

FOREIGN CLAIMS SETTLEMENT COMMISSION
OF THE UNITED STATES
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20579

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

HICKORY DYEING & WINDING COMPANY, INC.

Under the International Claims Settlement
Act of 1949, as amended

Claim No. CU -0419

Decision No. CU 817

PROPOSED DECISION

This claim against the Government of Cuba, under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, was presented by HICKORY DYEING & WINDING COMPANY, INC., in the amount of $2,951.67, and is based upon the asserted loss of payment for merchandise shipped to Cuba.

Under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949 [78 Stat. 1110 (1964), 22 U.S.C. §§1643-1643k (1964), as amended, 79 Stat. 988 (1965)], the Commission is given jurisdiction over claims of nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba. Section 503(a) of the Act provides that the Commission shall receive and determine in accordance with applicable substantive law, including international law, the amount and validity of claims by nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba arising since January 1, 1959 for losses resulting from the nationalization, expropriation, intervention or other taking of, or special measures directed against, property including any rights or interests therein owned wholly or partially, directly or indirectly at the time by nationals of the United States.

Section 502(3) of the Act provides:

The term 'property' means any property, right or interest including any leasehold interest, and debts owed by the Government of Cuba or by enterprises which have been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba and debts which are a charge on property which has been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba.

Section 502(1) of the Act defines the term "national of the United States" as "(B) a corporation or other legal entity which is organized under the laws of the United States, or of any State, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, if natural persons who are citizens of the United States own, directly or indirectly, 50 per centum or more of the outstanding capital stock or other beneficial interest of such corporation or entity."

Evidence of record discloses that the claimant was organized in North Carolina. An officer of the claimant corporation has certified that at all times between 1946 and presentation of this claim on September 10, 1965, more than 50% of the outstanding capital stock of the claimant has been owned by United States nationals. The Commission holds that claimant is a national of the United States within the meaning of Section 502(1)(B) of the Act.

Evidence of record discloses that all of the outstanding capital stock in claimant corporation is held by United States nationals.

The record contains a copy of a September 8, 1960, letter from the Trust Company of Cuba to claimant in which the bank acknowledges that claimant's collection in the amount of $2,327.01 drawn against Azze Hosiery Mills, S.A., was paid on June 15, 1960. Additional bank correspondence of record discloses that the bank submitted a request to the Exchange Board for dollar reimbursement authorization, and that the bank was still awaiting reimbursement release on February 22, 1961.

The record also contains a copy of claimant's ledger showing its statement of account against Star Knitting Mills, Havana, Cuba, for shipments of goods to that firm in 1959. Additionally, the record contains a copy of a November 5, 1959 letter addressed to claimant from Manuel Dominquez, claimant's representative in Cuba at that time, which refers to pending collections involving the Star account. The evidence discloses that the Star Milling Company owed claimant funds for goods and forwarding expenses for a shipment made in November 1959. The ledger states the balance due on December 7, 1959 as $624.66. Claimant states that it has not received the funds.

The Government of Cuba, on September 29, 1959, published its Law 568, concerning foreign exchange. Thereafter the Cuban Government effectively precluded not only transfers of funds to creditors abroad, but also payment to creditors within Cuba, by numerous, unreasonable and costly demands upon the consignees, who were thus deterred from complying with the demands of the Cuban Government. The Commission holds that Cuban Law 568 and the Cuban Government's implementation thereof, with respect to the rights of the claimant herein, was not in reality a legitimate exercise of sovereign authority to regulate foreign exchange, but constituted an intervention by the Government of Cuba into the contractual rights of the claimant, which resulted in the taking of American-owned property within the meaning of Section 503(a) of the Act. (See the Claim of The Schwarzenbach Huber Company, FCSC Claim No. CU-0019; and the Claim of Etna Pozzolana Corporation, FCSC Claim No. CU-0049).

Accordingly, in the instant claim the Commission finds that claimant's property was lost as a result of intervention by the Government of Cuba and that, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, the loss occurred on December 7, 1959 as to $624.66, and on June 16, 1960, the day after payment was made to the Trust Company of Cuba, as to $2,327.01.

The Commission has decided that in certification of losses on claims determined pursuant to Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, interest should be included at the rate of 6% per annum from the date of loss to the date of settlement (See the Claim of Lisle Corporation, FCSC Claim No. CU-0644),

Accordingly, the Commission concludes that the amount of the loss sustained by claimant shall be increased by interest thereon at the rate of 6% per annum from the dates on which the loss occurred, to the date on which provisions are made for the settlement thereof, as follows:

On $ 624.66 from December 7, 1959

On $2,327.01 from June 16, 1960.

CERTIFICATION OF LOSS

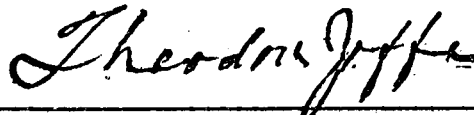

The Commission certifies that HICKORY DYEING & WINDING COMPANY, INC. suffered a loss as a result of actions of the Government of Cuba, within the scope of Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, in the amount of Two Thousand Nine Hundred Fifty-One Dollars and Sixty-Seven Cents ($2,951.67) with interest thereon at 6% per annum from the respective dates of loss to the date of settlement.

CU-0419

The statute does not provide for the payment of claims against the Government of Cuba. Provision is only made for the determination by the Commission of the validity and amounts of such claims. Section 501 of the statute specifically precludes any authorization for appropriations for payment of these claims. The Commission is required to certify its findings to the Secretary of State for possible use in future negotiations with the Government of Cuba.
