ORDER

Claimant brought this claim against the Great Socialist People’s Libyan Arab Jamahiriya (“Libya”) based on economic losses that her late husband, James Bailey, allegedly sustained as a result of the bombing of Pan Am Flight 103 over Lockerbie, Scotland, on December 21, 1988. Claimant submitted the claim under Category F of the State Department’s referral letter authorizing this program, which consists of “commercial claims of U.S. nationals” provided that, inter alia, “the claim was set forth by a claimant named in Abbott et al. v. Socialist People’s Libyan Arab Jamahiriya (D.D.C.) 1:94-cv-02444-SS . . . .”<sup>1</sup> As with other “Abbott Group” claimants who are also represented by Claimant’s counsel in this program, Claimant alleged that the bombing <sup>1</sup> See Letter dated November 27, 2013 from the Honorable Mary E. McLeod, Acting Legal Adviser, Department of State, to the Honorable Anuj C. Desai and Sylvia M. Becker, Foreign Claims Settlement Commission, at ¶ 8. In the Abbott case, Mr. Bailey and a number of other former Pan Am flight crew members sued Libya and others in United States federal court in 1994 for, inter alia, tortious interference with contractual relations and tortious interference with advantageous business relations. Libya was dismissed from the case on jurisdictional grounds in 1995.

ultimately forced Pan American World Airways, Inc. (“Pan Am”) to cease operations nearly three years later, resulting in Mr. Bailey losing his job as a pilot for the airline, which in turn caused him to lose several years’ worth of income and benefits that he otherwise would have earned prior to his death on January 14, 2004.

By letter dated August 15, 2016, Claimant’s counsel informed the Commission that Claimant “hereby withdraws her claim, Claim No. LIB-III-067 from the Abbott Group proceedings before the [Commission].” On the basis of counsel’s letter dated August 15, 2016, the Commission determines that Claimant’s claim is withdrawn as of the date of this Order, and the claim will not be the subject of any further action by the Commission.

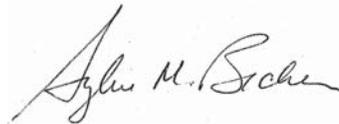

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the present claim be, and hereby is, dismissed with prejudice.

Dated at Washington, DC, September 9, 2016 and entered as an Order of the Commission.
