

Central Nebraska

Engaging & Building Partnerships with Muslim & Sikh Americans

Training Conducted by:

United States Department of Justice Community Relations Service (CRS)

Training Goals

- ▶ Increase public awareness of civil rights issues that impact Muslim and Sikh Americans
- ▶ Develop an understanding of beliefs and religious practices of Muslim and Sikh Americans
- ▶ Provide recommended tools and best practices to increase communication and collaboration with the Muslim and Sikh communities

Date & Location

February 4, 2020, 9:00am – 4:00pm

University of Nebraska – Kearney
Ockinga Conference Room
2505 20th Ave, Kearney, NE 68849

To RSVP

Please contact Darryck Dean at Darryck.dean@usdoj.gov or (816) 518-7511.

Presenters

- Chris Van Alstyne - CRS
- Darryck Dean - CRS
- Harpreet Mokha - CRS
- Mahnaz Shabbir - Crescent Peace Society
- Charanjit Hundal - Midwest Sikh Gurudwara

A free training for law enforcement personnel to learn about the Muslim and Sikh American communities in Central Nebraska.