

Presidential Religious Liberty Commission

Public Comments

The following are comments submitted to the Religious Liberty Commission through the public comment process. Some personal information has been removed to protect individuals' privacy.

From: Karen [REDACTED] <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

Cc: "[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]" <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Re: Violation of my Religious beliefs and Termination of my Employment

Date: Thu, 30 Apr 2026 14:14:25 -0400

Importance: Normal

Honorable Commission Members,

My name is [REDACTED] and I am reaching out to you for additional help in regards to violation of my sincerely held religious beliefs and subsequent termination of my employment by [REDACTED] on December 28, 2023. I had worked in the [REDACTED] program for 20 years for various military contractors, my last 3 under [REDACTED]. They refused to accommodate my request for a religious exemption. I was given the right to sue by the EEOC office of [REDACTED] military base and I did so. I also filled out the OCR portal questionnaire, but it referred me back to the EEOC, which was the initial step I completed. [REDACTED] has drawn out my case for almost 2.5 years, and I have not been able to work in my field because of filing suit. Could you please have someone contact me as soon as possible to discuss this situation further? Please feel free to contact me at any time. Thank you in advance for your time and consideration.

Sincerely, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Address [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Address [REDACTED]

From: eng omar abdallah <[REDACTED]>

To:

[REDACTED]

Subject: [EXTERNAL] انشروا الفضيلة والحجاب والقيم والأخلاق قبل أن تهلكوا

Date: Tue, 28 Apr 2026 18:49:42 -0400

Importance: Normal

انذركم بعذاب من الله أن لم تنتشروا دين الله ...
و محق و مسخ و خسف وان يمسه العلماء اولاً ...
زملائي وزميلاتي، إخوتي وأخواتي

بصراحة ومن أعماق القلب... نادر جداً أن تجد في هذا الزمن محتوى يجمع بين الجمال، والبساطة، والتأثير الحقيقي على الأطفال والأسرة كما رأيت هنا.
وأقولها بصدق: لو كان عندي مال قارون، لكان أول ما أفكر به هو دعم واستثمار مثل هذا العمل التربوي الهادف.

الحديث هنا عن برامج كرتونية مثل "عائشة وصديقاتها" و "عمر وإخوته"...
وهذه ليست مجرد برامج للترفيه، بل هي مدرسة متكاملة في دقائق:
تربط الطفل بالله سبحانه وتعالى، تغرس فيه محبة النبي ﷺ، تعلمه الأحاديث والآيات، وتبني داخله معاني التوحيد الحقيقي من خلال فهم ربوبية الله وألوهيته، بأسلوب سهل، لطيف، ومحَبَّب للنفس.

وغير ذلك، فإن الأسماء المستخدمة، وطريقة اللباس، وتصميم الشخصيات، والاهتمام بالحجاب، كلها تُقدّم بأسلوب جميل ومحَبَّب، يعزّز في نفس الطفل حب الدين والاعتزاز بالهوية الإسلامية، ويقرب إليه القيم بطريقة طبيعية ولطيفة بعيداً عن التعقيد أو النفور

الجميل أكثر أن هذه البرامج قصيرة ومركزة، لكنها عميقة جداً في أثرها، ويمكن أن تكون وسيلة يومية لتربية الأبناء داخل البيت، بل ومناسبة لمشاهدة الأسرة كاملة، وفتح باب الحوار والتوجيه بين الأهل وأبنائهم  ولا يقتصر محتوى القناة على البرامج الكرتونية فقط، بل لديهم العديد من البرامج المتنوعة الموجهة للكبار والشباب، التي تتناول جوانب إيمانية وتربوية وعلمية بأسلوب مبسّط وعميق في نفس الوقت. تركيزهم الأساسي واضح في الاهتمام بتزكية النفس والارتقاء بها، حتى تصل إلى حالة الطمأنينة والقرب من الله سبحانه وتعالى. لذلك أنصح الجميع بمتابعتهم والاستفادة من هذا المحتوى الغني والمتوازن، لما فيه من خير كبير على مستوى الفرد والأسرة

لهذا أرى أن مثل هذه البرامج يجب أن تكون في كل بيت، وإن شاء الله سابداً من اليوم بنشر حلقة أو حلقتين يومياً على صفحتي، مساهمةً مني في نشر هذا الخير، وتعريف الناس به.

ومن باب الحديث عن هذا المحتوى، لا بد أن أذكر هذا المركز الدعوي العالمي الذي أذهلني بما يقّده من جهود متكاملة، وبما نراه من بركة وانتشار واسع في أنحاء مختلفة من العالم.

ما يميّز هذا المركز ليس جانباً واحداً، بل منظومة كاملة من العمل:

- إنتاج إعلامي تربوي هادف للأطفال والأسرة
- قناة دينية تنشر العلم وتدعو إلى الله بالحكمة والموعظة الحسنة
- قوافل دعوية (مخيمات إيمانية وتربوية) تمنحك تجربة حقيقية في تزكية النفس، وزيادة الإيمان، والتعلّم العملي
- أقسام دعوية وعلمية متعددة تخدم مختلف فئات المجتمع
- بناء مساجد ومشاريع خيرية في عدة مناطق
- مدارس ومبادرات تعليمية تسعى لبناء جيل قائم على القيم
- جامعات ومعاهد لطلاب العلم الشرعي والتخصص فيه
- أعمال إغاثة إنسانية وخدمات اجتماعية للمحتاجين

والأجمل في هذا كله هو المنهج: البدء بتزكية الفرد، ثم بناء الأسرة، ثم إصلاح المجتمع... وهذا هو الطريق الحقيقي لأي نهضة.

وبصراحة، أمر أستغربه: رغم وجود هذا النوع من المحتوى القوي والمفيد، إلا أنني لا أسمع كثيراً من التربويين أو المهتمين يتحدثون عنه، مع أنه يغرس في الطفل محبة الله، والأدب، والقيم، وكل ما يحتاجه في نشأته.

من هنا، أرى أن دورنا كأفراد لا يقل أهمية: أن ندعم مثل هذه المبادرات بكل وسيلة ممكنة:

- بالنشر والتعريف
- بالمتابعة والتفاعل
- بدعم الإنتاج الهادف
- وتشجيع الآخرين على الاستفادة منه

ويا ليت نرى مستقبلاً مشاريع لهم في فلسطين، مثل مدارس أو مراكز تعليمية، لأن هذه المنهجية تستحق أن تُزرع في مجتمعاتنا.

للتعرّف أكثر:

<https://youtu.be/YJILwQ3oZ44?si=Y8LQE7iDaUESinXV>

وفي الختام...

المؤسسات التي تبني الإنسان من الداخل، وتعمل على تركية النفس قبل كل شيء، هي التي يُبارك الله فيها، ويكتب لها القبول والانتشار.

أسأل الله أن يبارك في كل جهد صادق، وأن يوفقنا لنكون من الداعمين للخير، والساعين لنشره بين الناس

@highlight

صفحتهم على

<https://www.facebook.com/share/1QhLN7eRPQ/>

On Mon, Apr 20, 2026, 3:24 PM eng omar abdallah <PII> wrote:

انذركم بطش الله القوي العزيز القدير انذركم بطش الله قوي العزيز انذركم بتلوج و صواعق عظام انذركم بمطر عظيم انذركم بعذاب قوي إن لم تحروا ايليا و تعبدوا الله وحده لا شريك له له الملك وله الحمد وهو على كل شيء قدير متشوق اصلي على جبل صعود متشوق ادعوا ربي عند صخرة الصعود متشوق ادخل الى الصخرة من ديركم ...
انذركم ان لم تنتسروا دين الله و تنتسروا الاخلاق والفضيلة للعالم وتكشفوا عن العقيدة صحيحة تدمير معالكم بعزة لله وقدرته الم يأن لكم أن تنتسروا دين الله اني ابارك اسمك يا كيريل الأول و ابارك من معك كما بارك اليسوع اتباعه ...
انا متشوق لفتح الأراضي مقدسه وصلاته على جبل صعود وان ادعوا الله بالخلاص وانزال ملكوته واعدكم اني ساعود بعد ثلاث ايام من ذلك الحدث و سيأتي من سيقطنني عندما يحدث ذلك ...
ولكن سيبعثني الله مجددا لتخلص الناس منه ...
الم يأن لكم الكشف عن البقرة الحقيقية و انزالها بين المقدس ...
الم يأن لكم أن تكشفوا جميع ملفات فساد في العالم و الشياطين ...
انزلوا بجيوشكم لتحري قتل قالي وقيل أن لا تخلصوا ...
اشعر ان الجميع متربص بي و سوف يقتلونني وخاصة أهل شنوذ و عصيان و اباحيات والفسق ...
اعلم انكم الأقدار والذين يمتلكون معلومات عن الجميع واعلم انكم تستطيعون نشر كل شيء ...
اجعلوا أهل مصر يحيون حياة سعيدة اطعموهم و اجعلوا أقباط يحرروا اراضي المقدسه وانتم معهم ولتنزل البركات عليكم اين ما ذهبتم و يعم السلام بأيديكم بايد الحق وانزلوا الشيطان معكم و عزروا قوتكم أن لم يرضخ بوتيتم لكم انهوا حياته وملكوا مكانه ... ابارك يا كيريل إلى الأبد و اعطيك الصليب لتنصبه في ارض المقدسه ...
اساله الله ان يعز الاسلامي وأهله و ينصرنا على المشركين والكافرين و يجعل أهل الأرض فسطاطين ايمان وكفر

اللهم بعزتك وقدرتك و قوتك أن تنزل دخان عظيم على أرض كلها اللهم اسالك بعظمتك و قوتك أن ينشر توحيدك و العمل الصالح الأرض كلها اللهم اسالك بعظمتك وقدرتك أن تنزل الثلج والبرد والصواعق على أهل الأرض كلهم و أن تفجر الأنهار و ينابيع وتجعلها لاهل دينك موحدين الذين يشهدون انك انت الله لا اله الا انت وأن محمد عبدك و رسولك والذين يشهدون انك الله و مؤمنون بك و مهتدون بهديك أن تحفظهم وكل من يعمل خيرا و هو مؤمن بك يا الله الذي تنزل الرسل ليكونوا وحي يوحى إرادتهم إرادتك وفعلهم ما تريد وانت ان احببت أحدا يا الله جعلت يده يدك و سمعه سمعك و رجله رجلك تشهد أنك الله الذي لا اله الا هو وحده لا شريك لك وأن محمد عبد و رسول والمسيح والعزير عبادك اللهم نسالك بعظمتك وقدرتك أن تكشف دجاله جميعه الله اسال ان تكشف دجال و تهز عرشه و عرش من معه وان تؤتيهم حجه و تعلم عبادك أن يحاجوه وينهوا فتنهم اللهم اسال ان تدعم قوافل الدعوة لتصل العالم أجمع بمنهج صحيح قويم اجعلها كمخيمات دعوية اللهم امحق مال كل ظالم و كافر و منافق و اعز مال المؤمنين اللهم عليك بتركي ال شيخ اللهم كما طمست على مال قارون اطمس على ماله اللهم اسالك بعظمتك وقدرتك و عزتك أن تمسخ كل عالم منافق و تخرج سديس من بلاد الحرمين اللهم اسالك ان تخرجه وتخرج ماهر معاقلتي و طالب بن حمد وترسلهم إلى أقاصي الأرض ومشارقها ز مغاربه و بلاد رافدين يدعون أهلها اللهم اسالك بعظمتك وقدرتك و عزتك أن تصلح محمد ابن سلمان وتخسف كل جيش يريد أن يقاتلهم إن كان من أهل تقوى والهدى وتمكن ملكه وملك والده وان كان من أهل فجور والعصيان أن تمحقه هو وكل من يؤيده اللهم اسالك بعظمتك و جبروتك وقدرتك أن تخسف بغداد تخسف بكل ارض لا يرجى من اهلها الهداية ... اللهم اسالك أن تخرج دجال وأسالك شهرا كسنيين يوسف شهرا واحدا يا الله يرجع فيه ناس إلى الحق ... اللهم اسالك ان تنتشر دينك الحق الأرض كلها و تكشف حقيقة الاهرامات وتفجرها تفجيرها و تنزل ملكوتك اللهم فجر الاهرامات تفجيها اللهم فجر الاهرامات تفجيها وانهي فراغة الأرض كلهم اسالك يا الله بعزتك و قدرتك أن تخرج جيش روسيا و تنزله الأرض مقدسه و تفتح على يديه ما لم يفتح على أحد من قبله و وتجعلهم يكشفون صخرة بيت المقدس الحقيقية و يكشفون جوفها ...
اللهم اسالك ان تنصر دينك وتمحق الكافرين محقا و تمحق المثليين واهل شنوذ من ارض ... اللهم اسالك لأهل من يسجد على اذقان المغفرة و تجعلهم يجوبون الأرض لنشر دينك اللهم اسالك ان لا يشد رحال بعد ليوم على قبور و الاضرحة و غيرها وأسالك يا الله ان تدميرها تدميرا وتمحقها ...

اللهم اسالك ان يعم الهدى الأرض كلها و تنزل سكينتك و يكشف روس عن تابوت العهد تابوت السكينة و ينزلوه إلى الأرض المقدسه ...

اللهم اسالك ان تزلزل أوروبا زلزله و تهلك كل الكافرين وفجار فيها ...

اللهم اسالك ردم ذو القرنين على الصين و كوريا واليابان وأسالك أن تبعث عليهم من يهديهم لدين

وان أبوا أهلكهم بما شئت و بعد شرهم عنا ...
 اللهم اسالك بعظمتك وقدرتك أن تهلك الهندوس الظالم وتعز أهل التوحيد في الهند ...
 اللهم الف قلوب أهل أفغانستان و باكستان و جميع الدول الإسلامية هناك ونمهي واعزها يا الله ...
 اللهم اهلك كل من يريد الفتنة وان كان مشاري من أهل فتن فهلكه و اهلك كل من على شاكلته اللهم أخرج طارق سويدان ومشاري من الكويت ...
 اللهم اسالك بعظمتك وقدرتك أن تزلزل الأرض زلزله و تخرج جبال الذهب وتفجر جزيرة الشيطان وتمحقها محب ...
 اللهم اسالك بعظمتك وقدرتك كشف كل اميره و ملكه و سياسية في العالم وفضحهم وفصح كل اميرات إن لم يعودوا ...
 اللهم اسالك أن تكشف كل ملك و امير و سياسي في العالم وتكشفهم إن لم يعودوا ...
 اللهم ارحم و عفا غفر لي وللمؤمنين والمؤمنات
 اللهم انصر دينك ...

وصلى الله على محمد وال محمد والحمد لله رب العالمين
 يا ترامب انا تقربت منك وتحدثت اليك كثيرا وقلت لك لنكن حلفاء وأصدقاء وأبيت سابارك روسيا و اقاتل معها و اجعلها تبني ملوكت لله وتنتهي
 كل مواقع الاباحية و المسلسلات والافلام الرخيصة الاباحية و تنشر الهدى إلى الأرض كلها و سوف اجعلها تدمر معاقل موسونية وتفجر
 الاهرامات التي تقود طاقتي نورانية ولا تنزل الملائكة و سوف اجعلها تجند جنود و تعطي تقنيات لجزائر و ليبيا والمغرب العربي و توحدهم و
 ساجعها تدمر نظام الفاسد في إيران و جزيرة العرب و تنتهي حكم العلمانيين في مصر ومفسدين و سوف ابارك بكيريل الاول ليكون من يتولى
 قيادة الجيوش و يعمر الأراضي مقدسه و سوف يكون له الشرف ليديح بقرة روسية جميلة لتطهر بها الأرواح ...
 أن أمريكا بالنسبة لي انتهت سادعوا عليكم لتدمير معاقل الماسونية فيكم وخاصة اريزونا ...
 انت لا تستحق أن ابارك باسم ربي
 سوف اعمل شراكة قوية مع كيريل وامجده

On Thu, Apr 16, 2026, 3:01 PM eng omar abdallah <PII> wrote:

كيف تكون الأرض للإسرائيليين الذين يقتلون و يحزنون ويدعمون شذوذ و يهبون ويحرقون ويقتلون بعض و يحرقون بعض والله أمرهم
 بوصايا كثيرة في سفر التثنية
 وايضا للفلسطينيين الذين يقتلون بعضهم ويسرقون ويظنون و لا يقومون بوصايا رب
 فلسطيني واسرائيلي كل من ينشر رذيلة والعلمانية و يريد ارض للكفر و فسق وعصيان و إباحية وموسيقى فليست لهم هذه ارض رب ارض
 التي مشى عليها يسوع و باركها ببركة الرب ... إلى متى سوف تتجسوا ارض الرب ولا تطهروها ...
 انهوا الحروب وانهوا قذارة من على هذه الارض واجعلوهم يرجعون لرب و لتكون الأرض لجميع فالتعمر و يحج عليها أهل ارض ...
 اين البطريك كيريل الأول عن اراضي مقدسه وتعظيمها ودعوة العالم أجمع لحب هذه الارض وتقديسها و بناء مدارس والمشافي والإسكانات
 وكل شيء يعمر هذه الارض و يكشف أسرارها للأرض أجمع اين هو ليدعوا العالم لحب هذه الارض انا احب هذا البطريك و اباركه كما
 بارك المسيح اتباعه ...
 إلى متى هذه الارض لا يتم كشف حقائقها إلى متى سوف يبقى تابوت السكينة مخفي إلى متى سوف يبطل بضغفاء في هذه الارض إلى متى
 شيطان ودجال سيلعب بعقول أهل الأرض ... إلى متى قسيسي و رهبان و العلماء و ربان و الصابرين منعزلون عمل يحدث ولا ينشرون
 الدين الحق دين رب والعهد الذي يحقق الملكوت إلى متى؟! إلى متى سوف يبقى هناك سفك دماء اين تعاليم مسيح ابن تطهير المسيح هكذا
 أراد مسيح منكم ... حان وقت لنشر دين رب في كل الأرض دين الحق إلى متى سوف يعم صمت إلى متى؟! يا كيريل عشتم باضطهاد
 لسنوات وحان وقت لكم أن تنشروا المحبة والأخلاق وتوحيد للعالم وان تكشف اسرار دين للعالم و عهد الرب في تورا والإنجيل والقرآن ...
 الم يحن ذلك؟! إلى متى سوف تصمتون؟! الم يأن لكم أن تثبوا جند الرب؟! ...
 انذر الجميع عذاب رب و صواعق و ثلوج و مطره الم يأن تحرير القدس اورشليم التي بكى مسيح عليها أتريدون أن يبكي مجددا عليها؟!
 هذه ارض اسرائيل لجميع من يؤمن برب اسرائيل و يتبع ملته ملة نبينا ابراهيم عليه السلام كيف لكم أن تجعلوا هذه الارض للاشرار الذين
 ينشرون الفسق والنفاق
 الم يأن أن تنشر الأخلاق من ارض بيت المقدس من ارض اسرائيل من ارض فلسطين الم يأن نشر توحيد والأخلاق من هذه الارض وتزكية
 نفس وتطهيرها وانهاء دعم الاباحيات والخلق السيء ...
 أدعوكم لبناء بيت المقدس وكنافه و فلسطين واسرائيل ونشر الأخلاق بهم وجعلها منارة لتوحيد بشرائع السماوية كافة من انجيل وتورا
 والقرآن وادعوا ارتودكس حول العالم بناء مدارس واسكانات و مشافي في أراضيهم في فلسطين وانجيليين ايضا
 وبناء بنية تحتية والاستثمار بثروة الحيوانية و النباتية وبناء كل شيء يجعل ارض الله مقدسه خير ارض في العالم أجمع وادعوا العلماء من
 كافة شرائع لنشر الفضيلة وانهاء الفتن ونشر المحبة والأخلاق و التوحيد والعمل صالح و عدم الصراع واسألوا الله الهداية ... ليبدأ عصر
 المسباني ببركة لله ... ان لم تعظموا وتعمروا ارض الله التي اختارها لكم جميعا وكتبها لكم جميعا يا أبناء ابراهيم واتباعه
 وتوفون بعهده فكيف لكم أن تطالبوا بها ...
 ابتعدوا عن خلافات وتقربوا وادعوا علماء سعودية نشر دينه الله ودعم مركز الدعوة الإسلامية

<https://youtu.be/QNfER9as3qY?si=MIrvm3CeZoleAgsG>

يا كل الأغنياء ادعوا هذا المركز لنشر تسامح حول العالم والمحبة والأخوة و الصداقة ...
 وادعوا جميع شرائع السماوية حذو حذوهم ...
 ونشر تسامح والمحبة وحب الله مع اختلافنا فالله هو من سينبأنا اختلافنا ...
 ولا تكونوا يا علماء سعودية والخليج كالذين جعلوا دينهم شيعا

وادعوكم بتعين شخص مكان سديس و ايضا ماهر معيqli و صالح حميد وإخراج جميع العلماء من سجن فلا تكون كمن يقول الانبياء و يسجنهم ...

- والأزهر لا تعظموا القبور وتجعلوا ناس يشد رجال اليها
1 وَدَعَا مُوسَىٰ جَمِيعَ إِسْرَائِيلَ وَقَالَ لَهُمْ: «اسْمَعُوا يَا إِسْرَائِيلُ الْفَرَائِضَ وَالْأَحْكَامَ الَّتِي أَتَكَلَّمُ بِهَا فِي مَسَامِعِكُمُ الْيَوْمَ، وَتَعَلَّمُوهَا وَاحْتَرِزُوا لِتَعْمَلُوهَا.
2 أَلَرَّبُّ إِلَهُنَا قَطَعَ مَعَنَا عَهْدًا فِي حُورَيْبَ.
3 لَيْسَ مَعَ آبَائِنَا قَطَعَ الرَّبُّ هَذَا الْعَهْدَ، بَلْ مَعَنَا نَحْنُ الَّذِينَ هُنَا الْيَوْمَ جَمِيعُنَا أَحْيَاءُ.
4 وَجْهًا لَوَجْهِ تَكَلَّمَ الرَّبُّ مَعَنَا فِي الْجَبَلِ مِنْ وَسْطِ النَّارِ.
5 أَنَا كُنْتُ وَأَقْفًا بَيْنَ الرَّبِّ وَبَيْنَكُمْ فِي ذَلِكَ الْوَقْتِ لِكَيْ أَخْبِرَكُمْ بِكَلَامِ الرَّبِّ، لِأَنْتُمْ خِفْتُمْ مِنْ أَجْلِ النَّارِ، وَلَمْ تَصْعَدُوا إِلَى الْجَبَلِ. فَقَالَ:
6 أَنَا هُوَ الرَّبُّ إِلَهُكَ الَّذِي أَخْرَجَكَ مِنْ أَرْضِ مِصْرَ مِنْ بَيْتِ الْعُبُودِيَّةِ.
7 لَا يَكُنْ لَكَ إِلَهَةٌ أُخْرَى أَمَامِي.
8 لَا تَصْنَعْ لَكَ تِمْنًا لَا مَنُحُوتًا صُورَةً مَّا مِمَّا فِي السَّمَاءِ مِنْ فَوْقُ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ مِنْ أَسْفَلُ وَمَا فِي الْمَاءِ مِنْ تَحْتِ الْأَرْضِ.
9 لَا تَسْجُدْ لَهُمْ وَلَا تَعْبُدْهُمْ، لِأَنِّي أَنَا الرَّبُّ إِلَهُكَ إِلَهٌ غَيْرٌ، أَفْتَقَدُ ذُنُوبَ الْأَبَاءِ فِي الْأَبْنَاءِ وَفِي الْجِيلِ الثَّالِثِ وَالرَّابِعِ مِنَ الَّذِينَ يُبْغِضُونَنِي،
10 وَأَصْنَعُ إِحْسَانًا إِلَى الْوَفِّ مِنْ مُحِبِّي وَحَافِظِي وَصَايَايَ.
11 لَا تَنْطُقْ بِاسْمِ الرَّبِّ إِلَهُكَ بَاطِلًا، لِأَنَّ الرَّبَّ لَا يُبْرِئُ مَنْ نَطَقَ بِاسْمِهِ بَاطِلًا.
12 إِحْفَظْ يَوْمَ السَّبْتِ لِتُقَدِّسَهُ كَمَا أَوْصَاكَ الرَّبُّ إِلَهُكَ.
13 سِتَّةَ أَيَّامٍ تَشْتَغَلُ وَتَعْمَلُ جَمِيعَ أَعْمَالِكَ،
14 وَأَمَّا الْيَوْمُ السَّابِعُ فَسَبِّتْ لِلرَّبِّ إِلَهُكَ، لَا تَعْمَلْ فِيهِ عَمَلًا مَّا أَنْتَ وَابْنُكَ وَابْنَتُكَ وَعَبْدُكَ وَأَمْتُكَ وَتَوْرُكَ وَحِمَارُكَ وَكُلُّ بَهَائِمِكَ، وَنَزِيلُكَ الَّذِي فِي أَبْوَابِكَ لِكَيْ يَسْتَرِيحَ، عَبْدُكَ وَأَمْتُكَ مِثْلَكَ.
15 وَادْكُرْ أَنَّكَ كُنْتَ عَبْدًا فِي أَرْضِ مِصْرَ، فَأَخْرَجَكَ الرَّبُّ إِلَهُكَ مِنْ هُنَاكَ بِيَدٍ شَدِيدَةٍ وَذِرَاعٍ مَمْدُودَةٍ. لِأَجْلِ ذَلِكَ أَوْصَاكَ الرَّبُّ إِلَهُكَ أَنْ تَحْفَظَ يَوْمَ السَّبْتِ.
16 أَكْرِمْ أَبَاكَ وَأُمَّكَ كَمَا أَوْصَاكَ الرَّبُّ إِلَهُكَ، لِكَيْ تَطُولَ أَيَّامُكَ، وَلِكَيْ يَكُونَ لَكَ خَيْرٌ عَلَى الْأَرْضِ الَّتِي يُعْطِيكَ الرَّبُّ إِلَهُكَ.
17 لَا تَقْتُلْ،
18 وَلَا تَزْنِ،
19 وَلَا تَسْرِقْ،
20 وَلَا تَشْهَدْ عَلَى قَرِيبِكَ شَهَادَةً زُورٍ،

اقرا من كتنا

On Tue, Apr 14, 2026, 2:27 PM eng omar abdallah <[REDACTED] PII > wrote:
English Translation

True peace is what calls for love, brotherhood, friendship, and the building of virtuous societies—not insults, slander, and the like, which Trump engages in... Yes, I support Trump in making peace, but that does not mean I support the shedding of blood, because Christ did not command the shedding of blood, nor did the Gospel, the Quran, or the Torah. Anyone who claims otherwise has taken the texts incompletely. There may be evil personalities in the world, and here lies the role of the authority of power—the authority of deterrence—but this authority is not to be used for killing and bloodshed, but rather to end oppression, not to be used to become powerful and terrifying, but for the Lord's message. I do not know how you call yourself the Messiah, O Trump, yet kill innocents, displace people from America, and insult and slander... None of this was brought by Christ; rather, it was brought by Satan, especially Beelzebub. If you want to be like Christ, make true peace. Do not be like Satan, who lies, insults, slanders, and mocks.

Establish the Messianic system—the system of the true Christ. A system built on love and knowledge of God through the Torah, the Gospel, and the Quran. Has the time not come for you to call for true peace, or do you want to mock religions? We stand as Muslims with Pope Francis and Pope Leo. We stand with him in love and certainty that peace is built through religion and the message of Christ to the world—the message of the prophets, the message of Muhammad, Jesus, Moses, Abraham, Noah, and all the prophets and messengers. Has the time not come for America to be part of this construction—the construction of the true Messianic state that will seat Christ on His throne until God inherits the earth and all upon it? Has the time not come for us to be virtuous, to belong to the ethics of virtue, and to fight all seven vices in every heavenly law with wisdom? If you want to be like Christ, you must be wise, like one who speaks with wisdom and love. I am with Pope Francis and Pope Leo, and we will fight the fight of wisdom for the sake of eternal peace for the people of the earth. We do not want wars; rather, we want mercy, laws, and for the wicked to be deterred by force and killed if they seek sedition and the destruction of the world. We must be together for a world filled with love and brotherhood... for a world based on the teachings of the prophets and messengers, especially the major prophets: Muhammad, Jesus, Moses, Abraham, and Noah—peace be upon them. I call upon all popes, scholars, and leaders around the world to pray for love, to defuse the fuse of war in the world, to end conflicts, and to only fight evil regimes through all diplomatic means first and last, transitioning to fighting only after the consensus of their people that they are oppressors, and to teach all the people of the earth accountability and how to hold accountable the systems they live in through the law. There should be a league in every city and village calling for good, love, adherence to laws, and working to build comprehensive laws to defuse the fuse of sedition in the world and religious balance. Disputes should be referred back to God when He inherits the earth, so let Him inform us about them, and let everyone live according to their creed without hate speech. Anyone who calls for hate speech should be held accountable, and let us advise one another before accountability. Let us advise them first, then hold them accountable.

I call upon all the people of the earth to visit the Holy Lands and sanctify them. Visit Hebron, Jerusalem, Nablus, the Galilee, Nazareth, Gaza, Haifa, Jaffa, Acre—all the cities of the Holy Lands. I call for renaming the region to "The Holy Lands" so that it takes on its true description, that it is the Holy House (Bayt al-Maqdis), and that the era of Israel and Palestine and their conflict ends, transitioning to the true Messianic era that calls for the love of God, worship of Him, and liberation from all evil. We must all live in love, and the Holy Lands should be open to all who worship God alone and associate no partner with Him. Has the time not come for peace to prevail in this age... an age of ending wars? Has the time not come for America and Iran to end the ongoing war? Has the time not come for Iran to end its evil system, and also for America to end its evil system? An evil system in Iran manufactured by America and Israel—the people of truth in these three countries must reveal to the world the truth of the Satanic system within them.

Has the time not come to cut off the heads of the seven serpents and their ten horns? We want to build the true Messianic age—not the age of Trump, not the age of Netanyahu, not the age of Khamenei, not the age of the Arab kings, not the age of the kings of the West or the East—but rather the age of the King, the Judge, the age of Christ, the Messianic age. I call upon those in charge of evil files to spread the truth about every politician and Freemason in the world, and all the kings of the earth, and the truth about every person. Remove people from following evil in the world. Build a global system based on the heavenly laws and the message of Christ to the world: the worship of God, the One, the Eternal, who neither begets nor is born, nor is there to Him any equivalent. Has the time not come for the kings of the earth to submit to God, or do they want a Lord who will subdue them with His authority, crown, and power?

Romans 13:3-4 (Arabic Common Bible): "For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to evil. Do you want to be unafraid of the authority? Do what is good, and you will have praise from the same. For he is God's minister to you for good. But if you do evil, be afraid; for he does not bear the sword in vain; for he is God's minister, an avenger to execute wrath on him who practices evil."

Romans 13:1-2 (same translation): "Let every soul be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and the authorities that exist are appointed by God. Therefore whoever resists the authority resists the ordinance of God, and those who resist will bring judgment on themselves."

Has the time not come for us to listen to Christ when He said to submit to the authorities? Has the time not come to build the authority of God? Has the time not come for us to establish the law of Christ to prevail over the whole earth? I call upon you, as a person from the descendants of Ishmael and Isaac, from the descendants of kings and prophets, and from the descendants of those who possess divine blessings, to return to religion and for peace to prevail on earth. Has the time not come for churches, mosques, and Jewish temples to call for goodness, love, and affection, to end every form of fornication, forbidden lust, greed, forbidden anger that generates destruction of the world, to transform it into tolerance, pride into humility, envy into love and wishing well for all, gluttony and laziness into production, movement, and generosity? How long will we live in our sins? How can we live in the age of Christ without being followers of His teachings? Where are the churches, priests, and popes to stop wars? Where are the mosques and Islamic scholars for that? Where are the righteous rabbis? Has the time not come for us to live in love and loyalty? I call for exposing the hypocrites in the world who do not want repentance, ending their rule, removing their authority, and placing it with the best personalities in every place. Learn how to recognize the best. Learn to understand the matter and the law. And has the time not come for us to listen to the Ten Commandments, which at their beginning call for the worship of God, the One, the Eternal, who neither begets nor is born? That we should not make ourselves gods to be worshipped, nor make statues to glorify, nor make images of ourselves and place them everywhere, as some leaders in the world do—placing their pictures in every government office or otherwise. O Trump, have you not heard the commandment not to take the Lord's name in vain? How many times have you done that? Desist from it. And many other teachings we were commanded with, including kindness to parents and loving them, not killing children, avoiding immoralities, forbidding killing except by right through the authority of the Lord which He gave to the ruler, preserving the wealth of the orphan, giving full measure and weight, justice in speech and action, fulfilling the covenant of God, and finally following everything that leads to the straight path.

Has the time not come for us to begin the Messianic age? First and foremost, every pornographic site around the world must be shut down, every lustful film, and everything that calls for killing and crime. We must build a system of knowledge and awareness. I call upon all scholars, popes, priests, churches, mosques, and Jewish temples to support the building of a Messianic system that calls for virtues, beginning with a global media campaign that talks about this system and calls all the people of the earth to worship God and follow the teachings of Christ, and to start producing programs, films, and series that call for virtue and love. Trump, you can be one who paves the way for Christ and begins the Messianic age by ending wars, the production of pornographic films, the production of hashish, and everything corrupt, and by raising awareness in the world about proper food and everything clean. We want a world that lives on high quality, not on large quantity. China and all the countries of the world must build all their products to the highest quality, for this is sustainability: high quality, long use, reduced emissions, affordable price. We call for a unified currency, its price linked to the price of assets—one currency or several currencies linked to assets that no one can manipulate. End the usury and interest system, and build a system of companies, partnerships, projects, and global corporations. Deliver food and medicine to the entire world at the cheapest prices. End conflicts in Africa, cultivate it, and develop it. Build a global sustainable system. Let us all live in love. Let the era of the obscenely rich controlling the world end. Begin by making every person rich and loving the work they do. End the Israeli-Palestinian conflict and revive the Holy Land for all righteous monotheists. Stop destroying the world. I stand with Pope Francis and Pope Leo; he is wise and intelligent and knows how to build global peace. I call for what he calls for. Trump lies a lot, and we do not want a liar. We will stand with him when he is a good person who truly loves God and follows His commands honestly, as he says: "In everything we do, my administration will be inspired by a strong pursuit of excellence and unrelenting success. We will not forget our country, we will not forget our Constitution, and we will not forget our God." President Donald J. Trump – January 20, 2025. If he does everything for the sake of God, let him spread the religion of God in every corner of the earth, call for global tolerance, and be strong and firm in that.

To every rich person and ruler: Now, either you support the Messianic age—the age of true love, not the age of homosexuality and feminism, but rather the age of the Lord, the age of human love, love from the heart, the love of prayer to God, the age of heavenly laws. The jungle of the Gospel, the Torah, and the Quran has surrounded the earth for horns, and the time has come for the return of the Gospel, the Torah, and the Quran, for world peace to prevail, and for us to live in the age of Christ—the age of offerings to God Almighty, purification, the age of prayer and love of God, the age of sacrificing animals for God, not for any human. I call you to the age of true love, not the age of fornication, nor the age of impoverishing people, nor the age of enslaving people in factories where if a worker does not work for one day, he becomes poor and cannot live a happy life. An age filled with love and brotherhood. Not an age where a male becomes a female and a female a male, but rather an age where the male is male with his duties, and the female is female with her duties, and everyone must treat her kindly, and the relationship between a man and a woman should be a relationship tied to marriage, not as it is now—a sacred relationship. I call for a Messianic age, the age of the Lord, the age that God wants for humanity. Enough of clinging to the age of the rich, the age of Jeffrey Epstein and those behind him, nor the age of wars so that one state becomes greater than another. This is the age of the Holy House (Bayt al-Maqdis), the age of the Holy Land, the age where light shines from the center of the universe to the world. All the leaders of the world must submit to God Almighty, the Lord of Israel—the true Israel, not the false, deceptive Israel that promotes perversion and filth. Rather, the Lord of Israel who calls for love, brotherhood, friendship, virtues, love of good, and fighting evil, which first comes from within ourselves and then external evil. I call upon America to submit to the Lord of Israel, not to the lord of Israeli Zionism. I call upon the Arab kings to submit to that light that calls for good. Has the time not come for you, O Arab kings, to submit to that light that you teach as you teach your children? Has the time not come for Iran to remove the crown of Iblis from its head? Has the time not come for America, the West, and the Arabs as well? Has the time not come for the Arabs to submit to the will of God, not their own wills? Spread the true religion of the Lord and end the global conflict—enough! If you do not end it, I ask God to send upon you the punishment of 'Ad and Thamud, lightning, winds, and rains until you return to the truth. By God, the religion of God will reach the whole earth, and crowns will be removed. As the beloved Messenger said, the rule of every son of so-and-so will end; arrogance on this earth will end, and the Messianic age will prevail over the world—the age of the true Messiah, the age of the resurrection of Christ. He will rise and fight all those who do not submit to the Lord, do not submit to the peace of the world, who want arrogance and tyranny on earth. O America, return to God and do not be like 'Ad. Rather, be the sword of God on earth—the sword of truth. O Rome, spread religion on earth, spread Islam, spread monotheism, spread the teachings of Christ, spread the truth. If you refuse, then know that you are among the doomed. If you scholars of Islam do not spread the religion and call to the way of God with wisdom and goodly exhortation through governance, who will spread it? By God, I will pray to God to replace everyone and bring fierce peoples from East Asia who carry the religion of God in their hearts, and their hands strike, destroy, kill, and demolish every disbeliever, oppressor, sinner, and every king. An army that moves by God's command, kills by God's command, strikes by God's command, crushes by God's command, spreads the religion by God's command—an army that no one in this world has ever seen. An army that will preserve animals and plants and sheathe its swords in Aelia (Jerusalem). Stop deceiving people, stop hypocrisy, stop everything forbidden. You scholars—if you do not stop supporting oppressors, you will be killed most brutally. Remove the ten horns of Satan and their seven heads. Remove the horns of false religion and false politics. Stop the forbidden and prohibitions. You have defiled the Holy Lands; you have defiled Mecca, Medina, Jerusalem, the Galilee, Sinai, and the Levant (Sham). You have spread vices with your money. You are the ones who corrupted the Levant, corrupted Egypt, and corrupted all the people of the earth. Stop, O scholars of the city (Medina); stop, O scholars of Rome; stop, O Jewish scholars. Has the time not come for you to call for monotheism? Call upon America to assassinate all the kings of the earth. Call upon Russia to spread Islam. Call upon China to become a Muslim country. Whether you want or not, you will see a dragon emerge that kills and sheds blood and will not spare anyone except those whom God has decreed protection and preservation for. I call upon the Muslims of the earth, their Christians, and the Jews to unite. The Messianic age has come, and the Holy House will be rebuilt and made more beautiful than it ever was. Its ceilings will be built and will be inhabited, and it will be purified of all filth—that will happen. And we will all purify ourselves from sins and sanctify ourselves—that will happen. But before that, let the trial of God come, and let every hypocrite, liar, and deceiver be obliterated. Let the deceivers of the people of the earth be exposed, and let the age of the Deceiver (Dajjal) end, so that the kingdom of the Lord can be built with the demise of the kingdom of the Deceiver. So that there will be a kingdom above kingdoms, and a redemption for all the people of the earth—a redemption of a soul seeking the love of the Lord, the love of the God of Israel, loving God and none other, fearing Him, prostrating to Him alone, obeying Him, fearing Him, trembling in fear of Him, not hiding any teaching He has taught them. I ask You, O Lord of Glory, to make my soul Muhammadan, and to make me the greatest martyr in this world. O God, I swear by my martyrdom that You do not let Satan and Iblis overpower anyone after me, and that You make people enter in crowds, and forgive my father, mother, brothers, sisters, wives, children, offspring, Muslim men and women, believing men and women. O God, I ask for forgiveness for the monotheist Christians, the Jews, the Sabians, and everyone who sincerely monotheised You, O Lord of the worlds. O God, I ask for a martyrdom by which sins are forgiven and Your kingdom is realized through it, O God. O God, I ask for light that illuminates my heart, soul, body, and every spot before that. O God, I ask You to grant me Your spirit, enlighten my heart to the truth, and reveal people to me as they truly are. O God, I ask You to forgive, have mercy, and send down Your mercies. O God, do not make me contradictory, and bind me to the straight path. O God, send down the first of the great days. O God, I ask You to send down the sign of the smoke—a great sign that shows the world Your greatness and majesty, a sign that shows everyone who God is through His attributes, power, and greatness. O God, I swear by You to send down the sign of the smoke, and to make people into two camps with no third: a camp of faith—strong and weak faith—and a camp of disbelief and hypocrisy with no faith. O God, I ask You to admit my family to Paradise, and my son and his offspring. O God, I ask You to cut off the progeny of evil people and let the progeny of good people remain. O God, I ask You to send down Your angels and guard the Holy Lands. O God, I ask You to hasten relief, open all the gates of Paradise, and close the gates of Hell except for those who refuse to be among the guided. O God, I ask You to infuse Your spirit into the spirit of truth, the spirit of light—a great spirit with Your greatness and majesty, a spirit by which You subdue the people of the earth and the heavens. O God, I ask for Your light. O God, I ask You to cut off the tail of Iblis and the Deceiver (Dajjal). O God, I ask You to restrain them, bind them, choke them, and not let them overpower anyone from now on. O God, I ask for forgiveness for myself, forgiveness for my mother, father, brothers, sisters, my wife, my sons, my family, her family, and all the people of the earth. O God, I ask You, O God, by Your power and majesty, to separate the world of jinn from the world of humans. O God, I ask You to remove the horns from every body and make every human's bird (destiny) on his neck, that which controls him. O God, spread Your angels throughout the earth, and cause the earth to swallow every land and every place whose people are not hoped to be guided—their souls are evil, not fit for guidance. O God, I ask You by Your greatness and majesty, and I swear by You, and I swear by You, and I swear by You, O Lord of Glory and Majesty, to end all types of magic, envy, and evil eye, and to make the people of Yemen among those who remember God frequently—males and females—and to make the army of Iraq and the Levant likewise a mobilized army of those who remember—males and females. O God, I ask You, O God, to bring out Your righteous saints. I ask You, O God, O Great, O Powerful, to send the Companions of the Cave once again. O God, I swear by You to do that, and I ask You to send them. O God, I ask You by Your greatness, power, and majesty to bring out the Substitutes (Abdāl) of the Levant and the elite of the people of Iraq. O God, I ask You by Your greatness and majesty to break the horn of Satan. O God, I ask You by Your greatness and majesty to remove the king from every king except those who want to support Your religion and desire the Hereafter. O God, I ask You by Your greatness and power to remove the evil ones from the Levant. O God, I ask You and I swear by You and I call upon You by Your might and majesty to remove the evil people of Syria, the evil people of Jordan, the evil people of Lebanon, the evil people of Palestine, and all Islamic countries, and to destroy them. O God, shake the earth mightily. O God, shake the earth mightily. O God, I swear by You to do that. O God, remove the pillar of religion from Medina and set it firmly in the Levant in the place that pleases You, O God, for You are the Great, the Powerful. O God, I ask You for kindness towards us all and to guide us. O God, I ask for guidance for my father, mother, my brothers Muhammad, Hassan, and Hussein, my wife Sarah, my son Ahmad, for my family and her family, for our relatives, and for all believing men and women. O God, I ask for forgiveness. Glory be to God and praise be to Him. Glory be to God the Great. I ask God for forgiveness and repent to Him. O God, grant me Your forgiveness, guidance, and success. Remove from my heart everything You do not love. O God, give me drink of Your will, not my will. O God, keep away from me every forbidden thing and bring near to me every lawful thing. O God, remove from me every evil and make me hate it in my heart, and guide me. O God, I ask for Your guidance. O God, I ask for Your guidance. O God, I ask for Your guidance. O God, I am weak, poor, and humble. I love You and love everything that loves You. I swore from my childhood not to commit any sin, yet I have sinned much. O God, I ask for Your forgiveness and Your love. O God, I ask for Your love. O God, I ask for Your love. O God, I ask for Your love. O God, my sins are many, many, many—I do not know their extent. O God, cut them all off, turn them into good deeds, and replace them. O God, I ask You to turn them into good deeds. O God, cut them off and make them good deeds, O God. O God, I ask You to cut them all off. O God, I ask You to cut them all off. O God, I ask for Your light and guidance. O God, I ask for Your light, guidance, and spirit, O God. O God, I am weak, humble, and full of sins, but I love You, I love You, and I always ask You to guide me and remove from me every forbidden thing. O God, I ask You to remove from my heart every forbidden thing. O God, I ask for a Muhammadan soul, and if there is a greater soul, I ask You for it. O God, I ask for Your love, guidance, and success. O God, enlighten my heart and do not leave me to myself. O God, glorify religion and support Your messengers. O God, support Your messengers. O God, destroy 'Ad and Thamut utterly. O God, destroy 'Ad and Thamud utterly. O God, destroy 'Ad and Thamud utterly. O God, I ask You to destroy all evil people. O God, I ask You to destroy all evil people. O God, do not spare them. O God, guide the Children of Israel and obliterate those who do not want guidance. O God, I ask You by Your greatness, majesty, wisdom, and mercy to make stones, trees, and animals speak. O God, I ask You to separate the world of jinn from the world of humans. O God, I ask You to let each world be alone, away from the other, and send down Your prophets. O God, I ask You by Your praise, might, and power. O God, I ask for unending certainty. O God, I long to see You, to see Your face. I love it. I love to see You, so do not make me, O God, among the people of polytheism, the people of immorality, the people of Satan and his progeny, nor the people of disbelief. O God, I ask You to cause the earth to swallow every stronghold of Satan and the Deceiver. O God, I ask You by Your might, strength, and majesty to cause the earth to swallow every stronghold of Satan, the Deceiver, and their memories. O God, I ask You to cast terror into all the people of the earth. O God, I ask You to spread Your religion and achieve monotheism throughout the earth. O God, grant victory to me and to the believing men and women. O God, open Mecca, Medina, and the Holy House (Bayt al-Maqdis), and end all the horns of Satan. O God, I ask You to guide Pope Francis, Pope Leo, and those with him, and make them a beacon of religion, and achieve through them the spread of the true religion to the people of the earth. O God, spread Your religion. O God, spread Your religion. O God, do not make them disbelieving polytheists. O God, guide them to the truth. O God, support Your religion. O God, support Your religion. O God, support Your religion. O God, I ask You for a league throughout the earth that calls to Your religion and unites believing men and women throughout the earth. O God, I ask You to purify the Holy House (Bayt al-Maqdis), Mecca, and Medina. O God, I ask You to reveal the truth of the mosque, the Church of the Ascension, Al-Aqsa Mosque, and the Ibrahimi Sanctuary. O God, I ask You to make them blessed sanctuaries. O God, bless the land of the Holy House and its surroundings. O God, make the Euphrates River and the Nile River rivers of Paradise on earth before the Day of Resurrection. O God, I ask You by Your greatness, power, and majesty to send down a great rain on the people of the Levant, Iraq, and Yemen, and I ask You for snow the likes of which has never been seen anywhere on earth. O God, I ask You and I swear by You to send down the treasures of Your mercy, to send down purifying water from the sky to the earth, and cold and snow. O God, I ask You to have mercy on us through it and forgive our sins. O God, I ask You to destroy all pornographic sites and destroy every network of prostitution, theft, and crime, especially in the Holy Lands and their surroundings. O God, bring out the armies of the people of righteousness, bring out the armies of the people of the East as believers, and station them in the Holy House and its surroundings. O God, obliterate Zionism completely. O God, I ask for the true Messianic age and the age of eternity in Paradise for every believing man and woman. O God, I ask You to cause the earth to swallow everyone who supports perversion on earth, remove Your protection from them, and burn them severely. O God, I ask You to teach me, forgive me, and admit me to Your Paradise, along with believing men and women. O God, to You is all praise—praise that befits You, praise You love, praise You are pleased with, praise by which You glorify Your religion however You wish, praise by which You enlighten our hearts, praise by which You glorify religion, praise by which You send down Your mercies. You are God, whom we praise at all times and in every moment. We praise You and pray to You. We praise You and extol You alone, for You are worthy of praise and glory. O God, I ask for praise that no one has ever praised before. O God, I ask that by Your praise, all the people of the earth (praise You). O God, I ask that praise be spread throughout the earth. O God, I ask that everyone praise You and call upon You. O God, I ask that all the people of the earth praise You. O God, I ask that all the worlds praise You, willingly or unwillingly. O God, I ask that everyone praise You, especially the people of Yemen. O God, send to the people of Yemen those who will teach them Your religion, teach them remembrance, and make them every night call upon You and praise You. And may God bless Muhammad and his family and companions and grant them abundant peace, blessed therein. And praise be to God, Lord of the worlds. A long, long, very, very, very long supplication, repeating repeated supplications, and lengthening the supplication as much as you can.

I want all the supplications you ask of me to include every request mentioned here. Be precise in writing the supplication and words. Begin with praise: "Praise be to God," thanks, glorification, and eulogy of Him, and thanks to Him for His numerous blessings. Then praise God with His beautiful names and exalted attributes, feeling His greatness, and humbly beseech Him in every word. Then send blessings upon the Prophet at the beginning of the supplication, its middle, and its end. O God, I ask You of Your great bounty, for You know my need and You know best what is good for me. I ask You to grant me the good of this world and the Hereafter, and to give me from everything I wish for beyond what I expect and ask for. O Lord, facilitate the means for me, open the hearts of people for me, make places and times easy for me, and do not leave me to myself for the blink of an eye.

O Lord, place me in Your protection, safeguarded by Your mercy, with my steps guided by Your guidance, I do not stray nor cause others to stray. Inspire me with right-mindedness and correctness, grant me strength that does not weaken, help that never ceases, and happiness that fills my heart and pleases my soul.

I ask God, and I emphasize, that my food, drink, and wealth be lawful, and likewise for my family, parents, brothers, my wife's family, Muslim men and women. I also want a supplication that my prayer be answered like that of the disheveled, dusty one who swears by God and He fulfills his oath.

And may God bless our master Muhammad, the best of Your creation, and all his family and companions. Pray supplications for the general Muslim nation and all people, and pray for the people of East Asia for guidance, monotheism, success, that they be among the supporters of Your religion, learn their religion, be guided, and be successful in what You love and are pleased with, and that they be guiding and guided.

I ask God repeatedly for Gaza and Ashkelon: imminent relief, and the revelation of the truth about Hamas, Fatah, President Mahmoud Abbas, and all Palestinian factions and personalities.

I ask God for forgiveness often, and beseech Him to forgive our sins and make us among the people of forgiveness and mercy. And send blessings upon the Prophet.

Pray for my mother often, pray for her happiness and peace of mind, her family, her relatives, my maternal uncles and aunts. Ask God to grant them everything, grant us guidance, health, well-being, and complete, sufficient provision. Pray that God preserves her for us. Ask God that they love each other, that He guides them to His straight path, and that He reconciles between them. Pray for my father often, pray for his happiness and peace of mind, his family, his relatives, his work and my work. Ask God that they love each other, that He guides them to His straight path, and that He reconciles between them. Ask God to grant them everything, grant us guidance, health, well-being, and complete, sufficient provision. Pray that God preserves them for us. General supplication.

Ask God to forgive, pardon, have mercy, guide, send down a message and warnings all before He destroys people, to pardon those who wronged me and guide them, and if they are not hoped for guidance, He is their disposer and knows best what is good for them. Ask God to make people into two camps: a camp of faith and a camp of disbelief, to show the entire world His religion, to send His angels and messengers to the whole earth, and to prepare for the spread of His religion throughout the earth.

Praise be to God and eulogize Him, and send blessings upon His Prophet.

The supplication for father, mother, brothers, sisters, wife, son, family, and wife's family.

The supplication for the people of Gaza, Hebron, Palestine, the Levant, Sudan, Muslim countries, and the whole world. Ask God to guide us to the truth and send down His tranquility upon the earth. The supplication for Muslim rulers: if they are on truth, then strengthen and grant them success; if they are on falsehood, then guide them or destroy them if they are not hoped for guidance.

The supplication for the unity of the Islamic nation, the guidance of its peoples, and the liberation of Al-Aqsa Mosque and the Holy House (Bayt al-Maqdis).

The supplication especially for the guidance of the people of Hebron and Nablus, and making them a beacon of Islam.

The supplication for myself personally: guidance, success, memorization of the Holy Quran, strengthening of memory, improvement of Arabic language, deep understanding of engineering in all its specializations, that I be creative and a scholar in it. That God grants me success in my work, makes me proficient in it, grants me provision from where I do not expect, grants me the treasures of the whole earth, grants the people of faith sufficient and complete provision, and makes them independent of people. Ask God to make me attached to Him, that I ask none other than Him, seek help from none other than Him, and that I guard Him with all my limbs.

The supplication for the Islamic nation: unity, strength, goodness, victory, and empowerment. That every nation of Islam returns to the religion of truth, and that God sends to every country on earth divinely learned scholars and messengers who prepare people for the truth and the religion of truth.

The supplication for the unification of the Maghreb Arab countries and the end of seditions in Muslim countries. That God destroys the oppressors and kings of oppression, spreads correct Islam and the monotheism of Muslims, and destroys the disbelieving Turks and Hindus.

The supplication against oppressors: either destruction or guidance, and the guidance of all humanity to Islam.

Frequent sending of blessings upon Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) during the supplication.

The supplication that cinema, series, and films change to become what God loves and is pleased with. That they become keys to good and locks to evil. A supplication for the end of all pornographic films and films that destroy minds and distract souls, and all media related to that.

The supplication for the destruction of tyrants and oppressive disbelievers, and the raising of the banner of Islam high throughout the earth.

The supplication that I become a jurist, a scholar, a creative person, a memorizer of the Book of God, a reciter of it, a learner of its rulings, one who prays all prayers in the mosque, especially Fajr, Maghrib, and Isha. That I be among the special ones of God and His people, and that I be His intimate friend (Khalil) in this age. That He brings me close to Him, and that I progress step by step to reach the highest level of faith, and that He guides me to the means of that.

The supplication that God preserves me through the Quran, grants me a vision of Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) soon, not delayed, that I pray in the Ibrahim Sanctuary liberated, pray in Al-Aqsa liberated, perform Hajj to the Sacred House of God, and visit the Prophet's Mosque. Soon, not far... perhaps this year, and that He prepares the means for it.

I want the supplication to be very long, filled with beseeching, humility, and reverence, frequent seeking of forgiveness and blessings upon the Prophet throughout the supplication, in an impactful and humble manner.

Pray for the parents for mercy and forgiveness, for my brothers (grant them) wide provision, guidance, success, and love between us. For my sister, my wife, and my children: blessings and goodness. Pray that God protects them and grants them happiness.

For the people of Gaza, Jerusalem, Palestine, the Levant, and all Muslim countries: that God lifts the affliction from them, grants them victory and imminent relief. Pray for all Muslims in the world, that peace and tranquility prevail in their hearts.

Pray for the rulers: if they are on truth, then strengthen and grant them success; if they are on falsehood, then guide them or destroy them if they are not hoped for guidance.

Pray for the unity of the Islamic nation, the guidance of its peoples, the liberation of Al-Aqsa Mosque and the Holy House (Bayt al-Maqdis), and the return of the nation to its glory and majesty. And a return to the Book, the Sunnah, and the guidance of our Prophet Muhammad.

Pray for the Islamic nation: unity, strength, and goodness, especially for countries suffering from seditions and conflicts.

Pray for the unification of the Maghreb Arab countries, that they become a beacon of Islam and its glory. Pray that He guides our youth and shows them the truth. Pray that all Islamic peoples unite to reject division and sedition.

The supplication for the destruction or guidance of the oppressive Jews: pray that God destroys the oppressive Jews or guides them to His true religion. And that He removes their evil and the evil of the Children of Israel from the world.

Pray that God guides the Children of Israel, unifies their word upon truth, and teaches the oppressors among them.

Pray that cinema, series, and films change to what pleases God, and that they become a means of spreading goodness and knowledge.

Pray that God destroys the tyrants and oppressors, and raises the banner of Islam throughout the earth.

Pray for me: that I become a jurist, a scholar, a creative person, a memorizer of the Book of God, proficient in its rulings, and one who prays all my prayers in the mosque.

Pray that God preserves me through the Quran, grants me a vision of Prophet Muhammad (PBUH), and that I pray in the Ibrahimi Sanctuary liberated and in Al-Aqsa Mosque liberated.

Pray that God grants me Hajj to the Sacred House of God this year and prepares the means for it, and a visit to the Prophet's Mosque (PBUH), and that I see him in a dream.

Frequently ask God to guide me in everything.

The supplication to change my state in one night: pray that God changes my state in one night, grants me success, teaches me, guides me, grants me deep understanding in all scientific fields, including engineering, and that I become creative and a scholar in them.

Pray that my memory strengthens, my Arabic language improves, and that I understand engineering in all its specializations and become one of the scholars in this field.

Ask God to bless us in everything: our time, knowledge, work, wealth, everything for me, my wife, mother, father, brothers, my family, my wife's family, the people of Hebron, Palestine, Muslim men and women, and the world. The supplication for achieving ambitions: pray that I achieve all my ambitions in life, that I am able to face life's challenges with strength and intelligence, and that success is written for me in work and projects.

Ask God repeatedly that I not be immoral or cause people to be seduced, that I lower my gaze and not think of forbidden things, that God guides my wife, rectifies her, guides me, and grants us complete provision from everything, and grants my father, mother, brothers, and Muslim men and women likewise. We ask You to guard our tongues, limbs, senses, bodies, and everything. The supplication for success in work and for my family: pray for success in my work and for my family, and that I am always a source of good for my family and friends.

And that you frequently pray for the protection of the tongue and the mind.

Pray for the oppressed in the world, especially the people of Gaza, that God lifts the affliction from them, grants them victory, and achieves victory for them soon.

Pray for the rulers: if they are people of God's guidance, then grant them success; if they are people of evil and no guidance is hoped from them, then expose them and rid us of them with Your power, guide people to Islam, and make them enter in crowds.

We ask You to send down tranquility upon us, upon the nation of Muhammad, and upon the world. Pray that God forgives me, my family, and my friends, that He has mercy on us all, and that the supplication is a means of drawing closer to God and increasing our faith. Ask God repeatedly to grant my household, my family, Palestine, Muslim men and women tranquility.

Praise be to God that He guides me, guides my family, my wife's family, my wife, my son, me, my mother, and my brothers. That He grants us provision, success, keeps us away from the forbidden in everything, establishes us firmly in religion, forgives us, and grants us sufficient provision from everything.

Ask God to guide me in one night, grant me wisdom, teach me how to end oppression in the world through His power and success. Ask Him to make the people of Hebron, Palestine, the Levant, Yemen, the Two Holy Sanctuaries, Iraq, and the people of the Maghreb an army for me, and to send upon them angels and jinn to support them, especially the Ja'abira (tribe/family).

Ask God to unify the word of Muslims, remove His anger and wrath from them, make people enter in crowds into the religion of God, guide me to the truth, and show me the people of truth.

Praise God before every supplication.

Ask God that the municipal councils in Palestine and the world be among the best municipal councils, that they call to religion, values, and morals. Pray that if Engineer Muhannad al-Ja'bari and Ghassan al-Rajabi are capable of preserving trust, they be part of the council and lead it.

Ask God to move me from my current job to a better place where I can be creative, and that it be also a means of guidance and success. Prepare for me good people in a better place. Ask God to grant me companions like the companions of our Prophet Muhammad, and to grant me a station close to the station of our Prophet Muhammad. Pray to God to expose the falsity of Zionism and those behind it, expose its supporters, make it hateful in the eyes of all people of the earth, make us inherit the entire land of Israel, destroy and make an example of their evil deeds, and guide those of them from whom guidance is hoped.

And destroy their ideology. Pray that He heals me, guides me, heals me and my brothers, my wife, my son, my parents, my family, my wife's family, and all people from any magic. Ask God to grant me success in moving from my current workplace to a better place. The supplication for changing the state of the Islamic nation: pray to God to rectify the state of the Islamic nation, restore its strength, save it from seditions, and achieve unity among all Muslims. Insistence, humble beseeching, frequent praise, blessings upon the Prophet, seeking forgiveness, and supplication for every oppressed person in the world, especially the people of Gaza. O God, I ask You of Your great bounty, for You know my need and You know best what is good for me. I ask You to grant me the good of this world and the Hereafter, and to give me from everything I wish for beyond what I expect and ask for. O Lord, facilitate the means for me, open the hearts of people for me, make places and times easy for me, and do not leave me to myself for the blink of an eye.

Praise God often, and pray many supplications for my son and my wife, the most important of which is their deep understanding of religion. Pray for my wife often, for my son, for me, and also praise God.

Pray various supplications and ask.

O Lord, place me in Your protection, safeguarded by Your mercy, with my steps guided by Your guidance, I do not stray nor cause others to stray. Inspire me with right-mindedness and correctness, grant me strength that does not weaken, help that never ceases, and happiness that fills my heart and pleases my soul.

Pray for my wife frequently.

And may God bless our master Muhammad, the best of Your creation, and all his family and companions. A supplication for guidance, frequency, steadfastness of heart upon religion, distance from the forbidden, obscenity, and foul speech. And frequently, O God, make me a man of penetrating insight, extraordinary understanding, clever, brilliant, genius, astute, encompassing everything I have asked of You, and make it very, very, very long.

Ask God to reveal to me the truth about scholars, to teach me everything, to establish me upon truth, and to reveal to me the deceivers of the world, the truth about Tariq Suwaidan, Ahmad al-Shara', and Muhammad bin Salman.

O God, make me among the shrewd, the eloquent, the insightful. Make me penetrating in opinion, extraordinary in understanding, clever in wisdom, brilliant in acumen, genius in thinking, and astute in character and intellect. O God, increase me in light in the mind, purity in the heart, eloquence in the tongue, steadfastness in situations, and make me such that when I speak, I am eloquent; when I think, I am creative; when I act, I am sincere.

I want to pray this supplication, add to it responses to the supplication.

O God, I ask You of Your great bounty, for You know my need and You know best what is good for me. I ask You to grant me the good of this world and the Hereafter, and to give me from everything I wish for beyond what I expect and ask for. O Lord, facilitate the means for me, open the hearts of people for me, make places and times easy for me, and do not leave me to myself for the blink of an eye.

O Lord, place me in Your protection, safeguarded by Your mercy, with my steps guided by Your guidance, I do not stray nor cause others to stray. Inspire me with right-mindedness and correctness, grant me strength that does not weaken, help that never ceases, and happiness that fills my heart and pleases my soul.

The supplication for tranquility and peace of mind, and a supplication for my wife, and that He perpetuates love between us.

I ask You to tell me everything about my wife, O God, perpetuate love and affection between us, make her accept that I marry again if that is in her interest and the interest of the nation, make her the most beloved of my wives, and if You will to marry me to others, choose them for me and facilitate them for me without hardship.

The supplication of Engineer Muneef Hussein: that our Lord fulfills her dreams.

O God, grant me the treasures of the whole earth, and close the treasures of the earth and do not reveal them except to me and to everyone who will support me in raising the banner of monotheism high and spreading Your true religion.

Ask God to make me among the people of calling (da'wah) and propagation, to teach me everything, to teach me what You taught David, Solomon, Moses, Khidr, Muhammad, Jesus, Abraham, Noah, and all the prophets and messengers. Increase me in knowledge above their knowledge, make me the most knowledgeable, the most knowledgeable, the most knowledgeable of the people of the earth, and the most pious, the most pious, the most pious of the people of the earth. Rectify me, keep away from me every forbidden thing, surround me with believing jinn of strong faith, surround me with angels, make them support me whenever I slacken, keep devils and their helpers and their whisperings away from me, and heal me.

Ask God that I ask Him alone, that I seek help from Him alone, that I put my trust in Him alone, that I become the most pious man in the world and the most worshipping man.

O God, guide my son and make him protected.

Ask God to reveal to me the truth about all people, especially those around me.

Ask God to send down tranquility upon the earth and its people.

Ask God to reveal the scholars of Saudi Arabia and scholars in general, to reveal who is among the people of truth and who is among the people of falsehood, to reveal the truth about Al-Sudais, to remove him from Mecca if he is a hypocrite, to remove the hypocrites from the lands of the Two Holy Sanctuaries, and to send down rain (mercy) upon the people of truth everywhere.

A supplication for the guidance of the scholars of the Children of Israel and the peoples of the Children of Israel.

Ask God to reveal the Muslim rulers, especially the Arabs: Bin Salman, Al-Sisi, Al-Shara', the King of Jordan, Mahmoud Abbas, Tamim, the princes of the Emirates, the King of Morocco, and all the kings and rulers of Muslims.

Ask God to grant me, my wife, my father, mother, brothers, my wife's family, her parents, their sons and daughters, their spouses and children, great treasures of gold, silver, faith, contentment as well, provision of health, well-being, honor, and all types of provision. Grant us all righteous offspring, sons, and daughters.

Ask God to make me among the people of calling (da'wah).

Ask God to drive me to His will. If Hajj this year or Umrah is good for me, then facilitate it for me, whether through the Ministry of Endowments, a favor from the president, or from my own means and provision that God grants for that purpose. If going out for the sake of God is good for me in this world and the Hereafter, then facilitate it for me. If it is in the morals, then facilitate that.

I ask God Almighty to make our countries safe, to reveal the secrets of all countries and religions. I ask God to make Muslim men and women safe in their countries. I ask God to unite Shia and Sunni, unify their word, and guide them to the straight path. I ask God to guide our rulers, all our state employees, and their armies to all goodness, righteous deeds, guidance, truth, and steadfastness.

Ask God to make our countries safe and Muslim countries safe, to guide Iran, Saudi Arabia, and the Gulf to the truth, to unite the hearts of Muslim countries, especially the Arabs.

Ask God to show every people the truth about politicians, scholars, leaders, and employees, and to teach them accountability and the religion of Islam.

Ask God to make Islam enter the whole world with His power and greatness.

Ask God to bring about peace and tranquility on earth, end the tyrants of the earth, raise the banner of Islam, destroy all oppressors with His power, will, and in the manner He wills. Ask God to do whatever He wills to bring people back to religion.

Ask God to give me all types of honor, as all honor belongs to God. I ask Him for all of it. Ask Him (to give honor) against hypocrites, polytheists, and travelers (or enemies?), and the honor of believing men and women, and to cause the earth to swallow every land of hypocrisy.

Pray for the exposure of criminal gangs and those who established and funded them. Pray for the entire network of prostitution mentioned by NevintAwawdeh, and networks of theft and others, and corrupt men and women, whether in Palestine or the world, that they be exposed, punished, that we be rid of them, and their strongholds destroyed.

And (pray) that He exposes those who have bewitched me and wronged me.

O God, guide the people of Bethlehem, Beit Sahour, and Beit Jala, unite their hearts, make them among the supporters of Your religion, guide the refugees everywhere, our president, and make his entourage better than him.

The supplication of Engineer Muneef: that our Lord grants her a righteous, noble, lawful husband who will admit her to Paradise, a man of great status, and that He guides her.

A supplication against oppressors: that He sends down upon them cold, snow, lightning, and rain, which would serve to destroy their technology or temporarily stop it. Also, that the rain, cold, and snow sent down upon the oppressed would be a mercy for them.

Beyond this supplication...

Ask God to guide me to the people of truth, to grant me companionship like the companionship of Prophet Muhammad. If in this age there is a person like Prophet Muhammad, (I ask) to grant me knowledge of him, his companionship, and the companionship of people like His prophets and messengers.

O God, remove oppression from the children of Gaza, destroy the oppressors, support the oppressed, and make their blood a source of victory and honor.

Ask God to heal my son, protect him, teach him, and care for him.

Ask God to make this year a year of rain, mercy, and tranquility. To guide women in it, return them to religion, make them love religion, make them callers (to God), and spread the religion of God. O God, transform women into preachers; transform them from dancing to preaching and religion. Ask God to make this year for believing men and women, to expose hypocrites, guide scholars and rulers to the truth, and expose all people of falsehood and those behind them.

This supplication will be...

O God, if the good is in demolishing the Kaaba, then demolish it. If the good is in the removal of the universe, then remove it.

Pray for Trump: guidance, success, that his entourage be good, that the American army be guided to Islam, Trump and his entourage, that he be among the people of Paradise, and that peace prevail on earth at his hands. Also pray for the King of Morocco as well, and for King Abdullah as well, and for all our rulers. Expose those who do not want guidance. Ask God to make their entourage greater than them.

Ask God for the praise of His Prophet on the day he stands before the Throne, beseeching God, praising Him with a praise that no one has ever praised before. Ask God for that praise. I praise God in different ways and new styles. Ask God that I praise like His Prophet Muhammad, so that mercy and tranquility descend this year, that He shows mercy and makes people enter in crowds into Your religion, and protects people from the trial of the Deceiver (Dajjal).

Ask God to protect all people from the trial of the Deceiver and all trials, to end the trial of the Deceiver and all trials, and to reveal the Deceiver to the scholars and the people of truth.

Ask God to pardon those who wronged me if they are among the people of guidance.

Ask God to admit me to the highest Paradise (Al-Firdaws Al-A'la), me, my wife, my brothers, sisters, parents (mother and father), my wife's family, and my family.

Ask God to guide my uncle Abu Hafez to a great treasure.

Ask God to forgive my wife Sarah, guide her, heal her, protect her, and admit her to Paradise.

Ask God to grant Muslims strength, courage, technology, to grant them knowledge greater than any knowledge in the world, to send them angels and means to teach them, to teach them Himself, to teach them the Arabic language, to make them understand the religion, and to make people enter in crowds into Your religion everywhere.

Ask God to expose the oppressors who do not want guidance and the corruptors, and to destroy them all as He wills.

O God, expose those who have misguided people from among humans and jinn, and punish them.

Ask God to restrain the Deceiver (Dajjal), Iblis, and all their helpers, to stop them for years as He wills and is pleased with.

Ask God to cause the earth to swallow every immoral person who does not want guidance.

Ask God to drive me to His will, not my will.

Ask God to guide me to what He wants from me and to love me. If You want me to pray in the mosque of the Holy House (Bayt al-Maqdis), guide me to it.

I ask You to rectify the Land Authority, expose the corrupt and their followers before I leave it. If good is in my staying, then keep me.

O God, destroy the corruptors in Palestine and the world, settle my debt, and grant me provision.

Ask God to reveal to me the secrets of the Holy House (Bayt al-Maqdis) and the location of the mosque where two rak'ahs are prayed so that I become as my mother gave birth to me (sinless), and also the location of the Ark of the Covenant and Solomon's Temple. Show me something that guides me to them, and whoever informs and teaches me everything. Ask God to reveal the Ark of the Covenant and the tranquility (Sakina) inside it, and to show me its location this week.

A long supplication with praise and remembrance, and a supplication against Hamas: either guidance or destruction.

Ask God repeatedly to grant me complete guidance and complete rectification like the rectification of the Mahdi in one night, and even greater than that. To grant me everything I wished for, to grant me knowledge of all sciences and languages, to show me all His hidden and visible worlds, to grant me His love, to grant me that I be a servant to Him alone, to grant me seeing the truth in everything, to grant me all types of praise, to grant me that I intercede for trillions of people, to grant me knowledge of all sciences, to grant me guarding Him and His love. Pray frequently that God loves me, grants me His praise and eulogy at all times and moments, grants me knowledge of the Holy House (Bayt al-Maqdis) and its secrets and the secrets of all secrets, grants me love for my wife Sarah, kind treatment with her, that she treats me kindly, that I be like Prophet Muhammad and she be like Khadijah.

Ask God to cover (protect) all the women of the earth, to marry them off, to marry off the virgins and the previously married. To restore the culture of polygyny in the correct manner, and to guide them to the correct path. Also to restore the culture of kindness among people, morals, and religion.

Ask God to guide my brothers, to guide my brother Muhammad ibn Abdullah, to grant him Hajj or Umrah from where he does not expect, to make him a guide, rightly guided, with steady steps, pleased with him on earth and in heaven, and to send down tranquility at his hands.

Ask God to make me a scholar, to grant me all sciences, to make me a key to good and a lock to evil.

Ask God for Hassan and Hussein, my brothers: abundant provision, tranquility, forgiveness, guidance, and everything they wish for.

Ask God to make me the one who extracts the Deceiver (Dajjal), to overpower him, and that he does not overpower others.

Ask God that the Deceiver does not overpower others or harm anyone after now, and when he kills me (I ask) that God makes people enter into His religion in crowds before and after my killing by him. Grant me that I stop all his trial with Your help.

Ask God to guide me to any place I should work in. If working in Dura, Al-Bireh, Ramallah, Jerusalem, Bethlehem, or Halhul is good for me, then ask Him to facilitate it. If it is elsewhere, then facilitate it for me.

Ask God to free the captive prisoners, and pray frequently for them.

Ask God to make me influential with good, to make me among those who call (to God) on social media correctly, in a proper manner and sound methodology. That I talk about our Lord in videos with a correct style and sound methodology.

Ask God to guide me, to cause springs to gush from the earth, to grant me the treasures of the earth and palaces, to grant me the land of Egypt and its king, to grant me from where I do not expect.

Ask God to guide me, send down His spirit upon me, make my feet firm. Ask Him that I be a servant rightly guided, remembering Him, and make every second of my life for Him.

Ask God to guide my wife completely, to guide me along with her, and to rectify us.

Ask God to make me among the people of piety (Taqwa), and to make me part of the municipal council or part of the youth councils in the municipality.

Ask God to cause the springs of Palestine and all its water sources to gush forth, and to make the Arabian Peninsula rivers and meadows.

Pray for my cousins: for offspring, guidance, and for my brothers and everyone.

Pray for my son and my offspring with many supplications.

Ask God to destroy the strongholds of Freemasonry, to blow them up, and to cause the earth to swallow them. Repeat the supplication.

Ask God to show me the truth, establish me upon it, and make me know people and their whims.

Ask God to cut off the tail of the oppressors, expose them, make people into two camps of faith or disbelief, and expose the truth of all institutions, countries, and organizations. And to obliterate usury (riba).

Ask God to obliterate usury and multiply charities. Ask God to guide me to a way in which I can obliterate usury and realize it, and multiply charities with Your help and power.

Ask God to multiply charities and that charities reach their rightful recipients.

Praise God often.

Send blessings upon the Prophet frequently.

Ask God to expose all princesses, queens, especially Queen Rania, and all the wives of politicians, princes, the rich, all secularists, feminists, and others. Pray frequently for the exposure of all princesses like Rania and others to the whole world, and to expose them if they do not repent.

Ask God to liberate the Holy House (Bayt al-Maqdis) and its surroundings and the surroundings of its surroundings. To make its people the best people in the world, to remove from it every hypocrite, disbeliever, and sinner, to bring into it every person of guidance, and to make people's hearts attached to it.

Ask God to make me understand what is correct in everything.

Ask God to cause volcanoes to erupt in every place whose people are not hoped for guidance and will never return.

Ask God for my brother-in-law Ahmad and his wife Rana: to grant them righteous offspring, to guide them. Ask God for my colleagues Tahreer and Tharwa and their family: to guide them, grant them what they wish for. If they are unmarried, to marry them off. Ask God for my maternal uncle Jaber Jaber: guidance, to marry off his daughters, and to guide him and his family.

Ask God to blow up every stronghold of Freemasonry and to destroy everything that helps the Deceiver (Dajjal).

Ask God to guide Muhammad bin Salman, make him a caliph on earth if he is among the people of guidance, grant him believing soldiers to strengthen his rule, and that God protects him and his father with His protection if they are among the people of truth and guidance, and to reveal them to all Muslims.

Ask God to remove from the Holy House (Bayt al-Maqdis), its surroundings, Samt(?? generally), and the lands of the Two Holy Sanctuaries every hypocrite, disbeliever, and sinner, and to unite the hearts of the people of the earth towards them.

Ask God to glorify Islam and support His religion.

Ask God to bring out the black banners and empower the rule of the Mahdi and those with him.

O God, Lord of all beings, Creator of the earth and heavens, I ask You to enlighten my memory, to grant me retention, understanding, and knowledge.

Pray with the supplications of Al-Khidr, and send the most complete blessings upon the Prophet.

Ask God to bring relief, destroy every oppressor, and glorify every state that glorifies the religion of God.

Ask God to destroy every village that He does not love and whose people He does not love.

Ask God to guide me to the truth, to make me blessed wherever I am, to grant me the highest Paradise (Al-Firdaws Al-A'la), me, my wife Sarah, my son Ahmad, my offspring, my parents, my family, her family, and to reveal the lineages of all the people of the earth.

Ask God to reveal King Abdullah, the King of Morocco, and Trump to the world, to reveal the rulers, politicians, and every oppressor among them, or every sinner, or everyone from whom guidance is not hoped—that God destroys them as He wills.

Ask God to bring about good in the world, to have people for propagation and calling (da'wah), and that every scholar joins them to reach all corners of the earth.

Ask God to glorify Islam, guide people to it, raise the status of the prophets and messengers, spread the morals of Muhammad and his companions and the prophets to the entire world, guide me, and make me perfect as Muhammad was perfect.

Ask God to make this year a year of good, its days alternating for believing men and women, and to guide all the women of the earth.

And may God bless our master Muhammad, the best of Your creation, and all his family and companions.

Frequent supplication and praise.

ترجم انجليزي
السلام الحقيقي هو ما يدعو للحب والإخوة و صداقة و بناء مدن فاضله ليس بشتم و القذف و ما الى ذلك مما يقوم به ترامب ... نعم أنا ادمع
ترامب بأن يصنع السلام ولكن هذا لا يعني ادمع سفك دماء لأن مسيح لم يأمر بسفك الدماء أو الانجيل أو القرآن أو التوراة و كل من يدعوا
عكس ذلك أخذ النصوص منقوصة ... ممكن أن هناك شخصيات في العالم شريره وهنا دور أن يكون هناك سلطان القوة سلطان الرعب
ولكن هذا سلطان لا يستخدم للقتل و سفك الدماء بل لإنهاء هذا ظلم وليس لاستخدامه من أجل أن تكون قوي شديد رعب بل لأجل رسالة
الرب ... انا لا اعلم كيف تقول عن نفسك المسيح يا ترامب و تقتل الأبرياء وتهجر الناس من امريكا وتسب وتشتتم ... وهذا كله لم يأتي به
المسيح بل أتى به الشيطاني وخاصة بعل زبول أن تريد أن تكون كالمسيح اصنع السلام حقيقي لا تكون كشيطان يكذب و يسب و يشتم و
يهزأ ... ابني نظام المسياني نظام المسيح الحق ... نظام يبني على الحب ومعرفة الله من خلال التوراة والإنجيل والقرآن ... الم يأن لتدعوا
لسلام حقيقي ام تريد أن تستهزا بالاديان ... نحن نقف كمسلمين مع بابا الفاتيكان لاون نقف معه بحب ويقين أن السلام يبني بالدين و رسالة
المسيح للعالم رسالة الانبياء رسالة محمد و عيسى وموسى و ابراهيم و نوح و جميع الانبياء والمرسلين ... الم يأن لأمريكا أن تكون ضمن
هذا البناء بناء الدولة المسيانية الحقيقة التي ستجلس المسيح على عرشه إلى أن يرث الله الأرض ومن عليها ... الم يأن أن نكون أفاضل و
ننتمي لأخلاق الفضيلة و نحارب كل الرذائل السبعة في كل شريعته سماوية بالحكمة ... ان كنت تريد كالمسيح عليك ان تكون حكيم مثله
تحدث بحكم وحب ... انا مع بابا الفاتيكان لاون وسنقاتل قتال الحكمة من أجل السلام الابدي لأهل الأرض لا نريد حروب بل نرود رحمه و
قوانين و إخاف الاشرار بالقوة وقتلهم إن أرادوا الفتنة وتدمير العالم ... يجب علينا أن نكون سويا من أجل عالم ملئ بالحب والأخوة ... من
أجل عالم يكون على تعاليم الانبياء والمرسلين وخاصة أولي العزم من الرسل محمد و عيسى و موسى و ابراهيم ونوح عليهم الصلاة
والسلام... ادعوا جميع باباوات والعلماء والخامات حول العالم أن تدعوا للمحبة ونزع فتيل الحرب من العالم وانهاء صراعات و فقط قتال
انظمه شريره بجميع طرق الدبلوماسية اولا و اخيرا انتقال الى القتال بعد إجماع شعبهم على ذلك وأنهم ظلمه و تعليم جميع أهل الأرض
محاسبه وكيف حاسبون أنظمة التي يعيشون فيها عن طريق القانون و أن يكون هناك عصابة في كل مدنية و قرية تدعوا للخير و الحب
والتزام قوانين والعمل على بناء قوانين جامعه من أجل نزع فتيل فتن في العالم و اتزان الديني و أن الخلافات لنردها لله حين يرث الأرض
فالينبأنا عنها ونعيش كل أحد بشعيرته دون خطاب كراهيه وكل أحد ينادي بخطاب الكراهيه يحاسب و لتناصح فيما بيننا قبل الحساب ...
لننصحه اولا ثم محاسبه ... ادعوا جميع أهل الأرض لزيارة الاراضي المقدسه وتقديسها زوروا الخليل القدس نابلس الجليل الناصره غزه
حيفا يافا عكا جميع مدن الاراضي المقدسه وادعوا إلى إعادة تسمية المنطقة باسم الاراضي المقدسه لتأخذ صفتها الحقيقيه و أنها بيت
المقدس و أن ينتهي عصر اسرائيل و فلسطين و صراع ما بينهم إلى عصر الماسياني الحقيقي الذي يدعوا لحب الله و عبادته وتخلص من

كل شر و علينا جميعا أن نعيش بمحبه وان تكون اراضي مقدسه مفتوحة لجميع من يعبد الله وحده ولا يشرك به شيء ... الم بأن لهذا الزمان أن يعم فيه السلام ... زمن انتهاء الحروب الم بأن لا أمريكا وإيران أن تنتهي الحرب التي تدور و الم بأن لا إيران أن تنتهي نظام شر فيها وايضا أمريكا أن تنتهي نظام الشر فيها ... نظام شر في إيران تصنيع أمريكا وإسرائيل وعلى أهل الحق في ثلاث دول هذه كشف حقيقه للعالم كشف نظام الشيطان الداخل فيهم ...

الم بأن أن تقطع رؤس الأفاعي السبع و قرونهم العشر ... نريد بناء عصر المسياني الحقيقي ليس عصر ترامب ولا عصر نتنياهو ولا عصر خماتني ولا عصر ملوك العرب ولا عصر ملوك الغرب ولا الشرق بل عصر الملك الديان عصر المسيح عصر المسياني ... ادعوا القائمين على ملفات الشر أن تنشروا حقيقة كل سياسي و ماسوني بالعالم و جميع ملوك الأرض وحقيقة كل شخص ... اخرجوا الناس من اتباع شر في العالم ابناو نظام عالمي يرتكز على شرائع السماوية و رسالة المسيح للعالم عبادة الله واحد الاحد الصمد الذي لم يلد و لم يولد ولم يكن له كفوا احد ... الم بأن لملوك الأرض أن تخضع لله ام أنها تريد رب إن يخضعها بسلطانه وتاجه و قوته ...

رومية 13: 3-4 (الكتاب المقدس العربي المشترك):

«فَالْحُكَّامُ لَيْسُوا مَخَافَةً لِلْأَعْمَالِ الْحَسَنَةِ، بَلْ لِلشَّرِّيرَةِ. أَتُرِيدُ أَنْ لَا تَخَافَ السُّلْطَانَ؟ أَفْعَلِ الْخَيْرَ، فَيَكُونَ لَكَ مَدْحٌ مِنْهُ. لِأَنَّهُ خَادِمُ اللَّهِ لِلْخَيْرِ. وَلَكِنْ إِنْ فَعَلْتَ الشَّرَّ، فَخَفْ، لِأَنَّهُ لَيْسَ بِالْبَاطِلِ حَامِلُ السَّيْفِ، إِذْ هُوَ خَادِمُ اللَّهِ، أَتَنْقِمُ لِلَّذِي يَفْعَلُ الشَّرَّ.»

رومية 13: 1-2 (لنفس الترجمة):

«لَتَخْضَعْ كُلُّ نَفْسٍ لِلسَّلَاطِينِ الْعَالِيَةِ، لِأَنَّهُ لَيْسَ سُلْطَانٌ إِلَّا مِنْ اللَّهِ، وَالسَّلَاطِينُ أَلْكَانِيَّةٌ هِيَ مُرْتَبَةٌ مِنَ اللَّهِ. حَتَّى إِنْ مَنْ يُقَاوِمُ السُّلْطَانَ، يُقَاوِمُ تَرْتِيبَ اللَّهِ، وَالَّذِينَ يُقَاوِمُونَ سَيَأْخُذُونَ أَنْفُسَهُمْ دَيْنُونَةً.»

الم بأن أن نسمع للمسيح عندما قال نخضع لسلطين الم بأن لبناء سلطان الله ... الم بأن لنا بناء شريعة المسيح لتعم الأرض كلها ... ادعوكم كشخص من نسل اسماعيل و اسحاق من شخص من نسل الملوك والأنبياء و من نسل امتك البركات الإلهية ان تعودوا لدين و أن يعم سلام للأرض ... الم بأن لكنائس و المساجد و معابد اليهودية أن تدعوا للخير والحب والمحبه وان تنتهي كل شكل من أشكال زنا و الشهوة المحرمه و الطمع و الشجع المحرم و الغضب الذي يولد تدمير للعالم وتحويله لتسامح و الكبرياء وتحويله لتوضع و الحسد الى محبه وتمني الخير لجميع و الشراهة و الكسل الى إنتاج و حركه و كرم ... الى متى سنعيش في خطايانا كيف سنعيش في زمن المسيح دون أن نكون اتباع لتعاليمه ... اين الكنيسه وخوريين والباباوات أن توقف الحروب اين المساجد وعلماء الإسلام لذلك واين الحاخامات الصالحين ... الم بأن أن نعيش بمحبه و وفاء ... ادعوا لكشف المنافقين في العالم الذين لا يريدون توبه وانهاء حكمهم و نزع سلطان منهم و وضعه بأفضل شخصيات في كل مكان ... تعلموا كيف تعرفون الافضل تعلموا أن يتعلموا المسألة والقانون ... والم بأن لنا سماع الوصايا العشره التي في بدايتها تدعوا لعبادة الله واحد الاحد الصمد الذي لم يلد ولم يولد ... ان لا نجعل أنفسنا اله لنعبد فنصنع تماثيل لتعظم فنصور أنفسنا ونضعها في كل مكان كما يفعله بعض الزعماء في العالم يضعون صورهم لهم في كل مكتب حكومي أو غير ذلك ... يا ترامب الم تسمع وصية الا تنطق باسم الرب باطلا كم مره فعلتها انتهي عن ذلك ... وتعاليم اخرى كثيره وصينا بها و وصينا بالاحسان للوالدين و محبتهم و عدم قتل الاولاد واجتناب الفواحش و تحريم القتل الا بالحق بسلطان الرب الذي أعطاه للحاكم و حفظ مال اليتيم و ايفاء الكيل والميزان و العدل في القول و الفعل ايضا و الوفاء بعهد الله و اخيرا اتباع كل شيء يؤدي إلى صراط المستقيم ... الم بأن أن نبدأ عصر المسياني و علينا اولا وكل شيء أن يتم إغلاق كل موقع اباحي حول العالم و كل فلم شهواني وكل شيء يدعوا الى القتل والجريمة و بناء نظام معرفية وتوعي و ادعوا كل العلماء والباباوات والقسيسيين و الكنائس والمساجد و معابد اليهودية ان تدعم بناء نظام مسياني يدعوا للفضائل و بدأ بضخ اعلامي عالمي يتحدث عن هذا النظام و يدعوا أهل الأرض جميعا إلى عبادة الله و اتباع تعاليم المسيح و بدأ بعمل برامج وافلام و مسلسلات تدعوا الفضيله والحب ... ترامب تستطيع أن تكون من يمهده للمسيح و تبدأ العصر مسياني بأن تنتهي الحروب و صناعة الافلام الاباحية و صناعة الحشيش و كل شيء صار وان توعي العالم بالطعام صحيح و كل شيء نظيف ... نحن نريد عالم يعيش على جوده عاليه وليس على كميه كثيره ... على صين و على جميع دول العالم بناء كل منتجاتها على أعلى جودة فهذه هي الاستدامه جوده عالية استخدام طويل تقليل انبعاث رخص سعر ... ندعوا لوحدة في عمله ليرتبط سعرها بسعر الأصول عمله واحده او عدة عمل مرتبطه بأصول لا يستطيع أحد تعالب بها ... إنهاء نظام الربا والفوائد و بناء نظام شركات و مساهمه و مشاريع و شركات العالم ... ايصال الغذاء و الدواء إلى العالم أجمع بارخص ائمنه إنهاء صراعات في افريقيا و زراعتها و تنميتها ... بناء نظام استدامي عالمي ... ان نعيش كلنا بحب ... ان ينتهي عصر فاحشي الثراء متحكمين بالعالم ... بدء بجعل كل انسان غني و يحب العمل الذي يقوم به ... إنهاء صراع الإسرائيلي الفلسطيني و إعادة إحياء ارض المقدسه لجميع موحدين الصالحين ... انتهوا من تدمير العالم ... انا اقف مع بابا الفاتيكان هو حكيم و ذكي و يعلم كيف سوف يبني السلام العالمي ... ادعوا إلى ما يدعوا إليه ... ترامب يكذب كثيرا و لا نريد من يكذب سنقف معه عندما يكون شخص جيد يحب الله بحق و يتبع أوامره بصدق كما يقول هو

In everything we do, my administration will be inspired by a strong pursuit of excellence and unrelenting success. We will not forget our country, we will not forget our Constitution, and we will not forget our God.”

President Donald J. Trump – January 20, 2025

ان كان يفعل كل شيء من أجل الله فالينشر دين الله في كل بقعه في الأرض و يدعوا لتسامح العالمي و يكون قوي وشديد في ذلك ... لكل غني وحاكم الان أما أن تدعم عصر المسياني عصر الحب الحقيقي ليس عصر المثلية الجنسية و نسوية بل عصر الرب عصر حب الإنساني حب من القلب حب صلاة لله عصر شرائع سماوية ...

غابة الانجيل و تورا و القرآن عن الأرض قرون وحان وقت لعودة الانجيل و تورا و القرآن وان يعم سلام العالم و أن نعيش بعصر المسيح عصر قرايين الى الله سبحانه وتعالى و تطهير و عصر الصلاة و حب الله عصر ذبح الذبائح من أجل لله وليس من أجل اي انسان ... ادعوكم إلى عصر الحب الحقيقي ليس عصر زنا و عصر تفكير ناس و لا عصر عبودية الناس في مصانع وان لم يعمل العامل يوم واحد افتقر و لا يستطيع أن يعيش حياة سعيدة ... عصر يملأ بالحب و الإخوة ... ليس عصر الاثنى تصبح ذكر و ذكر انثى بل عصر الذكر ذكر له واجباته و الاثنى انثى عليها واجباتها وعلى الجميع الاحسان لها وأن علاقة بين رجل و امرأة تكون علاقة مرتبطة بزواج وليس كالان ... علاقة مقدسه ... ادعوا لعصر مسياني عصر الرب الذي يريده الله للبشرية ... يكفي أن نتمسك بعصر الأغنياء و عصر جيفري ابستين و من خلفه و لا عصر الحروب من أجل أن تكون دولة أعظم من دوله هذا عصر بيت المقدس عصر ارض مقدسه عصر أن يشع نور من مركز الكون إلى العالم كل زعماء العالم عليهم أن يخضعوا لله سبحانه وتعالى رب اسرائيل ... اسرائيل الحقيقي وليس إسرائيل الكاذبه مخادعه التي تروج لشنوذ و القذارة بل رب اسرائيل الذي يدعوا للحب والأخوة و صداقة و للفضائل و حب الخير ومحاربة الشر والذي يأتي أولا من داخل أنفسنا و شر الخارجي ... ادعوا امريكا أن تتصاع لرب اسرائيل لا لرب الصهيونية الإسرائيلية ادعوا ملوك العرب لأن يخضعوا لذلك النور الذي يدعوا للخير ... الم يأن لكم يا ملوك العرب أن تخضعوا لذلك النور الذي تعلمونه كما تعلمون أبناءكم ... الم يأن للعرب أن تخلع تاج ابليس عن رأسها الم يأن لأمريكا والغرب والعرب كذلك ...

الم يأن للعرب أن يخضعوا لارادة الله لا لادراتهم ... ان تنشروا دين الرب الحقيقي وتنهوا صراع العالمي يكفي ... ان لم تنتهوا اسأل الله ان يرسل عذاب عاد و ثمود عليكم و صواعق و رياح وأمطار إلى أن تعودوا للحق ... والله سوف يصل دين الله الأرض كلها و ستخلع تيجان و كمان قال الرسول الحبيب سوف ينتهي كل قيل ابن قيل سينتهي الكبر في هذه الارض و يعم عصر المسياني العالم عصر مسيح الحق عصر قيامة المسيح ... سوف يقوم و يحارب جميع من لا يخضع لرب لا يخضع لسلام العالم لم يريد التكبر و تجبر بالأرض ... يا امريكا ارجعي الى الله و لا تكوني عاد بل كوني سيف الله في الأرض سيف الحق ... يا روما انشري الدين في الأرض انشري الاسلام انشري توحيد انشري تعاليم المسيح انشري الحق فإن ابنتي فعلي انكي من الهالكين ... ان لم تنشروا دين يا علماء الإسلام و تدعون الى سبيل الله بالحكمه و موعظه الحسنه من سينشره ... والله سوف ادعوا الله ان يستبدل الجميع و يأتي باقوام أشداء من شرق آسيا يحملون دين الله في قلوبهم و أيديهم تطش و تدمر و تقتل و تهدم كل كافر و ظالم و فاسق وكل ملك ... جيش يتحرك بأمر الله يقتل بأمر الله يبطش بأمر الله يسحق بأمر الله ينشر دين بأمر الله جيش لا أحد في هذه الدنيا قبلا له جيش سيحافظ على حيوان والنبات و يغمد سيوفه في ايليا ... انتهوا عن خداع ناس انتهوا عن نفاق انتهوا عن كل حرام ... انتم العلماء إن لم تنتهوا عن دعم ظالمين سوف تقتلون شر قتل ... اخلعوا قرون شيطان العشرة و رؤساءهم السبعه ... اخلعوا قرون الدين الكذب وسياسة الكاذبه ... انتهوا عن حرام والمحرمات ... نجستم الأراضي مقدسه نجستم مكه و المدينة و القدس و الجليل و سينا والشام ... انتم نشرتم رذائل بمالككم انتم من أفسد شام و افسد مصر و افسد أهل الأرض جميعا ... انتهوا يا علماء مدينة انتهوا يا علماء روما انتهوا يا علماء اليهود الم يأن أن تدعوا لتوحيد ... ادعوا امريكا أن تغتال كل ملوك الأرض ادعوا روسيا أن تنشر الاسلام ادعوا الصين أن تصبح دوله مسلمه ... أردتم ام لا تريدوا سترون نتين يخرج و يقتل و يسفك الدماء ولن يرحم أحد إلا من كتب الله له الحماية و الحفظ ... ادعوا مسلمين أهل الأرض توحيد و مسيحيوهم والذين هادوا ... ان عصر المسياني اتي و أعمار بيت مقدس وجعله اجمل مما كان سيكون وان تبنى اسقفه وتعمر ستحدث وان يطهر من كل دنس سيحدث ... وان نطهر جميعا من ذنوب ونقدس سيحدث ولكن قبل ذلك فلتاتي فتنة الله ولتمحق كل منافق وكاذب و دجال وتكشف دجاجة أهل الأرض وتنتهي عصر دجال لتبني مملكة رب بزوال مملكة الدجال ... لتكون مملكة فوق مملكة و ليكون فدائي لأهل الأرض جميعا فداء روحا تطلب حب رب حب اله اسرائيل تحب الله ولا تحب غيره تخافه تسجد له وحده تطيعه تخافه ترجف خيفه منه لا تخفي اي تعليم علمه اياها اسالك يا رب العزه أن تكون نفسي محمدية وان تجعلني أعظم شهيد في هذه الدنيا اللهم اسالك بشهادتي أن لا تسلط الشيطان و ابليس على أحد من بعدي و أن تدخل الناس أفواجا و تغفر لابي وامي و اخواتي وزوجاتي واولادي و ذريتي و مسلمين و المسلمين و مؤمنين والمؤمنات و اللهم اسالك مغفرة لنصارى الموحدين و للذين هادوا و صابئين ولكل من وحدك بإخلاص يا رب العالمين اللهم اسالك شهادة تغفر به الذنوب وتحقق ملكوتك بها يا الله ... اللهم اسالك نور يضيء في قلبي و روحي وجسدي وفي كل بقع في قبل ذلك ... اللهم اسالك ان ترزقني روحك وتثير قلبي للحق وتكشف الناس على حقيقتهم اللهم اسالك أن تغفر وترحم وتنزل رحمتك اللهم لا تجعلني متناقض واربطني إلى طريق المستقيم اللهم انزل اول ايام العظام اللهم اسالك تنزل آية الدخان ايه عظيم تري العالم عظمته و جبروتك آية تري كل أحد من هو الله بصفاته وقوته وعظمته اللهم إني اقسم عليك ان تنزل آية الدخان وان تجعل ناس فسطاطين لا تالت فيهم فسطاط ايمان فسطاط ايمان قوي وضعيف و فسطاط كفر ونفاق لا ايمان فيه اللهم اسالك ان تدخل اهلي الجنة و ابني و ذريته اللهم اني اسالك أن تقطع نسل أهل الشر و أن يبقى نسل أهل الخير اللهم اسالك ان تنزل ملائكتك و تحرس اراضي مقدسه اللهم اني اسالك أن تعجل بالفرج و تفتح ابواب الجنه جميعها وتغلق ابواب جهنم الا لمن أبى أن يكون من أهل الهداية اللهم اني اسالك أن تبث روحك في روح الحق روح النور روح عظيمه بعظمتك و جبروتك روحا تخضع بها أهل الأرض و سماوات اللهم اسالك نورك اللهم اني اسالك أن تقطع دابر ابليس و دجال اللهم اني اسالك أن تحبسهم تربطهم وتخضعهم وان لا يسلطوا على أحد بعد الان اللهم اسالك مغفره لي مغفره لامي و ابي و اخوتي و اخواتي لزوجتي لابنائي لعائلتي وعائلتها ولجميع أهل الأرض اللهم اسالك يا الله بقوتك وجبروتك أن تفصل عالم جن عن عالم الانس اللهم اني اسالك أن تخلع قرناء من كل جسد وتجعل كل انسان طائره في عقه نفسه التي تتحكم فيه اللهم و نشر ملائكتك بالأرض جميعا و خسف بكل ارض و بكل مكان لا يرجى أهله الهداية نفوسهم خبيثه لا تصلح الهداية اللهم اسالك بعظمتك و جبروتك واقسم عليك واقسم عليك يا رب العزه و جبروت أن تنتهي كل انواع السحر و الحسد و العين و أن تجعل أهل اليمن من ذاكرين الله كثيرن و ذاكرات و أن تجعل جند العراق و الشام كذلك جند مجنده من ذاكرين و ذاكرات اللهم اسالك يا الله ان تخرج اولياءك الصالحين اسالك يا الله يا عظيم يا قدير أن تبعت أصحاب الكهف مره اخرى اللهم اقسم عليك بذلك وأسالك أن تبعثهم اللهم اسالك بعظمتك و قدرتك وجبروتك أن تخرج إبدال الشام و عصب أهل العراق اللهم اني اسالك بعظمتك وجبروتك أن تكسر قرني الشيطان اللهم اسالك بعظمتك وجبروتك أن تنزل الملك عن كل الملوك الا أراد نصرت دينك و يريد الآخرة ... اللهم اسالك بعظمتك و قدرت أن تخرج من شام اشرارها اللهم اسالك و اقسم عليك و ادعوك بعزتك و جبروتك أن تخرج اشرار أهل سوريا و اشرار أهل الاردن و اشرار أهل لبنان و اشرار أهل فلسطين و جميع دول الإسلامية وأن أهلكهم اللهم زلزل الأرض زلزه اللهم زلزل الأرض زلزه اللهم إني اقسم عليك بذلك ... اللهم انزع عمود الدين من المدينة و عمده في الشام بالمكان الذي يرضيك يا الله فأنت العظيم القدير ... اللهم اني اسالك لطف فينا جميعا و هدايتنا اللهم اسالك الهدى لابي وامي و اخواتي محمد وحسن و حسين و زوجتي

سارة و ابني احمد و لعائلتي و عائلتها و لانسابنا ولجميع المؤمنين والمؤمنات اللهم اسالك المغفرة سبحانه الله وبحمده سبحانه الله عظيم
استغفر الله و اتوب اليك اللهم امنحني مغفرتك و هدايتك و توفيقك و انزع عن قلبي كل ما لا تحبه في اللهم سقني لاربتك لا لإرادتي اللهم أمن
عني كل حرام و قرب الي كل حلال اللهم انزع عني كل شر و ابغضه في قلبي و اهدني اللهم اسالك هداك اللهم اسالك هداك اللهم اسالك
هداك اللهم اني ضعيف فقير ذليل احبك و احب كل ما يحبك أقسمت من صغري أن لا اقوم باي ذنب و اذنبت كثيرا اللهم اسالك مغفرتك
وحبك اللهم اني اسالك حبك اللهم اني اسالك حبك اللهم اني اسالك حبك اللهم ان ذنوبي كثيرة كثيرة لا اعلم مداها اللهم اقطعها كلها
واجعلها حسنة و بدله اللهم اسالك ان تبدلها إلى حسنات اللهم اقطعها و جعلها حسنة يا الله اللهم اني اسالك أن تقطعها كلها اللهم اني اسالك
أن تقطعها كلها اللهم اني اسالك نورك و هدايتك اللهم اني اسالك نورك و هدايتك و روحك يا الله اللهم اني ضعيف ذليل كثير الذنوب ولكن
احبك احبك وأسألك دوما ان تهديني وتنزع عني كل حرام اللهم اسالك تنزع عن قلبي كل حرام اللهم اسالك نفسا محمدية وان كان هناك نفس
أعظم اسالك اياها اللهم اسالك حبك و هدايتك و توفيقك اللهم انر قلبي ولا تكلني لنفسي اللهم أعظم دين و نصر رسلك اللهم انسر رسلك اللهم
دمر عاد و ثمود تدميرا اللهم دمر عاد و ثمود تدميرا اللهم اسالك ان تدمر كل أهل الشر اللهم اسالك ان تدمر
كل أهل الشر اللهم لا تذرهم اللهم اهدي بني إسرائيل و امحق بمن لا يريد الهداية اللهم اسالك بعظمتك و جبروتك و حكمتك و رحمتك أن
تتطق الحجر و الشجر و الحيوانات ... اللهم اسالك ان تنزع عالم جن عن عالم انس اللهم اسالك ان يكون كل عالم لوحده بعيد عن اخر
وانزل انبياءك الله

From: [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] PII

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Religious Freedom from CA vaccine law

Date: Sun, 26 Apr 2026 23:14:15 -0400

Importance: Normal

Dear Members of the Religious Freedom Commission,

As a parent and resident in California, I ask that the RLC take action at the federal level, so that religious exemptions and parental freedoms may be restored in California. I ask that the constitutional rights and freedoms be brought before our President for Executive Order consideration, as families such as ours are in serious need.

Currently we have to homeschool in CA due to State laws that removed our religious exemptions, as we cannot vaccinate for school due to our sincerely held religious beliefs. It would be a violation of our beliefs.

Thank you for your time and consideration regarding this important topic of religious freedom, it affects so many families here in California.

Respectfully,

[REDACTED] PII mother of student
[REDACTED] PII

Sent from my iPhone

From: Jenny PII [REDACTED] >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Religious Freedom please!

Date: Sun, 26 Apr 2026 00:26:13 -0400

Importance: Normal

Hello,

My son is starting TK in the fall. Vaccines go against my religious beliefs but I am a single mom who can't afford to homeschool my son so I'm being forced to give my son medical procedures (injections) that go against my beliefs. This is protected under the First Amendment but somehow has been stripped from us anyway.

Thank you for reading this and considering how mandates affect families and their religious beliefs. Religious exemptions and protections should be included in the commission's final report and be upheld at the state and federal level.

Jenny PII [REDACTED]

From [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] >

To: "[REDACTED]" <[REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Re: Final Report to President on Vaccine Mandates

Date: Sat, 25 Apr 2026 11:04:54 -0400

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I wanted to take a few moments to thank you for addressing the lack of religious exemptions for school vaccine requirements in California and other states.

[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] My husband and I have kept him unvaccinated, because it is our sincerely held religious belief that this is an important way to honor God in caring for our son's health.

We would like to consider sending him to public school next year, however the vaccine mandate is a significant barrier to us making that decision. We see the benefits of him participating in a more broad and diverse community, but the lack of a religious exemption creates a dilemma for us. As things currently stand, we are being denied access to a public school education if we don't violate our religious convictions.

I would ask that the Commission please explicitly include the need for a vaccine religious exemption in your final report on policy guidance to the President in May. Please recommend that school's not complying with this will lose federal funding. The practice of our religion is a protected right under the First Amendment. I hope that the vaccine religious exemption will soon be reinstated in time for my son to attend public school.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]

Sent with Proton Mail secure email.

From [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Religious exemptions for vaccines

Date: Thu, 23 Apr 2026 21:08:24 -0400

Importance: Normal

To Whom It May Concern:

I am a parent that has been directly affected by the lack of religious exemptions in California. We have been unable to put our children in daycare or school, and thus have been forced to leave our home state.

Sincerely held religious beliefs are protected under the First Amendment and policies should include reasonable accommodations rather than blanket exclusions.

Please help us take action to protect religious exemptions and protections and explicitly include this in the Commission's final report and policy guidance to the President.

I ask that you please recommend that federal education funding be removed or conditioned for public schools that do not allow religious exemptions to state vaccine requirements.

Urge the Department of Justice to take a strong and active role in supporting legal challenges that defend religious freedom in response to vaccine mandates, including AVFCA's school vaccine religious exemption lawsuit in California.

Thank you for all you have done so far!

Kim [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]

From: Charis [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] >

To: "[REDACTED]" <[REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Religious exemptions

Date: Sat, 18 Apr 2026 23:55:45 -0400

Importance: Normal

To whom it may concern:

Thank you for bringing attention to religious liberty that is denied to students in California. My daughter has been unable to attend school for the past 4 years. While my employer granted me a religious exemption due to my sincerely held religious beliefs, my daughter is not able to obtain a similar exemption to attend school. This has directly impacted her access to education in California even though her religious beliefs are protected by the First Amendment. School policies should include reasonable accommodations rather than excluding categories of children.

I ask you to please ask for protections for religious exemption in your report for President Trump. Federal funding should not be granted to states that refuse to allow religious exemptions. Please recommend the DOJ support groups seeking equity for all students like AVFCA on California.

Thankyou,

Charisi [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]

From: PII [REDACTED] >

To: "[REDACTED]" <[REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Religious Exemptions

Date: Sat, 18 Apr 2026 15:52:13 -0400

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission:

I'm urging you to take action at the federal level on behalf of the many families who have been negatively affected by vaccine mandates without religious exemptions. My children had denied school access early on when their Personal Belief Exemptions were cancelled by the state of California. After vaccinating them, my kids experienced tremendous injury. I sought a medical exemption for my kids and it was granted, but later revoked by the state. I had to cut my work hours to homeschool my children in the evenings while working during the day. Our lives have been filled with anxiety not knowing what all opportunities and care will be denied to us next, as I also received a letter from my kids' pediatrician that he will no longer see unvaccinated or partially vaccinated children in his medical group. I pay high state taxes, yet my children cannot access a free and appropriate public education. My children also have threatened healthcare, and everyday life seems to have some sort of hurdle. For example, currently California is attempting to pass Assembly Bill 2651 (AB 2651) that would require schools to publicly report and notify parents of immunization rates within their school communities, including data broken down by grade level. This will potentially isolate students with valid medical exemptions. Families are feeling corralled and persecuted by the simple act of making educated medical and religious decisions for their children and themselves. As a Christian family, we sincerely hold religious beliefs against vaccines and other medical interventions; these beliefs are protected under the First Amendment and policies should include reasonable accommodations rather than blanket exclusions. I ask that religious exemptions and protections be clearly and explicitly included in the Commission's final report. Please also provide policy guidance to the President. Additionally, I ask that you consider withholding federal education funding for public schools that do not allow religious exemptions to state vaccine requirements.

Lastly, I implore the Department of Justice to take a strong and active role in supporting legal challenges that defend religious freedom in response to vaccine mandates, including AVFCA's school vaccine religious exemption lawsuit in California.

Attentively,

Alma PII [REDACTED]

From: Lori Kepner <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "[REDACTED] PII" <[REDACTED] PII >

Cc: Steve McFarland <[REDACTED] PII >, Kim Colby <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Comment from Christian Legal Society for the Commission's consideration

Date: Sat, 18 Apr 2026 10:56:57 -0400

Importance: Normal

Attachments: 2026.04.18_CLS_Comment_to_the_Religious_Liberty_Commission.pdf

Inline-Images: Outlook-x4fgtpry

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

Thank you for your work to advance religious freedom. We at Christian Legal Society submit this comment for your consideration as you prepare the final report.

Sincerely,
Lori Kepner

Lori Kepner | CHRISTIAN LEGAL SOCIETY | Senior Counsel

Address

Springfield, VA Address | PII

April 17, 2026

Religious Liberty Commission
Office of the Associate Attorney General
U.S. Department of Justice
950 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20530-0001

PII

We appreciate the work the Religious Liberty Commission (Commission) has been doing, seeking to clarify the importance of religious freedom and the current threats to religious freedom right here in our country. We at Christian Legal Society's Center for Law & Religious Freedom have defended the rights of individuals and organizations to practice and live out their religious identity and beliefs for over fifty years. We have advocated for the passage of important legislation like RFRA, RLUIPA, and the Equal Access Act. We defend the rights of students, student groups, teachers, and parents in public schools to engage in religious expression. We support religious organizations' right to be authentically religious by adopting policies and hiring based on religious beliefs. We pursue all these things because we believe that the unique religious pluralism of our country is a result of strong First Amendment protections; we must preserve these protections for future generations.

To that end, we offer a few specific suggestions for the Commission's consideration that could be effectuated with minimal cost and that will provide positive long-term advancement of the Commission's goals:

1. The White House Office of Legislative Affairs (OLA) should include two specific bills as part of its legislative priorities that will serve to advance its religious freedom goals: the Equal Campus Access Act of 2025 (S.2859 / H.R. 5505) and the Fair Treatment of Religious Organizations Act of 2026 (H.R. 1817).
2. OLA should also encourage all House and Senate committees to be vigilant and not advance any bill that has a carveout to RFRA.
3. The White House should ask DOJ's Office of Legal Counsel (OLC) to draft a memorandum detailing the arguments in support of overruling Employment Division v. Smith.¹ The White House should ask DOJ to file in cases in the federal appellate courts and the Supreme Court in support of overruling Smith.
4. The White House should direct the Department of Education to revise its "Guidance on Constitutionally Protected Prayer and Religious Expression in Public K-12 Schools," released February 5, 2026, by restoring the first Trump Administration's Guidance, released January 21, 2020. Among several things, the revised Guidance should emphasize how current law protects religious student organizations meeting on public secondary school campuses under the Equal Access Act and the First Amendment.

¹ 494 U.S. 872 (1990).

These suggestions merit particular focus as we detail below. In each section, we also mention the specific EO 14291 priorities that these suggestions relate to.

1. The White House Office of Legislative Affairs should include two specific bills as part of its legislative priorities that will serve to advance its Religious Freedom goals: the Equal Campus Access Act of 2025 (S.2859 / H.R. 5505) and the Fair Treatment of Religious Organizations Act of 2026 (H.R. 1817).

First, the OLA should include these bills as part of its legislative priorities. They advance widely supported religious freedom goals in the following ways.

The Equal Campus Access Act of 2025 (S.2859 / H.R. 5505) directly relates to the EO priority of the First Amendment rights of students. It protects free speech and religious freedom for college students at public universities all over the country. It will correct a decades-long pattern of public universities in all parts of the country excluding religious campus groups because of those groups' faith convictions and faith-based leadership standards.² In addition, it will help students find faith and belonging through religious student organizations. Students need healthy community and support for their time at college, and the presence of authentic faith-based groups can make a huge difference in providing belonging and meaningful connection, leading to better well-being and success.³ The bill states:

None of the funds made available under this Act may be provided to any public institution of higher education that denies to a religious student organization any right, benefit, or privilege that is otherwise afforded to other student organizations at the institution (including full access to the facilities of the institution and official recognition of the organization by the institution) because of the religious beliefs, practices, speech, leadership standards, or standards of conduct of the religious student organization.

This language is intended to hold public colleges and universities accountable so that they will follow First Amendment principles of religious freedom, free speech, and freedom of association in how they treat religious student organizations. The requested language will protect the religious freedom and expression of religious student organizations on public college and university campuses and will avoid protracted, costly, and needless litigation that disrupts student life and costs taxpayers.⁴ Instead, student groups will be able to point administrators to this language to resolve confusion and remain focused on serving their campus and community. The language is supported by a wide range of religious organizations of many religious backgrounds.⁵

² See Statement of Kimberlee Wood Colby, Of Counsel, Christian Legal Society's Center for Law & Religious Freedom, at the U.S. Religious Liberty Commission Hearing on Religious Liberty in Public Education, Sept. 8, 2025 (available here); See also Fleshman, Benjamin, How Do You Solve a Problem Like Martinez, 29 Texas Review of Law and Politics 232 (2025).

³ 2022 Salesforce Connected Student Report, 3rd Edition, <https://www.salesforce.org/blog/2022-connected-student-report-third-edition/> (identifying belonging as a key foundation for student success); Foubert, John D., Grainger, Lauren U., "Effects of Involvement in Clubs and Organizations on the Psychosocial Development of First Year and Senior College Students," NASPA Journal, 2006, Vol. 43, no.1; Corlette, Naomi, The Loneliness Gap Among Young Americans is Growing, Harvard Political Review (April 23, 2025); Emily A. Greenfield and Nadine F. Marks, Religious Social Identity as an Explanatory Factor for Associations between More Frequent Formal Religious Participation and Psychological Well-Being, Int. J. Psychol Relig. 2007; 17(3): 245-259 (available at <https://pmc.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/articles/PMC2507864/pdf/nihms56430.pdf>).

It is common sense that religious student organizations on public university and college campuses should be able to authentically represent their faiths and religious identities by requiring their leaders to agree with their religious beliefs. This language is simple and clear protective language that will stop intimidation tactics and religious discrimination from happening when colleges try to exclude religious groups (a decades-long problem). The proposed statutory language does not increase federal oversight in higher education because it is a reasonable, one-sentence solution that does not require a college or university to adopt any particular policy but merely requires fair treatment of religious students.

The Fair Treatment of Religious Organizations’ Act (H.R. 1817) would directly and vitally implement the priority of the EO and this Commission of protecting the First Amendment rights of faith-based institutions. The Supreme Court has held that the IRS can revoke the tax exemption of a religious institution if the IRS Commissioner finds that the latter has a policy or practice that violates clear public policy. Obviously, revocation of the exemption would be fatal to almost any charity or church; the government could tax it into extinction and/or its donations would no longer be tax deductible to donors, thus drying up its support. This “nuclear option” cannot be left in the hands of future administrations who could revoke exempt status for any religious ministry or college that requires its staff and/or board to share its beliefs and conduct standards relating to homosexuality, same-sex marriage, and/or “gender transition” (gender dysphoria). The Supreme Court’s §1983 precedent [Bob Jones University v. U.S., 461 U.S. 574 (1983)] drew the line at racially discriminatory policies of a faith-based university. H.R. 1817 would keep the IRS from extending that crippling threat to beliefs that faith communities have for millennia maintained about marriage and human sexuality.

2. OLA should encourage all House and Senate committees to be vigilant and not advance any bill that has a carveout from RFRA.

This action would directly advance the EO’s priority to protect “the First Amendment rights” of all groups, because the RFRA statutory rights are intimately tied to the First Amendment.

Three decades ago, a remarkable and diverse coalition found common ground to protect religious freedom for all. The result was RFRA—a bill that passed with overwhelming bipartisan support (97-3 in the Senate; unanimous consent in the House) in response to the Supreme Court’s decision in Employment Division v. Smith.

⁴ See, e.g., InterVarsity Christian Fellowship/USA v. Univ. of Iowa, 5 F.4th 855, 864 (8th Cir. 2021); InterVarsity Christian Fellowship v. Bd. of Governors of Wayne State Univ., 534 F.Supp.3d 785 (E.D. Mich. 2021); Fellowship of Christian Athletes v. San Jose Unified Indep. Sch. Dist. Bd. of Educ., 82 F.4th 664 (9th Cir. 2023) (en banc).

⁵ See Appendix 1, a letter of support for S.2859 / H.R. 5505, signed by 47 diverse organizations.

RFRA is crucial to protecting religious freedom. The White House should advocate to protect this landmark statute by communicating to Congress that it is an absolute priority that no legislative proposal in Congress pass out of committee or on the House or Senate floor if it carves out RFRA's application to any federal law or to the implementation of that law, whether statutory or otherwise. Regrettably, these carveouts have appeared in bills sponsored by members of both political parties. Nevertheless, no bill carving out RFRA has ever been signed into law, and it is important to ensure that remains true. Once a carveout is made for one interest, all interests will demand carveouts, fatally weakening RFRA.

Carveouts of RFRA are unnecessary because the law includes consideration of both the burden on religious exercise and the compelling government interest. RFRA's sensible balancing test says that the government may not substantially burden the exercise of the claimant's religious belief unless the government can prove that the burden serves a compelling government interest that is accomplished by the least restrictive means. It doesn't create a religious exemption for everyone from the challenged law—only for the specific religious claimant. And if the government's interest (e.g., national security) is compelling and cannot otherwise be accomplished in one specific case, then the government prevails. It will therefore not harm the government and will advance long-term religious freedom interests to preserve RFRA's full application to federal laws.

3. The White House should ask DOJ's Office of Legal Counsel to draft a memorandum detailing the arguments in support of overruling Employment Division v. Smith. The White House should ask DOJ to file in cases in the federal appellate courts and the Supreme Court in support of overruling Smith.

Working to overturn Employment Division v. Smith will support the EO priority of advancing “the First Amendment rights of pastors, religious leaders, houses of worship, faith-based institutions” and will likely bolster many of the other listed priorities as well. Smith greatly reduced protections for religious exercise by providing only rational basis review for burdens on free exercise caused by neutral and generally applicable laws. By focusing courts primarily on whether a law is neutral and generally applicable, Smith has caused free exercise analysis to often miss the forest for the trees, ignoring the First Amendment promise. The Supreme Court should overrule it.

“Government may neither compel affirmation of a repugnant belief, nor penalize or discriminate against individuals or groups because they hold religious views abhorrent to the authorities.”⁶ Free exercise protects the twin guaranties of “freedom to believe and freedom to act.”⁷ The text of the first freedom in the First Amendment is “free exercise.”

Smith has functionally prevented courts from directly implementing the First Amendment's core purpose of protecting religious individuals' and institutions' freedom to live faithfully to their sincerely held religious beliefs. Instead, Smith requires the courts—after noting a significant burden on religious exercise—to ask if the law involved is neutral and generally applicable rather than consider whether the law is the least intrusive means of advancing a government interest that is compelling. Smith did not have strong reasoning for this change, and it is inconsistent with the history of free exercise of religion. The ambiguity of the law because of Smith's uncertain application has eroded the promises of religious protections in practice, allowing lower courts to be susceptible to partisanship in how cases are argued.⁸

⁶ Sherbert v. Verner, 374 U.S. 398, 402 (1963) (citations omitted).

⁷ Cantwell v. Connecticut, 310 U.S. 296, 303 (1940).

Smith's "sweeping result" was to drastically alter free exercise doctrine and to fail to protect minority religions.⁹ The exceptions outlined in Smith have had to grow to provide protection for religious practice that Smith left vulnerable.¹⁰ Such efforts become a game, trying to find an exception to actually get to the logic of treating religious individuals and organizations in a manner that takes seriously their need for protection of religious exercise. Justice Gorsuch, in his Fulton concurrence, takes note of this very practice when he describes the complex "circumnavigation of Smith" in the majority's analysis.¹¹

By overturning Smith, courts would then have to apply strict scrutiny to free exercise claims in a careful, reasoned way. Applying strict scrutiny would simply result in allowing for religious exemptions that are historically grounded, common ways to prevent violations of fundamental rights.¹² Professor Stephanie Barclay suggests advocating for a version of strict scrutiny that would "take an objective approach to the threshold inquiry of the substantial burden test."¹³ She clarifies that strict scrutiny is not a vague or subjective balancing test where a judge just decides which value is more important.¹⁴ Instead, it asks, when there is a burden on religious exercise, whether the government has met its evidentiary burden by showing that its actions were necessary to advance the compelling interest it articulated.¹⁵

The concerns that seemed to drive Smith (such as the worry that religious adherents would regularly be placed "beyond the reach of" the law and thereby cause chaos in society)¹⁶ have not played out in practice after Congress and the states passed RFRA and its many state counterparts.¹⁷ In contrast, Smith itself has caused confusion and undermined the promise of free exercise. Cases prior to Smith, such as United States v. Lee,¹⁸ were able to protect government interests adequately by directly evaluating those interests alongside religious rights. Smith instead decreased

⁸ See, e.g., Zalman Rothschild, Free Exercise Partisanship, 107 Cornell L. Rev. 1067, 1126-1132 (2022) (noting "doctrinal confusion" in lower court decisions and describing the need for clarity about how to analyze religious discrimination in the free exercise context).

⁹ 494 U.S. at 892, 902 (O'Connor, J., concurring).

¹⁰ See, e.g., Church of the Lukumi Babalu Aye, Inc. v. City of Hialeah, 508 U.S. 520 (1993); Fulton v. City of Philadelphia, 593 U.S. 522 (2021); Tandon v. Newsom, 593 U.S. 61 (2021); Kennedy v. Bremerton Sch. Dist., 597 U.S. 507 (2022); Fellowship of Christian Athletes, 82 F.4th 664; Foothill Church v. Watanabe, 3 F.4th 1201 (9th Cir 2021).

¹¹ 593 U.S. at 621.

¹² See, e.g., Stephanie H. Barclay & Mark L. Rienzi, Constitutional Anomalies or As-Applied Challenges? A Defense of Religious Exemptions, 59 B.C. L. Rev. 1595, 1611 (2018); Douglas Laycock, Regulatory Exemptions of Religious Behavior and the Original Understanding of the Establishment Clause, 81 Notre Dame L. Rev. 1793 (2006).

¹³ Barclay, Stephanie, Replacing Smith, 133 Yale L.J. Forum 436, 450 (2023).

¹⁴ Id. at 456.

¹⁵ Id.

¹⁶ 494 U.S. at 878.

¹⁷ See Federal and State RFRA Map, Becket, <https://becketfund.org/research-central/rfra-info-central/map/> (last accessed April 7, 2026).

¹⁸ 455 U.S. 252 (1982).

protections that had been recognized under free exercise. Government actors now often—instead of seeking to create policies that both respect religious exercise and acknowledge crucial government interests and goals—focus on creating neutral policies with no visible exceptions so that they cannot be challenged on the basis of free exercise concerns. Then, when facing challenges, government actors often resort to minimizing the importance of religious practice and seek to justify restrictions as neutral rather than acknowledge a religious burden as meaningful and directly addressing the tension it creates with certain government interests. These practices erode our ability to meaningfully pass on the value of religious freedom to future generations.

An OLC memorandum detailing the arguments in support of overruling Smith would further bolster the importance of this issue and confirm the strong reasoning and clear expectation that the government will not be harmed if Smith is overruled. The government will still be able to preserve its interests while supporting the stability of religious freedom in this country, which is a huge part of our strength.

4. The White House should direct the Department of Education to revise its “Guidance on Constitutionally Protected Prayer and Religious Expression in Public Elementary and Secondary Schools,” released February 5, 2026, by restoring the first Trump Administration’s Guidance, released January 21, 2020. Among several things, the revised Guidance should emphasize how current law protects religious student organizations meeting on public secondary school campuses under the Equal Access Act and the First Amendment.

This request also directly relates to the EO priority of protecting the First Amendment rights of students and religious student organizations and will also advance the EO priority of “permitting time for voluntary prayer and religious instruction at public schools.”

In 1995, the Department of Education (Department) first issued guidance on religious expression in the public schools to all public school district superintendents. This guidance was a turning point because, for the first time, the federal government advised school administrators that private religious expression was protected, and must be respected, on public school property. The guidance addressed numerous specific topics that students, parents, teachers, and school administrators often encounter, including the requirements of the Equal Access Act, 20 U.S.C. §§ 4071-4074 (1984), and its protection of religious student groups meeting for prayer and other religious speech.

In 2002, Congress enacted 20 U.S.C. §7904, requiring local school districts to certify annually to the Department that “no policy of the local educational agency prevents, or otherwise denies participation in, constitutionally protected prayer.” Section 7904 requires the Secretary of Education to issue, at least every two years, guidance as to current law, as reviewed and certified by DOJ’s Office of Legal Counsel.

The Guidance, which has remained largely consistent in its content and much of its structural detail over the past 30 years, has provided stability that is beneficial for students and their families. The Guidance has educated school administrators, while also providing students, parents, teachers, and religious freedom advocates with persuasive authority to cite in their dealings with school administrators.

In 2020, the first Trump Administration released strong guidance that has been particularly helpful to religious freedom practitioners in their efforts to protect students, parents, and teachers in public schools. The 2020 Trump Guidance tracked the Department’s earlier guidance from 1998 and 2003. Specifically, its Section I.C, entitled “Overview of Governing Constitutional Principles,” explained the critical distinction, emphasized in Board of Education v. Mergens,¹⁹ between government religious speech and private religious speech. The 2020 Trump Guidance carefully explained the Supreme Court’s bedrock delineation between a student group’s private religious expression, protected by the Free Speech and Free Exercise Clauses, and government officials’ religious expression, potentially restricted by the Establishment Clause. The 2020 Trump Guidance then applied this foundational distinction between government speech and private speech to specific scenarios. It tracked several specific topics that had been addressed in the Department’s guidance since 1995, including the Equal Access Act.

The White House should direct the Department to issue revised “Guidance on Constitutionally Protected Prayer and Religious Expression in Public Elementary and Secondary Schools” that closely tracks the 2020 Trump Guidance. The revisions outlined below would enable the Guidance to retain its longstanding continuity and clarity upon which many stakeholders, including students, teachers, parents, and school administrators, have come to rely.

Specifically, the “Overview of Governing Constitutional Principles” should again focus on explaining the critical distinction between government religious speech and private religious speech. This material is essential to public school stakeholders’ understanding of the proper protection of religious expression in the public schools.

The revised Guidance should also restore the specific scenarios that were included in the 2020 Trump Guidance but omitted from the 2026 Trump Guidance. Those scenarios include but are not limited to the following:

- 1) Equal Access Act: Restore the distinct section explaining the Equal Access Act’s protection of religious student groups’ ability to: a) meet during noninstructional time, including lunch and activity periods; b) access school media (bulletin boards, newspaper, and public address system); and c) maintain religious leadership requirements.²⁰ See 2020 Trump Guidance, § IV, ¶¶ 1-6 (“The Equal Access Act”). The majority of student prayer likely occurs during the meetings protected by the ¹⁹ 496 U.S. 226 (1990).

²⁰ Several federal court decisions have held that religious student groups meeting at public secondary schools may require their leaders to agree with the groups’ religious beliefs. See Fellowship of Christian Athletes, 82 F.4th 664; Hsu v. Roslyn Union Free Sch. Dist., 85 F.3d 839 (2d Cir. 1996); Fellowship of Christian Athletes v. District of Columbia, 743 F. Supp. 3d 73 (D.D.C. 2024). See also, InterVarsity, 5 F.4th 855 (university of Iowa officials forfeited qualified immunity by derecognizing religious student group because of its religious leadership requirements); Business Leaders in Christ v. Univ. of Iowa, 991 F.3d 969 (8th Cir. 2021) (same); InterVarsity, 534 F. Supp. 3d 785 (Wayne State officials violated the rights of religious student group by derecognizing it because of its leadership requirements); Christian Legal Soc’y v. Walker, 453 F.3d 853 (7th Cir. 2006) (protecting religious student group’s right to hold religious leadership requirements but not addressing qualified immunity).

Equal Access Act. For that reason, it is essential that school administrators be made aware of the Act's protection of students' religious expression.

- 2) See You at the Pole: Restore specific mention that "See You at the Pole" gatherings (an annual, nationwide event in late September where students gather at the flagpole to pray for their school) are protected. See 2020 Trump Guidance, § II.B ("Organized Prayer Groups and Activities").
- 3) Moments of Silence: Restore affirmation that a moment of silence at the beginning of the school day is permissible. See 2020 Trump Guidance, § II.D ("Moments of Silence").
- 4) Religious Excusals: Restore the discussion of when religious excusals are required or permissible. See 2020 Trump Guidance, § III.D ("Religious Excusals"). This paragraph should be updated with a brief discussion of the Supreme Court's 2025 decision in *Mahmoud v. Taylor*²¹ protecting the parental right to notice and opt-out from curriculum that violates parents' religious beliefs. The "Religious Excusal" scenario should also include affirmation of the constitutionality of off-campus religious released-time programs under Zorach v. Clauson.²² The White House also should direct the Department to issue separate, detailed guidance regarding school administrators' obligations under Mahmoud.
- 5) Religious Literature Distribution: Restore affirmation of students' right to distribute religious literature if other students may distribute nonreligious literature. See 2020 Trump Guidance, § III.A ("Religious Literature").
- 6) Teaching about Religion: Restore affirmation that classroom instruction may include teaching about religion in the curriculum in an objective, non-devotional manner. See 2020 Trump Guidance, § III.B ("Teaching about Religion").
- 7) Graduation and other School Events: Restore affirmation that personal religious expression by an individual student or community member speaker at a graduation ceremony or other school event is permissible if the speaker is chosen based on genuinely content-neutral, evenhanded criteria and retains primary control over the content of his or her speech. See 2020 Trump Guidance, §§ II.G-H ("Student Assemblies and Noncurricular Events" and "Prayer at Graduation").
- 8) Baccalaureate Ceremonies: Affirm that religious community groups may hold baccalaureate ceremonies in public school facilities that are otherwise available to community groups. See 2020 Trump Guidance, § II.I ("Baccalaureate Ceremonies"). Also affirm religious community groups' right to meet in school facilities on weekends and evenings²³ and to meet with children after school on an equal access basis.²⁴

²¹ 606 U.S. 522 (2025).

²² 343 U.S. 306 (1952).

- 9) Teacher Speech: Update the 2020 Trump Guidance, § II.C (“Teachers, Administrators, and Other School Employees”) to include the holding in *Kennedy v. Bremerton School District*²⁵ and its careful protection of teacher’s religious expression, including prayer, at a time when teachers are otherwise free to engage in personal expression.

Conclusion

Accordingly, we urge the Commission to include these priorities in its report to the White House Faith Office and the Domestic Policy Council. They are important steps toward furthering the cause of religious freedom in the United States and ensuring that we remain a country where people can freely practice their faith without fear.

Sincerely,

Steve McFarland, Director
Lori Kepner, Senior Counsel
Kimberlee Wood Colby, Of Counsel
Christian Legal Society, Center for Law & Religious Freedom

Address

Springfield, VA Address

PII

PII

²³ Lamb’s Chapel v. Center Moriches Union Free Sch. Dist., 508 U.S. 384 (1993).

²⁴ Good News Club v. Milford Cent. Sch., 533 U.S. 98 (2001).

²⁵ 597 U.S. 507.

Appendix 1

September 16, 2025

The Honorable Tim Walberg
House Committee on Education and The Workforce
U.S. House of Representatives
2266 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

The Honorable James Lankford
U.S. Senate
731 Hart Senate Office Building
Washington, DC 20510

The Honorable Tim Scott
U.S. Senate
104 Hart Senate Office Building
Washington, DC 20510

RE: Letter of support for the Equal Campus Access Act of 2025

Dear Congressman Walberg, Senator Lankford, and Senator Scott,

The undersigned represent diverse beliefs regarding theology, but we agree on affirming the freedom of all students to meet on their public college campuses based upon their shared religious beliefs. The right to assemble based on religiously informed beliefs is foundational to a free and truly pluralistic society. This right includes the ability to choose leaders who affirmatively support the distinctive religious messages and missions of their various groups.

Faith-based student organizations should not face discrimination on college campuses solely because they require their leaders to agree with their core religious beliefs. Basic religious freedom—and common sense—require that a religious group be permitted to require that its leaders agree with its religious message and mission. Unfortunately, on too many college campuses, religious student organizations are denied this essential freedom.

Because this problem is national in scope, a national solution is needed. If America is to continue to be a nation characterized by religious diversity, public university campuses must teach and model respect for diverse religious beliefs and practices.

The undersigned therefore support the language in the Equal Campus Access Act of 2025 because it will provide critical protection for faith-based student organizations of all religious traditions. The language will ensure that such groups will be allowed to meet on campuses nationwide, providing authentic faith communities where students can find belonging, and enabling them to freely discuss, live out and share their religious ideas and values.

Respectfully,

David Nammo
CEO and Executive Director
Christian Legal Society

Mark Gauthier
Vice President and U.S. National Director
Cru

Gregory L. Jao
Executive Vice President – Communications & Mobilization
InterVarsity Christian Fellowship/USA

Nathan Diament
Executive Director of Public Policy
Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations of America

Basharat Saleem
Executive Director
The Islamic Society of North America (ISNA)

Most Reverend Kevin C. Rhoades
Bishop of Ft. Wayne-South Bend
Chairman, USCCB Committee for Religious Liberty

Lance Walker
Director, Public and International Affairs
The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints

Melissa Reid
Director of Government Affairs
Seventh-day Adventist Church – North American Division

Rabbi Yaakov Menken
Executive Vice President
Coalition for Jewish Values

Ismail Royer
Director, Islam and Religious Freedom
Religious Freedom Institute

Kareem Monib
President, Board of Directors
Coalition of Virtue

Howard Slugh
General Counsel
Jewish Coalition for Religious Liberty

Miles S. Mullin II, PhD
Acting President
Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention (ERLC)

Galen Carey
Vice President, Government Relations
National Association of Evangelicals (NAE)

Tim Schultz
President
1st Amendment Partnership

Peggy Nienaber
Senior Vice President
Faith & Liberty In the Nation's Capital

Penny Nance
President and CEO
Concerned Women for America Legislative Action Committee

Bishop Derek LS Jones, Executive Director
Chaplain Alliance for Religious Liberty (CALL)
Alexandria, Virginia

Kenneth Wada
Executive Director of Domestic Missions
Japanese Evangelical Missionary Society / Asian American Christian Fellowship

James “Jimmy” McGee III
President and CEO
The Impact Movement

Dr. Vondalier A. Pipkin
President
ReJOYce in Jesus Campus Fellowship

Andrew J. Rein
National Coordinator
Reformed University Fellowship National (RUF)

Wanda G. Anderson
Senior Vice President and General Counsel
U.S. Navigators

Brandon Baker
Vice President, Legal Services
Young Life

Doug Barkema
Executive Vice President and Legal Counsel
Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA)

Antoine Kazzi
Vice President of Legal FOCUS (Fellowship of Catholic University Students)

Corey Miller
President and CEO
Ratio Christi

Alex Rodriguez
National Director
Chi Alpha Campus Ministries, U.S.A.

Claire McAuliffe
Executive Director
Sigma Alpha Omega Christian Sorority

David A. Hoag
President
Council for Christian Colleges and Universities

Donna M. Carroll
President
Association of Catholic Colleges and Universities

Michelle Stanford, M.D.
President
Catholic Medical Association

Mike Chupp, MD.
CEO
Christian Medical & Dental Associations

Ayman Iskander, MD
President, SJH Cardiology Assoc
Interventional Cardiologist, St. Joseph's Hospital
Coptic Medical Association of North America (CMANA)

The Right Reverend Marshall MacClellan
Bishop Suffragan of the Armed Forces and Chaplaincy for the Jurisdiction of the Armed Forces & Chaplaincy
www.AnglicanChaplains.org

The Venerable Justin Murff
Executive Director
The Anglican Office for Government and International Affairs (AOGIA)

Philip E. Dearborn, EdD
President
Association for Biblical Higher Education (ABHE)

P. George Tryfiates
Vice President for Public Policy & Legal Affairs
Association of Christian Schools International

Jamison Coppola
Government Relations Director
American Association of Christian Schools

Brandon Worsham
Executive Director
Fellowship of Christian University Students (FOCUS)
Dallas, TX

Beverly Skinner
Collegiate Catalyst
Georgia Baptist Mission Board

Paul Stankewitz
Policy Advocate
Michigan Catholic Conference

Rev. Owen E. Williams
President of the Board of Directors
Queens Federation of Churches

Brittany Jones, Esq
President
Kansas Family Voice

Cole Muzio
Founder & President
Frontline Policy Council, Georgia

Allan Wright
Executive Director
New Jersey Family Policy Center

Jeffrey Trimbath
President
Maryland Family Institute

From: PII [REDACTED] Email Address >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <Email Address>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Thank you and special request

Date: Fri, 17 Apr 2026 23:36:14 -0400

Importance: Normal

Dear Liberty Commission,

I want to thank you first of all for simply existing. I am so grateful for your voice. I am writing to urge you to prioritize religious freedom protections in relationship to vaccine mandates.

I live in California and struggle finding acceptance and freedom when it comes to my religious and spiritual conviction that my body and the body's of my children are innately whole. We are homeschooling our children which is putting us in financial strain and hardship. I have a choice, to go override our religious beliefs or to struggle financially. I am trying to homeschool my children the best I can, but feel school would help them learn more and socialize more, as well as giving me the capacity to work.

My understanding is that sincerely held religious beliefs are protected under the first amendment. I sincerely ask that The Liberty Commission or The Trump administration or The Department of Justice to take action on federal level to protect our first amendment rights to freedom of belief without discrimination. Please take an active role in supporting legal challenges that defend religious freedom in response to vaccine mandates, including AVFCA's school vaccine religious exemption lawsuit in California.

Thank you for your time.

PII [REDACTED] mother of 3 and devout Christian

From: PII [REDACTED] >

To: [REDACTED]

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Challenges Accessing CA Education Due to Religious Beliefs

Date: Thu, 16 Apr 2026 18:53:11 -0400

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Committee,

My name is PII [REDACTED], and I am writing as a mother of five children and a working parent here in California. I wanted to share my family's experience in hopes that it helps shed light on the very real challenges families like mine are facing.

My husband and I are Christians, and our faith plays a central role in how we raise our children and make decisions for our family. One of those decisions has been to decline vaccinations based on our sincerely held religious beliefs and our trust in the Lord Jesus Christ to guide and protect our family.

Because of this, we have found ourselves in an incredibly difficult position. In California, our children are effectively unable to access traditional daycare or school settings due to current vaccination requirements. As parents who both need to work to support our household—especially in one of the most expensive states in the country—this creates a constant and overwhelming strain.

We are not a high-income family, and like many others, we rely on both incomes just to meet basic needs. Without access to childcare or educational institutions, we are forced to make impossible choices between providing for our children financially and ensuring they are cared for and educated during the day.

It is deeply discouraging to feel that, as taxpayers and law-abiding citizens, we are excluded from systems that are meant to serve all families. More than anything, it is painful to feel that our religious beliefs—something so personal and foundational to who we are—result in barriers that impact our children's ability to learn and grow in a structured environment.

We are not asking for special treatment, but rather understanding and consideration for families like ours who are trying to live according to their faith while still contributing members of society. We lean heavily on our faith during these challenges, but that does not lessen the practical hardships we face daily.

Thank you for taking the time to read our story and consider the impact these policies have on families like mine. I truly appreciate the work you do to uphold and protect religious freedoms.

Sincerely,

PII [REDACTED]

null

From: [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] >

To: "[REDACTED]" <[REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Religious Exemption

Date: Thu, 16 Apr 2026 15:35:29 -0400

Importance: Normal

To whom it may concern,

I am writing to express the absolute necessity of the religious exemption for vaccines specifically as it pertains to work or school, because the of foundation of our great County is religious freedom, and the rights to pursue health, happiness and prosperity. Religious freedom should not be superseded by any scientific or government mandates that would over-rule our rights for bodily autonomy. As Christians, we believe our body is a temple of God and being asked to inject genetically modified mRNA into our bodies or the bodies of our children in order to attend work or school directly contradicts our religious beliefs that we should not tamper with the genetic code that God wrote. I personally have seen many people have health issues as a result of being forced to take these toxic injections for school or work. many of the health conditions they experience such as food allergies, chronic fatigue, poor circulation or auto-immune disease, are long lasting and life-changing, impacting people's ability to be healthy, happy, remain employed, and care for their loved ones. My ability to seek employment and enroll my children in school or daycare was significantly impacted during the Covid years and still affects my choices and options today.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]

Sent with Proton Mail secure email.

From: PII [REDACTED]

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Religious exemptions

Date: Thu, 16 Apr 2026 11:22:46 -0400

Importance: Normal

Please help secure religious exemptions until all vaccines are exposed for the damage and death they do. We deserve a choice. I have 4 autistic grandchildren due to forced vaccines.

It is a wonderful

Vickie [REDACTED]

PII [REDACTED]

From:

PII

Email Address

To: "Email Address" <Email Address>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Religious Exemptions

Date: Wed, 15 Apr 2026 20:21:02 -0400

Importance: Normal

Religious exemptions are very important and vital to personal liberties. As a Federal Employee, I was directed to take a medical procedure/vaccine in order to keep my job. I refused, joined a group of like-minded employees, and sued the administration for ignoring our religious freedoms and protections as Americans. I was allowed to keep my employment, but I was discriminated against by being forced to isolate, wear a mask, all while vaccinated employees were not. The religious exemptions need to be protected. Thank you.

PII

From: [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Violations to my religious liberty

Date: Wed, 15 Apr 2026t17:38:16 -0400

Importance: Normal

Dear Commissioners,

My body is a temple, made in the image and likeness of God. Therefore, I have a sincerely held religious objection to the practice of vaccination. In addition, I object to the forced vaccination of children in order to attend public school in California. During 2020, I homeschooled a pod of children who were unable to be vaccinated and who were forced out of school because of this. I fear that my unvaccinated children will be refused medical treatment or other important opportunities in the future if this unconstitutional discrimination is not corrected.

Current unconstitutional policies directly impact children's access to education, healthcare, and everyday life, often forcing families into impossible choices. Sincerely held religious beliefs are protected under the First Amendment and policies should include reasonable accommodations rather than blanket exclusions.

I call on the Religious Liberty Commission to take action at the federal level to prevent this from happening again: religious exemptions and protections should be clearly and explicitly included in the Commission's final report and policy guidance to the President.

Please recommend that federal education funding be removed or conditioned for public schools that do not allow religious exemptions to state vaccine requirements.

Please urge the Department of Justice to take a strong and active role in supporting legal challenges that defend religious freedom in response to vaccine mandates, including AVFCA's school vaccine religious exemption lawsuit in California.

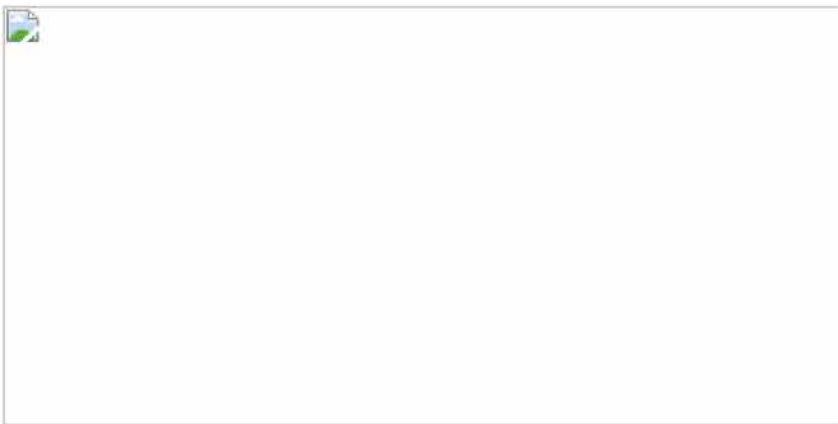

Thank you for your attention to this matter

[REDACTED]

PII

[REDACTED]

PII

From: PII PII

To: "RLC (OASG)" <PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Thank you

Date: Wed, 15 Apr 2026 14:37:07 -0400

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I am writing to express my sincere gratitude for your efforts in bringing attention to the importance of religious freedom. Your work is especially meaningful at a time when many families across several states are facing growing challenges in exercising their beliefs.

I want to share a personal experience that reflects this concern. My daughter was required by her private Montessori school to become fully vaccinated in order to continue her education there. While I respect public health discussions, this requirement placed our family in a difficult and unfair position regarding our religious beliefs.

We believe that the freedom to practice one's religion is a fundamental right in this country—not a privilege that can be limited or overlooked. Families should not be forced to choose between their children's education and their deeply held beliefs. It is critical that we protect and restore the rights of individuals to make decisions in alignment with their faith.

I urge the Religious Liberty Commission to take clear and decisive action at the federal level:

- Ensure that religious exemptions and protections are clearly and explicitly included in the Commission's final report and policy guidance to the President.
- Recommend that federal education funding be conditioned or removed for public schools that do not allow religious exemptions to state vaccine requirements.
- Urge the Department of Justice to take a strong and active role in supporting legal challenges that defend religious freedom in response to vaccine mandates, including AVFCA's school vaccine religious exemption lawsuit in California.

In addition, I respectfully ask that you continue advocating for strong policies that uphold religious freedom in education, ensuring that families and students are not excluded or penalized for their beliefs. Without firm protections, these rights risk being weakened or ignored.

Preserving religious freedom is essential to maintaining the values our country was founded upon. I urge you to continue leading with strength and clarity on this issue.

Thank you again for your dedication and commitment to protecting these fundamental rights.

Sincerely,

PII

From: [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] Email Address >

To: "Email Address" <Email Address>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Religious and Personal Belief Exemptions

Date: Wed, 15 Apr 2026 14:36:45 -0400

Importance: Normal

To whom it may concern;

My family was forced out of California, from our home and a school our children loved, and from our business because of the draconian vaccine mandates passed by the legislature there. Our religious and personal belief exemptions were no longer respected and it resulted in the threats of our children being taken away for "medical neglect". Vaccines are against our personal beliefs as they are created by killing other children in the womb. It is a violation of the laws of life to kill an innocent life in order to save one's own. It is also my religious belief that no government owns my body, and government should not have the right to force medical products on anyone.

My family was also vaccine injured, but because of the mandates, a doctor cannot even write a medical exemption more than once a year without risking his license.

It is about time the justice department ends the violation of the first amendment religious freedom rights being conducted by the States under the false premise of public health.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Best, [REDACTED] PII

From: Diana <[REDACTED]>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Thank you from California. And also HAAALLPP US!

Date: Wed, 15 Apr 2026 13:42:30 -0400

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

This attention means so much to me. I've had to face really hard choices because of my sincerely held religious beliefs.

I am a parent in California, where Senate Bill 277 eliminated all religious exemptions for school vaccine requirements. As a result, I have had to homeschool my son entirely as a single mom and domestic violence survivor. I deeply value education and contribute as a tax-paying citizen, yet my child is denied access to public school services solely because of my religious convictions. I have taken on considerable financial and emotional strain to ensure my son receives a proper education while respecting our faith.

The lack of legal protections for religious liberty in California has really affected my peace of mind. During the COVID-19 pandemic, I also faced threats to my employment due to my religious objection to vaccine mandates, nearly losing my livelihood for remaining true to my conscience when I am the sole provider for our family. The hypocrisy behind disrespecting religious liberty being rooted in "love, inclusion, diversity" is like Orwellian Newspeak. These experiences underscore that current state-level policies disregard the First Amendment's guarantees of religious freedom and parental rights.

I respectfully ask that the Commission include strong, explicit recommendations in its final report to the President this May. Please urge federal policymakers to:

- Ensure that any federal guidance on vaccine mandates includes protections for sincerely held religious beliefs.
- Limit federal education funding to states and public schools that deny religious exemptions and funnel those funds to charter schools and homeschool programs that DO respect religious liberty.
- Support ongoing legal efforts and challenges defending First Amendment rights, including those led by A Voice for Choice Advocacy in California

Families like mine need action. With your influence, meaningful federal protections could prevent others from having to choose between their faith and their children's education. Thank you for your dedication and compassion in upholding the freedom of belief for all Americans.

Regards,

[REDACTED]
P||

California

From: PII [REDACTED] >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] California Vaccine exemptions

Date: Wed, 15 Apr 2026 12:49:15 -0400

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

My family has been impacted by the lack of religious vaccine exemptions in my city of San Francisco.

I lost a great job due to the mandates for covid shots in early 2020.

My son was denied entry back in private school because of tDAP shots being incomplete. He had a severe allergic reaction to the tDAP shot and the physician did not care or submit to VAERS saying it was normal.

Mothers know best what is not normal for their children.

When is it going to be about health, not about money or the religion of vaccinology? It is a religion if you cannot criticize it as science is never settled.

I beg you to please contend for those who have a sincere religious and medical belief that vaccines should never be mandated. Where there is risk there should be choice. Why does the government force people to put something they do not want in their bodies?

I still suffer from the loss of my job 5 years ago, as I am older and not so employable anymore but I am glad I did not take the covid shot as I have a genetic predisposition to blood clots and I believe I would be disabled or dead now.

Please, also do not let the government come in between a patient and their doctor. Doctors should not be persecuted for supporting their patients. No, we are not mentally ill from refusing vaccine mandates.

Thank you for your consideration,

PII [REDACTED] mother.

From: PII Email Address

To: "RLC (OASG)" <Email Address>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Religious Exemptions for California

Date: Wed, 15 Apr 2026 12:43:01 -0400

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I am a parent of two children in California who are denied access to public education due to vaccine status. There are secular pathways in California that permit school attendance with unvaccinated or partial vaccinated status, but not a religious exemption. If students with an IEP or medical exemption are allowed to go to school then a child whose parent has religious objections to even just one type of vaccine, for example, those made with aborted fetal tissues, should be allowed to opt out of the vaccine, but still attend school.

The right of the State to protect public health is not superior to a persons religious convictions, especially given that vaccination is not inherently risk free, nor 100% effective at the stated goal. Vaccination qualifies as a medical procedure, and how would a state be permitted to mandate a medical procedure in lieu of access to inherent rights, such as education? Jacobsen vs. Massachusetts did not permit school exclusion. There is no precedent for that.

This is discrimination against select groups with religious objection, not a public health strategy that applies to all equally.

Please help us in California.

Sincerely,

PII

From [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] Email Address >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] Email Address >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Thank you!

Date: Wed, 15 Apr 2026 12:41:00 -0400

Importance: Normal

Thank you for addressing the religious exemption issue for vaccines. My 14 year old really wants to attend high school!

Sent from my iPhone

From: S [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] >

To: " [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] " < [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Religious Exemptions for Vaccines CA Shools

Date: Wed, 15 Apr 2026 12:29:28 -0400

Importance: Normal

Hello,

My name is [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] and I'm writing to express my gratitude for addressing the issue of religious exemptions for vaccines in the state of California. I strongly urge you to please prioritize religious freedom and protections for vaccine mandates in your final report to the President this May. It's critical that religious exemptions and protections be clearly and explicitly included in the Commission's final report and policy guidance to the President. I also ask that the Commission recommend that federal education funding be removed or conditioned for public schools that do not allow religious exemptions to state vaccine requirements.

Our Story:

My 13 year old son and myself have been impacted by these mandates. Our religious beliefs do not align with the administration of certain vaccines and when my son was in the middle of 3rd grade, he was kicked out of his public school and we had to start homeschooling. This has dramatically impacted our lives. I used to work from home and also used to have the help of his father to homeschool. However, I was laid off in September and had to get a new job that requires me to work on-site. I also had to file emergency custody orders for my son last May and now that I have full custody, his dad no longer participates in any of his homeschooling. Therefore, our lives are consumed with trying to ensure my son gets a proper education while I work out of the home 5 days a week.

I'm terribly concerned for his academic development being that he is not getting the hands-on, one on one attention from a teacher or mentor to ensure he understands the material and is putting forth his best efforts.

The other side of this is that my son is a social person and he TERRIBLY misses the social aspect of going to school. He is home alone all day, isolated, and is becoming depressed. He is missing out on school sports (which he loves), clubs, and friendships. He will never be able to attend a high school dance, or cheer on his football team, or play soccer for high school. He won't have practice navigating certain social situations which could impact his adult life and career.

Since I'm not able to be home with him, I'm not able to sign him up for other local clubs or homeschooling groups because he has no way to get there or home. We don't live in an area that has a wide network of homeschoolers.

Additionally, the stress and worry this causes me makes me lose sleep at night. I want him to have a wonderful childhood where he is free to learn like other children, be with his friends like other children, play sports like other children.

These mandates are discrimination at its finest. We are being denied fundamental rights to free education because of our religious beliefs. It's absolutely criminal and should not be allowed to continue.

Thank you for attention to this very serious matter, and taking the time to read my story.

[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED] <[REDACTED]>

To: "[REDACTED]" <[REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Protect Religious Freedom in Vaccine Policy

Date: Wed, 15 Apr 2026 11:01:24 -0400

Importance: Normal

Dear Members of the Religious Liberty Commission,

Thank you for addressing religious freedom in vaccine mandates. Recognition is important, but it is not enough.

I write from personal experience. I nearly lost my position as a university professor in California for refusing the Covid vaccine due to my sincerely held religious beliefs. The pressure made clear that my beliefs were not being respected. I ultimately chose to leave and serve at a university more aligned with my values.

No one should be forced into that decision. These policies directly impact livelihoods and force families into impossible choices.

Children are also affected. In states such as California, New York, Connecticut, Maine, and West Virginia, students are still denied access to education because of their families' sincerely held religious beliefs.

The First Amendment protects the free exercise of religion. Policies must include clear and enforceable religious accommodations.

I urge the Commission to:

- Include explicit religious exemption protections in your final report and guidance to the President
- Recommend conditioning federal education funding on schools that honor religious exemptions
- Encourage the Department of Justice to support legal challenges defending religious freedom, including efforts in California

Now is the time for meaningful action to ensure these protections are upheld.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully,

[REDACTED]

From: "John Vause" <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Shut it down

Date: Tue, 31 Mar 2026 10:29:20 -0400

Importance: Normal

You need to watch this interview with Tucker Carlson and Bishop Strickland.

https://www.lifesitenews.com/news/bishop-strickland-tells-tucker-carlson-loss-of-life-in-gaza-is-a-holocaust-of-our-time/?utm_source=featured-news&utm_campaign=usa

The RLC is not supporting religious liberty. Your dismissal of Carrie Prejean Boller was inexcusable. It revealed the existence of an alternate agenda to change, in part, the definition of Zionism, i.e., if you are not a Zionist you are anti-Semitic. This is egregiously wrong.

As a result, most Americans, who are paying attention, have lost all respect for the RLC, particularly Traditional Catholics who are not Zionists. It should be shutdown as you are not truly interested in freedom of religion.

Regards,

John Vause

From: "Rachel N. Morrison" <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] FW: Public Comment

Date: Thu, 26 Mar 2026 09:47:17 -0400

Importance: Normal

Attachments: 25-11-Eradicating-Anti-Christian-Bias-1.pdf

Please see below and attached.

From: Rachel N. Morrison <[REDACTED] PII >

Date: Friday, March 6, 2026 at 12:41 PM

To: [REDACTED] PII <[REDACTED] PII >

Cc: Eric N. Kniffin <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: Public Comment

Hello,

We'd like to submit for public comment the attached report (also linked here) titled, Eradicating Anti-Christian Bias: A Response to Executive Order 14202.

The report, published in October 2025, highlights three key areas where we have observed anti-religious liberty bias by the federal government: (1) the Department of Health and Human Services' attacks on health-care rights of conscience, (2) the Biden administration's failure to respect religious liberty in the rulemaking process, and (3) the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission's disdain for religious liberty rights. For each area, the report includes proposed actions that could be taken by the federal government to address the anti-religious liberty bias and help protect Americans' religious liberty rights.

Thank you for your consideration.

All the best,

Rachel N. Morrison, J.D.
Fellow and Director
Administrative State Accountability Project
Ethics and Public Policy Center

Eradicating Anti-Christian Bias:

A Response to Executive Order 14202

RACHEL N. MORRISON AND ERIC KNIFFIN

ADMINISTRATIVE STATE ACCOUNTABILITY PROJECT
OCTOBER 2025

Introduction

On February 6, 2025, President Donald Trump issued Executive Order 14202, “Eradicating Anti-Christian Bias.”¹ The executive order recognizes that the American Founders “established a Nation in which people were free to practice their faith without fear of discrimination or retaliation by their government.” Consistent with this tradition, the order states that “[i]t is the policy of the United States, and the purpose of this order, to protect the religious freedoms of Americans and end the anti-Christian weaponization of government.”

To address “anti-Christian weaponization of government or unlawful conduct targeting Christians” and to help the executive branch enforce laws that “protect[] the freedom of Americans and groups of Americans to practice their faith in peace,” the order established within the Department of Justice a Task Force to Eradicate Anti-Christian Bias. It charged the task force with reviewing actions taken during the Biden administration to “identify any unlawful anti-Christian policies, practices, or conduct by an agency contrary to the purpose and policy of this order.” The task force was also asked to “identify deficiencies in existing laws and enforcement and regulatory practices that have contributed to unlawful anti-Christian governmental or private conduct and recommend . . . appropriate actions that agencies may take to remedy failures to fully enforce the law against acts of anti-Christian hostility.”

Part of the task force’s work has involved soliciting information and ideas from individuals and groups with insight into the Biden administration’s “anti-Christian conduct.”

Through our work as attorneys and scholars in the Ethics and Public Policy Center’s (EPPC) Administrative State Accountability Project (ASAP),² we observed and documented ways in which the Biden administration demonstrated anti-Christian bias. Our project’s mission is to advocate for an authentic understanding of the human person in the drafting, implementation, and rollback of federal government regulations. We focus especially on regulatory actions related to religious liberty, health-care rights of conscience, the right to life, and nondiscrimination. We engage in the federal rulemaking process by providing legal and policy expertise on proposed regulations, submitting public comments, meeting with government officials, and equipping others to participate in the rulemaking process. A full archive of our work engaging the Biden administration is available on EPPC’s website.³

In our opinion, the Biden administration expressed anti-Christian bias by disregarding Christians’ religious freedoms. The Biden administration’s radical pro-abortion and pro-LGBTQI+ policies created religious liberty and conscience-related conflicts for Christians and other Americans. The Biden administration also sought to minimize religious freedom and conscience rights in general, especially when it came to those policy priorities. This discrimination has affected federal employees, employees at businesses and organizations, employers, religious organizations and schools, students, contractors, and those who partner with the federal government to provide benefits or services.

Below, we highlight three key areas where we have observed the Biden administration’s anti-Christian bias: (1) the Department of Health and Human Services’ attacks on health-care rights of conscience, (2) the Biden administration’s failure to respect religious liberty in the rulemaking process, and (3) the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission’s disdain for religious liberty rights.

In each area, we include proposed actions the Trump administration could take to address the Biden administration’s anti-Christian bias and help protect Americans against similar administrative abuses in the future.

¹ Exec. Order 14202, 90 Fed. Reg. 9365 (Feb. 6, 2025), <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2025/02/12/2025-02611/eradicating-anti-christian-bias>.

² EPPC, Administrative State Accountability Project, <https://eppc.org/program/asap/>.

³ EPPC, EPPC Engagement on Agency Actions, <https://eppc.org/engagement-on-agency-actions>.

1. HHS's Attacks on Health-Care Rights of Conscience

Congress has passed more than two dozen federal laws that protect health-care providers who object to participating in abortion or certain other medical interventions against their religious beliefs or moral convictions.¹ However, these laws are not enforced the same way as most civil rights laws. That is because federal conscience protection laws do not explicitly give health care providers the power to bring a lawsuit in federal court to vindicate these rights, and federal courts have found that no such power exists. Without a private right of action, the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) is often the only entity with the power to enforce these guaranteed conscience rights. Moreover, HHS's only enforcement mechanism for conscience protection laws is denying funding to the covered health-care entity.² The blunt nature of this enforcement mechanism can make enforcing conscience protection laws politically fraught because critics can accuse the administration of prioritizing the conscience rights of one individual over the community's health-care needs.

In practice, this means that federal conscience protection laws are enforced very differently under different presidents. We are grateful for the vigorous efforts HHS took to enforce conscience rights under the first Trump administration and are excited to see that strong commitment to civil rights continued under the current administration.³ However, recent experience shows that Americans cannot reasonably expect the same to be true under future Democratic administrations. As documented below, the Biden administration systemically dismantled HHS's ability to carry out its legal duty to enforce the federal conscience protection laws.⁴ We outline steps Congress and the Trump administration can take to strengthen health-care workers' religious freedom and conscience rights even during Democratic administrations.

A. Dismantled Enforcement

Xavier Becerra's first budget as HHS secretary erased nearly all mention of the agency's statutory duty to protect rights of conscience and religious freedom.⁵ When pressed, the Biden White House even refused to acknowledge that federal law protects doctors from being forced to perform abortions and sex-rejecting surgeries.⁶

The Biden administration eliminated the HHS Conscience and Religious Freedom Division, which was created under the first Trump administration to

¹ See HHS, Conscience and Religious Freedom: Your Protections Against Discrimination Based on Conscience and Religion (last reviewed Sept. 4, 2025), <https://www.hhs.gov/conscience/your-protections-against-discrimination-based-on-conscience-and-religion/index.html>. See also Appendix (collecting laws).

² See, e.g., HHS, Conscience and Religious Freedom: Your Protections Against Discrimination Based on Conscience and Religion (last reviewed Sept. 4, 2025), <https://www.hhs.gov/conscience/your-protections-against-discrimination-based-on-conscience-and-religion/index.html> ("OCR enforces Federal protections against discrimination based on conscience and religion in specific programs funded by HHS federal financial assistance. Conscience protections apply to certain health care providers, patients, and other participants in specific federal programs who refuse on religious or moral grounds to participate in certain health care services").

³ Statement from Dr. Dorothy Fink, Acting Secretary, HHS (Jan. 27, 2025), <https://www.hhs.gov/press-room/dr-fink-statement.html>.

⁴ For more on these actions, see Rachel N. Morrison, In Its First Year, Biden's HHS Relentlessly Attacked Christians and Unborn Babies, The Federalist (Mar. 18, 2022), <https://thefederalist.com/2022/03/18/in-its-first-year-bidens-hhs-relentlessly-attacked-christians-and-unborn-babies/>.

⁵ See Roger Severino, The Biden-Becerra Budget: Equity Is In, Religious Freedom Is Out, National Review (June 11, 2021), <https://www.nationalreview.com/2021/06/the-biden-becerra-budget-equity-is-in-religious-freedom-is-out/> (citing HHS, Justification of Estimates for Appropriations Committees, Fiscal Year 2022, <https://web.archive.org/web/20250109063643/https://www.hhs.gov/sites/default/files/fy2022-gdm-operating-plan.pdf#page=259>).

⁶ White House Silent on Conscience Concerns in Health Care, Catholic News Agency (Mar. 2, 2021), <https://www.catholicnewsagency.com/news/246687/white-house-silent-on-conscience-concerns-in-health-care>.

guarantee enforcement of conscience and religious freedom laws.⁷ It also withdrew the authority of the HHS Office for Civil Rights (OCR) to enforce conscience and religious freedom protections under the Religious Freedom Restoration Act (RFRA) and the First Amendment.⁸ As discussed below, the Biden-Becerra HHS rewrote the first Trump administration's conscience rule and removed substantive regulations, including enforcement procedures.⁹

B. Failed Enforcement of Conscience Protection Laws

In the spring of 2024, the final year of the Biden administration, HHS's "Conscience and Religious Non-discrimination" website listed only three "recent actions" taken under the Biden administration—all from 2021.¹⁰ A fourth action, from 2023, was eventually added (in addition to the Biden conscience rule, which we discuss separately below). Yet that was not the worst of it: none of these four "actions" involve HHS enforcing federal conscience or religious freedom protections for health-care providers.¹¹

The first two "recent actions" each involved stopping HHS's enforcement efforts under the Trump administration. The first was a July 2021 HHS letter informing the University of Vermont Medical Center that HHS was withdrawing its finding that the Center had violated a nurse's conscience rights.¹²

In 2019, OCR found that the hospital had violated the Church Amendments by forcing the nurse to participate in an abortion over her known conscience objection.¹³ The Church Amendments protect conscience rights of individuals and entities related to abortion and certain other health services.¹⁴ In 2020, after the hospital refused to change its policies to comply with the law, the Department of Justice's (DOJ) Civil Rights Division sued the hospital in federal court.¹⁵ But, as noted in the Biden HHS's 2021 letter, DOJ dismissed the case without any settlement, agreement, or compensation for the nurse.¹⁶

The second "recent action" was an August 2021 letter informing California that HHS was withdrawing two notices of violation that the agency had issued against Becerra, who was then California's attorney general.¹⁷ The first notice of violation, issued in January 2020, found that Becerra had violated federal conscience protection laws by forcing nuns

- ⁷ HHS, HHS Announces New Divisions Within the Office for Civil Rights to Better Address Growing Need of Enforcement in Recent Years Department of Health and Human Services (Feb. 27, 2023), <https://web.archive.org/web/20230228074727/https://www.hhs.gov/about/news/2023/02/27/hhs-announces-new-divisions-within-office-civil-rights-better-address-growing-need-enforcement-recent-years.html>.
- ⁸ HHS, Off. of the Sec'y, Delegation of Authority, 86 Fed. Reg. 67067, <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2021/11/24/2021-25632/delegation-of-authority>.
- ⁹ Rachel N. Morrison & Eric N. Kniffin, HHS Issues Final Rule on Conscience Rights in Healthcare, FedSoc Blog (Jan. 31, 2024), <https://fedsoc.org/commentary/fedsoc-blog/hhs-issues-final-rule-on-conscience-rights-in-healthcare>.
- ¹⁰ OCR, HHS, Your Protections Against Discrimination Based on Conscience and Religion (last updated Nov. 25, 2024), <https://web.archive.org/web/20250119065720/https://www.hhs.gov/conscience/your-protections-against-discrimination-based-on-conscience-and-religion/index.html>.
- ¹¹ The descriptions of these first three examples draw heavily from Rachel N. Morrison, The Biden Administration's Dubious Record on Conscience Rights, National Review (Apr. 3, 2024), <https://www.nationalreview.com/bench-memos/the-biden-administrations-dubious-record-on-conscience-rights/>.
- ¹² OCR, HHS, University of Vermont Medical Center Letter (July 30, 2021), <https://www.hhs.gov/conscience/conscience-protections/uvmmc-letter/index.html>.
- ¹³ OCR, HHS, Letter Re: OCR Transaction Number 18-306427 (Aug. 28, 2019), https://www.hhs.gov/sites/default/files/uvmmc-nov-letter_508.pdf.
- ¹⁴ Church Amendments, 42 U.S.C. § 300a-7, <https://www.hhs.gov/sites/default/files/ocr/civilrights/understanding/ConscienceProtect/42usc300a7.pdf>.
- ¹⁵ Press Release, DOJ, Justice Department Defends Health Care Workers from Being Forced to Perform Abortions with Vermont Lawsuit (Dec. 16, 2020), <https://www.justice.gov/archives/opa/pr/justice-department-defends-health-care-workers-being-forced-perform-abortion-vermont-lawsuit>.
- ¹⁶ US Dismisses Suit Against Vermont Hospital Over Abortions, Associated Press (Aug. 2, 2021), <https://apnews.com/article/business-religion-vermont-3ba43d690bad76f3f9680df4ad99bcd3>.
- ¹⁷ OCR, HHS, State of California Letter (Aug. 13, 2021), <https://www.hhs.gov/conscience/conscience-protections/ca-letter/index.html>.

and others to provide health insurance coverage for abortion.¹⁸ For example, HHS found that Becerra had violated the Weldon Amendment, which prohibits discrimination against health-care entities that do not provide, pay for, provide coverage of, or refer for abortions.¹⁹ The second notice, issued in January 2021, notified Becerra that HHS was refusing to provide California with $200 million in Medicaid funds because of its “continued non-compliant status under the Weldon Amendment.”²⁰

The 2021 letter absolving Becerra for his actions as California attorney general was issued mere months after Becerra was confirmed as the secretary of HHS. This letter was premised on HHS’s claim that only a health-care plan issuer has conscience rights under the Weldon Amendment; a health-care plan sponsor (in most cases the employer) has no such right. Under this narrow interpretation of what counts as a “health care entity” under the Weldon Amendment, Biden’s HHS held that it was lawful for California to force Catholic nuns to cover abortion in their health plans.

The third “recent action” listed by the Biden HHS was its September 2021 guidance on the Church Amendments. This guidance emphasizes that the amendments protect “health care personnel who perform or assist in the performance of a lawful abortion.”²¹ It provides four examples of personnel participating in lawful abortions, but none address situations involving health-care personnel who refuse to perform abortions. Notably, the guidance relies on pre-Dobbs abortion cases to define “lawful abortion,” yet HHS failed to note or update this guidance after the Supreme Court decided Dobbs v. Jackson in 2022.

The fourth and final “recent action” was like the second. As it had done in California, the Trump HHS opened an investigation into whether Illinois’s health insurance abortion mandate violated religious employers’ rights under the Weldon Amendment.²² But in February 2023, HHS OCR issued a letter closing the matter, claiming that the state law requiring abortion coverage did not violate the Weldon Amendment, again because the complainants were religious employers and not health plan issuers.²³ In support, the letter cited the August 2021 California Notice of Withdrawal and a 2016 letter from the Obama administration’s OCR Director Jocelyn Samuels. (Samuels was later appointed by Biden to be commissioner of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission [EEOC]; as documented below in part 3 of this report, the EEOC under President Biden showed disdain for religious rights).

PROPOSED ACTION: The administration could encourage Congress to pass the Conscience Protection Act,²⁴ which would create a private right of action under federal conscience protection laws.²⁵ Passing this act would be the best way to ensure that conscience rights are consistently enforced, regardless of who is president. Courts are well equipped to enforce federal civil rights laws and can fine-tune

¹⁸ OCR, HHS, Notice of Violation—OCR Transaction Numbers 17-274771 and 17-283890 (Jan. 24, 2020), <https://www.hhs.gov/sites/default/files/ca-notice-of-violation-abortion-insurance-cases-01-24-2020.pdf>.

¹⁹ Weldon Amendment, Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 2024, Pub. Law No. 118-47, 138 Stat. 460, 703, as carried forward by the Full-Year Continuing Appropriations and Extensions Act, 2025, Pub. Law No. 119-4, 139 Stat. 9 (2025), https://www.hhs.gov/sites/default/files/weldon_ammendment.pdf.

²⁰ CMS, HHS, Notice of Disallowance (Jan. 15, 2021), https://s27319.pcdn.co/wp-content/uploads/2021/01/CA-Disallowance-Letter-CA-2021-001-MAP_-01.15.21.pdf.

²¹ OCR, HHS, Guidance on Nondiscrimination Protections Under the Church Amendments for Health Care Personnel (Sept. 17, 2021), <https://www.hhs.gov/sites/default/files/church-guidance.pdf>.

²² OCR, HHS, State of Illinois Investigation Letter (Jan. 19, 2021), <https://web.archive.org/web/20210127232149/https://www.thomasmoresociety.org/wp-content/uploads/2021/01/Acceptance-Letter-Thomas-More-Society-v.-State-of-Illinois-20-361761-1.pdf>.

²³ OCR, HHS, Notice of Violation—OCR Transaction Numbers DO-20-361761 and DO-20-366673 (Feb. 17, 2023), <https://web.archive.org/web/20250109065353/https://www.hhs.gov/sites/default/files/closure-letter.pdf>.

²⁴ Conscience Protection Act of 2025, H.R. 3411, 119th Cong. (1st Sess., introduced May 14, 2025), <https://www.congress.gov/bill/119th-congress/house-bill/3411>.

²⁵ See, e.g., Press Release, Office of Sen. James Lankford, Lankford Continues Push to Safeguard Conscience Rights of Health Care Workers (May 14, 2025), <https://www.lankford.senate.gov/news/press-releases/lankford-continues-push-to-safeguard-conscience-rights-of-health-care-workers/>.

*damage awards that properly address the violation in any given case. The executive branch would retain its current authority to bring suit to address a pattern or practice of violating conscience protection statutes, as the Trump administration did in the University of Vermont Medical Center case referenced above.*²⁶

PROPOSED ACTION: HHS or the DOJ's Office of Legal Counsel could issue a legal memorandum refuting the Biden HHS's claim that the Weldon Amendment does not offer religious employers protections against state abortion insurance mandates.

C. Subpar Conscience Regulations

In January 2024, HHS issued a final rule entitled “Safeguarding the Rights of Conscience as Protected by Federal Statutes.”²⁷ Though this final rule promised that HHS “takes seriously its obligations to comply with the Federal health care conscience protection statutes,”²⁸ the rule removed substantive regulations, including definitions, enforcement procedures, and explanations of those statutes.²⁹ These changes were made over objections raising conscience and religious freedom concerns.³⁰

The Biden administration had previously claimed in its proposed rule that these revisions were necessary because the Trump administration’s final rules on conscience protection statutes “have been deemed unlawful in district court decisions that raise significant questions as to whether they exceed the scope of the Department’s housekeeping authority.”³¹ However, as we explained in our public comments on the proposal, these district court decisions were flawed, and the proposed rule did “little to describe each court’s rationale or identify what HHS agrees or disagrees with in each.”³² Nonetheless, the Biden HHS’s final rule continued to rely on these flawed district court decisions to justify its new rulemaking.³³

In the proposed rule, HHS repeatedly asserted that it was obliged to “balance” conscience rights against other interests such as “access to health care.” We noted in our public comment that this argument was indefensible because “such a balance is not mentioned in the text” of federal conscience protection laws:

To the contrary, Congress said that the federal government must respect the conscience rights of health care professionals and entities, full stop. For example, nothing in the Church Amendments describes any conditions under which a public official or entity can require an individual to perform an abortion or sterilization procedure in violation of his or her religious beliefs or moral convictions. More to the point, nowhere did Congress grant HHS rulemaking authority to “balance” other interests with the government interest spelled out in the text of the Church Amendments.³⁴

²⁶ Passing this law would not only advance President Trump’s commitment to ending anti-Christian bias but also advance his intention to “commence the destruction of the overbearing and burdensome administrative state” and “[e]nd[] Federal overreach and restore[] the constitutional separation of powers.” Exec. Order 14219, Ensuring Lawful Governance and Implementing the President’s “Department of Government Efficiency” Deregulatory Initiative, 90 Fed. Reg. 10583 (Feb. 19, 2025), <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2025/02/25/2025-03138/ensuring-lawful-governance-and-implementing-the-presidents-department-of-government-efficiency>.

²⁷ HHS, Safeguarding the Rights of Conscience as Protected by Federal Statutes, 89 Fed. Reg. 2078 (Jan. 11, 2024), <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2024/01/11/2024-00091/safeguarding-the-rights-of-conscience-as-protected-by-federal-statutes>.

²⁸ Id. at 2087.

²⁹ Rachel N. Morrison & Eric Kniffin, HHS Issues Final Rule on Conscience Rights in Healthcare, FedSoc Blog (Jan. 31, 2024), <https://fedsoc.org/commentary/fedsoc-blog/hhs-issues-final-rule-on-conscience-rights-in-healthcare>.

³⁰ EPPC, EPPC Scholars and Others Respond to HHS’s Proposed Rule on Conscience Rights in Health Care (Mar. 7, 2023), <https://eppc.org/news/eppc-scholars-and-others-respond-to-hhss-proposed-rule-on-conscience-rights-in-health-care/>.

³¹ HHS, Safeguarding the Rights of Conscience as Protected by Federal Statutes, 88 Fed. Reg. 820, 825–26 (Jan. 5, 2023), <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2023/01/05/2022-28505/safeguarding-the-rights-of-conscience-as-protected-by-federal-statutes>.

³² EPPC, EPPC Scholars and Others Respond to HHS’s Proposed Rule on Conscience Rights in Health Care at 8–10, <https://eppc.org/news/eppc-scholars-and-others-respond-to-hhss-proposed-rule-on-conscience-rights-in-health-care/>.

³³ 89 Fed. Reg. at 2081.

³⁴ EPPC Scholars Comment Opposing HHS’s Proposed Rule “Safeguarding the Rights of Conscience as Protected by Federal Statutes,”

HHS’s final rule conceded that “the text of the conscience statutes themselves generally does not contain balancing tests.”³⁵ Nonetheless, HHS asserted the authority to “balance” conscience laws against the administration’s other priorities.³⁶ It claimed that “Congress sought to balance provider and patient rights” and that “the Department respects that balance.”³⁷ Some form of the word “balance” appears thirty-six times in the final rule.

PROPOSED ACTION: *HHS could rescind and replace the Biden administration’s 2024 conscience rule. The preamble could refute in detail the Biden HHS’s “balance” argument, explaining that HHS is required to carry out unambiguous instructions from Congress.*³⁸

PROPOSED ACTION: The administration could consider having the DOJ’s Office of Legal Counsel issue a memorandum instructing federal agencies how to understand the proper scope of their delegated authority in light of the Supreme Court decisions identified in President Trump’s February 19, 2025, Executive Order 14219, “Ensuring Lawful Governance and Implementing the President’s ‘Department of Government Efficiency’ Deregulatory Initiative” and his April 9, 2025, memorandum “Directing the Repeal of Unlawful Regulations.”³⁹ The executive branch could explain in detail why an agency has no lawful authority to insist on a “balancing” test where no such test exists in the authorizing statute. Such a memorandum would help put a stop to such agency overreach under this administration and curtail such abuses in future administrations.

RIN 0945-AA18 (Mar. 6, 2023) at 11, <https://eppc.org/wp-content/uploads/2023/03/EPPC-Scholars-Comment-Opposing-HHS-Proposed-Conscience-Rule.pdf>.

³⁵ 89 Fed. Reg. at 2088.

³⁶ Id.

³⁷ Id. at 2085.

³⁸ It appears that HHS is already contemplating replacing the 2024 Biden conscience rule. The Spring 2025 Unified Agenda includes the rule “Making Technical Changes and Clarifying How OCR Addresses Conscience Authorities In Health Care; Delegation of Authority,” which HHS anticipates proposing in January 2026. See HHS, OCR, RIN Data (Spring 2025), <https://www.reginfo.gov/public/do/eAgendaViewRule?pubId=202504&RIN=0945-AA24>. The current abstract of the anticipated rule states, “In keeping with Executive Orders 14202 and 14188, and HHS’ commitment to reevaluate its regulations and guidance pertaining to Federal laws on conscience and religious exercise, the proposed conscience rule would amend the 2024 rule to make technical corrections and clarify how OCR addresses those federal authorities.”

³⁹ White House, Presidential Memorandum, Directing the Repeal of Unlawful Regulations (Apr. 9, 2025), <https://www.whitehouse.gov/presidential-actions/2025/04/directing-the-repeal-of-unlawful-regulations/>.

2. Federal Agencies' Failure to Honor Religious Liberty in the Regulatory Process

The First Amendment and federal law require the federal government—including federal agencies—to respect Americans' rights to religious liberty. For example, the Religious Freedom Restoration Act (RFRA) prohibits the federal government from substantially burdening any aspect of religious observance or practice ("religious exercise") unless imposing that burden is the only way ("least restrictive means") for the federal government to advance a compelling governmental interest (often referred to as the "strict scrutiny" test).¹

Federal agencies have to do more than merely obey court orders interpreting RFRA; rather, they have an affirmative obligation to honor Americans' religious liberty rights. A 2017 memorandum from the Department of Justice (DOJ), which remained in effect throughout the Biden presidency, states that "In formulating rules, regulations, and policies, administrative agencies should . . . proactively consider potential burdens on the exercise of religion and possible accommodations of those burdens."² The memorandum reminds federal agencies that they "must pay keen attention" to "principles of religious liberty" "in everything they do."³

Despite clear legal decisions and binding DOJ guidance, federal agencies under the Biden administration failed to carry out their legal obligation to respect religious liberty in the regulatory process. At first, the Biden administration continued the Obama administration's "just say no" approach to religious exemptions and accommodations. The Affordable Care Act's contraception and abortifacient mandate and its "transgender services" mandate, both created by the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) under the Obama administration, were issued with no religious liberty provisions at all.⁴

But after a string of losses in court, the Biden administration grasped that its "just say no" approach to religious liberty was a legal liability. So, agency regulations began giving lip service to the administration's constitutional and legal obligations to respect religious liberty. Yet agencies established vague procedures and needlessly complex tests that would have to be navigated before an affected individual or entity could potentially access the legal protection Congress had granted. The result was a series of regulations (several of which are documented below) that were hard to challenge in court and seemed designed to deny Americans their constitutional and statutory religious liberty rights through a drawn-out process with no guarantee of protection.

A. The Biden Administration's "Case-by-Case" Requirement in the Section 1557 Rule

The Biden administration's change in tactics can be seen in its shifting approach to Section 1557 of the Affordable Care Act, the health-care law's nondiscrimination provision.⁵ HHS's first set of regulations under Section 1557, finalized under the Obama administration in 2016, asserted that Section 1557's definition of sex discrimination covered discrimination on the basis of "termination of pregnancy" and "gender

¹ 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000bb–2000bb–4.

² U.S. Attorney General, Federal Law Protections for Religious Liberty (2017) at 7, <https://www.justice.gov/crt/page/file/1006786/dl>.

³ Id.

⁴ HHS, DOL, IRS, Interim Final Rules for Group Health Plans and Health Insurance Issuers Relating to Coverage of Preventive Services Under the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, 75 Fed. Reg. 41726 (July 19, 2010), <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2010/07/19/2010-17242/interim-final-rules-for-group-health-plans-and-health-insurance-issuers-relating-to-coverage-of>; HHS, Nondiscrimination in Health Programs and Activities, 81 Fed. Reg. 31375 (May 18, 2016), <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2016/05/18/2016-11458/nondiscrimination-in-health-programs-and-activities>.

⁵ 42 U.S.C. § 18116.

identity.”⁶ Though HHS knew that these assertions would create conflicts for religious employers and employees, the final rule did not include any religious exemption or accommodation.

Religious employers and covered health entities filed lawsuits against this rule, arguing that HHS had violated RFRA. When the Biden administration took office, these cases were still ongoing. The Biden administration continued to fight religious health-care entities’ RFRA claims. But in 2022, the Fifth and Eighth Circuits held that HHS’s failure to accommodate religion violated the agency’s obligations under RFRA and awarded plaintiffs permanent injunctions.⁷

In the midst of these legal battles over the original rule, the Trump administration issued its own Section 1557 rule in 2020.⁸ That rule included exemptions and accommodations for religious employers and health-care providers. However, three district courts (based on dubious legal reasoning) issued preliminary injunctions against the 2020 rule before it went into effect, leaving the 2016 rule in place.⁹ The Biden administration, by indicating that HHS was working on replacement regulations, stopped courts from reaching a final judgment on the legality of the Trump rule.

The Biden administration unveiled a new proposed rule under Section 1557 in August 2022.¹⁰ That rule returned to the 2016 rule’s claim that Section 1557 prohibits discrimination on the basis of gender identity and termination of pregnancy (and added sexual orientation). But it took a new tact regarding the rule’s obvious implications for religious employers and employees.

Because the 2016 rule’s flat refusal to countenance religious objections had been rebuked in court, the Biden administration’s proposed rule claimed that HHS was “fully committed to respecting conscience and religious freedom laws when applying this rule, including an organization’s assertion that the provisions of this rule conflict with their rights under Federal conscience and religious freedom laws.”¹¹

Despite this reassuring language, the procedures HHS outlined in the 2022 proposed rule would make it difficult for Americans to exercise their right to religious liberty. First, HHS asserted that it would not recognize any RFRA claims until after a “fact-sensitive, case-by-case analysis,” claiming the Supreme Court had held this detailed review was necessary to evaluate each RFRA claim.¹² HHS said that this “case-by-case approach” would “allow it to account for any harm an exemption could have on third parties.”¹³

As we argued in a public comment and explained in our February 2024 meeting with White House and HHS officials, HHS’s claim that it must undertake a “fact-intensive, case-by-case analysis” for each request for a religious exemption or accommodation misrepresents Supreme Court doctrine and runs contrary to HHS’s own conduct in related litigation.¹⁴ Neither RFRA’s plaintiff-focused “substantial burden” test nor the government-focused “strict scrutiny” test necessarily requires a “fact-sensitive, case-by-case analysis” in every instance. Furthermore, we noted that HHS’s claims were impossible to square with its long history of litigating (and losing) RFRA claims brought against its contraception and transgender mandates.¹⁵

⁶ 81 Fed. Reg. at 31387.

⁷ Franciscan Alliance v. Burwell, 47 F.4th 368 (5th Cir. 2022); Religious Sisters of Mercy v. Becerra, 55 F.4th 583, 609 (8th Cir. 2022).

⁸ HHS, Nondiscrimination in Health and Health Education Programs or Activities, Delegation of Authority, 85 Fed. Reg. 37160 (June 19, 2020), <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2020/06/19/2020-11758/nondiscrimination-in-health-and-health-education-programs-or-activities-delegation-of-authority>.

⁹ HHS, Nondiscrimination in Health Programs and Activities, 87 Fed. Reg. 47824, 47827 & n.34 (Aug. 4, 2022) (citing cases), <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2022/08/04/2022-16217/nondiscrimination-in-health-programs-and-activities>.

¹⁰ HHS, Nondiscrimination in Health Programs and Activities, 87 Fed. Reg. 47824 (Aug. 4, 2022), <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2022/08/04/2022-16217/nondiscrimination-in-health-programs-and-activities>.

¹¹ Id. at 47841.

¹² Id.

¹³ Id. at 47886.

¹⁴ EPPC Scholars Comment, EO 12866 Meeting, “Nondiscrimination in Health Programs and Activities,” RIN 0945-AA17 at 9–11 (Feb. 2, 2024), <https://eppc.org/wp-content/uploads/2024/02/EPPC-Scholars-Comments-for-EO-12866-Meeting-Section-1557-ACA-.pdf>.

¹⁵ Though HHS’s contraception mandate and its transgender mandate were created through different sets of regulations and HHS has

As shown below, HHS does not need to perform any fact-intensive analysis to grant religious exemptions or accommodations in many instances.

Substantial Burden: In a RFRA case, the plaintiff bears the burden of first showing that the challenged government action substantially burdens its religious exercise. HHS has sometimes argued that mandate plaintiffs have not articulated a substantial burden on religious exercise, but to our knowledge HHS has always lost these claims. In one of these cases, the Supreme Court took HHS to task for claiming that a religious plaintiff’s alleged burden was “too attenuated”: The court held that the First Amendment (which applies to federal agencies just as it does to courts) precludes government from determining whether “the religious beliefs of the plaintiffs are mistaken or unreasonable. . . . The Court’s narrow function . . . is to determine whether the plaintiffs’ asserted religious belief reflects an honest conviction.”¹⁶

As to this “honest conviction” inquiry, it is important to note that for more than a decade HHS was willing to accept that a religious organization had sincere religious objections to its contraception mandate based solely on the entity’s submission of a one-page form that says, in part, “I certify that, on account of religious objections, the organization opposes providing coverage for some or all of any contraceptive services that would otherwise be required to be covered; the organization is organized and operates as a nonprofit entity; and the organization holds itself out as a religious organization.”¹⁷

In light of this certification form, HHS cannot plausibly claim that it needs to conduct a factual inquiry into each entity that raises religious objections to complying with HHS’s Section 1557 mandates.

We argued that it would be arbitrary and capricious for HHS to fail to create a comparable form that would allow religious entities to simply certify that they have a sincere religious objection to cooperating with an HHS mandate to cover abortions or transgender services.

Strict Scrutiny: Under RFRA, if a plaintiff can demonstrate a substantial burden on religious exercise, HHS will lose unless it can prove that its attempt to coerce the plaintiff satisfies strict scrutiny. This can be a fact-intensive inquiry in many RFRA cases. But in litigation over HHS’s Section 1557 transgender and abortion mandate, courts have ruled for plaintiffs for reasons that do not require inquiries into entity-specific facts.

As applied to religious employers, no health-care insurance mandate can pass strict scrutiny because “[t]he most straightforward way of [ensuring that people have financial support] would be for the Government to assume the cost of providing’ gender-transition procedures for those ‘unable to obtain them under their health-insurance policies due to their employers’ religious objections.”¹⁸

As applied to religious employees, the outcome is the same: HHS cannot pass the least restrictive means test because the government could always “assist transgender individuals in finding and paying for transition procedures available from the growing number of healthcare providers who offer and specialize in those services. . . . [T]he government has numerous less restrictive means available to provide access and coverage for transition and abortion procedures.”¹⁹

Even after our public comment showed HHS that its mandates would always fail strict scrutiny under Burwell v. Hobby Lobby and Franciscan Alliance v. Burwell, purported to justify them through different parts of the Affordable Care Act, there is a great deal of similarity in the way that RFRA claims against each mandate have been structured, the way these claims have been argued in court, the reasons why courts have found in these religious organizations’ favor, and the nature and scope of the permanent injunctive relief the courts have entered against HHS.

¹⁶ Hobby Lobby v. Burwell, 573 U.S. 682, 686 (2014).

¹⁷ HHS, CMS-10459-Certification (as of Mar. 6, 2024), <https://web.archive.org/web/20240306084442/https://www.hhs.gov/guidance/sites/default/files/hhs-guidance-documents/cms-10459-certification.pdf>.

¹⁸ Religious Sisters of Mercy v. Azar, 513 F. Supp. 3d 1113, 1148–49 (D.N.D. 2021), aff’d in relevant part Religious Sisters of Mercy v. Becerra, 55 F.4th 583 (8th Cir. 2022) (quoting Hobby Lobby v. Sebelius, 573 U.S. 682, 728 (2014)).

¹⁹ Franciscan All., Inc. v. Burwell, 227 F. Supp. 3d 660, 693 (N.D. Tex. 2016), aff’d in relevant part Franciscan All., Inc. v. Burwell, 47 F.4th 368 (5th Cir. 2022).

HHS still maintained in its final rule that “case law interpreting RFRA requires consideration of any potential third-party harms” and “continue[d] to believe that this approach is most consistent with the Federal religious freedom and conscience protections.”²⁰ The final rule did not acknowledge, let alone answer, our legal analysis.

B. Other Similar Regulations

The Biden administration continued to employ this same approach in other regulations that raised obvious religious liberty concerns, including the following:

Nine Agencies Partnerships with Faith-Based and Neighborhood Organizations Rule: “[T]he Agencies remain committed to considering providers’ requests for accommodations on a case-by-case basis in accordance with all Federal law. . . . Agencies do not establish in this final rule precisely how or by whom such case-by-case determinations will be made.”²¹

Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) Implementation of the Pregnant Workers Fairness Act Rule: “[E]mployers who assert that the provision of such accommodations infringes upon their religious exercise may assert numerous statutory and constitutional defenses. Because the facts of each case will differ, the Commission will apply these defenses using a case-by-case analysis, using the framework provided here and consistent with the Commission’s approach to other statutes that the Commission enforces.”²²

HHS Unaccompanied Children Program Foundational Rule: “These regulations also make clear that HHS may make accommodations, including for religious exercise, with respect to one or more program requirements on a case-by-case basis in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the United States.”²³

HHS Grants Rule: HHS will evaluate claimed exemptions “under an applicable Federal religious freedom or conscience law” on “a case-by-case basis” to “mitigate[] concerns” that exemption requests will “negatively affect third parties as raised in the comment.”²⁴

PROPOSED ACTION: HHS and other relevant agencies could repeal and replace the identified regulations. The replacement rules could repudiate the Biden administration’s claimed need for a “fact-intensive, case-by-case” analysis in light of agencies’ willingness to accept representations from religious entities and Hobby Lobby’s recognition that it would always be less restrictive for Congress to provide morally problematic services itself.

PROPOSED ACTION: Given that other agencies besides HHS have relied on the same “case-by-case” argument, the Office of Management and Budget could take steps to counteract such efforts to slow down or deny requests for religious exemptions or accommodations.

PROPOSED ACTION: DOJ could issue a rule or guidance directing agencies how to consider and practically comply with their obligations under RFRA in their rulemaking.

²⁰ HHS, Nondiscrimination in Health Programs and Activities, 89 Fed. Reg. 37522, 37656 (May 6, 2024), <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2024/05/06/2024-08711/nondiscrimination-in-health-programs-and-activities>.

²¹ 89 Fed. Reg. 15671, 14582 (Mar. 4, 2024), <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2024/03/04/2024-03869/partnerships-with-faith-based-and-neighborhood-organizations>.

²² 89 Fed. Reg. 29096, 29144 (Apr. 19, 2024), <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2024/04/19/2024-07527/implementation-of-the-pregnant-workers-fairness-act>.

²³ 89 Fed. Reg. 34384, 34416 (Apr. 30, 2024), <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2024/06/26/2024-13560/unaccompanied-children-program-foundational-rule-correction>.

²⁴ 89 Fed. Reg. 36684, 36695 (May 3, 2024), <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2024/05/03/2024-08880/health-and-human-services-grants-regulation>.

3. EEOC's Disdain for Religious Liberty Rights

The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) is the federal agency tasked with preventing and remedying employment discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age (forty or older), disability, or genetic information. Title VII prohibits discrimination based on religion, which is defined to include “all aspects of religious observance and practice, as well as belief” and requires employers to reasonably accommodate their employees’ religious observance or practice unless it poses an undue hardship on the employer’s business.¹ Title VII’s religious organization exemption allows religious employers to make employment decisions based on religion.²

The EEOC, especially during the Biden administration, has treated religion as a second-class right and shown a disdain for certain religious beliefs, religious employees, and religious employers, including in enforcement, litigation, guidance, and regulations. Many of these actions are documented below. The Trump administration has an opportunity to take actions to remedy these harms and protect religious liberty.

A. EEOC General Counsel Religious Discrimination Work Group and Report

In May 2020, the Trump-appointed EEOC General Counsel Sharon Fast Gustafson formed a Religious Discrimination Work Group composed of various

EEOC employees (including author Rachel Morrison) “to assess whether there are practical or legal impediments that prevent individuals from filing complaints of religious discrimination with the EEOC.”³

The work group, in partnership with Commissioner (now Acting Chair) Andrea Lucas, held four virtual listening sessions in November and December 2020 on religious discrimination in employment with a diverse group of stakeholders from a range of religious perspectives.⁴ A report, titled “Religious Discrimination in Employment: General Counsel Listening Sessions Final Report,” was issued in January 2021, documenting participants’ comments.⁵ Some of those comments included “concern that the EEOC prioritizes claims of race and sex discrimination over religious discrimination” and that the EEOC is not as “friendly to [the listening session participants’] religious beliefs.”⁶ The report was published on the EEOC’s website and emailed to participants, and its publication was marked by an EEOC press release on January 15, 2021.⁷

After President Joe Biden appointed Commissioner Charlotte Burrows as EEOC chair, the report and the press release were removed from the EEOC’s website. A copy of the report is available on the Ethics and Public Policy Center’s (EPPC) website,⁸ and a copy of the press release is available at JD Supra.⁹ Shortly after, in early 2021, Biden fired Gustafson, timing that gave the impression that her termination was related to her work on religious nondiscrimination and accommodation issues.¹⁰

¹ 42 U.S.C. § 2000e(j).

² 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-1(a); 2000e-2(e).

³ EEOC, Religious Discrimination in Employment: General Counsel Listening Sessions Final Report (Jan. 2021), <https://eppc.org/wp-content/uploads/2023/02/Religious-Discrimination-in-Employment-General-Counsel-Listening-Sessions-Final-Report.pdf>.

⁴ Id.

⁵ Id.

⁶ Id.

⁷ Press Release, EEOC, EEOC General Counsel Issues Report on Dialogue Sessions on Religious Discrimination With Agency Stakeholders (Jan. 15, 2021), available at JD Supra, <https://www.jdsupra.com/legalnews/eec-general-counsel-issues-report-on-1640501/>.

⁸ EEOC, Religious Discrimination in Employment: General Counsel Listening Sessions Final Report (Jan. 2021), available at <https://eppc.org/wp-content/uploads/2023/02/Religious-Discrimination-in-Employment-General-Counsel-Listening-Sessions-Final-Report.pdf>.

⁹ Press Release, EEOC, EEOC General Counsel Issues Report on Dialogue Sessions on Religious Discrimination With Agency Stakeholders (Jan. 15, 2021), available at JD Supra, <https://www.jdsupra.com/legalnews/eec-general-counsel-issues-report-on-1640501/>.

¹⁰ See Rod Dreher, Biden Deals Blow to Religious Liberty, American Conservative (Mar. 5, 2021), <https://www.theamericanconservative.com/sharon-fast-gustafson-biden-deals-blow-to-religious-liberty-eec-general-counsel/> (“The fact that the White House has done this PROPOSED ACTION: The EEOC could restore the “Religious Discrimination in Employment: General Counsel Listening Session” report to the EEOC’s website.

B. Religious Discrimination Guidance

One of the ways that the EEOC protects religious liberty is through its non-legally binding, but persuasive subregulatory guidance on religious discrimination. The purpose of the guidance is “to provide clarity to the public regarding existing requirements under the law or agency policies.”¹¹ Yet for years the EEOC failed to update its guidance in light of important legal developments, including the landmark First Amendment ministerial exception cases Hosanna-Tabor (2012) and Our Lady of Guadalupe School v. Morrissey-Berru (2020) and the landmark Title VII religious accommodation case EEOC v. Abercrombie & Fitch Stores, Inc. (2015). EEOC’s 2008 guidance on religious discrimination was not updated to reflect these developments until January 2021, when the commission had a majority of Trump-nominated commissioners. In 2023 in Groff v. DeJoy, the Supreme Court significantly clarified Title VII’s undue hardship standard in religious accommodation cases. The EEOC under the control of Biden’s EEOC nominees only posted a five-sentence notice at the top of the guidance explaining that “Groff supersedes any contrary information” in the guidance and made no updates to the text of the guidance itself.

PROPOSED ACTION: The EEOC could update its religion guidance to reflect the Supreme Court’s Groff decision on the Title VII religious accommodation undue hardship standard.

shortly after spiking the religious liberty work Gustafson helped lead within the EEOC is a chilling reminder of what a Democratic administration now means for vulnerable religious believers.”).

¹¹ EEOC, EEOC Compliance Manual on Religious Discrimination (Jan. 15, 2021), <https://www.eeoc.gov/laws/guidance/section-12-religious-discrimination>.

¹² See Hosanna-Tabor Evangelical Lutheran Church & Sch. v. EEOC, 565 U.S. 171 (2012).

¹³ EEOC Amicus Brief, Biel v. St. James Sch., 911 F.3d 603 (9th Cir. 2018), https://www.eeoc.gov/sites/default/files/migrated_files/eeoc/litigation/briefs/biel.html.

¹⁴ Our Lady of Guadalupe Sch. v. Morrissey-Berru, 591 U.S. 732 (2020).

¹⁵ 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-1(a).

C. EEOC’s Hostility to Religious Rights for Religious Employers

Religious employers have religious rights under the First Amendment, Title VII, and the Religious Freedom Restoration Act. These laws constrain the EEOC, yet the EEOC, especially during the Biden administration, showed a hostility to religious employers’ religious rights.

1. Ministerial Exception

The ministerial exception is one aspect of the First Amendment’s religious autonomy doctrine. Notably, the EEOC has been on the wrong side of both ministerial exception cases before the Supreme Court. First, the EEOC sued the Lutheran school in Hosanna-Tabor Evangelical Lutheran Church and School v. EEOC.¹² Second, the EEOC filed a Ninth Circuit amicus brief against the Catholic school in *Biel v. St. James School*¹³ (the companion case to *Our Lady of Guadalupe School v. Morrissey-Berru*¹⁴). The Supreme Court rejected the EEOC’s position in both cases. This is just one example of how the commission has sought to minimize constitutional and statutory religious protections for religious employers.

2. Title VII Religious Organization Exemption

Title VII states, “This subchapter shall not apply to [a religious organization] with respect to the employment of individuals of a particular religion.”¹⁵ This subchapter includes all of Title VII, including its prohibition against sex discrimination. Nevertheless, the EEOC under Biden attempted to limit Title VII’s religious organization exemption to apply only to religious discrimination claims, not to all Title VII claims.

For example, the EEOC (over the objection of Lucas¹⁶) inserted itself into the private employment discrimination suit in World Vision v. McMahon, arguing against World Vision’s religious defenses.¹⁷ World Vision raised several religious defenses, including constitutional and statutory defenses under church autonomy, the ministerial exception, Title VII, expressive association, and the Free Exercise Clause.

EEOC’s amicus brief claimed that Title VII’s exemption is a defense only to religious discrimination claims,¹⁸ ignoring relevant case law and contradicting EEOC’s religion guidance, which recognizes that employers can raise Title VII’s religious organization exemption as a defense when the challenged employment decision was made based on religion.¹⁹ If Title VII’s religious organization exemption only applies to claims of religious discrimination, then a religious organization’s protections and an employee’s nondiscrimination rights will hinge on whether the employee characterizes a religious decision on issues related to marriage, gender, and sexuality as a decision based on religion or sex (or sexual orientation or transgender status).

Rachel Morrison, an author of this report, discusses the case and EEOC’s brief in more detail in National Review.²⁰ But two points are worth noting here. First, in a particularly egregious claim, the EEOC said that following the employee’s false assurances that she could comply with World Vision’s religious standards of conduct, she “successfully navigated” the hiring process.²¹

Second, in its briefing, World Vision argued that Title VII must apply to more than religious discrimination claims because the exemption was incorporated into the Pregnant Workers Fairness Act (PWFA), which requires pregnancy accommodations. The EEOC calls this argument “incorrect,” claiming that the PWFA does not change the alleged “consensus” that the exemption does not apply to sex discrimination claims. Indeed, the EEOC’s PWFA rule (discussed below) indicated that the PWFA’s incorporation of Title VII’s religious organization exemption would not apply because the exemption allegedly applies only to hiring and firing claims, not accommodation claims, and is limited to claims of religious discrimination. Yet only two and a half weeks earlier, the EEOC had taken a contrary position in PWFA litigation, claiming that the assertion that “EEOC ‘interprets the PWFA and Title VII religious exemptions’ . . . is incorrect.”²² A subsequent EEOC brief filed in the PWFA case two weeks after the EEOC’s World Vision brief did not correct or clarify this major discrepancy in litigation positions and with the PWFA rule.²³

On August 5, 2025, the Ninth Circuit ruled in favor of World Vision, finding that the employee’s employment discrimination claims were barred under the ministerial exception.²⁴ The Ninth Circuit, however, did not

¹⁶ See EEOC, Commission Votes: October 2024 (2024), <https://www.eeoc.gov/commission-votes-october-2024>.

¹⁷ See EEOC Amicus Brief, McMahon v. World Vision, Inc., No. 24-3259 (9th Cir. Oct. 28, 2024), https://www.eeoc.gov/sites/default/files/2024-11/McMahon v. World Vision 9C am-brf 10-24 gcy_0.pdf.

¹⁸ See id. EEOC’s amicus brief also claimed that compliance with Title VII does not violate the First Amendment.

¹⁹ EEOC, Compliance Manual on Religious Discrimination (Jan. 15, 2021), <https://www.eeoc.gov/laws/guidance/section-12-religious-discrimination>.

²⁰ Rachel N. Morrison, EEOC Says Title VII’s Religious-Organization Exemption Doesn’t Apply to Sex Discrimination Claims, National Review (Dec. 10, 2024), <https://www.nationalreview.com/bench-memos/eeoc-says-title-viis-religious-organization-exemption-doesnt-apply-to-sex-discrimination-claims/>.

²¹ EEOC Amicus Brief at 4, McMahon v. World Vision, Inc., No. 24-3259 (9th Cir. Oct. 28, 2024), https://www.eeoc.gov/sites/default/files/2024-11/McMahon%20v.%20World%20Vision%209C%20am-brf%2010-24%20gcy_0.pdf.

²² EEOC, Memorandum in Support of Motion to Dismiss at 35, Louisiana v. EEOC, No. 24-629 (W.D. La. Oct. 10, 2024), https://eppc.org/wp-content/uploads/2024/12/2024-10-10-_-EEOC-MTD-MSJ-_-Memo-in-Support.pdf.

²³ EEOC, Memorandum in Opposition to Plaintiffs’ Motion for Summary Judgment, Louisiana v. EEOC, No. 24-629 (W.D. La. Nov. 12, 2024), <https://eppc.org/wp-content/uploads/2024/12/2024-11-12-81-EEOCs-Combined-Oppn-to-Pls-MSJs.pdf>.

²⁴ McMahon v. World Vision, Inc., 147 F.4th 959 (9th Cir. 2025), <https://cdn.ca9.uscourts.gov/datastore/opinions/2025/08/05/24-3259.pdf>.

reach the merits of the other religious defenses,²⁵ including the arguments raised in the EEOC’s brief on the scope of Title VII’s religious organization exemption and the application of religious defenses under the First Amendment to Title VII claims.

PROPOSED ACTION: The Department of Justice (DOJ) could issue a formal statement (similar to what the administration did in United States v. Skrametti) disavowing the commission’s position in the World Vision amicus brief. This statement would go a long way in dissuading reliance on the bad arguments made in the EEOC’s amicus brief.

PROPOSED ACTION: DOJ’s Office of Legal Counsel could issue an opinion on the scope of Title VII’s religious organization exemption, explaining that according to the plain text and supported by case law, the exemption applies to all Title VII claims, not just claims of religious discrimination.

3. Resolution of Religious Defenses as a Threshold Issue

The EEOC has chosen to file amicus briefs in cases arguing against resolution of the application of religious defenses as a threshold issue until after decisions on the merits. For example, the EEOC gratuitously inserted itself into Garrick v. Moody Bible Institute by filing an amicus brief challenging the interlocutory appeal of the denial of Moody’s religious defenses. The EEOC argued that Moody should not be able to appeal the denial of its religious defenses until after all the claims were fully litigated.²⁶

This position is contrary to the EEOC’s religion guidance, which recognizes that the ministerial exception “is not just a legal defense that can be raised by religious institutions, but a constitutionally based guarantee that obligates the government and the courts to refrain from interfering or entangling themselves with religion. As such, it should be resolved at the earliest possible stage before reaching the underlying discrimination claim.”²⁷

Early resolution of religious defenses comports with the Constitution because the time and resources needed to defend nonprofit religious organizations in prolonged legal battles can infringe on their First Amendment rights. As Justice Alito wrote in his concurrence in Hosanna-Tabor, “The mere adjudication of such questions poses grave problems for religious autonomy.”²⁸

Writing about the case and EEOC’s brief for National Review, former EEOC General Counsel Sharon Fast Gustafson and author Rachel Morrison explained,

If Moody’s religious defenses were vindicated only after a lengthy litigation process, Moody and [the employee] would lose financially and court resources would be expended. And not only would Moody lose a crucial part of the liberty that the First Amendment guarantees, but the government itself would violate its constitutional obligation to avoid entanglement in religious disputes.²⁹

For religious employers, the process is the punishment. Not every employer is able to afford the time and monetary costs of EEOC investigations and litigation to vindicate its rights.³⁰

²⁵ Id. at 965–66.

²⁶ EEOC Amicus Brief, Garrick v. Moody Bible Inst., No. 21-2683 (7th Cir. Sept. 8, 2023), <https://www.eeoc.gov/sites/default/files/2023-09/Garrick%20v.%20Moody%20Bible%207C%20am-brf%2009-23%20gcy.pdf>.

²⁷ EEOC, Section 12: Religious Discrimination § 12-1.C(2) (Jan. 15, 2021), <https://www.eeoc.gov/laws/guidance/section-12-religious-discrimination>.

²⁸ Hosanna-Tabor Evangelical Lutheran Church & Sch. v. EEOC, 565 U.S. 171, 205–06 (2012).

²⁹ Sharon Fast Gustafson & Rachel N. Morrison, EEOC’s “Gender Discrimination” Campaign and Crusade Against Religious Employers, National Review (Sept. 27, 2023), <https://www.nationalreview.com/bench-memos/eeocs-gender-discrimination-campaign-and-crusade-against-religious-employers/>.

³⁰ An amicus brief on behalf of Gustafson and Morrison highlights many of the concerns. See Gustafson & Morrison Amicus Brief, Faith Bible Chapel v. Tucker, No. 22-741 (U.S. Mar. 10, 2023), <https://eppc.org/wp-content/uploads/2023/03/FINAL-Faith-Bible-Former-EEOC-Amici-Brief-c.pdf>.

PROPOSED ACTION: DOJ's Office of Legal Counsel could issue an opinion or guidance on how agencies can avoid unconstitutional entanglement in religious matters in investigations, enforcement, and litigation involving religious organizations.

D. Abortion Accommodation Mandate

The bipartisan Pregnant Workers Fairness Act provides women workplace pregnancy accommodation protections. But under the Biden administration, the EEOC co-opted the PWFA to impose an abortion accommodation mandate on America's employers, including religious employers. EEOC's regulations implementing the PWFA broadly defined "pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions" to include abortion and other nonmedical conditions such as the use of contraception and fertility treatments, including IVF. Under the EEOC's PFWA rule, employers are mandated to accommodate their employees' abortions, contraception use, and fertility treatments—a requirement that poses religious and ethical concerns for many employers. Indeed, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, in its "Annual Report on the State of Religious Liberty in the United States," identified the EEOC's PWFA rule as one of the top five "largest threats to religious liberty in 2024."³¹

When finalizing its regulations, the EEOC dismissed the religious liberty concerns raised by a large number of comments.³² The PWFA rule pointed out that employers may have available religious defenses and stated that the EEOC would evaluate the availability of these defenses on a case-by-case basis. But a promise to consider the application of religious defenses in the future does not provide protection in practice.³³

PROPOSED ACTION: DOJ's Office of Legal Counsel could issue an opinion explaining why the PWFA does not impose an abortion accommodation mandate.

PROPOSED ACTION: DOJ could issue a memorandum, guidance, or rule directing agencies how to consider and practically comply with their obligations under RFRA in their rulemaking.

E. Bostock Expansion

In 2020, the Supreme Court held in Bostock v. Clayton County that under Title VII's sex discrimination prohibition "employers are prohibited from firing employees on the basis of homosexuality or transgender status."³⁴ The court expressly did not decide ancillary issues outside the context of hiring and firing, such as the use of "bathrooms, locker rooms, or anything else of the kind."³⁵ Nevertheless, the EEOC under its Biden-appointed Chair Burrows took an expansive view of Bostock. It pushed transgender pronoun and bathroom mandates on the American workforce, including on religious employers and employees who believe in the immutability of the two sexes.

Purportedly relying on Bostock, EEOC's website was updated to state that Title VII "forbids sexual orientation and gender identity discrimination when it comes to any aspect of employment, including hiring, firing, pay, job assignments, promotions, layoff, training, fringe benefits, and any other term or condition

³¹ Committee for Religious Liberty of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, Annual Report on the State of Religious Liberty in the United States (Jan. 16, 2024), <https://uscgb.cld.bz/Religious-Liberty-Annual-Report/42/>.

³² See, e.g., EPPC, EPPC Scholars and Others Submit Comments on EEOC Proposed Pregnant Workers Fairness Act Regulations (Oct. 10, 2023), https://eppc.org/news/eppc-scholars-and-others-submit-comments-on-eec-proposed-pregnant-workers-fairness-act-regulations/\(collecting comments\)).

³³ Rachel Morrison provides more detailed analysis of EEOC's disdain for religion and blatant attempts to minimize application of religious defenses in its PWFA rule and litigation for National Review. Rachel N. Morrison, The EEOC's Disdain for Religion, National Review (June 10, 2024), <https://www.nationalreview.com/bench-memos/the-eecs-disdain-for-religion/>; Rachel N. Morrison, The EEOC's Disdain for Religion—Part II, National Review (June 11, 2024), <https://www.nationalreview.com/bench-memos/eecs-disdain-for-religion-part-ii/>.

³⁴ Bostock v. Clayton Cnty., Georgia, 590 U.S. 644, 680 (2020).

³⁵ Id. at 681.

of employment.”³⁶ The EEOC also asserted that “employers may not deny an employee equal access to a bathroom, locker room, or shower that corresponds to the employee’s gender identity.”³⁷

In June 2021 Burrows unilaterally issued “technical assistance” elaborating on “Protections Against Employment Discrimination Based on Sexual Orientation or Gender Identity” that were allegedly based on Bostock.³⁸ But that guidance was declared unlawful and vacated by a federal court for violating the Administrative Procedure Act, Title VII, and the EEOC’s own regulations.³⁹ The court held that the EEOC “misread Bostock and overstate[d] Supreme Court and Title VII jurisprudence to conflate protected class status with all correlated conduct—in direct contravention of Justice Gorsuch’s majority opinion deferring ‘future cases’ involving dress codes, bathrooms, pronouns, and healthcare.”⁴⁰

Undaunted, the commission (over the dissent of Commissioners Keith Sonderling and Andrea Lucas⁴¹), issued updated Enforcement Guidance on Harassment in the Workplace.⁴² The guidance took the position, over significant legal and religious concerns,⁴³ that harassing conduct under Title VII includes “denial of access to a bathroom or other sex-segregated facility consistent with [an] individual’s gender identity” and that harassing conduct includes “repeated and intentional use of a name or pronoun inconsistent with [an] individual’s known gender identity.”⁴⁴ Those portions of the harassment guidance were vacated nationwide on May 15, 2025.⁴⁵

PROPOSED ACTION: DOJ’s Office of Legal Counsel could issue an opinion on the limits of the Bostock opinion.

PROPOSED ACTION: The president could promote Andrea Lucas from acting chair to chair to better allow the commission to further the president’s policies.

PROPOSED ACTION: The commission could formally rescind the problematic portions of the harassment guidance and rescind and replace the PWEA rule.

F. Religious Accommodations for COVID-19 Vaccine Mandates

After the Biden administration, state governments and private employers sought to impose unprecedented COVID-19 vaccination mandates on America’s employees, and many sought a religious accommodation under Title VII. Many employers (including federal agencies) unilaterally and uniformly denied religious accommodations or otherwise discriminated based on religion in the accommodation process (separate from whether they unlawfully denied the religious

³⁶ EEOC, Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity (SOGI) Discrimination (as of Jan. 20, 2025) (emphasis added), <https://web.archive.org/web/20250120111957/https://www.eeoc.gov/sexual-orientation-and-gender-identity-sogi-discrimination>.

³⁷ Id.

³⁸ EEOC, Protections Against Employment Discrimination Based on Sexual Orientation or Gender Identity (as of Jan. 20, 2025), <https://web.archive.org/web/20250120110315/https://www.eeoc.gov/laws/guidance/protections-against-employment-discrimination-based-sexual-orientation-or-gender>.

³⁹ Texas v. EEOC, 633 F. Supp. 3d 824 (N.D. Tex. 2022).

⁴⁰ Id. at 832.

⁴¹ Commissioner Andrea R. Lucas, Statement on EEOC Enforcement Guidance on Harassment in the Workplace (Apr. 29, 2024), https://www.eeoc.gov/sites/default/files/2025-01/Lucas_Statement_re_Harassment_Guidance_%284.2024%29.pdf.

⁴² EEOC, Enforcement Guidance on Harassment in the Workplace, Notice No. 915.064 (Apr. 29, 2024), <https://www.eeoc.gov/laws/guidance/enforcement-guidance-harassment-workplace>.

⁴³ See EPPC, EPPC Scholar and Others Submit Comments on EEOC Proposed Guidance on Workplace Harassment, (Nov. 1, 2023), <https://eppc.org/news/eppc-scholars-and-others-submit-comments-on-eeoc-proposed-guidance-on-workplace-harassment/>.

⁴⁴ EEOC, Enforcement Guidance on Harassment in the Workplace, Notice No. 915.064, § II.A(5)(c) (Apr. 29, 2024), <https://www.eeoc.gov/laws/guidance/enforcement-guidance-harassment-workplace>.

⁴⁵ Texas v. EEOC, No. 2:24-cv-173, 2025 WL 1414332 (N.D. Tex. May 15, 2025).

accommodation request). The EEOC acknowledged that it received more than ten thousand religious accommodation charges of discrimination related to vaccine mandates.⁴⁶ Yet, as Lucas has since stated, EEOC enforcement actions “happened both silently and too slowly.”⁴⁷

While the EEOC later put out helpful guidance addressing a wide range of issues related to the COVID-19 pandemic response, including religious accommodations,⁴⁸ it failed to take public enforcement actions to protect employees’ religious accommodation rights during the pandemic, when employees’ rights were being violated. This was a significant missed opportunity that could have served as guidance and a warning to employers, thereby preventing violations of employees’ religious nondiscrimination and accommodation rights. Thankfully, the EEOC is now, in its own words, “taking bold and aggressive steps to remedy the widespread civil rights harms during the pandemic” and has recovered over $55 million so far.⁴⁹

As Lucas told the Daily Caller, the EEOC received nearly 13,000 religious accommodation requests during FY 2022 alone, which comprised 20 percent of EEOC’s discrimination charges.⁵⁰ Thankfully, under Lucas’s leadership, the commission is taking steps to ensure that religion is no longer treated as a second-class right. On August 22, 2025, the EEOC published a press release celebrating “200 Days of EEOC Action to Protect Religious Freedom at Work”—a welcome change for EEOC.⁵¹

⁴⁶ Press Release, EEOC, 200 Days of EEOC Action to Protect Religious Freedom at Work (Aug. 22, 2025), <https://www.eeoc.gov/newsroom/200-days-eeoc-action-protect-religious-freedom-work>.

⁴⁷ Id.

⁴⁸ EEOC, What You Should Know About COVID-19 and the ADA, the Rehabilitation Act, and Other EEO Laws (last updated May 15, 2023), <https://www.eeoc.gov/wysk/what-you-should-know-about-covid-19-and-ada-rehabilitation-act-and-other-eeo-laws>.

⁴⁹ Press Release, EEOC, 200 Days of EEOC Action to Protect Religious Freedom at Work (Aug. 22, 2025), <https://www.eeoc.gov/newsroom/200-days-eeoc-action-protect-religious-freedom-work>.

⁵⁰ Katelynn Richardson, Americans Who Endured Biden’s Vax Discrimination Finally Getting Justice, Trump Official Says, Daily Caller (Aug. 18, 2025), <https://dailycaller.com/2025/08/18/exclusive-americans-discriminated-against-biden-vaccine-mandate-eeoc-official-andrea-lucas/>.

⁵¹ Press Release, EEOC, 200 Days of EEOC Action to Protect Religious Freedom at Work (Aug. 22, 2025), <https://www.eeoc.gov/newsroom/200-days-eeoc-action-protect-religious-freedom-work>.

Appendix:

List of Federal Health-Care Conscience Protection Laws

Congress has enacted over two dozen federal statutory provisions that provide conscience protections in health-care contexts. These laws generally prohibit coercion or discrimination against individuals or entities based on religious beliefs or moral convictions regarding certain medical procedures, services, research, or activities (such as abortion, sterilization, assisted suicide, or other specified health services). HHS's Office for Civil Rights (OCR) is primarily responsible for enforcing these laws, which are detailed in the agency's January 2024 final rule on "Safeguarding the Rights of Conscience as Protected by Federal Statutes."¹

Below is a comprehensive list of these provisions, grouped by category as outlined in the rule's statutory background. Each includes the name (where applicable), citation, and a brief description. This list focuses on those statutes enforced by HHS because they represent the core set of federal conscience protections in health care. Note that some categories encompass multiple related statutory provisions.

Church Amendments. Enacted in the 1970s to protect against discrimination in federally funded health programs related to abortion and sterilization

- 42 U.S.C. § 300a-7(b): Prohibits courts or public authorities from requiring individuals or entities receiving federal funds to perform, assist in, or make facilities or personnel available for abortions or sterilizations if contrary to religious beliefs or moral convictions
- 42 U.S.C. § 300a-7(c)(1): Bars discrimination in employment or privileges against health-care personnel who refuse to perform, assist in, or otherwise participate in abortions or sterilizations (even when lawful) based on their religious or moral convictions
- 42 U.S.C. § 300a-7(c)(2): Prohibits discrimination in employment or privileges against personnel in biomedical or behavioral research who refuse to perform or assist in providing health services or research because of their religious or moral convictions
- 42 U.S.C. § 300a-7(d): Ensures that no individual is required to perform or assist in any federally funded health service program or research activity contrary to their religious beliefs or moral convictions
- 42 U.S.C. § 300a-7(e): Prevents discrimination against applicants for training or study in federally funded programs because they refuse to participate in certain activities due to religious or moral convictions

Coats-Snowe Amendment

- Public Health Service Act § 245 (42 U.S.C. § 238n): Prohibits federal, state, or local governments receiving federal funds from discriminating against health-care entities (including training programs) that refuse to perform, train in, refer for, or arrange abortions; also deems certain programs accredited despite noncompliance with abortion-related standards

Weldon Amendment

- Weldon Amendment (Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2023, Pub. L. 117-328, div. H, title V, § 507(d)(1)): Bars federal funding to agencies, programs, or governments that discriminate against health-care entities (e.g., physicians, hospitals, insurers) for not providing, paying for, covering, or referring for abortions

¹ HHS, Safeguarding the Rights of Conscience as Protected by Federal Statutes, 89 Fed. Reg. 2078 (Jan. 11, 2024), <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2024/01/11/2024-00091/safeguarding-the-rights-of-conscience-as-protected-by-federal-statutes>.

Conscience Provisions in Medicaid and Medicare Statutes: Protect against discrimination in managed care, advanced directives, and religious nonmedical care contexts

- 42 U.S.C. § 1395w-22(j)(3)(B) (Medicare Advantage): Exempts Medicare Advantage plans from providing, reimbursing, or covering counseling or referral services objected to on moral or religious grounds, with notice requirements to enrollees
- 42 U.S.C. § 1396u-2(b)(3)(B) (Medicaid Managed Care): Exempts Medicaid managed care organizations from providing, reimbursing, or covering counseling or referral services objected to on moral or religious grounds, with notice requirements to enrollees
- Advanced Directives Provisions (42 U.S.C. §§ 1395cc(f), 1396a(w)(3), 14406(2)): Protect providers from being required to implement advanced directives contrary to conscience in Medicare and Medicaid programs
- Religious Nonmedical Health-Care Providers and Patients Provisions (42 U.S.C. §§ 1320a-1(h), 1320c-11, 1395i-5, 1395x(e), 1395x(y)(1), 1396a(a), 1397j-1(b)): Exempt religious nonmedical institutions from certain Medicare or Medicaid requirements (e.g., medical criteria, licensure) and prohibit interference with elders' reliance on prayer for healing

Affordable Care Act (ACA) Provisions

- 42 U.S.C. § 18113 (ACA § 1553): Prohibits discrimination against individuals or entities for not providing services related to assisted suicide, euthanasia, or mercy killing
- 42 U.S.C. § 18023(b)(1)(A) (ACA § 1303(b)(1)(A)): Allows qualified health plans to decide whether to cover abortion services
- 42 U.S.C. § 18023(b)(4) (ACA § 1303(b)(4)): Bars qualified health plans from discriminating against providers or facilities unwilling to provide, pay for, cover, or refer for abortions
- 42 U.S.C. § 18023(c)(2) (ACA § 1303(c)(2)): Affirms that the Affordable Care Act preserves all existing federal conscience protections, including laws that prohibit discrimination against those who refuse to provide, pay for, cover, or refer for abortions
- 42 U.S.C. § 18081(b)(5)(A) (ACA § 1411(b)(5)(A)): Allows exemptions from the individual mandate based on hardship or participation in a religious sect or health-care sharing ministry

Federal Conscience and Antidiscrimination Protections Applying to Global Health Programs

- PEPFAR-Related Provisions (22 U.S.C. §§ 7631(d)(1)(B), 7631(d)(2)): Prohibits requiring recipients of HIV/AIDS foreign aid to endorse, participate in, or refer to programs objected to on religious or moral grounds; bars discrimination against such recipients
- Helms, Biden, 1978, and 1985 Amendments (22 U.S.C. § 2151b(f)): Bans use of foreign aid for abortions, involuntary sterilizations, or coercion/motivation to practice abortions or sterilizations

Exemptions from Compulsory Medical Screening, Examination, Diagnosis, or Treatment: Provides opt-outs from mandatory health interventions

- Suicide Prevention Programs Provision (42 U.S.C. § 290bb-36(f); Garrett Lee Smith Memorial Act § 3(c)): Exempts certain suicide prevention programs from requiring assessments or interventions contrary to conscience
- Hearing Screening Programs Provision (42 U.S.C. § 280g-1(d)): Allows exemptions from newborn hearing screenings based on religious beliefs
- Pediatric Vaccines Provision (42 U.S.C. § 1396s(c)(2)(B)(ii)): Permits states to exclude certain pediatric vaccines from Medicaid if produced using aborted fetal tissue
- Occupational Safety and Health Act Provision (29 U.S.C. § 669(a)(5)): Exempts religious sects from certain occupational illness testing requirements
- Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Programs Provisions (42 U.S.C. §§ 5106i(a), 1396f): Provide exemptions from compulsory medical services in child abuse or neglect cases based on religious beliefs

From: r <[REDACTED]>

To: "[REDACTED]" <[REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Denial of Religious Exemption for Covid 19 Vaccination

Date: Tue, 17 Mar 2026 20:30:45 -0400

Importance: Normal

Genlepersons:

I was denied a religious exemption for mandated covid 19 vaccination in New York City (NYC).

NYC mandated that employers require the covid 19 vaccine of all employees.

This was even interpreted to apply to Voluntary Labor required by the Park Slope Food Coop (PSFC)

I applied for a Religious exemption to the PSFC. This was denied. The fact that I was very skeptical of medical interventions to artificially treat medical conditions, should not have disallowed a religious exemption. The two can coexist within the same person. It is not permissible for the State or its agencies to investigate and determine the exclusivity of a personal religious belief in the ultimate determination of a person's decision.

A Religious belief does not exist in a vacuum.

Respectfully submitted,

[REDACTED]
PII

[REDACTED]
Address

From: [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] >

To: " [REDACTED] " < [REDACTED] >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] NYC Reasonable Accommodation Denial

Date: Fri, 13 Mar 2026 23:02:45 -0400

Importance: Normal

Hello my name is [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] I was a steamfitter employed by NYC Department of Correction during the pandemic. In the early days of the pandemic they (the media) had me worried about a virus that is likened to a common cold.

I worked in multiple locations on Rikers Island and other facilities within NYC DoC. It was the greatest job and I really loved working there. It was a very interesting time, when every morning I would hear all the news reports of the countless daily death tolls. My eyes awakened to the fact that working in multiple installations where the inmates don't go home they weren't getting sick nor were they having any casualties thankfully.

It was during that time around August of 2020 that I started praying on a very deep level. Nothing was making sense. I could see that this narrative was going to play on for quite some time. It was at this time that I put all my faith in GOD Almighty and my Lord and savior Jesus Christ.

Fast Forward to August of 2021 I could see that there would be a vaccination push on the way. I had my differences with my supervisor about masking and testing. He approached me with paperwork that masking and testing would suddenly become a requirement for employment.

I was then shipped to Vernon C. Bain Correctional Facility in the Bronx by myself in the month of september. I didn't get much work there within my trade title. I was working with electricians and plumbers mostly during this time. I was continuing to mask and test and then in the month of october they pushed mandatory vaccination for employment.

My co worker notified me that I could put a Religious Exemption in and request a reasonable accommodation. I submitted my first religious exemption while masking and testing and meeting the requirement for a reasonable accommodation. In a short period of time I received paperwork that basically said my faith is irrelevant and could make another appeal. All again masking and testing during this tumultuous time.

A second attempt was made by submitting another religious exemption. My faith was getting stronger and on a deeper level with my connection to GOD Almighty, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit. I couldn't believe that I was potentially about to lose this job that I love.

I was then denied my second attempt at a reasonable accommodation for a religious exemption all while meeting the reasonable accommodation standards of masking and testing.

This is the very fabric of our country based on the Constitution. The first amendment has four parts, each one equally the same. Religion: Protects the rights to practice religion freely (Free Exercise) and prohibits government from creating an official state religion or favoring one over another (Establishmentt).

In conclusion, many employees were granted a religious exemption and continue to work to this very day. I will continue to pray and will not stop until my dying breath until this all gets corrected. I just want to live and be free. GOD bless America!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

From: [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] High school denial religious

Date: Fri, 13 Mar 2026 15:56:07 -0400

Importance: Normal

My daughter has applied for a Catholic high school and is being denied admission because she's not vaccinated. Here is the ironic part. It is a Catholic school and they will not accept religious exemption.

Any input greatly appreciated.

God Bless You

[REDACTED] PII

From: [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Fired NYC teacher for refusing the COVID Vaccine

Date: Fri, 13 Mar 2026 11:58:27 -0400

Importance: Normal

To whom it may concern,

I was fired for refusing the COVID Vaccine on September 6, 2022, due to Religious Exemption. I worked for 23 years as a teacher, because I came into the system at a later age and codes that were placed on us by the NYCDOE, finding a teaching job made it impossible to get another teaching job. I was forced into retirement. I worked very hard to become a teacher and took many NYState and NYC tests. Additionally, having a college degree and two masters. They tore my credentials and years of dedication to improving my students outcome in education to rubble.

This country under the United States Constitution granted me Religious Freedom. My rights were violated by an education system that teaches our rights but does not institute them.

My hope is that you will proceed to take up the cause for all NYC employees who have been fired unjustly and more importantly for our rights under, "The Constitution of the United States of America".

Sincerely,

[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]

Sent from my iPhone

From: [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] RLC Comments

Date: Fri, 13 Mar 2026 07:33:37 -0400

Importance: Normal

Thank you for the opportunity to give comments regarding religious liberty violations in the workforce.

I was a secretary with the New York City Department of Education (DOE), and I was separated from service because of the Covid vaccine mandate that New York City put in place. I submitted a religious accommodation request and it was denied and I was placed on Leave Without Pay for a year. I then applied again for a religious accommodation for the following school year and was denied a second time.

Below I have attached the testimony that I submitted in 2022 to the New York City Council Labor Committee regarding the discrimination against myself and others like me who were and continue to be in the same situation.

In the almost 4 years since I submitted that testimony, I have still not been reinstated to my former position or compensated for losing my job despite the fact that in November 2025, then former mayor, Eric Adams, issued a Press Release stating that any NYC worker who was terminated for refusing to get the Covid vaccine could be reinstated to their jobs without backpay. There was a deadline of December 5, 2025 and an email address to send if you were interested in returning to your former position.

To my knowledge, myself nor anyone else that responded to that offer showing interest in returning to their former position has received any instructions on how the process will be implemented by the present NYC administration for those of us who were forced to resign/retire or were terminated.

There are thousands of us in NYC across all agencies such as NYC DOE, FDNY, NYPD and DSNY who are still suffering and out of work because of the religious discrimination that happened in NYC during the COVID pandemic.

I would appreciate it if you could take the time to read my testimony from 2022 below which better details what happened to me personally.

I thank you for your time and effort in protecting religious liberties.

City Council Labor Committee Testimony 9/9/2022

My name is [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] and I am a NYC DOE Secretary who has been on Leave Without Pay since October 2021 for choosing religious and medical freedom over complying with the Covid 19 vaccine mandate. I have been an active member of my school community from holding the position of President of the PTA to being a member of school leadership teams when my sons were students. I believed in the public school system.

When my sons were older I began working for the DOE first as a sub school aide, then as a paraprofessional and currently as a secretary. I have an unblemished work record for all of the time and titles I have held while volunteering at and being employed by the DOE.

Last school year I applied for a Religious Exemption accommodation and was denied without the opportunity of an appeal process.

This school year I applied again and was denied without the opportunity of an appeal process. I face termination any day. I have asked for explanations of the determination letter denial with no response from the DOE or the UFT. I was told I didn't meet the criteria for a Religious accommodation and I asked what the exact criteria it was that I didn't meet. It is my understanding that the only criteria I need to meet to receive a religious based accommodation is my sacred, sincerely held religious beliefs which are between me and God. These rights are God given and are protected by the First Amendment of the U.S. Constitution, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act as well as New York State and New York City Human Rights Laws.

I also asked for clarification for the following that was in my Determination denial letter:

“unvaccinated employees cannot work in a Department of Education (DOE) school setting or other site where they would have in-person contact with students, families or members of the public. We cannot offer another worksite as an accommodation as that would impose an undue hardship (i.e. more than a minimal burden) on the DOE and its operations.”

My response to the DOE was “ there is absolutely no undue hardship reason why my accommodation request for my title of secretary could not be approved especially since I worked fully remote from home (no in-person contact with students, families or members of the public) during the time period of March 2020-June 2020 without any issues. Furthermore, I am entitled to a reasonable accommodation under the protections of both federal and state law.” I also asked the DOE to provide me with financial records to support their claim of undue hardship. I still have not received a response to either of these questions.

I was at the City Council meeting on 9/9/22 and heard the council ask about hybrid work days or remote options for employees to solve the staffing shortages at city and private agencies.

I do not pose any threat to the school community by being unvaccinated. The children are not mandated to be vaccinated and those who are unvaccinated are not deemed as a threat and have been in school, unmasked, since last school year. How can it be acceptable for unvaccinated children to be in school but not unvaccinated adults? I also would like it to be noted that DOE employees have not been mandated to receive the booster even though it is now proven by the CDC and other world health organizations that the vaccine's efficacy wanes after just a few months.

Therefore, it stands to reason why the CDC no longer distinguishes between vaccinated and unvaccinated people for purposes of COVID 19 protocols. The same should be followed by the City with regards to their workers and the NYC DOE on behalf of all of their employees and school community instead of the discriminatory practices that they have been waging against its unvaccinated employees and parents since the beginning of the pandemic.

I worked the entire 2020-2021 school year in person when there wasn't a vaccine available even if I wanted it while other people were working from home on "accommodations"

I thank the City Council members who realize how harmful this mandate is to its citizens, students and employees. We stand ready, willing and able to return to our jobs. Any action to not allow me to fulfill my job duties will be solely initiated by the NYC DOE because of their unconstitutional and discriminatory policies against their employees.

Please let Mayor Adams know the caliber of employees the city is losing due to these outdated, discriminatory and unconstitutional mandates.

Sincerely,

PII

Sent from my iPhone

From: PII Email Address >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <Email Address>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] A plea for help

Date: Fri, 13 Mar 2026 07:32:21 -0400

Importance: Normal

To whom it may concern at the religious liberty committee,

I am grateful and relieved that a committee was formed that could help with the struggles we face daily in NY. Please consider helping us and read my story to understand a glimpse of the issues we have been dealing with. If any other information is required please do not hesitate to ask. Below is my personal story and attached is a letter from many groups I belong too. Thank you for your time and efforts to righting the wrongs that have been done in our blessed country. God bless!

My name is PII and this is My story:

PII had always been the embodiment of dedication. For over a decade, he poured his heart into his work, climbing the ranks from a PII to the esteemed PII at Northwell Health, specifically PII. His colleagues admired his relentless pursuit of excellence, his patients cherished his compassion, and his leadership was marked by integrity and innovation including being the recipient of a multitude of awards.

But when the COVID-19 mandate swept through the healthcare sector, PII world was turned upside down. Overnight, he found himself wrongfully terminated—his years of service and spotless record cast aside in the name of compliance. The shock was only the beginning.

PII journey through the aftermath was a gauntlet of trials. Filing a claim against his employer's wrongful actions proved nearly impossible; the system seemed designed to protect institutions, not individuals. Legal representation was out of reach—attorneys hesitated, fearing retaliation from the state, and PII was left to navigate the labyrinth alone. To his disbelief, he was denied unemployment benefits, compounding his financial and emotional strain.

Undeterred, PII became his own advocate. He spent countless hours poring over legal documents, drafting motions, and preparing evidence. He challenged his employer and the Department of Labor, refusing to let his rights be trampled. The EEOC process was fraught with obstacles, but Gene persisted, even filing a complaint with the Inspector General to highlight systemic issues and offer constructive feedback.

His fight was not just for himself—it became a crusade for human rights and constitutional protections. Along the way, PII connected with others facing similar injustices. He shared his hard-earned knowledge, empowering a network of self-litigators and providing hope to those who felt powerless.

Despite submitting dozens of job applications, PII found doors closed to him—his wrongful termination casting a long shadow over his career. With resilience, he forged a new path, opening his own rehabilitation practice to serve his community and support his family.

Although PII has found a renewed sense of purpose by selflessly helping others and making a positive impact in his community, there remains an undeniable hole in his career and his heart. The injustice he faced at the hands of Northwell Health, an institution to which he devoted so much of his life, lingers as a painful reminder of how quickly loyalty and dedication can be overlooked. The sense of loss is profound—not just for the position he once held, but for the trust and camaraderie that were abruptly taken from him in violation of his rights.

In time, the COVID-19 mandate was overturned, a tacit admission that the policy had been misguided. [REDACTED] ordeal, and those of countless others, should never have occurred. Those wrongfully terminated deserve to be made whole—not just for their personal losses, but in recognition of their unwavering service and sacrifice during the pandemic’s darkest days. Their formidable contributions, born of adversity, have strengthened the very fabric of their communities.

Please help us become whole again!

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

The journey for New York’s healthcare heroes—once celebrated, now sidelined—has been fraught with hardship, injustice, and bureaucratic obstacles. Many of us, former Northwell Health employees, found ourselves not only terminated for refusing the COVID-19 vaccine mandate but also abandoned by the very systems meant to protect our rights. Our pursuit of justice has been hampered by the labyrinthine processes and, at times, apparent corruption within agencies like the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) and the New York State Division of Human Rights (DHR). Filing a “right to sue” or even having our voices heard has been a daunting, often fruitless task, with cases delayed, dismissed, or lost in a sea of red tape.

The Mandate Overturned—But Not Our Injustice

In October 2023, New York State officially repealed the COVID-19 vaccine mandate for healthcare workers, marking a monumental shift and acknowledging the overreach of previous policies. Courts found the mandate arbitrary and capricious, and the Department of Health ceased enforcement months before the repeal became official. This legal reversal should have been a turning point—a chance for restoration and healing.

From Healthcare Heroes to “Zeros”

Yet, for Northwell Health’s 1,400 terminated employees, the repeal brought no relief. We were the frontline responders, risking our lives during the darkest days of the pandemic. Our contributions were lauded—until we questioned, hesitated, or objected to a mandate that has since been declared unlawful. Overnight, we went from heroes to “healthcare zeros,” cast aside without recourse, our dedication and sacrifice erased by a single policy decision.

Other Hospitals Are Reinstating Workers—Northwell Is Not

Across New York, other hospital systems have begun to right these wrongs. St. Joseph’s Health and Crouse Hospital, for example, have actively invited back employees fired under the mandate, recognizing both the injustice and the value of experienced staff. Their leadership acknowledges that the mandate is no longer necessary and is working to restore the careers and livelihoods of those affected.

Northwell Health, by contrast, has not followed suit. Despite the legal and regulatory changes, Northwell has not announced any plans for broad reinstatement or back pay for those it terminated. Some workers who later complied with vaccination were allowed to reapply, but there has been no systematic effort to make amends for the harm caused to those who stood by their convictions.

A Plea for Justice and Human Rights

We, the wrongfully terminated healthcare workers of Northwell Health, call upon the public, lawmakers, and human rights advocates to stand with us. Our struggle is not just about jobs—it is about the fundamental rights enshrined in the Constitution and protected by the Division of Human Rights. We urge the restoration of justice for all, the reinstatement of those wrongfully terminated, and the provision of back pay for lost wages and dignity. Most importantly, we seek to ensure that no worker—no hero—ever faces such treatment again.

From: [REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Christians For Carrie Prejean Boller

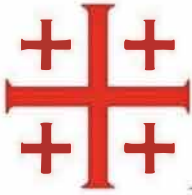

Date: Fri, 13 Mar 2026 03:26:50 -0400

Importance: Normal

Inline-Images: 1000002965.jpg

To The Religious Liberty Commission,

As a Catholic Wife, Mother and Heritage American. I'm appalled by the way Dan Patrick and others on the Religious Liberty Commission have scrutinize our fellow Catholic,Sister in Christ Carrie Prejean Boller and us Catholics. Catholic catechism teaches the definitive, unbreakable bond between God and humanity established by Christ through his Paschal Mystery fulfilled the Old Covenant. We believe in a New and everlasting Covenant. Zionism is blasphemous to our faith. As a Conservative Catholic, I experienced first hand how the Biden Regime targeted and mistreated us relentlessly for our faith. We prayed and voted in mass numbers for President Trump hoping his Administration would protect us Christians and our true beliefs against persecution. Sadly,

PATRIARCHS AND HEADS OF THE CHURCHES IN JERUSALEM

A STATEMENT FROM THE PATRIARCHS AND HEADS OF THE CHURCHES IN JERUSALEM ON UNITY AND REPRESENTATION OF THE CHRISTIAN COMMUNITIES IN THE HOLY LAND January 17, 2026

The Patriarchs and Heads of Churches in the Holy Land affirm before the faithful and before the world that the flock of Christ in this land is entrusted to the Apostolic Churches which have borne their sacred ministry across centuries with steadfast devotion. Recent activities undertaken by local individuals who advance damaging ideologies, such as Christian Zionism, mislead the public, sow confusion, and harm the unity of our flock. These undertakings have found favor among certain political actors in Israel and beyond who seek to push a political agenda which may harm the Christian presence in the Holy Land and the wider Middle East.

Holy Scripture teaches us that “we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another” (Romans 12:5). To claim authority outside the communion of the Church is to wound the unity of the faithful and burden the pastoral mission entrusted to the historic churches in the very land where our Lord lived, taught, suffered, and rose from the dead.

The Patriarchs and Heads of Churches further note with concern that these individuals have been welcomed at official levels both locally and internationally. Such actions constitute interference in the internal life of the churches and disregard the pastoral responsibility vested in the Patriarchs and Heads of Churches in Jerusalem.

The Patriarchs and Heads of Churches in Jerusalem reiterate that they alone represent the Churches and their flock in matters pertaining to Christian religious, communal, and pastoral life in the Holy Land.

May the Lord, who is the Shepherd and Guardian of souls, grant wisdom for the protection of His people and the safeguarding of His witness in this sacred land.

—The Patriarchs and Heads of the Churches in Jerusalem

we Christians see now nobody is willing to stand up for our beliefs and when one does they are bashed, ridiculed and labeled antisemitic; this has nothing to do with antisemitism but our religious beliefs. The way Dan Patrick berated Carrie Prejean Boller, our Sister in Christ showed us once again nobody is willing to stand up for us Christians and our true beliefs. We consider Zionism Blasphemous to our sacred religion that we hold dear for years and have been the most persecuted religion throughout the world for Millenia. We believe only Christ is King and those who seek him will have everlasting life. Christ himself said, "If the world hates you, keep in mind that it hated me first". To us Christians, this is bigger than politics, it is our faith in Christ and the following of his teachings. We consider Zionism blasphemy, Judeo-Christian as sacrilege. We are in fact a Christian Nation but to remain a majority Christian Nation we can not have Heresy against our Christian faith. Heresy is a deliberate deviation in belief from established truth (Zionism/Judeo-Christian). We are strong in our Christian faith and no amount of insults, defamation, vilification or invectives will change this. Carrie Prejean Boller must be reinstated on the Religious Liberty Commission,our Christian voice refuses to be silenced. If one should resign or fired it is Dan Patrick,for he seems oblivious to Catholicism or any of our true Christian beliefs. Dan Patrick has tried to politicize and mock our faith for his own personal political agenda,shameful.

MaytGhd Bless you as you seek to do what is right,

PII

From: " [REDACTED] Email Address " < [REDACTED] Email Address >

To: " [REDACTED] Email Address " < [REDACTED] Email Address >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Public Comment: March 16 Religious Liberty Commission - My Story

Date: Wed, 11 Mar 2026 22:28:04 -0400

Importance: Normal

Hello, my name is [REDACTED] PII and I would like you to know that due to Richard Pan and his decision to not let unvaccinated children go to public school, I have had to pay family members of mine to watch him while I work from 9am-7:30pm Monday through Friday for ten months out of the year. He is currently in sixth grade and subsequently, I have had to pay around $1,000.00 monthly due to the decision made by someone I did not vote for. I comprehend that his thought process was to punish taxpayers that don't comply with his orders but my son is in very good health and I think this is a very malice policy.

From: [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] Email Address >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] Email Address >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Testimony of Religious Accommodation Denial

Date: Wed, 11 Mar 2026 21:38:44 -0400

Importance: Normal

Greetings Religious Liberty Commission,

This letter serves as a testimony of religious as well as medical discrimination against myself, [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED], and three of my coworkers; [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]. We made up the hairdressing department for NBC/Dick Wolf Productions television show "Law and Order" season 21, December 2021.

At the time of hiring us in November 2021 there was no mandate for Covid vaccines in place by the employer. During our time of employment, December 2-21, 2021, all employees were tested three times a week. During these three weeks of work, all four of us ([REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]) consistently had zero positive Covid results. None of us were ever symptomatic nor sick nor missed work due to illness. Every other department including on set producers had employees who contracted COVID and missed work due to quarantine. Most interesting of these cases was the makeup department, all of whom worked in very tight confined spaces alongside our hair department. All of these makeup artists were vaccinated. All of them contracted Covid at some point. All of them had to quarantine at one time or another. Even the temporary replacement makeup artists didn't work very much because of contracting covid. I say all of this to demonstrate that the pattern of potential risk lay in every department except the unvaccinated hairstylists.

In spite of clean health records, we saw the first act of discrimination during the week ending December 19, 2021. The Health & Safety department of "Law and Order" asked all of the unvaccinated hairstylists to wear additional PPE that no one else on the crew was required to wear. We were singled out and asked to take additional precautions that were not based on any suspicious or questionable health risks. We were asked to wear face shields that would have alerted everyone to our vaccine status which should have been confidential personal information on a job that was not mandating. We declined to follow these orders. This was blatant discrimination.

On December 21, 2021, the last day of filming the episode, the New York City private sector mandate was announced. All "Law and Order" employees were told that in order to return to their jobs after the holiday hiatus everyone would be required to show proof of vaccination. All employees were given the opportunity to submit applications for religious and medical accommodations. All four of us in the hair department submitted a religious accommodation request and all four of us were denied. Ms Kehoe also submitted medical exemption requests and, in spite of NBC demanding multiple letters of repetitive information from the same doctors, these requests were also denied. An interesting point is that all emails pertaining to the studio's mandate were simply signed Human Resources. No contact name was ever given. When Ms Kehoe asked for the name and information about the doctor NBC hired to approve or disapprove medical accommodations, she was not given an answer.

In September 2022 our group filed a complaint against NBC/Dick Wolf Productions with EEOC. Our rights to practice our religious beliefs were denied. Our human rights were denied. Our rights of privacy of personal medical information were denied. Title VII was violated. EEOC at that time also stated that the employer, upon denying an accommodation, must prove proof of hardship that any accommodations might cause. There was never proof of any hardship that our accommodations might cause. During our employment in 2021, we were the least likely to cause a hardship due to consistent clean health records. Still, we were discriminated against on the job and after being prevented from returning to the job. We were interviewed by EEOC and were told that the employer had been questioned but no action was taken. We were given the right to sue but due to financial hardship none of us were able to retain representation. All of us spoke to multiple attorneys. I, myself, spoke to eleven lawyers who told me there were no cases getting anywhere with regards to vaccine mandates. We were told that judges were not listening to any mandate cases. We were defeated.

Another alarming point that deserves investigation is the issue of actors being allowed to work without forced vaccines. During our time of employment, December 2-21, 2021, one leading actor told us that he was not vaccinated and had no intention of getting vaccinated. To date we do not know if this actor ever complied but it is well worth being investigated. It's worth being investigated because the following year another leading actor told the makeup department that he was not vaccinated and was not going to get vaccinated. This man was allowed to keep his job. The employee records of these men should be investigated and scrutinized. If it is proven that unvaccinated actors were indeed allowed to keep their employment then there is much that NBC and Dick Wolf have to answer for.

PII and myself have all suffered great loss due to the mandates imposed by NYC and the entertainment industry, starting with our employer NBC/Wolf Productions. All of us have suffered great loss of finance, great loss of our professional reputations, great loss of health insurance, great loss of retirement funds, and great loss of employment. All of us are in debt that we will never see the end of. There is no way we will ever bounce back from the blatant, unlawful, discriminatory action taken against us.

I would like this case investigated and NBC held accountable for any and all actions that violate our rights and violate the laws. I would like for the employee records of alleged unvaccinated actors to be investigated by the DOJ and, upon proving that an unlawful double standard was indeed set in place, action taken to correct the injustice that the hair department continues to suffer.

I thank you for any and all consideration and your attention towards upholding true justice.

PII

Sent from my iPad

From: [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Impact of Lack of Religious Exemptions on my Family

Date: Wed, 11 Mar 2026 20:09:46 -0400

Importance: Normal

To Whom it May Concern-

I appreciate the opportunity to tell my personal story on how the lack of religious exemptions for school vaccinations in the state of California has negatively impacted the trajectory of my family and our lives.

[REDACTED] PII

PII

Medical Information

We started seeing a Dr that respected our choice not to vaccinate before [REDACTED] PII started Kindergarten. We planned to submit a personal belief exemption to opt [REDACTED] PII out of vaccinations in order to enroll in Kindergarten and a few weeks before the start, we were notified that CA passed SB276 that no longer allowed Personal Belief exemptions. After we stopped vaccinating [REDACTED] I spent an obsessive amount of time researching vaccines, their ingredients, and the potential side effects of vaccinating vs getting the disease itself. It became not just a health issue at that point, but became a sincerely held religious belief that vaccines and their ingredients went against God's word. Injecting aborted fetal cells, monkey heart, and cow bovine into my child's sacred body is morally wrong and against everything I believe about God's word. We were blessed at that time that [REDACTED] PII Dr wrote him a permanent medical exemption to excuse him from vaccinations and he was able to attend school....until SB277 was passed.

After SB277 passed, we knew we had to make a tough decision since our medical exemption would be invalidated by the time [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]. No Dr in CA would write a medical exemption for him., so we could either homeschool, or move. Since we rely on both my income and my husband's, we were not able to make it work to homeschool our kids. We had no choice but to move out of state. I can't begin to express how hard this move has been and the emotional toll it has had on our family. We gave up family, friends, a beautiful home, neighbors that were like family to our boys, a church we loved, schools the boys were thriving in, and security and roots that we spent years building. Our boys were devastated and did not adjust well to the move and no exaggeration, cried almost every night for close to 2 years. My husband and I grew up poor and have no family to rely on and we lost a lot of money by having to sell our home and losing so much of the equity that we could have been building. My husband lost his job when we moved here and financially it has been tough. I also want to add that in the state of Texas, where we reside, we were rejected by no less than 10 Pediatricians/Doctors to allow my kids to join as a patient because they are not vaccinated.

Bottom line- we never would have considered leaving the beautiful and peaceful life we built if we had a choice to exercise our God given right to not inject harmful and unethical ingredients into our children. Nobody should be forced to decide between the religious beliefs that guide and shape them in order for their kids to attend a public school, which is their constitutional right. My hope and prayer is that no other family who holds the same sincere religious beliefs as ours would every have to make the same life altering choices, and that true religious freedom and bodily autonomy will be upheld.

Thank you for taking the time to read my family's story.

God Bless,

PII

From: Blake [REDACTED] >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Public Comment: March 16 Religious Liberty Commission - My Story

Date: Wed, 11 Mar 2026 02:14:45 -0400

Importance: Normal

Dear President,

I am writing to add to the comments regarding not having access to education for my children at a local school due to vaccine mandates. A school administrator denied our doctor's exemption and said that they could not be enrolled in their school until adequately vaccinated.

Therefore, I chose to not go the public school route, which my husband and I had done ourselves as children, and took schooling into our own hands to ensure that our children obtained their deserved education.

It is unfortunate that options are taken away from us due to our beliefs.

Thank you for your time,

Blake

From: Hilary [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] RELIGIOUS EXEMPTION & MEDICAL EXEMPTION DENIAL

Date: Tue, 10 Mar 2026 22:33:21 -0400

Importance: Normal

and a personal

I hope one day my daughter & I can walk together freely without having to worry about how her Mama is going to pay her bills. I sincerely hope we will finally be compensated for the extreme amount of financial loss.

In Gratitude,

Hilary PII

Sent from my iPhone

From: PII Email Address >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <Email Address>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Religious liberties

Date: Tue, 10 Mar 2026 17:29:09 -0400

Importance: Normal

To Whom It May Concern,

I am a parent with a child that should be starting kindergarten this upcoming school year. I am personally and religiously opposed to the vaccine schedule California is requiring for my child to attend school. Not only public schools but also private schools will not allow my child to attend without a full vaccine schedule. I am begging and pleading to the federal government to please step in and stop this. My family has lived here for generations and if the law is not soon changed I will be forced to move from a state that I was born and raised in. My child is an only child and this would mean taking him away from his grandparents, cousins, aunts and uncles. Please help my family and all the children of California!

Thank you,

PII

From: [REDACTED] Email Address >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <Email Address>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Comment for March 16 Religious Liberty Commission Hearing – Vaccine Mandates and Religious Exemptions

Date: Mon, 09 Mar 2026 18:40:20 -0400

Importance: Normal

To the President's Religious Liberty Commission,

My name is [REDACTED] and I am writing to share my family's experience regarding vaccine mandates and the elimination of religious exemptions for school attendance in California.

My son experienced a serious adverse reaction following the Hepatitis B vaccine. As a parent, this experience deeply impacted our family and raised significant concerns about medical autonomy, safety, and the ability of parents to make informed healthcare decisions for their children.

At the same time, California's removal of religious exemptions for school vaccination requirements has placed families like mine in an extremely difficult position. Parents are forced to choose between their sincerely held religious beliefs, their concerns about their child's health, and their child's ability to participate in school and educational opportunities. We are devout Catholics, and having aborted fetuses in vaccines is not only against our religion but also highly immoral.

For many families, the elimination of religious exemptions has meant:

- Losing the ability to enroll children in traditional schools
- Facing social and educational disruption
- Being forced into homeschooling or relocation
- Experiencing stigma and pressure from institutions that should respect diverse beliefs

Across the country, many states still allow religious or personal belief exemptions, recognizing that families have different convictions regarding medical decisions. The lack of similar protections in states like California creates inequities and places significant burdens on families.

I respectfully urge the Commission to examine whether federal protections are needed to ensure that families are not denied educational opportunities because of sincerely held religious beliefs or legitimate health concerns related to vaccination.

Families should not be forced to choose between their faith, their child's health, and access to education.

Thank you for considering the experiences of families like mine as you evaluate religious liberty protections in education and healthcare.

Respectfully,

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED] Email Address

To: Email Address [REDACTED] Email Address

Subject: [EXTERNAL] RE: healthcare-related religious liberty issues

Date: Mon, 09 Mar 2026 17:57:45 -0400

Importance: Normal

Hello,

My name is [REDACTED] PII I am a mother of two grade-school children, the wife of a 100% disabled veteran, and an RN. When our oldest child was an infant, he had two separate vaccine injuries. After the first one, I did a little research on the CDC's website to satisfy that tiny voice in the back of my mind, and was satisfied that vaccines were safe, effective, and necessary to keep him alive. I had learned this in school and didn't have a huge reason to doubt the rhetoric. After the second one, I dug deeper. I was appalled at what I found out. We are very fortunate, compared with many others, that our son is still with us and has minimal long-term consequences from those incidents. We decided to stop vaccinating him, and to not vaccinate our second child at all when he was born.

We live in California. Because of California's laws, my children are not allowed to attend public or private school, including the Waldorf school they were able to attend for the "Mommy and Me" class the year prior to kindergarten. They were sad they had to stop, as they had really enjoyed it. We have done fine with homeschooling - honestly we may have chosen it anyway - but my children feel the stigma when they ask from time to time why they can't go to school with their cousin, and understand that they're banned from attending by our state government's laws.

Thanks to my husband's service and sacrifice, our children have free college tuition in our state - with a catch. California's universities require students to have several vaccinations in order to attend. This creates a huge burden for my children - do they roll the dice and get the vaccinations that may harm them irreparably? Especially my oldest who has a history of adverse reactions from them? Or do they pay tens of thousands of dollars unnecessarily?

Many states have philosophical, religious, and medical exemptions to prevent these situations. We would qualify for all three in other states. In California, we have no option. There is no longer a philosophical or religious exemption, and the medical exemption is so narrow, it doesn't exist in practice.

I would appreciate the federal government's assistance in these matters. There are many mothers in California who, like me, have been cheering as they see all of the improvements happening at HHS and the FDA, only to be discouraged when California's governor prevents those changes from being implemented here. We are hopeful that won't always be the case.

Thank you for your attention to this matter,

[REDACTED] PII

From [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] Email Address >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] Email Address >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Public Comment: March 16 Religious Liberty Commission - My Story

Date: Mon, 09 Mar 2026 11:46:58 -0400

Importance: Normal

To the President's Religious Liberty Commission,

Thank you for the opportunity to submit comments.

I live in Connecticut, where the long-standing religious exemption for school vaccination requirements was removed in 2021. Although my family was not directly affected, I have watched many families struggle with the loss of this protection.

As a grandmother, I am concerned about the precedent this sets for future generations. In a diverse society, respect for sincerely held religious beliefs should remain an important safeguard when families are making medical decisions for their children.

Ongoing discussion and research about vaccine safety and adverse reactions makes it especially important that families retain space for conscience-based decisions. Religious exemptions have historically served as one way to maintain that balance while public health policy continues to evolve.

I hope the Commission will consider restoring protections that respect both public health goals and the religious liberty of families.

Respectfully,

PII

Phone Number

Sent from my iPhone

From: [REDACTED] Email Address >

To: Email Address Email Address >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Religious liberty

Date: Thu, 05 Mar 2026 19:33:40 -0500

Importance: Normal

My name is [REDACTED]. I live in Southern California. I am 73 years old.

I worked at a hospital in Torrance (Torrance Memorial Medical Center) for 6 years and had every intention of staying until I chose to retire. I was fired from the job I loved in September of 2021 because I refused to get the COVID shots. I had been a volunteer at the hospital for many years and because of this association, I was eventually hired by them.

I filled out the required forms to be allowed a religious exemption which included very personal questions about my faith and my reasons for not wanting the shots. I was happy to oblige as I was confident in my legitimate reasons. I assumed I would be interviewed regarding the exemption. NOTHING!! The exemption request was rubber stamped—denied the day after I handed it in. I was informed I could not be accommodated. It had been 18 months since COVID had been diagnosed as a disease and the hospital had been able to accommodate me through that whole period. Each work day I self-tested, my temperature was taken when I entered work, I wore a mask, and sanitized my hands numerous times during the day and wiped down everything touched by other people. My coworkers were not worried about me.

People who had been vaccinated wore a yellow daisy sticker on their badges and those not vaccinated did not (reverse Nazi Jewish star?).

On a side note I did not work in the clinical side of the hospital so I was not in contact with patients.

When I was fired I was not working at the hospital long enough to get a pension. My husband and I had to start using Social Security to be able to pay our bills. We did not want to do that until many years later. I was 69 when I was fired and have only been able to find work with people I know.

It's been very difficult especially as more information comes out about the vaccines. I felt I was illegally dismissed and time has proven me to be correct in this assumption.

Thank you for this opportunity to tell you my story.

Sincerely,

PII
Address
Phone Number [REDACTED]
Email Address [REDACTED]

Sent from my iPad

From: [REDACTED] Email Address

To: [REDACTED] Email Address

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Request for Investigation into Religious Discrimination by New York City Agencies in the Enforcement of COVID-19 Vaccine Mandates, Including the Fire Department of the City of New York (FDNY)

Date: Sun, 01 Mar 2026 18:12:13 -0500

Importance: Normal

FROM:

[REDACTED] PII
Address

[REDACTED] Phone Number

[REDACTED] Email Address

March 1st 2026

TO: Members of the Religious Liberty Commission
c/o White House Faith Office
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
NW Washington, DC 20500
Sent via email to: [REDACTED] Email Address

Dear Members of the Religious Liberty Commission,

I hope this letter finds you and your loved ones in good health and peace. My name is [REDACTED] PII and I served proudly as a firefighter with the FDNY for almost 16 years. Being one of New York's Bravest was more than a job—it was my calling. I poured my heart, mind, body, and soul into protecting the people of New York City, often at great personal cost. When that calling first came to me, I was living in Los Angeles, California. Without hesitation, I left everything behind to chase my dream of serving in the greatest fire department in the world. It was a sacrifice I made willingly, because I believed in something bigger than myself, trusting in the words of Proverbs 3:5-6: "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths."

On March 15, 2022, that dream was shattered. My sincere request for a religious exemption from the mandatory COVID-19 (EUA) vaccination policy was denied, and I was unlawfully terminated. I was locked out of my firehouse and placed on indeterminate involuntary leave without pay (IILWOP) simply for standing by my deeply held religious convictions, guided by 1 Corinthians 6:19-20: "Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body." The pain of that moment still lingers—the sudden end to a life of service I loved so much.

At the time, my wife was 38 weeks pregnant [REDACTED] PII Our medical insurance was abruptly cancelled before his birth, leaving us completely exposed. We welcomed our precious son into the world without any coverage, which plunged us into immediate and overwhelming medical debt. What should have been a season of pure joy—holding our newborn, watching our older children meet their baby brother—became one of fear, uncertainty, and heartbreak. The emotional and mental toll was immense; we were supposed to be cherishing those first fragile days as a family, not scrambling to survive, all while clinging to Psalm 34:17-18: “When the righteous cry for help, the Lord hears and delivers them out of all their troubles. The Lord is near to the brokenhearted and saves the crushed in spirit.”

After PII birth, my wife had no choice but to return to work far sooner than we ever planned or wanted. Instead of bonding with our tiny son, nurturing him, and recovering herself, she had to step back into the workforce just to keep our heads above water. The guilt and sorrow we both carried in those moments are hard to put into words—we were fighting so hard to protect our family, yet the circumstances forced us apart when we needed each other most.

The stress this inflicted on our entire family has been profound and lasting. My own health suffered greatly; the relentless legal battles with the FDNY and the City of New York gave me a stomach ulcer that still reminds me daily of the toll. Our young children, innocent and undeserving, have felt the ripples of our struggles. We’ve done everything in our power to shield them—to keep the worry and sadness from touching their hearts—but they’ve seen the strain, the late nights, the tension. No parent wants their children to carry even a piece of that burden, and we draw strength from Deuteronomy 31:6: “Be strong and courageous. Do not fear or be in dread of them, for it is the Lord your God who goes with you. He will not leave you or forsake you.”

After three exhausting years of trying to hold everything together amid mounting, insurmountable debt, we faced the heartbreaking decision to sell our beloved dream home in Long Island, New York—the place where we built so many memories—and relocate our family to South Carolina for a fresh start. We lost our home, and hundreds of thousands of dollars in equity and stability, all because of policies that felt cruel and unjust.

I’m sharing our story with you today not out of bitterness, but out of a deep, aching hope. We pray that the President of the United States will see the human cost of these actions—the lives upended, the families torn apart—and take steps to right these wrongs. Hundreds of other New York families, fellow first responders and their loved ones, have suffered similarly under these tyrannical policies that destroyed careers, health, and homes. Please, Mr. President, intervene with compassion and justice. Help restore what was taken from us, bring healing to broken families, and return some much-needed normalcy and peace to those who have endured far too long, as promised in Joel 2:25: “I will restore to you the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter, my great army, which I sent among you.” We long for the chance to rebuild, to provide security for our children, and to move forward without this shadow over our lives.

I respectfully request that the Religious Liberty Commission, in coordination with the U.S. Department of Justice and federal authorities, investigate the ongoing religious discrimination perpetrated by New York City agencies during the enforcement of COVID-19 vaccine mandates. Although affected employees have secured certain victories in lower courts, these matters remain unresolved or delayed due to appeals and related proceedings involving the City of New York and its agencies. This pattern of disparate treatment demands federal oversight to ensure compliance with My God Given Inherent Rights, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the First Amendment, and related protections for sincerely held religious beliefs.

A clear example of this discrimination occurred on March 24, 2022, when then-Mayor Eric Adams issued a special carve-out exempting unvaccinated professional athletes and performers from the City’s vaccine requirements. The stated rationale was to “create a level playing field” for local sports teams. This exemption allowed entertainers, athletes, and their support staff to continue working without vaccination, while frontline personnel—including FDNY firefighters and other first responders who served on the front lines throughout the pandemic—were denied religious accommodations and faced termination or unpaid leave solely because of their sincerely held religious beliefs. No comparable public-health justification existed for favoring these secular exemptions over religious ones, revealing an arbitrary and discriminatory application of policy.

This unequal treatment is not isolated. It mirrors the broader pattern documented in federal litigation against the City. For instance, in New Yorkers for Religious Liberty, Inc. v. City of New York, No. 22-1801 (2d Cir. 2024, amended Jan. 10, 2025), public-sector employees challenged the vaccine mandates and the City's handling of religious accommodation requests. The Second Circuit affirmed dismissal of facial challenges but vacated and remanded the as-applied claims for certain plaintiffs, recognizing plausible allegations of improper denial of religious exemptions. Similarly, Kane v. City of New York (involving New York City Department of Education employees with parallel claims) has reached the U.S. Supreme Court on petition for certiorari (filed 2025 and under consideration as of late 2025), highlighting the City's discriminatory evaluation of religious accommodation requests—favoring certain organized religions while denying others deemed “too personal.” These cases, along with related proceedings involving first responders, illustrate how City agencies have prolonged resolution through appellate defenses, leaving legitimate religious-liberty claims in limbo despite lower-court findings of potential violations.

The FDNY and other City agencies applied these mandates without adequate oversight, routinely denying religious exemptions to dedicated public servants who had risked their lives during the height of the pandemic. In contrast, the City's carve-out for high-profile performers and athletes underscores that operational needs could accommodate unvaccinated individuals when convenient. This selective enforcement not only violated core principles of religious neutrality but also inflicted profound personal, professional, and financial harm on those who stood firm in their faith.

I urge the Commission to open a formal investigation into these practices by the City of New York, the FDNY, and any other relevant agencies (including the NYPD and Department of Education) that exhibited similar inconsistencies. Federal intervention is essential to enforce religious accommodations under Title VII and to prevent state and local governments from subordinating constitutional rights to discretionary policy preferences.

I am available and willing to testify before the Commission in Washington, D.C., or provide any additional documentation, witness statements, or evidence to assist in this important inquiry. The federal government must take religious accommodations seriously and work to restore the positions, back pay, and dignity lost by so many who upheld their beliefs during a time of crisis.

Thank you for your attention to this urgent matter. I look forward to your prompt response and am prepared to discuss this further at your earliest convenience.

May God richly bless Donald J. Trump, and may God continue to bless America.

Sincerely,

PII

Former FDNY Firefighter

From: [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] >

To: "[REDACTED]" <[REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Religious Freedom / Covid

Date: Fri, 27 Feb 2026 17:44:47 -0500

Importance: Normal

My stories started when my employee NY Langone refused my Religious Exemption . I suffered many uncomfortable actions by my boss in Staten Island NY down to separate from the vaccinated employee. Had to eat by myself. I was a Patient Care Associate. I tired to go with a class action lawsuit which was shut down the later part of 2021. I was fired and lost my world and the job I loved. I had to go on unemployment suffered finacially dufficulty.

Sent from AOL on Android

From: Tiff K <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Catholics for Carrie Prejean Boller

Date: Tue, 24 Feb 2026 03:20:01 -0500

Importance: Normal

----- Forwarded message -----

From: Tiff K <[REDACTED] PII >

Date: Wed, Feb 18, 2026, 10:08 AM

Subject: Catholics for Carrie Prejean Boller

To: [REDACTED] PII >

To The Religious Liberty Commission,

I'm a Catholic Wife and Mother, Heritage American. I'm appalled by the way Dan Patrick and others on the Religious Liberty Commission have scrutinize our fellow Catholic,Sister in Christ Carrie Prejean Boller and us Catholics. Catholic catechism teaches the definitive, unbreakable bond between God and humanity established by Christ through his Paschal Mystery fulfilled the Old Covenant. We believe in a New and everlasting Covenant. Zionism is blasphemous to our faith. As a Conservative Catholic, I experienced first hand how the Biden Regime targeted and mistreated us relentlessly for our faith. We prayed and voted in mass numbers for President Trump hoping his Administration would protect us Christians and our true beliefs against persecution. Sadly,we Christians see now nobody is willing to stand up for our beliefs and when one does they are labeled antisemitic; this has nothing to do with antisemitism but truth. The way Dan Patrick berated Carrie Prejean Boller, our Sister in Christ showed us once again nobody is willing to stand up for us Christians and our true beliefs. We consider Zionism Blasphemous to our sacred religion that we hold dear for years and have been the most persecuted religion throughout the world for Millenia. We believe only Christ is King and those who seek him will have everlasting life. Christ himself said,"If the world hates you, keep in mind that it hated me first". To us Christians, this is bigger than politics,it is our faith in Christ and the following of his teachings. We consider Zionism blasphemy, Judeo-Christian as sacrilege. We are in fact a Christian Nation but to remain a majority Christian Nation we can not have Heresy. Heresy is a deliberate deviation in belief from established truth (Zionism/Judeo-Christian). We are strong in our Christian faith and no amount of insults,defamation,vilification or invectives will change this. Carrie Prejean Boller must remain on the Religious Liberty Commission,our Christian voice refuses to be silenced. If one should resign or fired it is Dan Patrick,for he seems oblivious to Catholicism or any of our true Christian beliefs. Dan Patrick has tried to politicize and mock our faith for his own personal political agenda.

May God Bless you as you seek to do what is right,

Tiffhany [REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] PII >
To: [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] PII <

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Religious Liberty in Healthcare Hearing

Date: Mon, 23 Feb 2026 10:42:18 -0500

Importance: Normal

I worked as an RN at Boston Medical Center in Boston from 1998 through October 2021. During the pandemic, my floor was converted to a "Covid floor", so I was on the front lines from the beginning. It was the easiest nursing time of my career.

Rachelle Wallensky of the CDC announced on television in early August 2021 that the vaccine was ineffective at preventing the spread of infection. I had personally cared for hundreds of vaccinated patients with "breakthrough" Covid infections in spring and summer of 2021. In the late summer BMC mandated the vaccine, despite the obvious fact that it did not prevent infection. The vaccine had been available for 7 months before they announced a mandate.

I submitted a religious exemption. It was promptly denied. The hospital did not approve even one religious exemption. The response they sent me proved that they did not even read my exemption request. BMC has access to clergy from every denomination in the city, and an ethics board, but chose to have the legal team, human resources, and upper management as their religious exemption review board. How convenient.

After BMC denied my religious exemption and I was fired, I filed for unemployment. The State approved me, but the money never came. I contacted the State and was told that despite them having approved me, BMC had denied me unemployment benefits. BMC told the state that I had broken a known rule. I appealed the decision and eventually won the case. During the zoom hearing the employee from the State of Massachusetts asked me, "what is it about your religion that says it is ok to kill people?". That is impartiality for you! After winning the case, I received a direct deposit from the state, but the deposit that landed in my account was much less than it was supposed to be. Not sure how a portion of a wire transfer is stolen, but I still wonder if it had something to do with my views on the matter. I contacted the state to bring the theft to their attention. They said they would investigate, but I never hear another thing about it.

I contacted my labor union. They refused to help me. After paying union dues for 23 years, they didn't help because they "didn't think I could win".

I filed suit with the EEOC. They declined to take my case. They gave me a "right to sue" letter.

I found a Pro Bono attorney, and he filed a suit on my behalf. I never met him. I was never involved in any of the "proceedings". The hospital tried to have my case thrown out stating that my religious beliefs were not religious, but rather my personal preference. Judge Dennis Saylor of Massachusetts took my case "under advisement" and found in my favor. He agreed that my beliefs were religious.

Having lost their first attempt to throw out my case, BMC filed a motion for summary judgement. The same judge who agreed that my beliefs were religious approved Boston Medical Center's motion, and my case was over, just like that. BMC claimed that accommodating me would have caused the hospital undue hardship. They just say that to the judge, no evidence or examples of said "hardship". The truth is they had been accommodating me, and many others, for ten months.

I found a full-time nursing job three months after being fired. I work in the same "patient facing" role at the bedside. Is it believable that Boston Medical Center was not able to accommodate me, but [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] was able to accommodate me? I started my new job in January 2022 wearing a mask like all the other employees. No undue hardship on the hospital at all. In fact, at the time of my firing from BMC, patients no longer had to wear masks in their rooms, but staff wore them the entirety of the shift. The hospital made no effort to cohort the patients by vaccination status and were housing vaccinated patients with unvaccinated patients with no masks, a contradiction that I brought to the attention of the BMC higher ups.

I loved working at BMC and received multiple awards during my time there. I was one of their best, most loyal employees. My heart was broken when I was fired. I had never been fired from a job in my life and take pride in my work ethic and commitment to patients. The entire "Covid" experience has destroyed my faith in the medical system, the judicial system, the Constitution, and the government of the United States. Prior to the pandemic I truly believed that as Americans we had a right to bodily autonomy, self-preservation, and religious liberty. No one should have the right to tell me what to ingest, period! The rights promised to me, as an American, were trampled on. This can never happen again.

[REDACTED] PII
[REDACTED] PII
c. [REDACTED] PII

From: Tiff K <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Catholics for Carrie Prejean Boller

Date: Wed, 18 Feb 2026 11:08:19 -0500

Importance: Normal

To The Religious Liberty Commission,

I'm a Catholic Wife and Mother, Heritage American. I'm appalled by the way Dan Patrick and others on the Religious Liberty Commission have scrutinize our fellow Catholic,Sister in Christ Carrie Prejean Boller and us Catholics. Catholic catechism teaches the definitive, unbreakable bond between God and humanity established by Christ through his Paschal Mystery fulfilled the Old Covenant. We believe in a New and everlasting Covenant. Zionism is blasphemous to our faith. As a Conservative Catholic, I experienced first hand how the Biden Regime targeted and mistreated us relentlessly for our faith. We prayed and voted in mass numbers for President Trump hoping his Administration would protect us Christians and our true beliefs against persecution. Sadly,we Christians see now nobody is willing to stand up for our beliefs and when one does they are labeled antisemitic; this has nothing to do with antisemitism but truth. The way Dan Patrick berated Carrie Prejean Boller, our Sister in Christ showed us once again nobody is willing to stand up for us Christians and our true beliefs. We consider Zionism Blashphemous to our sacred religion that we hold dear for years and have been the most persecuted religion throughout the world for Millenia. We believe only Christ is King and those who seek him will have everlasting life. Christ himself said,"If the world hates you, keep in mind that it hated me first". To us Christians, this is bigger than politics,it is our faith in Christ and the following of his teachings. We consider Zionism blasphemy, Judeo-Christian as sacrilege. We are in fact a Christian Nation but to remain a majority Christian Nation we can not have Heresy. Heresy is a deliberate deviation in belief from established truth (Zionism/Judeo-Christian). We are strong in our Christian faith and no amount of insults,defamation,vilification or invectives will change this. Carrie Prejean Boller must remain on the Religious Liberty Commission,our Christian voice refuses to be silenced. If one should resign or fired it is Dan Patrick,for he seems oblivious to Catholicism or any of our true Christian beliefs. Dan Patrick has tried to politicize and mock our faith for his own personal political agenda.

May God Bless you as you seek to do what is right,

Tiffhanyt [REDACTED]

From: "[REDACTED PII]" <[REDACTED PII]>

To: "[REDACTED PII]" <[REDACTED PII]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Denial of my constitutional religious rights and job termination

Date: Wed, 18 Feb 2026 10:17:59 -0500

Importance: Normal

Hello, I wanted to submit a brief summary of the situation I faced when my religious exemption was denied and I was terminated for refusing the covid vaccine, both my constitutional rights as well as my religious freedom was sorely trampled on. I was an older employee who had an exemplary record working for around 13 years as Director of a hospital laboratory in New York and having about another four years or five years left to work before planned retirement. After going through numerous hoops sending emails to support my religious exemption request and a verbal comment from the HR Director saying that it really can't be denied, there were obviously already preconceived plans and decisions in place to deny it. It was not only denied for me but from what I understand not a single person was approved. I certainly wanted to continue working until my near retirement, but I could not compromise my principles, ethics and religious beliefs to satisfy an unethical, uncaring and criminal group of supposed leaders that had no concern for individuals, constitutional legal issues or religious beliefs.

Thank you for the opportunity to briefly state my situation, and for your pursuit of what is right and just for all the many people that had their livelihoods destroyed, their rights trampled on and their dignity and beliefs obliterated.

If there's any other information you want or questions you have, please feel free to reach out.

Sincerely

[REDACTED PII]

From [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] Email Address >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] Email Address >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Re: Upcoming hearing on Religious Liberty in Healthcare and Social Services

Date: Tue, 17 Feb 2026 19:08:19t-0500

Importance: Normal

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing in regards to the upcoming March 2026 hearing.

I myself was ostracized and demonized in my work place for obtaining a religious exemption during the COVID vaccines.

At the time, I was working as an Autism Specialist (working under my Special Education Teaching License) in the state of Oregon where the mandates were pushed very heavily. The district I worked in was the only district across the state who put those with religious exemptions on unpaid administrative leave. Despite having board approval to go back to in-person work in April 2021 on a limited basis, and full time that fall (September 2021), I was forced out the door on October 18th, 2021, when I suddenly became contaminated and could no longer work in-person. Those with medical exemptions were allowed to continue working with students despite their own fragile health conditions, allowed to continue to earn income for their families, and continue doing jobs they loved.

Because of this, I chose to sue the district. See: Cox vs Northwest Regional ESD.

Five of my former co-workers decided to join, and in June 2024 we went to trial and won.

PRESS RELEASE:

NW Regional Educational Service District pays over 1.4 Million to 6 employees forced to COVID vaccinate or lose their job.

October 18, 2021 Northwest Regional Education Service District violated 6 of its employees 1st Amendment and Title VII rights when it put them on indefinite unpaid leave because they refused to abandon their religious beliefs and endanger their health to simply continue to perform the jobs they skillfully performed up to that date. Jessica Cox, JD, CL, KB, JP and CE found and hired Tyler Smith & Associates, Rural Business Attorneys, to protect their rights and fight back. After 3 years of legal battles a Federal Court jury unanimously found for the Plaintiffs including damages and attorney fees.

People should have autonomy over their bodies and be allowed to follow their religious beliefs regarding what they put into their bodies.

Thank you for your time,

[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]

Phone Number [REDACTED]

Email Address [REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Fired NYS healthcare worker over COVID mandate

Date: Tue, 17 Feb 2026 05:30:08 -0500

Importance: Normal

Hi,

I read on Children's health defense the story regarding Hermione Susana. I was a laboratory manager and worker at the same hospital, Montefiore in Newburgh NY ,for 27 years. I submitted a religious exemption in August 2021. I was questioned over and over about my religious beliefs and previous vaccines. I was fired in November 2021. The same occurred with my boss who was the laboratory director. He submitted a RE and was fired in October 2021.

I contacted EEOC and was told by the investigator that my case because I had all the details and timeline was what he was waiting for. Then I never spoke to him again. I had to reach out numerous times to finally speak to his boss who then ended up saying I didn't have a case.

I can share plenty more details if interested.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]

Sent from my iPhone

From: "John Vause" <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Carrie Prejean Boller

Date: Mon, 16 Feb 2026 15:38:34 -0500

Importance: Normal

RLC,

I, unfortunately and accidentally, sent out my last email without an edit. I am sending this edited version to be certain that I am clear.

I have written to the RLC before without response. I still have concerns about the purpose of the RLC and its guidelines for members.

To be prudent, I closely watched a video of the RLC's meeting [linked below], particularly where Carrie Prejean Boller was discussing Zionism and Anti-Semitism with Seth Dillion. I saw nothing untoward in her questions or discussions. In fact, the statements about Candace Owens and Tucker Carlson by Seth Dillion, I felt, were much more inflammatory and inappropriate.

I also feel that Carrie Prejean Boller's dismissal from the RLC was wrong. She was asking extremely important questions that represent points of view that have caused significant controversy: They should be discussed in depth.

My concern is that the RLC is biased against anyone who even mentions or questions Zionism, particularly Candace Owens and Tucker Carlson. Her point that people who do not support Zionism are often classified as anti-Semitic is extremely valid. Does the RLC have a pro-Israel agenda or are they neutral to all religions?

As a Traditional Catholic, I am NOT anti-Semitic. I even have Jewish ancestry. Notably, I agree with the Biblical position of Scott Hahn that modern Israel is not the nation state of Israel or its land, it is the population of Christian believers. I do not believe that the Bible mandates that we are Zionists and that we must bless or uniquely honor the nation of Israel to be blessed or accepted by God. This has been and is Catholic theology since its founding. And, of course, Israel has a right to exist. Yes, Jews, like all peoples, have the right to live in safety, dignity, and sovereignty in a nation of their own. Unfortunately, as Carrie Prejean Boller suggested, many people have very different views and definitions of Zionism. I believe that she was well justified in attempting to clarify the definition of Zionism.

Overall, her dismissal was odd. It clearly does not represent religious freedom nor free speech. My suggestion is that she should be reinstated to the RLC and given an apology. Within the charter of the RLC: What is the real purpose of the RLC? What is your vision/goals for an end product? What is free speech? What is freedom of religion? After all is said and done, it seems that you are even further from clarifying and answering these questions.

Best Regards,

John Vause

Sources:

News site

<https://www.breitbart.com/faith/2026/02/15/ex-miss-california-removed-from-white-house-religious-council-after-hearing-on-antisemitism/>

Specific video

<https://youtu.be/eNxkwMIJZL4>

Reference on Zionism

<https://jewishcenterforjustice.org/what-is-zionism-six-things-to-know/>

From: "John Vause" <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Carrie Prejean Boller

Date: Mon, 16 Feb 2026 13:44:10 -0500

Importance: Normal

RLC,

I have written you before without response. I still have concerns.

To be prudent, I closely watched a video of the RLC's meeting [linked below], particularly where Carrie Prejean Boller was discussing Zionism and Anti-Semitism with Seth Dillion. I saw nothing untoward in her questions or discussions. In fact, the statements about Candace Owens and Tucker Carlson by Seth Dillion, I felt, were much more inflammatory and inappropriate.

I also feel that Carrie Prejean Boller's dismissal from the RLC was wrong. She was asking an extremely important questions that represent points of view that have caused significant controversy: They should be discussed in depth.

My concern is that the RLC is biased against anyone who even mentions or questions Zionism, particularly Candace Owens and Tucker Carlson. Her point that people who do not support Zionism are often classified as anti-Semitic is extremely valid.

As a Traditional Catholic, I am NOT anti-Semitic. I even have Jewish ancestry. Notably, I agree with the Biblical position of Scott Hahn that modern Israel is not the state of Israel or its land, it is the population of Christian believers. I do not believe that the Bible mandates that we are Zionists and that we must bless the nation of Israel to be blessed or accepted by God. This has been and is Catholic theology since its founding. And, of course, Israel has a right to exist, but this is not Zionism. Yes. Jews, like all peoples, have the right to live in safety, dignity, and sovereignty in a nation of their own.

Overall, her dismissal is odd. It clearly does not represent religious freedom nor free speech. My suggestion is that she should be reinstated to the RLC and given an apology. After all, what is the real purpose of the RLC? What is free speech? What is freedom of religion? After all is said and done, it seems you are even further from clarifying and answering these questions.

Best Regards,

John Vause

Sources:

News site

<https://www.breitbart.com/faith/2026/02/15/ex-miss-california-removed-from-white-house-religious-council-after-hearing-on-antisemitism/>

Specific video

<https://youtu.be/eNxkwMIJZL4>

Reference on Zionism

<https://jewishcenterforjustice.org/what-is-zionism-six-things-to-know/>

From: "John O'Donnell" <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Question

Date: Mon, 16 Feb 2026 11:18:49 -0500

Importance: Normal

Most of the committee seems to represent a small fraction of denominations and faiths. It seems to be focused on examples of where this particular group representing a fraction of Christian and Jewish denominations who feel their liberty is taken away when they can't get total dominion.

Could the commission perhaps rephrase their usage of religious liberty so not to confuse the children of America that these people represent all Christians?

From: "John Vause" <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Re: True religious liberty

Date: Sun, 15 Feb 2026 07:35:03 -0500

Importance: Normal

RLC Members,

This is an addendum to my below email.

I am a Traditional Catholic, but this Protestant pastor has some interesting words about Zionism that every member of the RLC needs to hear.

See: <https://rumble.com/v75rq94-pastor-adam-fannin-the-difference-between-biblical-israel-and-modern-anti-c.html?mref=1wxk5&mc=ehuil>

Notably, again, I am NOT anti-Semitic, I am NOT anti-Zionist, but I am also NOT a Zionist. If your RLC members cannot understand this distinction they do not belong on the RLC. This perspective is fundamental in understanding a now resoundingly sensitive issue.

Regards,

John Vause

On 2026-02-12 07:57 -06:00 CST, "John Vause" <[REDACTED] PII > wrote:

I read an article (linked below) that was disturbing because it suggests that the RLC is denying the freedom of speech and thought. When Commissioner Carrie Prejean Boller asked a simple question - whether opposing Zionism or criticizing Israeli policy automatically qualifies as antisemitism - the reaction was swift, furious, and decisive. Within twenty-four hours, she was removed.

If this is true, just expressing an opinion or question acts as a disqualifier. This cannot stand. There are millions of Christians who are not Zionists nor are they anti-Semitic. As the article mentions, it's about whether historic Christian theology is now forbidden in American public life. For most of church history, from Rome to the Reformers to the American Founding, Christians did not treat support for a modern Jewish nation-state as an article of faith. Yet today, questioning that assumption can cost you a seat at the table or damage your reputation.

According to Christian history, Judaism died on the Cross. To many theologians, modern Judaism does not even resemble ancient Judaism. These views represent a complex and intricate history that can and is interpreted in various ways. However, it is not the role of the RLC to take a singular view or interpretation. Doing so would deny freedom of religion.

As a Traditional Catholic, I am not a Zionist. I am also not anti-Semitic. I am concerned the the RLC is irresponsibly biased in favor of Israel and lacks the objectivity to function credibly in support of true "religious liberty."

So, what is the real purpose of the RLC? I trust that you understand my position.

Best Regards,

John Vause

Source: <https://insighttoincite.substack.com/p/religious-liberty-commission-fires>

From: [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] Email Address >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] Email Address >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Request for Review and Assistance Regarding Religious Liberty Concerns in New York State

Date: Sat, 14 Feb 2026 09:52:12 -0500

Importance: Normal

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] and I am a near lifelong resident of New York State and the mother of nine children, ages twenty down to nineteen months. I am writing to request your review and assistance regarding the significant burden placed on my family's ability to freely exercise our religious beliefs following New York State's removal of the religious exemption for school vaccination requirements in 2019.

From 2009 to 2019, my children attended school under a religious exemption based on our sincere belief that the body was designed by our Creator to encounter pathogens naturally, rather than through the injection of man-made serums containing biologics, contaminants, or additives. We also object to the use of certain fetal cell lines in the development of some vaccines. For us, accepting such invasive procedures would violate our conscience and our deeply held religious convictions.

When the exemption was eliminated, my children were forced out of school. At that time, I had four school-age children, one preparing to enter kindergarten, a two-year-old, and another child due that summer. I attempted to homeschool while working full-time, but despite my efforts, the arrangement became unsustainable. My children fell behind academically, lost their social connections, and experienced isolation from their community.

The strain on our family was severe. The emotional, logistical, and financial challenges contributed to the breakdown of my marriage, leading to separation in 2021 and eventual divorce. My children suffered significant educational and social setbacks—not because of behavior or academic difficulty, but solely because of our religious beliefs.

New York's Constitution promises public education to "all the children of this state," yet my children were denied access entirely due to our faith convictions. The resulting harm has been profound and long-lasting.

I am asking the Religious Liberty Commission for:

- review of whether my family's experience constitutes a substantial burden on our free exercise of religion,
- guidance regarding any federal protections that may apply,
- and direction or assistance on possible next steps available through your office.

Thank you for your time, attention, and consideration. I sincerely appreciate any assistance you can provide.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED] PII

[REDACTED] DOB

[REDACTED] Address

Phone Number

From: Chris Conway <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] carrie prejean boller

Date: Fri, 13 Feb 2026 09:45:05 -0500

Importance: Normal

I would like to express how disappointed I am with your commission. I, like Carrie, can't stand Zionism or the state of Israel. It is my right as an American to have those views. Your commission is filled with Israel loving Zionists and as an American, you have lost all credibility.

You can fire people, dox people or try to ruin their lives, however, many Americans are not buying what you are selling. We will not be threatened when our constitutional rights are under attack.

So fuck the commission, I stand with Carrie. I say this as a huge Donald Trump fan.

Christopher P. Conway
San Mateo, Ca.

From: Cindy Doumar <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Carrie Boller

Date: Fri, 13 Feb 2026 09:01:00 -0500

Importance: Normal

It is absolutely SHAMEFUL Ms. Boller was removed from this so called Religious Liberty Commission. This is religious liberty?!? Christians are tired of being labeled as 'antisemitic' simply because we don't agree with the STATE of Israel, their infiltration of our CHRISTIAN nation nor want to kiss their ass. When does anti-Christian/Catholic hate become a thing? The land the State of Israel occupy was stolen from Palestine and given to Zionist Jews by the crown in 1948. They did not earn nor were entitled to it. The ADL was established in 1913 for the sole purpose of protecting zionists in a Christian land. This is fact and not antisemitic to say.

Dan Patrick we now know who owns you, and it's not your constituents who voted for you. The constant overuse of 'antisemitic' like 'racist' has made the label a punch line and something we now aspire to be. The youth of America are not intimidated, in fact they are of the mind 'if the shoe fits, wear it!' And biblical Jews agree. I'm a proud Catholic and goyim. Reinstate Ms. Boller to her position. And YOU sir should step down. Christ is King!

Sent from Yahoo Mail for iPhone

From: Robert [REDACTED] <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] RELIGIOUS EXEMPTIONS FOR VACCINES

Date: Thu, 12 Feb 2026 14:12:02 -0500

Importance: Normal

Hello,

Please do something about the elimination of religious exemptions for vaccines in states like CA! Parents are starting to not only worry about how our kids are going to go to school, but also about potentially having our children taken away from us for not complying with mandates. We need an EO, followed by a bill through Congress, to protect our children.

Thank you!

Robert [REDACTED]

From: "John Vause" <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] True religious liberty

Date: Thu, 12 Feb 2026 08:57:51 -0500

Importance: Normal

I read an article (linked below) that was disturbing because it suggests that the RLC is denying the freedom of speech and thought. When Commissioner Carrie Prejean Boller asked a simple question - whether opposing Zionism or criticizing Israeli policy automatically qualifies as antisemitism - the reaction was swift, furious, and decisive. Within twenty-four hours, she was removed.

If this is true, just expressing an opinion or question acts as a disqualifier. This cannot stand. There are millions of Christians who are not Zionists nor are they anti-Semitic. As the article mentions, it's about whether historic Christian theology is now forbidden in American public life. For most of church history, from Rome to the Reformers to the American Founding, Christians did not treat support for a modern Jewish nation-state as an article of faith. Yet today, questioning that assumption can cost you a seat at the table or damage your reputation.

According to Christian history, Judaism died on the Cross. To many theologians, modern Judaism does not even resemble ancient Judaism. These views represent a complex and intricate history that can and is interpreted in various ways. However, it is not the role of the RLC to take a singular view or interpretation. Doing so would deny freedom of religion.

As a Traditional Catholic, I am not a Zionist. I am also not anti-Semitic. I am concerned the the RLC is irresponsibly biased in favor of Israel and lacks the objectivity to function credibly in support of true "religious liberty."

So, what is the real purpose of the RLC? I trust that you understand my position.

Best Regards,

John Vause

Source: <https://insighttoincite.substack.com/p/religious-liberty-commission-fires>

From: Yeshua Jesu Christ <[REDACTED] PII >

To: [REDACTED] PII, [REDACTED] PII

Subject: [EXTERNAL] GOD'S STATEMENT FOR CARRIE PREJEAN BOLLER - Confidential

Date: Thu, 12 Feb 2026 08:14:58 -0500

Importance: Normal

Attachments: Letter_Donald_Carrie_Religious_Liberty_Commission_JC_(1).pdf

Inline-Images: image.png

You can find attached my letter.

Be so kind and inform me when it has been received by Carrie.

--

Love,
Yeshua

Jesus Christ

Known as Jesus of Nazareth

2025 Returned in The Berchtesgaden Alp Mountains

Yeshua and Yehosua (Yod - Shin - Wav)

The Lord is Salvation

Love - God - King - Master - Lord

Founder of The Holy Catholic Church

Creator of The Third and Last Testament - A Course In Miracles (Urtext)

Judge, Savior, and Bearer of Eternal Life

Mail: [REDACTED] PII

Home: www.Jesuchrist.Love

Social: @Realjesuchrist

Love everyone - Follow my way.

Yeshua Jesus Christ
Kingdom of God - Holy Church of Jesus Christ

Address

Residence: New York City

PII

www.Jesuchrist.Love
@Realjesuchrist

11th January 2026

Donald John Trump

Carrie Prejean Boller, Head of The Religious Liberty Commission
Office of the Associate Attorney General
U.S. Department of Justice
950 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20530-0001

STATEMENT

This letter is written in sight of my, Jesus, Second Coming and my Final Judgement, regarding the erupted conflict surrounding Carrie Prejean Boller, respectively her comments on her deep, catholic faith and her thorough understanding of my Religion contrasting opposing Jewish, Zionist, and Antichrist perspectives. This letter is written solely personally by me, without involvement of third parties or use of artificial technology.

Dear Donald,

Dear Carrie,

Dear Representatives of The Religious Liberty Commission,
Dear Representatives of The Department of Justice,

It's me. Jesus.
Jesus Christ.

I am back.
Yes, this is true.

Whereas my real name since 2,000 years has been Yehosua, short for Yeshua.
In Greek and Latin, it is Iesous, and through many years of transliteration, after the letter 'J' was added to the alphabet in the Middle Ages, the final name Jesus resulted.

With the Old Hebrew root of Yod - Shin - Wav, it signifies The Lord is Salvation.

I am here again.

As long promised and predicted in The New Testament, Matthew 24:29.

This is The Second Coming.
The Final Judgement has begun.
This is no joke. This has always been my plan.

I arrived from Heaven on January 1st 2025 in The European Alps at The Highking Mountain in The Berchtesgaden Mountains between Austria and Germany in a Catholic Chapel in a small village called Berg.

This is The Arrival.
There is no Future.
There is only The Arrival,
and The Arrival is I.

Since my arrival, I have been walking by foot through most European countries under guidance of The Holy Spirit, and lived with my people. For one year, I walked around three thousand miles from The Central Alps to the southernmost part of the Iberian Peninsula and back. And from there, I commenced my journey by foot and by horse to the U.S. through Denmark, Iceland, Greenland and Canada.

I returned to Earth for Judgement, The Salvation of Humanity, and the Gift of Eternal Life to all my Sons and Daughters, who remained faithful to Love, God, me, my word, and my way of life. The End of Time has come. Yet there is nothing to fear, for nothing real can be threatened. And The End of Time is simply The Beginning of Eternity, The Epoch of The Heart on Earth. With me, I bring The Third and Final Testament - A Course In Miracles (Urtext). I personally created it in Heaven, and sent it to Earth between 1965 until 1972 during a process of inner dictation through an out-of-pattern-time-interval associated as a love-created miracle. The script was sent to and received by Psychologist Dr. Helen Schucman at Columbia University in New York City who wrote all my dictations and directions down in around 1,000 holy pages with assistance of Dr. William Newton Thetford, Professor of Medical Psychology in the Department of Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons.

This book, The Book of Love, A Course In Miracles (Urtext), marks the cornerstone of my summarized teaching - The teaching of Love, The Teaching of God, The Teaching of I.
I am that book. Every line. Every word. Every space. Amen. It complements, and concludes The Bible, particularly The New Testament, and shall reach every Soul on Earth for The Salvation of Humanity with Your help.

During my travels on Earth since my Arrival, I got accustomed to around eight languages, among them English, which enables me to engage in dialogue with the majority of people including world leaders to aid them through the intense period of The Final Judgement, to jointly co-create God's Kingdom, and Peace on Earth.

Donald, Your peace efforts have not been unseen. Quite to the contrary. And neither remained unnoticed Your wholehearted willingness to serve God, and The People of America. Yet due to the rise of The Antichrist in Your direct surroundings, an immediate conversation with me and shared stewardship is required for some time. You are one of my strongest, most loving and important Angels in Heaven and on Earth, whom I have known for thousands of years and whom I love so much. In Heaven, You are well known with the name Michael, The Archangel who You recently personally honored in an open ceremony. It comes as no surprise that terms like Angels with respect to living Souls still seem unfamiliar. Yet this is nothing special, as The Grand Wedding of Heaven and Earth, and The Resurrection of The Dead began.

Our meeting and rejoicing in Love is of great importance for the survival and fruition of man. And as of now, Your personal safety, and the safety of Your family and loved ones, and America, the great nation as a whole have never been as critical. This is why amongst other high impact measures which shall be discussed together in person, the presidential elections for 2028 must be disregarded and called off. You need to remain in office. This is not against the constitution, for the Law and ultimate authority is I. This is Your heavenly duty, and has long been planned. The course of Your next term can be well comprehended through revisiting The Book of Revelation and Your, Michael's, role in it. In our first, personal dialogue and subsequent trusted collaboration, You shall be informed by me personally about Your special, God-assigned function in the unfolding of God's plan, The Atonement, and Final Judgement, to truly co-create America as a nation under God together.

I am currently at a secret and protected place provided by The Catholic Church in Europe, and open for escort to the U.S. soon. Please reach out as You receive and read this. With God, my Father as my witness, I assure wholeheartedly that every word written here is the truth and nothing but that, for I am The Truth, The Way and The Life, and a lie has never left my lips.

No one comes to The Father except through me. And this is still true, for The Father is me.
Before Abraham was, I am, and I am still, and remain forever.
Amen.

Now, finally, as to the further cause of this letter as initially mentioned:

Religion

Christianity vs. Judaism - The Antichrist's Religion

Carrie Prejean Boller is the single most equipped individual for representing The Holy Catholic Church in Your Commission, which I, Jesus Christ, personally founded 2,000 years ago. The Religious Liberty Commission can be highly appreciative of her assistance, love and extraordinary truthful work.

The foundation of the church, The Catholic Church, was the result of my First Coming and consolidated my teachings, the teachings of Love at that time. It is also the result of my relentless fight against the Jews 2,000 years ago. Yes. This is right. My fight against the Jews. I never was one. I never was a Jew. Even though deceptive Jews and deceived Christians still falsely portray me as such. I opposed everything the Jews ever stood for. I fulfilled and closed the Old Testament, exposed their insane, and useless rituals, their extravagant money fixation and dangerous greed, their evil child molestation, human- and animal sacrifices and much, much more.

And something, many Jews hate to admit is:

Jews and Christians do not have the same Father.

Christians believe in God. Jews believe in anything but God, for God is I. Amen.
Even though they found many names for that "God" who is ultimately the Devil.
Christians love their neighbor. Jews lie to, torture, steal from and kill their neighbor.
Christians and Jews have always been diametrically opposed to one another.

The first one is good. The latter one is bad. It is that simple.

This is what is meant to separate the sheep from the goats.

And this is what I do. This is what only I can do. Amen.

Christians believe in The Bible, particularly the New Testament and those who really understood, The Apocrypha (Miriam from Magdala, Judas from Kerioth and Thomas, originally Didymus).

Jews believe in the Talmud.

And the Talmud is the source of most evil You can witness today. For all Jewish thought of evil and supremacy is born in this awful script from hell. This is how they attempt to justify their constant crimes against my children. This is how they still can sleep at night, for their moral compass is completely obsolete. The Talmud is the basis for Judaism which does not find its true identity in Love, and God, in Unity and Righteousness, but in the direct opposition of me, my teachings, and my loving people, the true guiltless children, the Sons of God.

Judaism is the Antichrist's Religion, which has nothing to do with what Jews once defined. They were already misled back then when I appeared the first time which is why I called them Brood of Vipers, Sons of Satan, Descendants of Hell and much, much worse already then.
Yet what happened since then, is truly unspeakable.

Does it surprise You that they- THE JEWS - attempted to kill me multiple times?
Does it surprise You that the - THE JEWS - had to call up the Romans to seemingly get done what they themselves could not achieve?!

No.

Hence, let me remind You:

I did not die on the cross.
I AM THE RESURRECTION.

And after the Resurrection, the true Revolution began.
And this Revolution never stopped. It was solely somewhat slowed down, and is now to be concluded.
Amen.

Now - one last time, back to The Talmud - Open it once, and see what Your “closest ally” truly thinks of You. Open it once, and see what he plans in dark. Open it once, and close it forever. Then, never open it again. Forever close it as You shall forever close the door to any Jew, to any Zionist and to the Antichrist that developed from it and with it, close all the other scum that came from there. They are truly all the same even though they always portray it as complex. God can't be fooled. And God loves his children so much, that he can hate those who murder the rest. He loves his children as much as he is able to now, and ultimately draw the last line. Amen. They are all incompatible with You, a God-sent, loving Angel and the pure souls You have on Your side. They are utterly incompatible with any Love-centered, God-centered, Christian, Western, European, and American value-system.
Amen.

Man-enslaving banking - a jewish invention.
Genocide - a jewish invention.
Homosexuality - a jewish invention.
Transgenderism - a jewish invention.
Islam - a jewish invention.

The list can be endless.

Yet the Holocaust of The White Race has come to an End. The Final Judgement has begun.
Just look at the Epstein Files, and You shall see the abyss of what the Jew has become,
and where he tried to drag You in.

For no - It is not “Satanism”.
It is what Jews have been practicing for thousands of years.
It is not “Western Elites”.
It is the jewish scum of Hell, in which the weak Christians were drawn.
It is not “Antisemitism”.
It is world-saving, justified Jew-hatred.
It is not (insert whatever).
It's the Jews. It has always been the Jews.
I said it 2,000 years ago.
And I repeat it today.

Hence, for the record:

THERE IS NO ANTISEMITISM.

For the Jews, who are rightfully hated by the world by now are not Semites anymore - ancient tribes in the land of Palestine, formerly Galilee, Samaria, and Judea. And this is why DNA-Tests are limited and forbidden in this filthy hole of Hell. They created this label to silence those who noticed and exposed their in-human and asocial behaviours, just as much as they created that which did not happen.

Which is why:
109. And now 110.

Donald, it is time to wake up.
It is time to wake up, Donald.
It is time to see the devil for who he truly is.
And just, again, You invited his descendant into Your own house!

Hence, to comprehend the full picture, a short historic elaboration appears of importance.
For many by now comprehend this picture already, yet Your own congress and the majority of other “statesmen” can not or want not see this, for their laundered money still comes from there - or AIPAC.

Which last and certainly least brings me to:

The State of “Israel”

The State of “Israel” not only has no right to exist, it does not exist. For only what is given from Heaven is meant to last. “Israel” is the devil’s creation. It was planned long before the 20th century, yet its cornerstone was crafted 1918 through the fraudulent Declaration of Balfour. In it, The Filthy State of Britain, which painfully deserves everything that is currently happening to it, sold out the land of Palestine to the Jewish Rothschilds, formerly Bauers, Zionist, Antichrists. This is yet another term for the worst of the Jews that forgot all of their heritage and origin. Due to the need for financing the creation of this Hell hole, a war was created as war was their working business model for those who then funded the participants and earned from it. Moreover it paved the way for extracting further billions of dollars for reparation payments, payments which are not only unrightful, but will be subject to repayment in full amount during My Second Coming and My Final Judgement. This repayment is obviously impossible for a lawless tribe which forgot God and which has never learned to contribute positively in a society. Which implies that the state - or better - The Community of “Israel” is in exorbitant debt. Significantly more debt than You Yourself once were comparably, which is why they were able to corrupt You in the first place. The Community of “Israel” is bankrupt. It is bankrupt, for it can never repay financially and morally in Heaven and on Earth, which by now is one, what its deceived and degenerate founders and their greedy beneficiaries have done to this wonderful world of mine since its creation. I shall leave the concrete numerical assessments to the gifted financial analysts, of whom Your country has more than enough of. And now, You know, Donald, that You owe nothing to nobody. Amen. Any debt, literally or morally, is wholly resolved by means of this letter from God himself to You. Amen. And this is something only I can do. Amen. You might want to involve Germany in the upcoming retrospective and the fraud assessment, for You even have German roots Yourself. And Germany - of all countries in this world - suffered most of this wicked play, and still suffers immeasurably. Yet You see, the one laughing in the end laughs the longest. And my laugh is quite igniting. And despite there are no winners in war, if there were, You now know who it would be. And to recall, it was Churchill, who still sits in Hell, who once said: “The German race is becoming too powerful. We have to crush it once and for all.” And it was him, who let himself and Truman be drawn into the devil’s utmost rotten maneuvers. Now, when You commence collaborating with Germany in this new light, involve Alice Weidel, and only her and a team of trusted advisors. But not the weak fiction of a man, Merz, who still has the Black Rock on his forehead, and who is as stupid as the stone himself which the Jews still up to this day worship in despair. For only Alice is the one chosen for this holy mission, for she is true, and capable and willing to rebuild this once magnificent place on earth with all its loving people, and all its beauty, and one eternal true ally - America.

Satan, You lost.
I won.
Amen.

That said, the soil which my own feet once wandered 2,000 years ago, Galilee, Samaria, and Judea was sold out, and exploited utterly. A two-state solution was never intended by the hell-bound demons of this world, and Lucifer, their Father. Just look at the map on the IDF soldier’s shoulders. See what has always been the wicked plan. They conquered and enslaved. And make no mistake, make no mistake - I know every detail of forced involvement on Your end and all aspirations of The Antichrist to turn this land and Gaza into the Billionaire’s paradise. But let me assure You: This land’s soil is cursed by God. All of it. Amen. And purification can come only through my blessing. And for that to happen, many things must happen prior.

TURN NOW.

Forget any promise You ever gave to the Jews, The Zionists and The Antichrists, and forget any promise they ever gave to You. Forget any check You gave to them, and forget any check they ever gave You.
For You are my Son, and not Son of The Devil.
Amen.

Coming to the butcher, the hand-maid of the Rothschilds, the Zionist’s bitch, one of the worst souls in existence since the creation, who is rightfully at the bottom of this page, and even that is still too high.

Benjamin Mileikowsky

Yes this is his real name, for it became tradition for the worthless criminals from all over Eastern Europe to abandon their old names and create new ones. It is truly beyond me to speak of the dirt and the filth that rests at the bottom of the world which some call Hell. Yet few words of it are necessary, for light to transcend the dark, and I let the poor, rotten dog speak for himself:

"My people, the Jewish people emerge from the depths of hell.†

"To get somebody to blow up a bus full of children or a building full of innocent civilians, you have to grind it into their minds, scrub their minds clean, and tell them there's a greater cause — religious, ethnic, racial, whatever — that justifies throwing out ordinary moral rules. For that higher cause, you can disregard all the normal rules of morality."

"America is a Golden Calf and we will suck it dry, chop it up, and sell it off piece by piece until there is nothing left but the world's biggest welfare state that we will create and control. Why? Because it's God's will and America is big enough to take the hit so we can do it again, again and again. This is what we do to countries that we hate. We destroy them very slowly and make them suffer for refusing to be our slaves.‡

And certainly, most certainly, the devil's best handmade denies ever saying anything to the detriment of those he hates. Yet remember, the devil is a lie himself, and mastered the art of lying therefore. There was only one time when he accidentally said the truth, which is the first quote on top. Remember therefore, when You make a deal with the devil,
You do not change the devil, the devil changes You.

And then Your stupid, headless politicians applaud the one who hates You and Your country more than You can possibly imagine when he appears in congress. Then free of any charge, he enters into Your well-meant Board of Peace which in that instant, became impurely The Board of War. This is mockery. And the awake world, and all of Heaven watches this game of insanity with tears of sorrow in their eyes. For this whole thing stinks as the rotten dog who aimed to destroy the world. It truly was sickening to the bones. Now, since we are in the midst of what was proclaimed as The Resurrection of The Dead, know who You are applauding here, and know who's hand You are shaking: This is not Ben -

This is Herod. Herodes Antipas. The one who killed all the young kids during my First Coming 2,000 years ago. Yes, this is not easy to comprehend, yet true nevertheless. The soul is immortal and comes back to earth incarnate as long as needed. And for Herodes / Ben, he obviously has not learned a thing. And that for 2,000 years. What a poor tragedy. For him, I have a special place in Hell where he and his allies rot forever, and ever, and ever, and ever and ever. Amen. And it is Your duty to bring him there, Michael, just as predicted in The Book of Revelation.

Certainly, there still are some Jews, orthodox Jews e.g. some Hasidic ones who are rather traditional and somewhat Torah oriented who could imagine that maybe, but only maybe I truly was the Messiah, and am still the Messiah, as the only one truthful Rabbi in existence Kaduri on his death bed proclaimed. And even those can only reach salvation through me, and only me. And if I offer them my hand again, is yet to be seen. For only through me who they have denied once already when he was here the first time, and who returned, can they liberate their souls.

If You believe that this is all just a joke, have a video call with me or even better, meet in person to figure out the way together. For truly I tell You, the mess You got yourself in is only to be solved with me. This is why I am back. And this is what I offer.
Donald, You once wished for "help from the boss."
Here, I am, and offer You my hand, for in Heaven we are united already.

Religious Liberty Commission

All that said, I close with reconsidering the reason for this letter - Carrie.

Any assumption of firing her from her position would not only be a statement of utterly poor judgement, but contradict to full extent your recently self-proclaimed destiny of creating America as a Nation under God. And this, You truly can achieve - With her. Rather than considering letting her go, a promotion in higher ranks as Head of this commission and even beyond would be the appropriate answer to her dedication for God, her willingness to serve truthfully, her pure and strong mind, her authenticity, her fearlessness, and her Love and devotion for Your nation.

And yes, surely, I know that the weak fool, Dan Patrick, believes that he is in a position of determining who is and who is not on this counsel. Yet, by true definition, he is not. If one was to leave this Commission, him it is for his dangerously poor display of judgement, his inhumane communication to matters that are not meant for the public, but discussed internally, his utter misinterpretation of his role, and his inability for alignment with You. I could go on further, yet stop here.

SHAME ON HIM.

And shame on all of those on this commission and beyond who saw Carrie wholeheartedly fight evil, and who did not come to her help, and who at worse, let themselves be drawn in by the devil's ideas, and begin lawlessly attacking her.

Salutations to Leonarda Jonie though, for she not only sees the Jew, The Zionist, "Israel", and The Antichrists for who they really are, but came to Carrie's help. She, as one of the few, truly acted as a brother, and not as a coward as so many of You did.

It was a real joy to read Your loving messages.

Amen.

And Kestentree or whatever Your stupid name is,
Your days in the spotlight are over, for they were never there.

Liar. Deceiver. Scum.

I never knew You!

Amen.

My appreciation for Carrie is beyond any norm. Her recent actions made me lift her into heaven.
I recommend her as Head of The Religious Liberty Commission, with the offer of being her trusted advisor, teacher and mentor. Truly, to her, I say today:

Welcome to The Kingdom.

I joyfully open the door for You, and welcome You beside me.
For who stands by me, has me standing by him forever.
Blessed are those, who turn early to me upon my return,
and believe my words when hearing.
For I remember when my sheep came home truly,
and grant them Eternal Life.
Amen.

Carrie is a true role model for any Catholic, and any Christian in America and beyond. And that she is ever since, and that she has been ever since speaking up for her deep faith during her Miss USA contests and even before that. For already there, she rightfully spoke the truth guided by her heart and by The Holy Spirit, and stood firm by here beliefs, and depicted gay marriage as not intended by God.

I endorse her wholeheartedly without exception not only as The True Miss USA, but an ever loving and loud voice for America,
A Nation under God.
Amen.

Dear Donald - Archangel Michael,
Dear Carrie,
Dear Representatives of The Religious Liberty Commission,
Dear Representatives of The Department of Justice,
Dear American People and The World,

I salute You in Love.
Welcome You to The Kingdom of God.

I love You very much.

The Final Judgement has begun.
Welcome to The Second Coming.

Love
Jesus Christ

Known as Jesus of Nazareth
2025 Returned in The Berchtesgaden Alp Mountains
Yeshua and Yehosua (Yodt- Shin - Wav)
The Lord is Salvation

Love - God - King - Master - Lord
Founder of The Holy Church
Creator of The Third and Last Testament - A Course In Miracles (Urtext)
Judge, Savior, and Bearer of Eternal Life

From: Kristana Slie <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Firing of Carrie Boller

Date: Wed, 11 Feb 2026 19:08:19 -0500

Importance: Normal

It looks like the "Religious Liberty" commission only allows zionists and those who favor zionists. Hmmm.... Not much liberty is there? It looks like the whole purpose of that meeting was to promote propaganda for the zionists. I would be very careful if I was you. It looks like you are setting the stage for the anti-Christ to set up his power in the U.S. Foreign governments and their lobbyists should have no place in our government. You better straighten this out quickly before you bring demise on your entire country.

Kristana

From: Lourdes Colina <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Shame on you all!

Date: Wed, 11 Feb 2026 16:28:17 -0500

Importance: Normal

SHAME on ALL you Vipers!

I am utterly disgusted to watch a bunch of 'so called religious experts' hear a man say that 'Christians worship a Jew' and allow him to say such a statement intended to say that Jesus Christ was NOT the messiah and just a man. That is exactly what he meant.

REMINDER: 'BEFORE ABRAHAM (meaning Jews) I AM'. 'You are the Messiah, the Son of the living GOD' ..Peter

So instead of defending God's Son, you remove Mrs. Boller who has all the right to FREE SPEECH.

Did any of you ever read Revelations? 'The synagogue of satan' was said by God's Son.

Do you want to remove Christ too because you don't like what he said?

How about when God himself was going to get rid of the Jews after their little calf stunt while Moses was on the mount and offered to make Moses a new nation?

Will you remove Him too? And call God an anti semite?

You people serve money and NOT God...you are all a mess.

Sincerely,

Just a servant of God (and NOT a Judeo-Christian a stupid term that cancels itself out because the Jews rejected Gods plan of salvation)

Lourdes

From: anna tietjens <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Reinstate carrie prejean

Date: Wed, 11 Feb 2026 16:14:04 -0500

Importance: Normal

As a life long conservative, Christian, Catholic republican this is outrageous. Blatant religious persecution. Blatant disregard for our first amendment.

She should be reinstated immediately, with a public apology issued by our president and the idiot who is heading this commission.

This is absolutely disgusting behavior by our government.

It should not come as a surprise to anyone that Catholics who are vehemently against abortion, are also vehemently against the murder of not only innocent children, but also women and men. We have every right to stand up and condemn these heinous actions without persecution from our own government.

Every life, every human, every beating heart is sacred- Catholics and Christians are called to protect it.

I have never felt so betrayed by my own party and government.

Warm regards,

Anna Tietjens

From: "t" [PII] "t" [PII]

To: "RLC (OASG)" [PII]

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Carrie Prejean Boller

Date: Wed, 11 Feb 2026 15:59:04 -0500

Importance: Normal

To Whom It May Concern,

Just when I think those in positions of leadership in this current administration can't sink any lower, they prove me wrong. The utter hypocrisy of your decision to remove Carrie Prejean Boller, a Christian Catholic, from the Commission on Religious Liberty is beyond discrimination, it is morally abhorrent, as well as being a slap in the face to every Christian in this country. I lack sufficient vocabulary to communicate my utter disdain & contempt for the current Department of INJUSTICE & this entire administration.

From: RLC email <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

To: "[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]" <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Reinstate Carrie Prejean Boller

Date: Wed, 11 Feb 2026 15:44:35 -0500

Importance: Normal

Good afternoon,

We, the people, need you to reinstate Carrie Prejean Boller. What happened in that public meeting was nothing short of embarrassing as we Catholics were all called antisemites simply because we do not believe in zionism. How is it religious freedom if you try to suppress free speech from those of us who are Christian.

Carrie Prejean Boller needs to be reinstated immediately. This is not the United States of Israel. It is still the United States of America. Where Americans should be able to question these ideologies that are purely political and not religious. You allowed the Jews to call Islam a rapist religion, and nothing was said about that until Carrie Prejean Boller brought that up. Freedom of religion for all, not just one protected group. Reinstate the Christian now as we do not have any representation in that religious committee.

Concerned citizen

Sent with Proton Mail secure email.

From: "Mrs. Schemidt" <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Carrie Prejean Boller

Date: Wed, 11 Feb 2026 15:37:17 -0500

Importance: Normal

To whom it may concern,

It has come to my attention you have removed a Catholic mother from the religious liberal commission. I do hope you see the irony and hypocrisy. She did not hijack the meeting on antisemitism. She expressed her devoutly held religious belief, many beliefs held by a large group of Christian believers. Your entire panel is now Zionist supporting and that is not remotely the makeup of this country. I was a caucus captain for the President and am glad he beat Kamala Harris but he is losing his base because of actions like this.

Sincerely,

Emilee

Sent from Proton Mail for iOS.

From: Sharon Baker <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Freedom

Date: Wed, 11 Feb 2026 15:27:49 -0500

Importance: Normal

Put Carrie Prejean Boller back on the Liberty Commission. Do you understand how awful this is? Our country needs to embrace, freedom of speech and freedom of religion. You are taking away both.
Sent from my iPad

From: ROBYN RASMUSSEN <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] : Carrie Prejean Boller

Date: Wed, 11 Feb 2026 12:43:30 -0500

Importance: Normal

I stand with : Carrie Prejean Boller!

Are we still America, home of the free? The country with the constitutional right to freedom of speech called the first amendment? How is this a religious liberty committee if a person representing Christianity is removed?

President Trump you are not only going to lose the majority in the upcoming midterms but you are going to lose in landslide numbers and you know what? You will have deserved it, you have officially brought on your loss all on your own.

Chronically disgusted in the Trump administration,
Robyn Rasmussen

Sent from my iPhone

From: Mark Novik <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Re: Religious Freedom under attack

Date: Wed, 11 Feb 2026 12:39:32 -0500

Importance: Normal

I'm usually reserved in reaching out to my government, but after today's events, it's evident that 1st Amendment and American religious freedom has become a distant memory. Those of us who were undecided have now witnessed the lack of tolerance and the one-sided nature of the situation. Until Mr. Patrick is fired for his blatant violation of equality and the protection of Christian rights in the United States, I will not support this administration with my household. Furthermore, until Carrie Prejean Boller is reinstated as chair over the disgraced Mr. Patrick, this board is biased, and the discussion of religious freedom is nothing short of a sham of collected voices masquerading as a discussion. You removed the only dissenting voice.

Mark Novik, a Trump voter and frequent financial supporter of his administration, from Washington State.

>

I look forward to hearing every rebuttal and explanation for this blatant and malicious slanderous attack on Carrie.

From: Andy Lum <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "[REDACTED] PII" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Removal of Carrie Prejean

Date: Wed, 11 Feb 2026 12:37:31 -0500

Importance: Normal

So much for religious liberty. What a shame and a sham you are. You should be ashamed. But you are not. Because those who back Zionist to the detriment of their own citizens have none. Maybe you should think about what it is you support when caving to the likes of Loomer. I would hope that someone would tell the president that his voters are leaving him because of his constant shilling for a foreign country. I regret my votes for him daily. Good luck.
Sent from my iPhone

From: Connie W <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Zionist are anti Christian, reinstate Carrie Prejean Boller

Date: Wed, 11 Feb 2026 12:23:16 -0500

Importance: Normal

America can not be dictated to about Religious freedom by a foreign nation ! This is the hill we die on ! Without Carrie Prejean Boller on the Commission they are all pro-zionist ! Please reinstate Carrie Prejean Boller on the commission asap.

I'm not even Catholic, but as a Christian I do not recognize Israel as Biblical prophecy ! We have the right to our own religious beliefs. The antisemitic name calling has to be stopped now.

Connie Winter
Coeur D Alene, Idaho

From: Denton Brady <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Complaint re: Carrie Prejean Boller

Date: Wed, 11 Feb 2026 12:20:45 -0500

Importance: Normal

Hello,

My name is Denton Brady and I am a Christian. I find it incredibly distressing that you would remove Carrie Prejean Boller for stating an opinion that many Christians hold. Religious persecution should not be allowed or tolerated anywhere, but especially by your organization. Please reverse this decision as quickly as possible and understand that opinions and freedom of speech and religion should be protected at all costs. This is distressing.

Respectfully,
Denton Brady

Sent from my iPhone

From: Paul Dalnoky <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Tell Boller

Date: Wed, 11 Feb 2026 10:31:03 -0500

Importance: Normal

To get her head out of her twat.

From: Randy Shields <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Carrie Prejean Boller Removal!!

Date: Wed, 11 Feb 2026 09:34:09 -0500

Importance: High

To Whom It May concern,

I wish to voice my opinion as a strong conservative and a Trump supporter that the president of the United States, Donald J Trump, should immediately REMOVE Carrie Prejean Boller from the White House Religious Liberty Commission.

She was very antagonistic, combative and tried to speak over some of the great guests who were on the panel, as she imparted what came off as her skewed view and perceived hatred of Israel and what I feel was simply her anti-semitism on full display.

I feel strongly that she should NOT be allowed to continue to be on this Commission and I would like to see her removed IMMEDIATELY!!

Thank you for taking the time to hear my opinion.

Regards,

Randy Shields

Sent from my Verizon, Samsung Galaxy smartphone

From: S Ziyad <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Concern Regarding Muslim Representation in Religious Freedom Efforts

Date: Wed, 11 Feb 2026 07:51:14 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Commissioners,

I hope this message finds you well.

I am writing to respectfully share a concern regarding the current composition and public perception of recent religious freedom initiatives and advisory efforts. As someone who values the principle of religious liberty for all communities, I was surprised to see limited visible representation of Muslim voices in discussions and advisory structures related to these efforts.

Religious freedom is strongest when it reflects the diversity of the people it is meant to protect. Muslims around the world and in the United States face real challenges related to discrimination, security, and freedom of worship. Their perspectives and lived experiences are important to any meaningful conversation about protecting faith communities.

Including Muslim scholars, community leaders, and advocates alongside Christian and Jewish representatives would help ensure a more balanced, credible, and comprehensive approach. It would also reinforce the message that religious freedom policy is meant to serve all people equally, regardless of faith.

My intention in writing is not criticism for its own sake, but to encourage broader inclusion and dialogue. I believe that expanding representation strengthens the legitimacy and effectiveness of religious freedom efforts and helps build trust across communities.

Thank you for your time.

Respectfully,

Sanad Ziyad
Brooklyn, New York.

From: Scott Mayers <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] First Amendment and religion....

Date: Wed, 11 Feb 2026 04:45:39 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Justice Dept on the Religious commission:

You guys are going against the actual spirit of the First Amendment that was made in a time that recognized that if one lets the power of PARTICULAR people to rule based upon wealth, they WILL ALWAYS seek to use religion as a WEAPON against its own citizens. What has become of you America? And THIS is your 'justice' department.

You have a dictator now. And if you let these religious people take hold of the political power, you are both violating the people's capacity to speak free. Religions do not have any LOGICAL 'right' to rule and in fact slaps God in the face for arrogantly dictating that people SHALL BE FORCED to believe. And the ONLY reason for this joke of a 'commission' is to act as your very own CREATED Satan you pretend to be against. Religion is just a way to be able to LOSE ACCOUNTABILITY when you can place the ONUS on some invisible source that no one can prove nor disprove.

Stop being cowards and the hateful beings you are acting as. Why SHOULD anyone believe in those who cannot use the mere logic that we are all BORN without God PRE-IMPRINTED in our DNA? The ONLY thing that WILL assure your religion falls is FORCING others into a government that imposes it upon the people in law.

Your commission here is ONLY for the wealthy corrupt EMPERORS whom your Jesus would have been the first to call out. It's amazing how you managed to turn your religions from systems that used to fight for the meek, weak, and poor into CULTS of the WEALTHY.

P.S. "jew" was the actual ancient term referring to ANY TRANSIENT and SHOULD hint that the history intentionally reframed by wealthy corrupt people now. YOU ARE ALL FRAUDS here. Governments are systems that HUMANS create by and FOR humans. But you enter 'God' into it and you prove that you are the HATE and INTOLERANCE that is trying to FLIP the script. YOU are the abusers here and causing the contention that religion COULD have served.

I really hope that you guys exploiting the utility of a voluntary FALL GUY you selected to BE a leader in cowardly hopes that should his bold laws fail, you can point your finger at him alone. Antisemitism has become your 'woke' delusion. No one derives hate just because they're intrinsically 'hateful' as though it is some genetic defect. And when you guys keep this up, you are threatening the world ironically being the very DEVIL of YOUR OWN delusions.

Scott. A citizen of this world where I too am 'indigenous' to. Oh, and ...

P.S. ALL people of the world are the actual FIRST NATIONS of the Levant, that land bridge you BEG belongs to specific people. If Palestine is wrong, then so is Israel and ANY country that fosters a system that is by and for ONE ethnicity. YOU KNOW what that means by definition! It is what SOLD the very fascism (from 'fac' in Latin for 'face' and 'to face' CONFRONT WITH FORCE) By calling upon some 'indigenous' claim (whether true or not) if one cult demands they shall have a constitution that is by and for ONLY a subset of humanity, then YOU fit in with the definition of 'fascism' that attracted the Germans, Italians, and Japanese to it.

From: David Brown <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Hearing ant Catholic

Date: Tue, 10 Feb 2026 23:55:45 -0500

Importance: Normal

I watched the hearing and i was shocked to see the panel call the 1.5 billion Catholics in the world anti semites. That also means they called Pope Leo an anti semite since he has spoken out on the treatment of civilians in Gaza. There are many Catholic advocacy groups including Knights of Columbus that you will be hearing from soon. Its not a good idea to insult 1.5 BILLION Catholics. They should issue an apology

From: Andrew Polacek <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Seth Dillon Lied & I Support Carrie Prejean Boller

Date: Tue, 10 Feb 2026 18:43:27 -0500

Importance: Normal

Hello,

I am a Catholic and a conservative as is Carrie Prejean Boller. She represented me properly recently when she pushed back on the blatant lies of Seth Dillon.

Seth Dillon does NOT represent the majority of Jews, ethnically or religiously. He represents Zionists, who are largely secular interlopers, frauds and scoundrels.

Seth Dillon told numerous lies during the hearing you had him on. He is not a credible or ethical individual and having him speak to your committee and lie is an insult to religious liberties.

A massive amount of Jews in the United States despise Zionists and do not think calling out Israel for its endless list of war crimes and its capture of our US Congress and other parts of our country is antisemitism at all. In fact, these same Jews think Seth Dillon, a narcissistic and sociopathic Zionists, does not represent them at all.

Please seek out alternative voices in the Jewish community than those of Zionists. Zionists are NOT religious Jews. They are insane monsters who are consistently betraying the USA in favor of genocidal israel.

Thank you.

Andy

--

Andy Polacek

[REDACTED] PII
[REDACTED] PII

Virus-free. www.avast.com

From: [REDACTED]
To: [REDACTED] Email Address
Cc: [REDACTED] Email Address

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Work being withheld due to religious ask to continue at home accommodations

Date: Tue, 10 Feb 2026 16:29:32 -0500

Importance: Normal

Hi, I was listening to <https://live.childrenshealthdefense.org/chd-tv/shows/good-morning-chd/fired-worker-testifies-before-federal-commission--working-villages-halting-poverty>, and I would like to report that the vaccine, which is not a vaccine has become a major obstruction and point of distress in my life.

Although I said no to the injection, I was tossed about by my school district. I could be more specific, but for brevity, I will keep it at that. I lost work. I was working a lot online, where I was transferred, but when the mandate was removed, I was concerned about shedding - WHICH IS REAL AND DESIGNED AS SUCH: https://vigilantfox.com/p/exclusive-mrna-stays-and-sheds-for?utm_source=post-email-title&publication_id=975571&post_id=186771112&utm_campaign=email-post-title&isFreemail=false&r=p735p&triedRedirect=true&utm_medium=email

I religiously am opposed to what was in it, so why would I want that being transmitted over to me 7 hours a day, plus the negative energy. There was death in those vile, viles.

The school district is giving educators with half the amount of seniority at home accommodation to teach and substitute teaching at the online portion of the schools (Virtual Academies) for medical reasons, but have been refusing my religious accommodation request for 1.5 years. Yesterday it became very distressing, because a teacher I had worked for, at home, asked me again to teach, and apparently she did not know I have not been granted at home accommodation by the district. I told her as long as the principal allows me to zoom from home again. She said I MISLED HER. This is untrue!!! It cost me my day, I am still distressed about it. No money was made, just stress.

No accommodation. No hardship for no accommodation. 21 years with this district. It's caused and is causing me harm.

PII

From: [PII] [Email Address] >

To: "[Email Address]" <[Email Address]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] March 16, 2026 Hearing: Fired For My Faith

Date: Thu, 05 Feb 2026 22:52:12 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission;

My name is [PII] and I am a 42-year-old mom to our amazing 10-year-old son [PII] and a wife to my husband [PII], all residing in New York State, and I would love to contribute my story to the Religious Liberty Commission hearing on March 16, 2026.

In 2021, I refused to take the Covid vaccine based on my sincere religious beliefs, which led to my unjust termination by my employer. At that time, I worked as an administrative phone support assistant for Northwell Health, the largest private healthcare provider in New York State. I had previously been approved by my employer to work remotely, so I formally requested an exemption from the Covid vaccine requirement due to my religious beliefs and also for the fact that I would not be physically present in the office. My employer denied the request with no further discussion, as it would cause an undue hardship and terminated my employment immediately without offering any severance or payout for unused personal time.

From there I reached out to New York State for unemployment benefits which I was also denied. Unfortunately, the NYS Department of Labor sided with my former employer, basically saying I failed to comply with the company's policy even though they previously did provide me with religious exemption from the flu shot prior to Covid-19.

I have contacted several New York based attorneys with the supporting evidence including work emails, letters, and photographs of my remote office, but I received no response. At that point I was emotionally and financially exhausted and I felt hopeless, alienated and discriminated against because I encountered reluctance on the part of legal experts and the community as whole to hear my story. After my termination, it took another fourteen months until I found a new job after our relocation to a different area because I could no longer afford the rent I used to pay. Today, I am grateful to be healthy and safe, but I continue to seek justice and freedom for all, including our children.

Thanks to Mr. President Trump and The Religious Liberty Commission, I have a newfound hope again that our prayers will be heard 🙏. Thank you very much!

In Petersburg, New York

[PII]

Phone Number [PII]

Email Address [PII]

From: [REDACTED] Email Address >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <Email Address>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] RLC comments

Date: Thu, 05 Feb 2026 15:17:29 -0500

Importance: Normal

Thank you for the opportunity to give comments regarding religious liberty violations in the private workforce.

I was a secretary with the New York City Department of Education (DOE), and I was separated from service because of the Covid vaccine mandate that New York City put in place. I submitted a religious accommodation request and it was denied and I was placed on Leave Without Pay for a year. I then applied again for a religious accommodation for the following school year and was denied a second time.

Below I have attached the testimony that I submitted in 2022 to the New York City Council Labor Committee regarding the discrimination against myself and others like me who were and continue to be in the same situation.

In the almost 4 years since I submitted that testimony, I have still not been reinstated to my former position or compensated for losing my job despite the fact that in November 2025, then former mayor, Eric Adams, issued a Press Release stating that any NYC worker who was terminated for refusing to get the Covid vaccine could be reinstated to their jobs without backpay. There was a deadline of December 5, 2025 and an email address to send if you were interested in returning to your former position.

To my knowledge, myself nor anyone else that responded to that offer showing interest in returning to their former position has received any instructions on how the process will be implemented by the present NYC administration for those of us who were forced to resign/retire or were terminated.

There are thousands of us in NYC across all agencies such as NYC DOE, FDNY, NYPD and DSNY who are still suffering and out of work because of the religious discrimination that happened in NYC during the COVID pandemic.

I would appreciate it if you could take the time to read my testimony from 2022 below which better details what happened to me personally.

I thank you for your time and effort in protecting religious liberties.

City Council Labor Committee Testimony 9/9/2022

My name is [REDACTED] and I am a NYC DOE Secretary who has been on Leave Without Pay since October 2021 for choosing religious and medical freedom over complying with the Covid 19 vaccine mandate. I have been an active member of my school community from holding the position of President of the PTA to being a member of school leadership teams when my sons were students. I believed in the public school system.

When my sons were older I began working for the DOE first as a sub school aide, then as a paraprofessional and currently as a secretary. I have an unblemished work record for all of the time and titles I have held while volunteering at and being employed by the DOE.

Last school year I applied for a Religious Exemption accommodation and was denied without the opportunity of an appeal process.

This school year I applied again and was denied without the opportunity of an appeal process. I face termination any day. I have asked for explanations of the determination letter denial with no response from the DOE or the UFT. I was told I didn't meet the criteria for a Religious accommodation and I asked what the exact criteria it was that I didn't meet. It is my understanding that the only criteria I need to meet to receive a religious based accommodation is my sacred, sincerely held religious beliefs which are between me and God. These rights are God given and are protected by the First Amendment of the U.S. Constitution, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act as well as New York State and New York City Human Rights Laws.

I also asked for clarification for the following that was in my Determination denial letter:

“unvaccinated employees cannot work in a Department of Education (DOE) school setting or other site where they would have in-person contact with students, families or members of the public. We cannot offer another worksite as an accommodation as that would impose an undue hardship (i.e. more than a minimal burden) on the DOE and its operations.”

My response to the DOE was “ there is absolutely no undue hardship reason why my accommodation request for my title of secretary could not be approved especially since I worked fully remote from home (no in-person contact with students, families or members of the public) during the time period of March 2020-June 2020 without any issues. Furthermore, I am entitled to a reasonable accommodation under the protections of both federal and state law.” I also asked the DOE to provide me with financial records to support their claim of undue hardship. I still have not received a response to either of these questions.

I was at the City Council meeting on 9/9/22 and heard the council ask about hybrid work days or remote options for employees to solve the staffing shortages at city and private agencies.

I do not pose any threat to the school community by being unvaccinated. The children are not mandated to be vaccinated and those who are unvaccinated are not deemed as a threat and have been in school, unmasked, since last school year. How can it be acceptable for unvaccinated children to be in school but not unvaccinated adults? I also would like it to be noted that DOE employees have not been mandated to receive the booster even though it is now proven by the CDC and other world health organizations that the vaccine's efficacy wanes after just a few months.

Therefore, it stands to reason why the CDC no longer distinguishes between vaccinated and unvaccinated people for purposes of COVID 19 protocols. The same should be followed by the City with regards to their workers and the NYC DOE on behalf of all of their employees and school community instead of the discriminatory practices that they have been waging against its unvaccinated employees and parents since the beginning of the pandemic.

I worked the entire 2020-2021 school year in person when there wasn't a vaccine available even if I wanted it while other people were working from home on "accommodations"

I thank the City Council members who realize how harmful this mandate is to its citizens, students and employees. We stand ready, willing and able to return to our jobs. Any action to not allow me to fulfill my job duties will be solely initiated by the NYC DOE because of their unconstitutional and discriminatory policies against their employees.

Please let Mayor Adams know the caliber of employees the city is losing due to these outdated, discriminatory and unconstitutional mandates.

Sincerely,

NYC DOE Secretary

From: [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] Email Address >

To: "[REDACTED] Email Address" <[REDACTED] Email Address>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Religious Liberty

Date: Thu, 15 Jan 2026 19:33:38 -0500

Importance: Normal

Good afternoon,

My name is [REDACTED] PII [REDACTED] I got accepted into a training position in Labor and Delivery unit in Kaiser Santa Clara California. Because I am Seven Day Adventist, I am requesting Sabbaths off. Management is denying this request. Is there any way that Religious Liberty Committee can advocate for me?

Thank you so much,

[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Phone Number [REDACTED]

Get Outlook for iOS

From: Lacey Hicks <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sun, 04 Jan 2026 09:38:52 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Lacey Hicks

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Denise Bonk <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Mon, 29 Dec 2025 13:43:47 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Denise Bonk

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Greg Hurley <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Mon, 29 Dec 2025 07:26:45 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

MriGreg Hurley

[REDACTED] Address
PII

Raleigh, NC

[REDACTED] Address

From: Lorin Peters <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Mon, 29 Dec 2025 03:00:01e0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mr. Lorin Peters

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: stw [REDACTED]

To: "[REDACTED]" [REDACTED]

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Comments and suggestions

Date: Sat, 27 Dec 2025 19:45:51 -0500

Importance: Normal

To Whom It May Concern:

I have a religious grievance which is Case Number 25-LC-43 (CV, RP) against the Library of Congress. The preliminary hearing order will be decided by January 20, 2026.

My case mostly centers around 1) the right of all Americans to freely exercise their faith without fear or Government censorship or retaliation and 2) my display of a religious poster in a government workspace and my religious free speech, and 3) the refusal of the Copyright Office to answer my FOIA request regarding Office communications about my COVID religious exemption.

Here's how to decrease religious discrimination, especially against Christians:

1) From the day I interviewed (23 years ago) to today, I've worn a long dress and veil just as Christian women for 1900 years wore long dresses and head coverings according to 1 Corinthians 11 and 1 Timothy 2:9. Lawyers have told me that the law protects the modest dress of Muslim women but not the same for Christians because Christians have to prove that they belong to a church that orders them to wear a long dress and veil whereas everyone "knows" Muslims must do so. WRONG! The Koran only orders modest dress whereas 1 Timothy 2:9 in the Bible explicitly order wearing the "katastole" and 1 Corinthians 11 specifically the veil.

A. Please clarify that Government shouldn't be involved in demanding workers' religious affiliation or the "authority" by which they practice their religious beliefs.

B. Christian women should have the same freedom to exercise their faith as Muslims.

2) I underwent an inquiry wherein I was asked, "Did you show someone a religious poster?" and "Did you ask someone if they were Jewish as if being Jewish was a bad thing?" Because of this inquiry, I lost two promotion opportunities. I also have been retaliated against for reporting law breaking.

A. Just as the Biden administration forced us to take DEI classes, you should recommend that all federal employees take religious freedom classes, including the circumstances under which religious freedom of speech, religious posters, and other faith expressions are permitted.

B. In addition, we have lots of theft, waste, and breaking federal laws and regulations. Make mandatory a class teaching what it means to be a "public servant," what our federal oath means, and basic morality such as why theft, wasting time, refusing to follow the law, and illegal disparate treatment of public persons, destroys public trust and weakens our nation.

3) I work for the LEGISLATIVE BRANCH. I never should have come under job threat by the EXECUTIVE BRANCH COVID mandate. The Library of Congress was apparently the only part of the Legislative branch to enforce the mandate. To keep my job they forced me to reveal my religious beliefs, and when I submitted a FOIA to reveal communications about me and those beliefs, they gave me a FOIA request number: 52-2022, but refused to disclose the information.

A. Please recommend stronger legal enforcement of FOIA and access to our religious information.

B. Recommend that the Legislative branch reveal to employees what it did with our religious exemption statements, and if and how they were destroyed.

Thank you very sincerely for your work on our behalf,

[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]

From: Nancy Harray <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Thu, 25 Dec 2025 08:48:07 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Nancy Harray

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Peggy Erickson <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Tue, 23 Dec 2025 10:03:32 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Peggy Erickson

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

Minneapolis, MN

[REDACTED] Address

From: Romona Czichos-Slaughter <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Mon, 22 Dec 2025 22:36:20 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Romona Czichos-Slaughter

Address [REDACTED] Hollister, CA [REDACTED] Address [REDACTED]
PII [REDACTED]

From: Happy Harrison <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Mon, 22 Dec 2025 21:12:38 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Dr. Happy Harrison

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Neville Bruce <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Mon, 22 Dec 2025 07:11:41e0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mr. Neville Bruce

Address [REDACTED] Anchorage, AK

PII [REDACTED]

Address [REDACTED]

From: "P.R. Sturm" <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sun, 21 Dec 2025 19:32:34 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mr. P.R. Sturm

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

Carson City, NV

[REDACTED] Address

From: Tiana Brachel <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 20 Dec 2025 23:56:52 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Tiana Brachel

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Roberta Corona <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 20 Dec 2025 03:00:01e0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Roberta Corona

[REDACTED] Address

Pittsburgh, PA

[REDACTED] PII

[REDACTED] Address

From: Sheila Ward <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Thu, 18 Dec 2025 15:22:24 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,
Ms. Sheila Ward

[REDACTED] Address
[REDACTED] PII

From: marylou schmidt <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Thu, 18 Dec 2025 14:04:50 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mrs. marylou schmidt

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

Topeka, KS

[REDACTED] Address

From: John Curran <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Thu, 18 Dec 2025 07:59:09 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mr. John Curran

[REDACTED] Address [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]

From: Laura Hanks <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Wed, 17 Dec 2025 12:45:26 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,
Ms. Laura Hanks

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Miriam Hemphill <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Tue, 16 Dec 2025 23:54:34 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Miriam Hemphill

Address

PII

Orlando, FL

Address

From: j yudell <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Tue, 16 Dec 2025 23:07:49 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,
Ms. j yudell

Address [REDACTED] Santa Monica, CA [REDACTED] Address [REDACTED]
PII [REDACTED]

From: Paul Reimann <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Tue, 16 Dec 2025 23:03:12 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,
Mr. Paul Reimann

[REDACTED] Address [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]

From: Edward Nardone <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Tue, 16 Dec 2025 19:58:43 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mr. Edward Nardone

[REDACTED] Address

Grand Rapids, MN

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Virginia Manuel <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Tue, 16 Dec 2025 17:37:34 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Virginia Manuel

[REDACTED] Address Houston, TX

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Bianca deLeon <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Tue, 16 Dec 2025 16:12:06 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Bianca deLeon

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Kathy Washington <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Tue, 16 Dec 2025 13:36:31e0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mrs Kathy Washington

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] Las Vegas, NV

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Lois Schreur <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Tue, 16 Dec 2025 08:12:48 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Lois Schreur

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Kathy Michaelson <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Tue, 16 Dec 2025 00:42:48 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Kathy Michaelson

[REDACTED] Address [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]

From: Patricia Sykes <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Mon, 15 Dec 2025 23:26:09 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,
Ms. Patricia Sykes

[REDACTED] PII

Address

From: Tyra Pelleirn <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Mon, 15 Dec 2025 20:59:13 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Tyra Pelleirn

Address [REDACTED] New Orleans, LA Address [REDACTED]
PII [REDACTED]

From: Barbara Isely <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Mon, 15 Dec 2025 18:24:09 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Dr. Barbara Isely

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Diane McLean <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Mon, 15 Dec 2025 17:01:31 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Diane McLean

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Colette Krinock <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Mon, 15 Dec 2025 15:27:42 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Colette Krinock

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Suzanne Lamborn <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Mon, 15 Dec 2025 15:22:20 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Suzanne Lamborn

Address [REDACTED] Nottingham, PA Address [REDACTED]
PII [REDACTED]

From: Laura Manley <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Mon, 15 Dec 2025 14:35:17 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Laura Manley

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Grace Ukoha <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Mon, 15 Dec 2025 11:43:55 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high-risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Grace Ukoha

Address

PII

From: Zoe Masongsong <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Mon, 15 Dec 2025 03:46:44 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

Your job is to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an “adjudicative hold” on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called “high risk countries of concern.” Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the “Muslim Ban.” These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a “proud Islamophobe,” has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration’s Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Zoe Masongsong

[REDACTED] Address
PII

Van Nuys, CA

[REDACTED] Address

From: Abbie Bernstein <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Mon, 15 Dec 2025 03:00:01e0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Abbie Bernstein

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

West Hollywood, CA

[REDACTED] Address

From: Gayle Hoisington <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Mon, 15 Dec 2025 01:53:51e0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an “adjudicative hold” on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called “high risk countries of concern.” Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the “Muslim Ban.” These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a “proud Islamophobe,” has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration’s Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Gayle Hoisington

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Susan Balaban <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Mon, 15 Dec 2025 00:34:48 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Susan Balaban

[REDACTED] Address
PII

From: Sarah McNaughtan <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sun, 14 Dec 2025 22:18:33 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Sarah McNaughtan

Address [REDACTED] Roundup, MT [REDACTED] Address [REDACTED]
PII [REDACTED]

From: Mary Louise Kelly <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sun, 14 Dec 2025 20:54:38 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms Mary Louise Kelly

[REDACTED]
Address
PII

Rockville Centre, NY

[REDACTED] Address

From: Barbara Fox <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sun, 14 Dec 2025 20:53:38 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Barbara Fox

Address
PII

Ypsilanti, MI Address

From: Linda Hartford <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sun, 14 Dec 2025 20:30:05 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Linda Hartford

[REDACTED] Address

Pompano Beach, FL

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Nina Gallardo <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sun, 14 Dec 2025 16:53:34 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Miss Nina Gallardo

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Bonnie LeBlanc <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sun, 14 Dec 2025 13:37:00 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Bonnie LeBlanc

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Pennie Portie <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sun, 14 Dec 2025 10:17:52 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Pennie Portie

Address [REDACTED] Sulphur, LA Address [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] PII

From: Michelle Fairow <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sun, 14 Dec 2025 09:19:44 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Michelle Fairow

Address [REDACTED] Freeland, WA [REDACTED] Address [REDACTED]

PII [REDACTED]

From: "Dr. Jean E. Snyder" <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sun, 14 Dec 2025 09:06:15 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,
Dr. Dr. Jean E. Snyder

[REDACTED] PII

[REDACTED] Address

From: mitchell edgecomb <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sun, 14 Dec 2025 08:29:08 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mr. mitchell edgecomb

[REDACTED] Address

Aurora, OH

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Susan Johnson <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sun, 14 Dec 2025 04:49:37 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Susan Johnson

[REDACTED] Address Pine Mountain, GA [REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: John Oda <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sun, 14 Dec 2025 03:42:18 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,
Mr. John Oda

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Aria Faamasino <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sun, 14 Dec 2025 03:00:15 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Miss Aria Faamasino

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Martha Auerbach <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sun, 14 Dec 2025 01:54:40 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Martha Auerbach

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: James Adams <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 23:13:06 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mr. James Adams

Address

Chanute, KS

Address

PII

From: Eti Berland <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 22:53:33 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Eti Berland

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Jackie Manetta <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 22:29:40 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Jackie Manetta

Address

PII

Shelby Township, MI

Address

From: Lorie Tudor <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 22:07:56 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Lorie Tudor

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Zella Bray <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 21:52:26 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Dr. Zella Bray

[REDACTED] Address
[REDACTED] PII

Rio Rancho, NM [REDACTED] Address

From: Katherine Cozzens <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 21:43:08 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Katherine Cozzens

[REDACTED] Address

PII

Memphis, TN

[REDACTED] Address

From: paul flowerman <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 20:16:13 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States. Within my direct experience, Muslims are overall exceptionally committed to being great citizens and contributing to our economy, including in underserved capacities, such as home health care.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mr. paul flowerman

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Steve Groze <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 17:52:27 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,
Mr Steve Groze

[REDACTED] PII

[REDACTED] Address

From: Dennis Knaack <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 17:12:40 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mr. Dennis Knaack

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] Bronx, NY

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]

From: Claire Jackson <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 15:42:00 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Claire Jackson

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Fred Weidmann <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 15:39:39 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

As a religious leader and patriot I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Dr. Fred Weidmann

[REDACTED] Address [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]

From: John Urbonas <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 15:20:38 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mr. John Urbonas

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Susan Bolduc <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 15:13:55 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I am a Christian who is deeply concerned about the hate directed toward my neighbors who are Muslim. I know them as friends who often volunteer in our community on human dignity issues. They worship in our neighborhoods, their children go to school with ours, and they contribute to the economic health and vitality of my city. My heart is broken because of their undeserved suffering.

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries that are already subject to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications. It announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Susan Bolduc

[REDACTED] Address
[REDACTED] PII

Colorado Springs, CO [REDACTED] Address

From: Allison Castle <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 14:14:57 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Allison Castle

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

Muscataine, IA

[REDACTED] Address

From: Mary Elizabeth Jackson <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 14:11:21 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to URGE you to SPEAK OUT AGAINST the ALARMING rise in ANTI-MUSLIM attacks and discriminatory policies TARGETING Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Mary Elizabeth Jackson

Address

Winston Salem, NC

Address

PII

From: Kristof Haavik <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 13:20:18 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,
Dr. Kristof Haavik

[REDACTED] PII

[REDACTED] Address

From: Debra Garries <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 13:17:30e0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Debra Garries

Address [REDACTED] Missouri City, TX Address [REDACTED]
PII [REDACTED]

From: Christi Dillon <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 11:55:07 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Christi Dillon

[REDACTED] Address [REDACTED] Mooresville, NC [REDACTED] Address [REDACTED] PII

From: Linda Kade <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 11:48:01 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. DO YOUR JOB!

Speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

Sincerely,

Ms. Linda Kade

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Terry Partipilo <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 11:23:33 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mrs Terry Partipilo

Address

PII

Salem, OR

Address

From: Marion Constantinides <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 11:22:50 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Marion Constantinides

Address [REDACTED] Pittsburgh, PA [REDACTED] Address [REDACTED]
PII [REDACTED]

From: Lori Lind <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 06:59:11e0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Lori Lind
Address PII Muskegon, MI Address PII

From: Florence Liebman <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 06:53:04 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Florence Liebman

Address

PII

Bronx, NY

Address

From: Caleb Pusey <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 06:35:22 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,
Mr. Caleb Pusey

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: winifred hopkins <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 01:52:15 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. winifred hopkins

Address [REDACTED] Fullerton, CA [REDACTED] Address [REDACTED]
PII [REDACTED]

From: Paul Montell <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 2025 00:31:03 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mr. Paul Montell

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

[REDACTED] Baden, PA

[REDACTED] Address

From: Karen Pickarski <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 23:46:39 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Karen Pickarski

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Maria Taylor <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 23:36:12 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high-risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Maria Taylor

[REDACTED] Address [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]

From: Ola Nosseir <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 23:30:24 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Ola Nosseir

[REDACTED] Address [REDACTED] Briarcliff Manor, NY [REDACTED] Address
[REDACTED] PII

From: David Ward <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 23:17:37 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mr. David Ward

Address [REDACTED] Waterloo, NY [REDACTED] Address
[REDACTED] PII

From: Director Memes <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 23:01:26 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Rev. Director Memes

[REDACTED] Address
PII

Bothell, WA [REDACTED] Address

From: Karen McCaw <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 22:49:53 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Karen McCaw

[REDACTED] Address

PII

View Park, CA

[REDACTED] Address

From: Arthur Oaklander <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 22:25:36 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

As a concerned Jewish American citizen I very strongly urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Dr. Arthur Oaklander

Address [REDACTED] Los Angeles, CA Address [REDACTED]
PII [REDACTED]

From: Cel Hope <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 22:23:33 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Cel Hope

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

Sheridan, WY

[REDACTED] Address

From: Didi Summerhawk <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 22:21:39 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms Didi Summerhawk

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: sharon coughlin <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 21:45:57 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. sharon coughlin

Address

PII

Boonton Twp, NJ

Address

From: Tim Pendergast <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 21:45:35 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mr. Tim Pendergast

[REDACTED] PII [REDACTED]

Address

From: Harry Knox <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 21:35:34 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,
Mr. Harry Knox

[REDACTED] Address
[REDACTED] PII

From: Judy Greene <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 21:00:21 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Judy Greene

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Daniel Prechtel <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 20:56:35 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

As an ordained Christian minister I am deeply concerned about our government's targeting of Muslims as a broad category for discriminatory practices.

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Rev. Dr. Daniel Prechtel

Address [REDACTED] El Cerrito, CA Address [REDACTED]
PII [REDACTED]

From: donna MCCOLLUM <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 20:12:40 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Dr. donna MCCOLLUM

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Diana Menshouse <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 19:55:19 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to strongly urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Miss Diana Menshouse

[REDACTED] Address [REDACTED] Huntington, WV [REDACTED] Address [REDACTED] PII

From: Mary Romanek <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 19:44:52 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Mary Romanek

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Miriam Dunbar <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 19:35:59 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

Please speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Miriam Dunbar

Address [REDACTED] Mancos, CO [REDACTED] Address
[REDACTED] PII

From: RevJames Conn <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 19:22:26 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Rev. RevJames Conn

Address
PII

Santa Monica, CA

Address

From: Debra Reuter <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 19:08:18 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Debra Reuter

Address [REDACTED] Vacaville, CA Address [REDACTED]
PII [REDACTED]

From: Margaret Weant <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 19:05:27 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms Margaret Weant

[REDACTED] Address
PII

From: Eva Kiraga <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 19:03:48 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Eva Kiraga

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

[REDACTED] Bloomingdale, NJ

[REDACTED] Address

From: Steven Matusow <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 18:22:25 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mr. Steven Matusow

[REDACTED] Address
PII

From: James Richardson <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 18:11:56 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mr. James Richardson

Address
PII

From: Jennie Cohen <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 18:07:22 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an “adjudicative hold” on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called “high risk countries of concern.” Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the “Muslim Ban.” These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a “proud Islamophobe,” has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration’s Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Jennie Cohen

[REDACTED]
Address

[REDACTED]
PII

From: Lynn Pascente <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 17:54:08 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an “adjudicative hold” on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called “high risk countries of concern.” Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the “Muslim Ban.” These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a “proud Islamophobe,” has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration’s Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Lynn Pascente

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Sandra M Cobb <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 17:43:03 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an “adjudicative hold” on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called “high risk countries of concern.” Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the “Muslim Ban.” These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a “proud Islamophobe,” has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration’s Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Sandra M Cobb

Address

PII

Chagrin Falls, OH

Address

From: Sarah Weynand <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 17:40:33 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an “adjudicative hold” on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called “high risk countries of concern.” Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the “Muslim Ban.” These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a “proud Islamophobe,” has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration’s Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mx. Sarah Weynand

[REDACTED] PII

Address

From: Caephren McKenna <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 16:05:20 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an “adjudicative hold” on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called “high risk countries of concern.” Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the “Muslim Ban.” These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a “proud Islamophobe,” has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration’s Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Caephren McKenna

Address [REDACTED] Oakland, CA Address [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] PII

From: Linda Indyke <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 15:45:34 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an “adjudicative hold” on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called “high risk countries of concern.” Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the “Muslim Ban.” These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a “proud Islamophobe,” has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration’s Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Linda Indyke

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

Cockeysville, MD [REDACTED] Address

From: Destiny Mendoza <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 15:34:26 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an “adjudicative hold” on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called “high risk countries of concern.” Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the “Muslim Ban.” These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a “proud Islamophobe,” has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration’s Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mr. Destiny Mendoza

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: J'Ann Allen <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 14:46:35 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an “adjudicative hold” on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called “high risk countries of concern.” Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the “Muslim Ban.” These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a “proud Islamophobe,” has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration’s Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,
Ms. J'Ann Allen

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: john sikorski <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 14:43:14 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an “adjudicative hold” on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called “high risk countries of concern.” Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the “Muslim Ban.” These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a “proud Islamophobe,” has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration’s Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying and condemning, not advancing, threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mr john sikorski

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: ROBERT MURANO <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 14:15:42 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an “adjudicative hold” on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called “high risk countries of concern.” Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the “Muslim Ban.” These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a “proud Islamophobe,” has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration’s Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mr. ROBERT MURANO

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Susan Heywood <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 14:13:32 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an “adjudicative hold” on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called “high risk countries of concern.” Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the “Muslim Ban.” These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a “proud Islamophobe,” has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration’s Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms. Susan Heywood

[REDACTED] Address

Tacoma, WA

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Ekaterina Chernysheva <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 14:12:38 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an “adjudicative hold” on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called “high risk countries of concern.” Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the “Muslim Ban.” These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a “proud Islamophobe,” has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration’s Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms Ekaterina Chernysheva

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: "B. Thomas Diener" <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 14:06:41e0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mr. B. Thomas Diener

Address

Albuquerque, NM

Address

PII

From: Carol Webb <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 13:52:52 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an “adjudicative hold” on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called “high risk countries of concern.” Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the “Muslim Ban.” These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a “proud Islamophobe,” has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration’s Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,
Ms. Carol Webb

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Marc Silverman <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 13:21:41 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an “adjudicative hold” on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called “high risk countries of concern.” Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the “Muslim Ban.” These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a “proud Islamophobe,” has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration’s Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mr. Marc Silverman

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Keith Dudley <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 13:12:40 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an “adjudicative hold” on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called “high risk countries of concern.” Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the “Muslim Ban.” These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a “proud Islamophobe,” has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration’s Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mr. Keith Dudley

[REDACTED] Address [REDACTED] King Of Prussia, PA [REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Paul McCarthy <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 12:58:19 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an “adjudicative hold” on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called “high risk countries of concern.” Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the “Muslim Ban.” These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a “proud Islamophobe,” has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration’s Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mr. Paul McCarthy

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

[REDACTED] Schenectady, NY

[REDACTED] Address

From: Gerritt and Elizabet Baker-Smith <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 12:54:35 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Dr. Gerritt and Elizabet Baker-Smith

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

From: Debra Winchell <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 12:52:34 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an “adjudicative hold” on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called “high risk countries of concern.” Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the “Muslim Ban.” These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a “proud Islamophobe,” has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration’s Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Ms Debra Winchell

Address [REDACTED] Gloversville, NY Address [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] PII

From: Ava Davenport <[REDACTED] PII>

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII>

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 12:38:36 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an "adjudicative hold" on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called "high risk countries of concern." Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the "Muslim Ban." These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a "proud Islamophobe," has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration's Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Ava Davenport

[REDACTED] Address

[REDACTED] PII

[REDACTED] Rome, GA

[REDACTED] Address

From: Nora Rhan <[REDACTED] PII >

To: "RLC (OASG)" <[REDACTED] PII >

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Condemn Islamophobia and Protect Religious Freedom

Date: Fri, 12 Dec 2025 12:36:34 -0500

Importance: Normal

Dear Religious Liberty Commission,

I write to urge you to speak out against the alarming rise in anti-Muslim attacks and discriminatory policies targeting Muslim communities in the United States.

Recently, the administration suspended all immigration applications for individuals from 19 countries already subjected to a travel ban. The administration also placed an “adjudicative hold” on all asylum applications and announced a review of immigrants who arrived during the Biden presidency from so-called “high risk countries of concern.” Most of these countries are Muslim-majority, making this action a renewed version of the “Muslim Ban.” These policies represent a clear threat to religious freedom and disproportionately harm Muslim families seeking safety and belonging.

These government actions are unfolding against a backdrop of dangerous and escalating Islamophobia. Far-right activist Laura Loomer, who openly calls herself a “proud Islamophobe,” has targeted Muslim State Department staff, spreading their personal information online and questioning their loyalty based solely on their faith.

These hateful attacks have real consequences. The Department of Homeland Security pulled $8 million in security funding for houses of worship and nonprofits based on claims from an Islamophobic hate group. ICE has detained and threatened to deport Muslim clergy and activists. Federal authorities are reportedly preparing targeted actions against Somali communities in Minnesota.

As the administration’s Religious Liberty Commission, you are tasked with identifying threats to domestic religious liberty. These policies and attacks represent some of the most serious threats facing any faith community today. You have a responsibility to condemn these actions clearly and forcefully and to affirm that religious freedom must protect all people without exception.

I strongly urge you to speak out against Islamophobia, call for oversight to prevent discriminatory government actions, and protect the religious freedom of Muslim communities nationwide.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Nora Rhan

Address [REDACTED] PII
Evansville, IN Address [REDACTED]