

FOREIGN CLAIMS SETTLEMENT COMMISSION
OF THE UNITED STATES
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20579

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

WILLIAM T. COLES, PERSONALLY AND/OR WILLIAM T. COLES ET AL.

Claim No. CU -3258

Decision No. CU-1097

Under the International Claims Settlement
Act of 1949, as amended

PROPOSED DECISION

This claim against the Government of Cuba, filed under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, in an amount stated as "in excess of $1,000,000.00", was presented by WILLIAM T. COLES, PERSONALLY AND/OR WILLIAM T. COLES ET AL., and is based upon the asserted loss of interests in improved real property, personal property and mining interests in Cuba. Claimant stated that he has been a national of the United States since his birth in the United States.

Under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949 [78 Stat. 1110 (1964) 22 U.S.C. §§1643-1643k (1964), as amended, 79 Stat. 988 (1965)], the Commission is given jurisdiction over claims of nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba. Section 503(a) of the Act provides that the Commission shall receive and determine in accordance with applicable substantive law, including international law, the amount and validity of claims by nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba arising since January 1, 1959 for losses resulting from the nationalization, expropriation, intervention or other taking of, or special measures directed against, property including any rights or interests therein owned wholly or partially, directly or indirectly at the time by nationals of the United States.

Section 502(3) of the Act provides:

The term 'property' means any property, right, or interest including any leasehold interest, and debts owed by the Government of Cuba or by enterprises which have been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba and debts which are a charge on property which has been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba.

Section 504 of the Act provides, as to ownership of claims, that

(a) A claim shall not be considered under section 503(a) of this title unless the property on which the claim was based was owned wholly or partially, directly or indirectly by a national of the United States on the date of the loss and if considered shall be considered only to the extent the claim has been held by one or more nationals of the United States continuously thereafter until the date of filing with the Commission.

The Regulations of the Commission provide:

The claimant shall be the moving party and shall have the burden of proof on all issues involved in the determination of his claim. (FCSC Reg., 45 C.F.R. §531.6(d) (Supp. 1967).)

At the time this claim was filed, claimant submitted photostatic copies of two unsigned deposit forms bearing Deposit Nos. 24 and 52 dated May 5, 1961 and May 19, 1961, respectively, each with inventory lists attached; a photostatic copy of a newspaper article, the exact name and date of the newspaper not being of record; and his own statements concerning various aspects of this claim. However, claimant did not submit evidence of his United States nationality, or of his ownership, the loss, or the value of the property rights claimed.

Accordingly, by Commission letter of October 27, 1967, claimant was advised as to the type of evidence proper for submission to establish this claim under the Act. Evidence in response to this correspondence was not received.

On November 29, 1967, claimant was invited to submit evidence available to him within 45 days from that date, and he was informed that, absent such evidence, it might become necessary to determine the claim on the basis of the existing record. Claimant has not submitted evidence as suggested nor has claimant replied to the Commission's correspondence.

The Commission finds that claimant has not met the burden of proof, in that he has failed to establish ownership of rights and interests in property which was nationalized, expropriated or otherwise taken by the Government of Cuba. Accordingly, this claim is denied. The Commission deems it unnecessary to make determinations with respect to other elements of the claim.
