Stephen J. Nutting, Esq., for Respondent

ORDER REJECTING COMPLAINANT’S THIRD MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

On July 17, 2025, the Court issued an order denying this second request and warning Complainant that “any future motions to reconsider orders denying motions to reconsider will be rejected.” July 17, 2025 Order Den. Sec. Mot. Reconsider 2.

On August 11, 2025, Complainant filed a motion seeking reconsideration a decision it has already reconsidered, and included a second request pertaining to amending the Complaint.

The filing in its entirety will be rejected consistent with the Court’s prior Order. The Court issues this Order only to explain to this pro se Complainant that any attempts to amend his Complaint (which appear to have been buried in the text of his filing) are untimely as the Court previously provided a deadline to amend of October 15, 2024. See Zajradhara v. Jin Joo Corp., 19 OCAHO no. 1554a, 2 (2024).

SO ORDERED.

Dated and entered on August 12, 2025.

Honorable Andrea R. Carroll-Tipton
Administrative Law Judge
