and

Under the International Claims Settlement
Act of 1949, as amended

Claim No. CU-7727
Claim No. CU-7954

Decision No. CU 5525

Represented by Cia. Azucarera Atlantica del Golfo

PROPOSED DECISION

These claims against the Government of Cuba, filed under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, were presented by NAT T. WALTERS and ROSE STRAWBRIDGE and each is based upon the asserted loss of 200 shares of stock of Atlantica del Golfo Sugar Company. Claimants stated that they are nationals of the United States by birth.

Under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949 [78 Stat. 1110 (1964), 22 U.S.C. §§1643-1643k (1964), as amended, 79 Stat. 988 (1965)], the Commission is given jurisdiction over claims of nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba. Section 503(a) of the Act provides that the Commission shall receive and determine in accordance with applicable substantive law, including international law, the amount and validity of claims by nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba arising since January 1, 1959 for losses resulting from the nationalization, expropriation, intervention or other taking of, or special measures directed against, property including any rights or interests therein owned wholly or partially, directly or indirectly at the time by nationals of the United States.

Section 502(3) of the Act provides:

The term 'property' means any property, right, or interest including any leasehold interest, and debts owed by the Government of Cuba or by enterprises which have been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba and debts which are a charge on property which has been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba.

Section 504 of the Act provides, as to ownership of claims, that

(a) A claim shall not be considered under section 503(a) of this title unless the property on which the claim was based was owned wholly or partially, directly or indirectly by a national of the United States on the date of the loss and if considered shall be considered only to the extent the claim has been held by one or more nationals of the United States continuously thereafter until the date of filing with the Commission.

The Regulations of the Commission provide:

The claimant shall be the moving party and shall have the burden of proof on all issues involved in the determination of his claim. (FCSC Reg., 45 C.F.R. §531.6(d) (Supp. 1967).)

Claimants have submitted stock certificates evidencing their ownership of the asserted stock interests.

By Commission letter of March 20, 1960, claimants were advised, through counsel, as to the type of evidence proper for submission to establish this claim under the Act, specifically their United States nationality. Thereafter by letters of June 12, 1968, and January 29, 1969 and January 31, 1969, the Commission made additional suggestions to claimants concerning the submission of supporting evidence in this matter. Claimants have submitted their own statement as to United States nationality, but no substantiation thereof is of record.

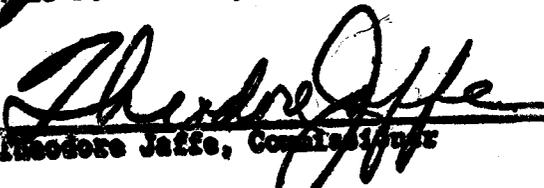

CU-7727 and CU-7954

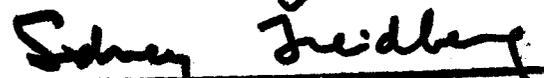

The Commission finds that claimants have not met the burden of proof in that they have failed to establish their United States nationality as required by the Act. Thus, the Commission is constrained to deny these claims and they are hereby denied. The Commission deems it unnecessary to make determinations with respect to other elements of the claims.
