PROPOSED DECISION

This claim against the Government of Cuba, under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, was presented by THOS. P. GONZALEZ CORPORATION in the amount of $21,194.39 based upon the asserted loss of payment for merchandise shipped to Cuba.

Under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949 [78 Stat. 1110 (1964), 22 U.S.C. §§1643-1643k (1964), as amended, 79 Stat. 988 (1965)], the Commission is given jurisdiction over claims of nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba. Section 503(a) of the Act provides that the Commission shall receive and determine in accordance with applicable substantive law, including international law, the amount and validity of claims by nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba arising since January 1, 1959 for losses resulting from the nationalization, expropriation, intervention or other taking of, or special measures directed against, property including any rights or interests therein owned wholly or partially, directly or indirectly at the time by nationals of the United States.

Section 502(3) of the Act provides:

The term 'property' means any property, right or interest including any leasehold interest, and debts owed by the Government of Cuba or by enterprises which have been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba and debts which are a charge on property which has been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba.

Section 502(1) of the Act defines the term "national of the United States" as "(B) a corporation or other legal entity which is organized under the laws of the United States, or of any State, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, if natural persons who are citizens of the United States own, directly or indirectly, 50 per centum or more of the outstanding capital stock or other beneficial interest of such corporation or entity."

An officer of the claimant corporation has certified that the claimant was organized in the State of California and that at all times between December 10, 1957 and presentation of this claim on August 17, 1965, more than 50% of the outstanding capital stock of the claimant has been owned by United States nationals. The Commission holds that claimant is a national of the United States within the meaning of Section 502(1)(B) of the Act.

Claimant states that 95% of its outstanding capital stock was owned by nationals of the United States.

The record contains copies of claimant's invoices, as below, which reflect the sale and delivery of merchandise to Cuban purchasers in the amount of $21,194.39. Payment in each transaction was to be effected by a bill of exchange drawn upon the purchaser, and payable in local funds to Cuban collecting banks. The record also contains copies of these bills of exchange, which correspond in amount to the sums shown by the invoices. The shipments herein were all made between May 26 and September 6, 1960.

Invoice No.	Customer	Draft Amount
3333	E. Labrador & Cia.	$ 3,815.58
3334	E. Labrador & Cia.	3,816.74
3233	E. Labrador & Cia.	2,581.76
3172	E. Labrador & Cia.	1,202.24
3118	E. Labrador & Cia.	4,514.22
3063	E. Labrador & Cia.	2,186.82
3245	Viveres San Juan, S.A.	769.56
3117	Viveres San Juan, S.A.	1,156.57
3270	Viveres Luis Vega Castano	1,150.90
		$21,194.39

Additionally, the record contains copies of letters, each dated December 22, 1960, addressed to claimant from the Bank of America in Los Angeles, advising claimant of collections of the drafts set forth above. Each of these letters informs claimant that its bills had been paid in local currency, and that dollar exchange permission was being awaited from the Currency Stabilization Fund, an agency of the Government of Cuba. Claimant states that it has never received the funds.

The Government of Cuba, on September 29, 1959, published its Law 568, concerning foreign exchange. Thereafter the Cuban Government effectively precluded transfers of funds, in this and similar cases, by numerous, unreasonable and costly demands upon the consignees, who were thus deterred from complying with the demands of the Cuban Government. The Commission holds that Cuban Law 568 and the Cuban Government's implementation thereof, with respect to the rights of the claimant herein, was not in reality a legitimate exercise of sovereign authority to regulate foreign exchange, but constituted an intervention by the Government of Cuba into the contractual rights of the claimant, which resulted in the taking of American-owned property within the meaning of Section 503(a) of the Act. (See the Claim of The Schwarzenbach Huber Company, FCSC Claim No. CU-0019.)

Accordingly, in the instant claim the Commission finds that claimant's property was lost as a result of intervention by the Government of Cuba and that, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, the loss of the total amount of $21,194.39 occurred on December 23, 1960, the day after the collections were acknowledged by the Bank of America..

The Commission has decided that in certification of losses on claims determined pursuant to Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, interest should be included at the rate of 6% per annum from the date of loss to the date of settlement (See the Claim of Lisle Corporation, FCSC Claim No. CU-0644).

Accordingly, the Commission concludes that the amount of the loss sustained by claimant shall be increased by interest thereon at the rate of 6% per annum from the date on which the loss occurred, to the date on which provision is made for the settlement thereof.

CERTIFICATION OF LOSS

The Commission certifies that THOS. P. GONZALEZ CORPORATION suffered a loss, as a result of actions of the Government of Cuba, within the scope of Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, in the amount of Twenty-One Thousand One Hundred Ninety-Four Dollars and Thirty-Nine Cents ($21,194.39) with interest thereon at 6% per annum from the date of loss to the date of settlement.

The statute does not provide for the payment of claims against the Government of Cuba. Provision is only made for the determination by the Commission of the validity and amounts of such claims. Section 501 of the statute specifically precludes any authorization for appropriations for payment of these claims. The Commission is required to certify its findings to the Secretary of State for possible use in future negotiations with the Government of Cuba.

NOTICE: Pursuant to the Regulations of the Commission, if no objections are filed within 15 days after service or receipt of notice of this Proposed Decision, the decision will be entered as the Final Decision of the Commission upon the expiration of 30 days after such service or receipt of notice, unless the Commission otherwise orders.
