ELDER ABUSE MULTIDISCIPLINARY TEAM

Quick Start Guide

WHAT IS A MULTIDISCIPLINARY TEAM (MDT)?

MDTs are defined as a group of people comprised of representatives from three or more disciplines working collaboratively, bound by a common purpose, with a shared definition of the problem they are addressing.

CHOOSE A STRUCTURE

What type of structure will work best for your community? What agencies and organizations should be involved in starting your team?

DEFINE YOUR MISSION AND VISION

What is the purpose of your team? Having a clear mission and vision early in the process of developing your team will help to keep everyone on track, working toward the same outcomes and providing clarity about how to measure success.

RECRUIT PARTICIPANTS

Think about who is needed to resolve elder abuse cases effectively and efficiently. Common core members may include:

- Adult Protective Services (APS)
- Aging services network personnel
- Geriatricians/physicians
- Law enforcement
- Prosecutors (District Attorneys)
- Psychologists/neuropsychologists
- Victim-witness advocates/victim service providers

PLAN FOR SUCCESS BY INCORPORATING THESE 5 PRINCIPLES

1. Shared Decision-Making
2. Partnership
3. Interdependency
4. Balanced Power
5. Transparent Process

DEVELOP ORGANIZATIONAL RULES

- Clearly understand and agree upon interpretations of your state laws and statutes
- Identify someone to serve as the coordinator
- Create MOUs for participating agencies
- Write protocols

HOST MEETINGS

The core of your MDT is the case review meeting itself. Ensure that presenters have the support they need to bring their case to the meeting by providing clear information about intake policy and procedures, presentation guidelines and by providing emotional support as needed.

REFINE YOUR WORK AS YOU PROCEED

Create a mechanism for evaluating team performance and making needed adjustments. Managing an MDT requires ongoing commitment and resources.

KEEP YOUR TEAM INFORMED

Maintain periodic and ongoing training, both formal and informal, particularly as new members arrive, protocols and policies change, and the political landscape shifts. EJI has many educational resources and webinars that may help your team.
