Sample — Confidentiality Form - Denver

Denver Forensic Collaborative for At-Risk Adults

Sign-in sheet for

By signing in, you are agreeing to the confidentiality statement as stated below.

Each collaborative partner will abide by confidentiality regulations that are within their organization, agency, or overriding authority during the meetings. Each collaborative participant will also engage in timely follow-up with relevant information pertaining to the cases reviewed, as agreed upon in the meeting.

With this purpose in mind, I the undersigned, as a representative of the agency listed below agree that all information is secured in this review meeting and will remain confidential, and will not be used for reasons other than that which it is intended. No material will be taken from the meeting with the case identifying information, except as needed.

Name	Agency	e-Mail Address (if new)

End Notes

<sup>i</sup> Source: Steve Siegel, Denver District Attorney's Office (personal communication, September 17, 2014).