

January 12, 2021

Dear Commissioner Bowdich:

On December 22, 2020, following months of your unrelenting work through virtual meetings, hearings, and commission discussions, the President's Commission on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice released its final report. This commission represents the first comprehensive study of law enforcement in more than 55 years, and the report includes hundreds of practical recommendations.

Enclosed is the hard copy of that report, and your commissioner nameplate that we unfortunately were not able to use as extensively when we were required to move to remote activities. Once again, I would like to extend my appreciation to you for the dedication and commitment you demonstrated throughout our work together. I also hope that we may continue to collectively work to pursue the advancements outlined within the commission's final report. I remain humbled and honored to have served with you, and look forward to our paths crossing again very soon.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Phil Keith". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long, sweeping tail on the letter "k".

Phil Keith

Chair, President's Commission on Law Enforcement and
the Administration of Justice

January 12, 2021

Dear Commissioner Clemmons:

On December 22, 2020, following months of your unrelenting work through virtual meetings, hearings, and commission discussions, the President's Commission on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice released its final report. This commission represents the first comprehensive study of law enforcement in more than 55 years, and the report includes hundreds of practical recommendations.

Enclosed is the hard copy of that report, and your commissioner nameplate that we unfortunately were not able to use as extensively when we were required to move to remote activities. Once again, I would like to extend my appreciation to you for the dedication and commitment you demonstrated throughout our work together. I also hope that we may continue to collectively work to pursue the advancements outlined within the commission's final report. I remain humbled and honored to have served with you, and look forward to our paths crossing again very soon.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Phil Keith". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long, sweeping tail on the letter "k".

Phil Keith

Chair, President's Commission on Law Enforcement and
the Administration of Justice

January 12, 2021

Dear Commissioner Evans:

On December 22, 2020, following months of your unrelenting work through virtual meetings, hearings, and commission discussions, the President's Commission on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice released its final report. This commission represents the first comprehensive study of law enforcement in more than 55 years, and the report includes hundreds of practical recommendations.

Enclosed is the hard copy of that report, and your commissioner nameplate that we unfortunately were not able to use as extensively when we were required to move to remote activities. Once again, I would like to extend my appreciation to you for the dedication and commitment you demonstrated throughout our work together. I also hope that we may continue to collectively work to pursue the advancements outlined within the commission's final report. I remain humbled and honored to have served with you, and look forward to our paths crossing again very soon.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Phil Keith". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long, sweeping tail on the letter "k".

Phil Keith

Chair, President's Commission on Law Enforcement and
the Administration of Justice

January 12, 2021

Dear Commissioner Frazier:

On December 22, 2020, following months of your unrelenting work through virtual meetings, hearings, and commission discussions, the President's Commission on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice released its final report. This commission represents the first comprehensive study of law enforcement in more than 55 years, and the report includes hundreds of practical recommendations.

Enclosed is the hard copy of that report, and your commissioner nameplate that we unfortunately were not able to use as extensively when we were required to move to remote activities. Once again, I would like to extend my appreciation to you for the dedication and commitment you demonstrated throughout our work together. I also hope that we may continue to collectively work to pursue the advancements outlined within the commission's final report. I remain humbled and honored to have served with you, and look forward to our paths crossing again very soon.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Phil Keith". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long, sweeping tail on the letter "k".

Phil Keith

Chair, President's Commission on Law Enforcement and
the Administration of Justice

January 12, 2021

Dear Commissioner Gualtieri:

On December 22, 2020, following months of your unrelenting work through virtual meetings, hearings, and commission discussions, the President's Commission on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice released its final report. This commission represents the first comprehensive study of law enforcement in more than 55 years, and the report includes hundreds of practical recommendations.

Enclosed is the hard copy of that report, and your commissioner nameplate that we unfortunately were not able to use as extensively when we were required to move to remote activities. Once again, I would like to extend my appreciation to you for the dedication and commitment you demonstrated throughout our work together. I also hope that we may continue to collectively work to pursue the advancements outlined within the commission's final report. I remain humbled and honored to have served with you, and look forward to our paths crossing again very soon.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Phil Keith". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long, sweeping tail on the letter "k".

Phil Keith

Chair, President's Commission on Law Enforcement and
the Administration of Justice

January 12, 2021

Dear Commissioner Hawkins:

On December 22, 2020, following months of your unrelenting work through virtual meetings, hearings, and commission discussions, the President's Commission on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice released its final report. This commission represents the first comprehensive study of law enforcement in more than 55 years, and the report includes hundreds of practical recommendations.

Enclosed is the hard copy of that report, and your commissioner nameplate that we unfortunately were not able to use as extensively when we were required to move to remote activities. Once again, I would like to extend my appreciation to you for the dedication and commitment you demonstrated throughout our work together. I also hope that we may continue to collectively work to pursue the advancements outlined within the commission's final report. I remain humbled and honored to have served with you, and look forward to our paths crossing again very soon.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Phil Keith". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long, sweeping tail on the letter "k".

Phil Keith

Chair, President's Commission on Law Enforcement and
the Administration of Justice

January 12, 2021

Dear Commissioner Lombardo:

On December 22, 2020, following months of your unrelenting work through virtual meetings, hearings, and commission discussions, the President's Commission on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice released its final report. This commission represents the first comprehensive study of law enforcement in more than 55 years, and the report includes hundreds of practical recommendations.

Enclosed is the hard copy of that report, and your commissioner nameplate that we unfortunately were not able to use as extensively when we were required to move to remote activities. Once again, I would like to extend my appreciation to you for the dedication and commitment you demonstrated throughout our work together. I also hope that we may continue to collectively work to pursue the advancements outlined within the commission's final report. I remain humbled and honored to have served with you, and look forward to our paths crossing again very soon.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Phil Keith". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long, sweeping tail on the letter "k".

Phil Keith

Chair, President's Commission on Law Enforcement and
the Administration of Justice

January 12, 2021

Dear Commissioner MacDonald:

On December 22, 2020, following months of your unrelenting work through virtual meetings, hearings, and commission discussions, the President's Commission on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice released its final report. This commission represents the first comprehensive study of law enforcement in more than 55 years, and the report includes hundreds of practical recommendations.

Enclosed is the hard copy of that report, and your commissioner nameplate that we unfortunately were not able to use as extensively when we were required to move to remote activities. Once again, I would like to extend my appreciation to you for the dedication and commitment you demonstrated throughout our work together. I also hope that we may continue to collectively work to pursue the advancements outlined within the commission's final report. I remain humbled and honored to have served with you, and look forward to our paths crossing again very soon.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Phil Keith". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long, sweeping tail on the letter "h".

Phil Keith

Chair, President's Commission on Law Enforcement and
the Administration of Justice

January 12, 2021

Dear Commissioner Moody:

On December 22, 2020, following months of your unrelenting work through virtual meetings, hearings, and commission discussions, the President's Commission on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice released its final report. This commission represents the first comprehensive study of law enforcement in more than 55 years, and the report includes hundreds of practical recommendations.

Enclosed is the hard copy of that report, and your commissioner nameplate that we unfortunately were not able to use as extensively when we were required to move to remote activities. Once again, I would like to extend my appreciation to you for the dedication and commitment you demonstrated throughout our work together. I also hope that we may continue to collectively work to pursue the advancements outlined within the commission's final report. I remain humbled and honored to have served with you, and look forward to our paths crossing again very soon.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Phil Keith". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long, sweeping tail on the letter "k".

Phil Keith

Chair, President's Commission on Law Enforcement and
the Administration of Justice

January 12, 2021

Dear Commissioner Parr:

On December 22, 2020, following months of your unrelenting work through virtual meetings, hearings, and commission discussions, the President's Commission on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice released its final report. This commission represents the first comprehensive study of law enforcement in more than 55 years, and the report includes hundreds of practical recommendations.

Enclosed is the hard copy of that report, and your commissioner nameplate that we unfortunately were not able to use as extensively when we were required to move to remote activities. Once again, I would like to extend my appreciation to you for the dedication and commitment you demonstrated throughout our work together. I also hope that we may continue to collectively work to pursue the advancements outlined within the commission's final report. I remain humbled and honored to have served with you, and look forward to our paths crossing again very soon.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Phil Keith". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long, sweeping tail on the letter "k".

Phil Keith

Chair, President's Commission on Law Enforcement and
the Administration of Justice

January 12, 2021

Dear Commissioner Price:

On December 22, 2020, following months of your unrelenting work through virtual meetings, hearings, and commission discussions, the President's Commission on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice released its final report. This commission represents the first comprehensive study of law enforcement in more than 55 years, and the report includes hundreds of practical recommendations.

Enclosed is the hard copy of that report, and your commissioner nameplate that we unfortunately were not able to use as extensively when we were required to move to remote activities. Once again, I would like to extend my appreciation to you for the dedication and commitment you demonstrated throughout our work together. I also hope that we may continue to collectively work to pursue the advancements outlined within the commission's final report. I remain humbled and honored to have served with you, and look forward to our paths crossing again very soon.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Phil Keith". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long, sweeping tail on the letter "k".

Phil Keith

Chair, President's Commission on Law Enforcement and
the Administration of Justice

January 12, 2021

Dear Commissioner Ramsay:

On December 22, 2020, following months of your unrelenting work through virtual meetings, hearings, and commission discussions, the President's Commission on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice released its final report. This commission represents the first comprehensive study of law enforcement in more than 55 years, and the report includes hundreds of practical recommendations.

Enclosed is the hard copy of that report, and your commissioner nameplate that we unfortunately were not able to use as extensively when we were required to move to remote activities. Once again, I would like to extend my appreciation to you for the dedication and commitment you demonstrated throughout our work together. I also hope that we may continue to collectively work to pursue the advancements outlined within the commission's final report. I remain humbled and honored to have served with you, and look forward to our paths crossing again very soon.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Phil Keith". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Phil Keith

Chair, President's Commission on Law Enforcement and
the Administration of Justice

January 12, 2021

Dear Commissioner Rausch:

On December 22, 2020, following months of your unrelenting work through virtual meetings, hearings, and commission discussions, the President's Commission on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice released its final report. This commission represents the first comprehensive study of law enforcement in more than 55 years, and the report includes hundreds of practical recommendations.

Enclosed is the hard copy of that report, and your commissioner nameplate that we unfortunately were not able to use as extensively when we were required to move to remote activities. Once again, I would like to extend my appreciation to you for the dedication and commitment you demonstrated throughout our work together. I also hope that we may continue to collectively work to pursue the advancements outlined within the commission's final report. I remain humbled and honored to have served with you, and look forward to our paths crossing again very soon.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Phil Keith". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long, sweeping tail on the letter "k".

Phil Keith

Chair, President's Commission on Law Enforcement and
the Administration of Justice

January 12, 2021

Dear Commissioner Samaniego:

On December 22, 2020, following months of your unrelenting work through virtual meetings, hearings, and commission discussions, the President's Commission on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice released its final report. This commission represents the first comprehensive study of law enforcement in more than 55 years, and the report includes hundreds of practical recommendations.

Enclosed is the hard copy of that report, and your commissioner nameplate that we unfortunately were not able to use as extensively when we were required to move to remote activities. Once again, I would like to extend my appreciation to you for the dedication and commitment you demonstrated throughout our work together. I also hope that we may continue to collectively work to pursue the advancements outlined within the commission's final report. I remain humbled and honored to have served with you, and look forward to our paths crossing again very soon.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Phil Keith". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long, sweeping tail on the letter "k".

Phil Keith

Chair, President's Commission on Law Enforcement and
the Administration of Justice

January 12, 2021

Dear Commissioner Smallwood:

On December 22, 2020, following months of your unrelenting work through virtual meetings, hearings, and commission discussions, the President's Commission on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice released its final report. This commission represents the first comprehensive study of law enforcement in more than 55 years, and the report includes hundreds of practical recommendations.

Enclosed is the hard copy of that report, and your commissioner nameplate that we unfortunately were not able to use as extensively when we were required to move to remote activities. Once again, I would like to extend my appreciation to you for the dedication and commitment you demonstrated throughout our work together. I also hope that we may continue to collectively work to pursue the advancements outlined within the commission's final report. I remain humbled and honored to have served with you, and look forward to our paths crossing again very soon.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Phil Keith". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Phil Keith

Chair, President's Commission on Law Enforcement and
the Administration of Justice

January 12, 2021

Dear Commissioner Washington:

On December 22, 2020, following months of your unrelenting work through virtual meetings, hearings, and commission discussions, the President's Commission on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice released its final report. This commission represents the first comprehensive study of law enforcement in more than 55 years, and the report includes hundreds of practical recommendations.

Enclosed is the hard copy of that report, and your commissioner nameplate that we unfortunately were not able to use as extensively when we were required to move to remote activities. Once again, I would like to extend my appreciation to you for the dedication and commitment you demonstrated throughout our work together. I also hope that we may continue to collectively work to pursue the advancements outlined within the commission's final report. I remain humbled and honored to have served with you, and look forward to our paths crossing again very soon.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Phil Keith". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long, sweeping tail on the letter "k".

Phil Keith

Chair, President's Commission on Law Enforcement and
the Administration of Justice

January 12, 2021

Dear Commissioner Keith:

On December 22, 2020, following months of your unrelenting work through virtual meetings, hearings, and commission discussions, the President's Commission on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice released its final report. This commission represents the first comprehensive study of law enforcement in more than 55 years, and the report includes hundreds of practical recommendations.

Enclosed is the hard copy of that report, and your commissioner nameplate that we unfortunately were not able to use as extensively when we were required to move to remote activities. Once again, I would like to extend my appreciation to you for the dedication and commitment you demonstrated throughout our work together. I also hope that we may continue to collectively work to pursue the advancements outlined within the commission's final report. I remain humbled and honored to have served with you, and look forward to our paths crossing again very soon.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Phil Keith". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long, sweeping tail on the letter "k".

Phil Keith

Chair, President's Commission on Law Enforcement and
the Administration of Justice

