on or about the date of this Indictment, in the Middle District of Florida, and elsewhere, the defendants,

KEITH INGERSOLL

did knowingly and willfully combine, conspire, confederate, and agree with each other, and others known and unknown to the Grand Jury to commit wire fraud, by knowingly and with intent to defraud devising and intending to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud, and for obtaining money and property, by means of materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations and promises, and, for the purpose of executing the aforesaid scheme and artifice to defraud, knowingly transmitting and causing to be transmitted by means of wire, radio, and television communication in interstate and foreign commerce, any writings, signs, signals, pictures, and sounds, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1343.

C. Manner and Means

6. The manner and means of the conspiracy included the following:

a. It was part of the conspiracy that KEITH INGERSOLL, JAMES P. ADAMCZYK, and other co-conspirators would and did unlawfully devise and execute a scheme and artifice to defraud the Victim of money and property by means of materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations and promises.

b. It was a further part of the conspiracy that KEITH INGERSOLL, JAMES P. ADAMCZYK, and other co-conspirators would and did falsely and fraudulently represent to the Victim that KEITH INGERSOLL or entities controlled by or affiliated with him had entered into contracts to purchase real estate within and outside of Florida, including in Daytona Beach in Volusia County, Ocala in Marion County, Fort Lauderdale in Broward County, Alabama, Illinois, Nebraska, and the Bahamas.

c. It was a further part of the conspiracy that KEITH INGERSOLL, JAMES P. ADAMCZYK, and other co-conspirators would and did falsely and fraudulently represent to the Victim that funds were needed from the Victim to be used as refundable deposits for real estate that had been contracted for purchase.

d. It was a further part of the conspiracy that KEITH INGERSOLL, JAMES P. ADAMCZYK, and other co-conspirators would and did falsely and fraudulently represent that the funds provided by the Victim to be used as refundable deposits would be held in escrow by an attorney.

e. It was a further part of the conspiracy that another co-conspirator known to the Grand Jury (referred to herein as the “Suspended Attorney”) would and did falsely and fraudulently represent that he was an attorney who would hold the refundable deposits in escrow, when in truth and in fact, the Suspended Attorney was not a licensed attorney, he had been suspended from the practice of law in 2008 and had never been reinstated, and he did not retain the Victim’s funds in escrow but used a portion for his own personal benefit and transferred other funds to KEITH INGERSOLL and JAMES P. ADAMCZYK.

f. It was a further part of the conspiracy that, after the Suspended Attorney died, JAMES P. ADAMCZYK would and did falsely and fraudulently represent that he was an attorney who would hold the refundable deposits in escrow or as an escrow agent, when in truth and in fact, JAMES P. ADAMCZYK was not a licensed attorney and he did not hold the Victim’s funds in escrow or as an escrow agent but diverted portions for his own personal benefit and transferred other funds to KEITH INGERSOLL.

g. It was a further part of the conspiracy that KEITH INGERSOLL would and did falsely and fraudulently represent that he would locate a buyer for each property under contract and then either assign the purchase contract to the buyer for a specified price or simultaneously purchase and sell (flip) the property.

h. It was a further part of the conspiracy that KEITH INGERSOLL would and did falsely and fraudulently represent that the Victim would receive 9% interest for the refundable deposits that were held in escrow or that were held by an escrow agent, as well as a share of the profits from the sale of any of the real estate that was sold.

i. It was a further part of the conspiracy that KEITH INGERSOLL, JAMES P. ADAMCZYK, and other co-conspirators would and did falsely and fraudulently represent that amounts held as refundable deposits would be refunded to the Victim at the Victim's request.

j. It was a further part of the conspiracy that KEITH INGERSOLL, JAMES P. ADAMCZYK, and other co-conspirators would and did falsely and fraudulently claim that KEITH INGERSOLL or entities controlled by or affiliated with him had entered into purchase contracts with the owners of real estate, when in truth and in fact, as the defendants then and there well knew, the owners had not agreed to sell the real estate and, in some instances, had never been contacted about selling the real estate.

k. It was a further part of the conspiracy that KEITH INGERSOLL, JAMES P. ADAMCZYK, and other co-conspirators would and did fabricate the names of the entities who the defendants and their conspirators falsely claimed were the owners of the properties that had been contracted for sale.

l. It was a further part of the conspiracy that KEITH INGERSOLL, JAMES P. ADAMCZYK, and other co-conspirators would and did provide the Victim with real estate purchase contracts and other documents that were not executed by the owners of the properties but that contained forged signatures or were executed using the names of fictitious individuals and that falsely represented the entities that owned the properties.

m. It was a further part of the conspiracy that KEITH INGERSOLL, JAMES P. ADAMCZYK, and other co-conspirators would and did falsely and fraudulently represent that the owners of the real estate claimed to be under contract had agreed to extensions of the closing dates for the contracts.

n. It was a further part of the conspiracy that KEITH INGERSOLL, JAMES P. ADAMCZYK, and other co-conspirators would and did falsely and fraudulently represent that there were buyers interested in purchasing the real estate that the conspirators claimed was under contract.

o. It was a further part of the conspiracy that KEITH INGERSOLL, JAMES P. ADAMCZYK, and other co-conspirators would and did identify such potential buyers by name and claim that they had expressed interest in purchasing the real estate, when in truth and in fact, as the defendants then and there well knew, the potential buyers did not exist, had never been contacted about purchasing the real estate, or had declined to pursue a transaction.

p. It was a further part of the conspiracy that KEITH INGERSOLL, JAMES P. ADAMCZYK, and other co-conspirators would and did fabricate some of the names of potential buyers who the conspirators falsely claimed were interested in purchasing the real estate that the conspirators claimed to have under contract.

q. It was a further part of the conspiracy that KEITH INGERSOLL, JAMES P. ADAMCZYK, and other co-conspirators, as opposed to holding the Victim's refundable deposits in escrow as had been promised to the Victim, would and did spend the proceeds received as a result of their fraud on themselves and for their own personal benefit, including for luxury car rentals, travel, and adult entertainment.

r. It was a further part of the conspiracy that KEITH INGERSOLL and JAMES P. ADAMCZYK would and did provide the Victim with documents that falsely claimed that the Victim's refundable deposits were being held in escrow or by an escrow agent, when in truth and in fact, as the defendants then and there well knew, the Victim's refundable deposits were not being held in escrow or by an escrow agent but had been transferred to accounts controlled by KEITH INGERSOLL and JAMES P. ADAMCZYK and used to benefit themselves.

s. It was a further part of the conspiracy that, after the Victim requested a return of some of his refundable deposits, KEITH INGERSOLL and JAMES P. ADAMCZYK would and did provided false excuses why the funds could not be returned, including false claims that JAMES P. ADAMCZYK was not allowed to leave Costa Rica due to having COVID-19 and that JAMES P. ADAMCZYK needed to be at the bank in person to return the funds to the Victim.

t. It was a further part of the conspiracy that KEITH INGERSOLL would and did falsely and fraudulently represent that a company was willing to replace the Victim as the one to make the refundable deposits and that he had been in contact with "Ray Beckwith" and "Ray Beckworth" of that company who was interested in pursuing such a transaction, when in truth and in fact, as KEITH INGERSOLL then and there well knew, the company did not have any representative by the name of “Ray Beckwith” and “Ray Beckworth” and KEITH INGERSOLL had fabricated those names and created an email account using the fictitious name of “Ray Beckworth” to perpetrate the scheme by sending an email using that fictitious identity.

u. It was a further part of the conspiracy that KEITH INGERSOLL, JAMES P. ADAMCZYK, and other co-conspirators would and did obtain over $12 million as a result of executing this conspiracy and scheme and artifice to defraud.

v. It was a further part of the conspiracy that KEITH INGERSOLL, JAMES P. ADAMCZYK, and other co-conspirators would and did use interstate wires in furtherance of the conspiracy and scheme and artifice to defraud, including by causing interstate wires to be used to send and receive emails to and from each other and the Victim, and by causing interstate wires to be used to send and receive proceeds.

w. It was a further part of the conspiracy that KEITH INGERSOLL, JAMES P. ADAMCZYK, and other co-conspirators would and did perform acts and make statements to hide and conceal, and cause to be hidden and concealed, the purpose of the scheme to defraud and the acts committed in furtherance thereof.

All in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1349.
