OF THE UNITED STATES
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20579

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

SARAH L. KAISER

Under the International Claims Settlement
Act of 1949, as amended

Claim No. CU-1800

Decision No. CU-4504

AMENDED PROPOSED DECISION

By Proposed Decision issued February 12, 1970, the Commission denied this claim for failure of proof. Since then satisfactory evidence has been submitted, and the Proposed Decision is hereby amended.

Claimant, SARAH L. KAISER, who owned a stock interest in the Trans-Cuba Oil Company, asserts a claim under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, against the Government of Cuba because of its nationalization of said Company.

In our decision entitled the Claim of D. R. Wimberly (Claim No. CU-3417 which we incorporate herein by reference), we held that the properties owned or controlled by the Company were nationalized or otherwise taken by the Government of Cuba on November 23, 1959, and that this type of claim is compensable to an American national under the facts and conditions set forth therein. We need not again detail here the reasons or the method used in determining the value per share of $0.1198.

On the basis of evidence in the record in the instant case, the Commission finds that this claimant comes within the terms of the Wimberly decision; that she was an American national at the requisite times; that she has been the owner of 600 shares of stock in the Trans-Cuba Oil Company since prior to November 23, 1959; and that she suffered a loss in the amount of $71.88 within the meaning of Title V of the Act. Further, the Commission finds that the amount of loss sustained shall be increased by interest thereon at the rate of 6% per annum from November 23, 1959, the date of loss, to the date on which provisions are made for the settlement thereof. (See Wimberly, supra.)

Accordingly, the following Certification of Loss will be entered and in all other respects the Proposed Decision is affirmed.

CERTIFICATION OF LOSS

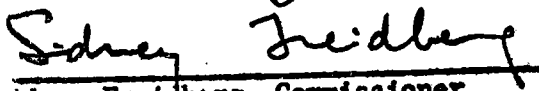

The Commission certifies that SARAH L. KAISER suffered a loss, as a result of actions of the Government of Cuba, within the scope of Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, in the amount of Seventy-one Dollar and Eighty-eight Cents ($71.88) with interest at 6% per annum from November 23, 1959 to the date of settlement.

NOTICE TO TREASURY: The above-referenced securities may not have been submitted to the Commission or if submitted, may have been returned; accordingly, no payment should be made until claimant establishes retention of the securities or the loss here certified.

The statute does not provide for the payment of claims against the Government of Cuba. Provision is only made for the determination by the Commission of the validity and amounts of such claims. Section 501 of the statute specifically precludes any authorization for appropriations for payment of these claims. The Commission is required to certify its findings to the Secretary of State for possible use in future negotiations with the Government of Cuba.

NOTICE: Pursuant to the Regulations of the Commission, if no objections are filed within 15 days after service or receipt of notice of this Proposed Decision, the decision will be entered as the Final Decision of the Commission upon the expiration of 30 days after such service or receipt of notice, unless the Commission otherwise orders. FOREIGN CLAIMS SETTLEMENT COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20579

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

SARAH L. KAISER

Under the International Claims Settlement
Act of 1949, as amended

Claim No. CU -1800

Decision No. CU 4504

PROPOSED DECISION

This claim against the Government of Cuba, filed under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, in the amount of $500.00, was presented by SARAH L. KAISER and is based upon the asserted loss of a stock interest in Trans-Cuba Oil Company. Claimant has been a national of the United States since birth.

Under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949 [78 Stat. 1110 (1964), 22 U.S.C. §§1643-1643k (1964), as amended, 79 Stat. 988 (1965)], the Commission is given jurisdiction over claims of nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba. Section 503(a) of the Act provides that the Commission shall receive and determine in accordance with applicable substantive law, including international law, the amount and validity of claims by nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba arising since January 1, 1959 for losses resulting from the nationalization, expropriation, intervention or other taking of, or special measures directed against, property including any rights or interests therein owned wholly or partially, directly or indirectly at the time by nationals of the United States.

Section 502(3) of the Act provides:

The term 'property' means any property, right, or interest including any leasehold interest, and debts owed by the Government of Cuba or by enterprises which have been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba and debts which are a charge on property which has been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba.

Section 504 of the Act provides, as to ownership of claims, that

(a) A claim shall not be considered under section 503(a) of this title unless the property on which the claim was based was owned wholly or partially, directly or indirectly by a national of the United States on the date of the loss and if considered shall be considered only to the extent the claim has been held by one or more nationals of the United States continuously thereafter until the date of filing with the Commission.

Section 507 of the Act provides, as to assignment of claims, that

(b) The amount determined to be due on any claim of an assignee who acquires the same by purchase shall not exceed (or, in the case of any such acquisition subsequent to the date of the determination, shall not be deemed to have exceeded) the amount of the actual consideration paid by such assignee, or in case of successive assignments of a claim by any assignee.

The Regulations of the Commission provide:

The claimant shall be the moving party and shall have the burden of proof on all issues involved in the determination of his claim. (FCSC Reg., 45 C.F.R. §531.6(d) (Supp. 1967).)

Claim is based on 600 shares of Trans-Cuba Oil stock which claimant asserts were purchased on various dates prior to November 23, 1959, which is the date of loss (see Claim of D. R. Wimberly, Claim No. CU-3417). She has submitted an affidavit from a broker who is holding her shares but who has no record of the date of purchase.

By Commission letter, claimant was advised to submit, among other things, evidence of the date of purchase of her stock interest and by letter of September 13, 1967, the Commission reminded claimant of this suggestion. However, no evidence of the date of purchase has been received to date.

CU-1800

The Commission finds that claimant has not met the burden of proof in that she has failed to establish the date she acquired ownership of rights and interests in property which was nationalized, expropriated or otherwise taken by the Government of Cuba. Thus, the Commission is constrained to deny this claim and it is hereby denied. The Commission deems it unnecessary to make determinations with respect to other elements of the claim.
