Community Relations Service (CRS)

CRS serves as “America’s Peacemaker” by facilitating understanding and improving communication in communities facing conflict, and developing communities’ ability to independently prevent and resolve future conflicts.

What We Do ▼

Facilitation

Convening parties in dialogue to identify issues and develop solutions

Convene meetings between parties to open lines of communication, identify common concerns, and increase collaboration.

Consultation

Technical assistance, best practices, models, and evidence-based resources

Help educate and identify resources for communities by providing: technical assistance, best practices, advice, insight, and referrals that improve communities’ ability to address underlying issues.

Training

Knowledge and skills-based programs

Provide a wide variety of training programs that increase understanding and improve collaboration to resolve disputes and prevent future conflict.

Mediation

Structured process to reach agreement

Serve as neutral third-party mediators who facilitate problem solving discussions and the development of documented agreements between parties in conflict.

Peace is a journey of a thousand miles and it must be taken one step at a time. ► LYNDON B. JOHNSON
