RECITALS

A. The United States Attorney’s Offices for the District of New Jersey, the Western District of North Carolina, the Northern District of Georgia, and the Central District of California conducted investigations of the packaging, origination, marketing, sale, structuring, arrangement, and issuance of residential mortgage-backed securities (“RMBS”) and collateralized debt obligations (“CDOs”) by Bank of America; Countrywide Financial Corporation, Countrywide Home Loans, Inc., and Countrywide Securities Corporation, as well as their current and former subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, “Countrywide”); Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith, Inc., Merrill Lynch Mortgage Lending, Inc., and Merrill Lynch Mortgage Investors, Inc., as well as their current and former subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, “Merrill Lynch”); and First Franklin Financial Corporation, as well as its current and former subsidiaries and affiliates (“First Franklin”). Based on these investigations, the United States believes that there are potential legal claims by the United States against Bank of America, Countrywide, Merrill Lynch and First Franklin for violations of federal law. Furthermore, based on its investigation, the United States Attorney’s Office for the Western District of North Carolina filed a civil action, United States v. Bank of America Corp., et al., No. 13-cv-446-MOC (W.D.N.C.), against Bank of America seeking a civil monetary penalty pursuant to the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery and Enforcement Act of 1989 (“FIRREA”), 12 U.S.C. § 1833a.

B. The States, based on their independent investigations of the same conduct, believe that there are potential legal claims by California, Delaware, Illinois, Maryland, Kentucky, and New York against Bank of America, Countrywide, Merrill Lynch, and First Franklin for state law violations in connection with the packaging, origination, marketing, sale, structuring, arrangement, and issuance of RMBS and CDOs.

C. The United States Attorney’s Office for the Southern District of New York has conducted investigations of Countrywide and Bank of America’s origination and sale of defective residential mortgage loans to the Federal National Mortgage Association (“Fannie Mae”) and the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation (“Freddie Mac”) (collectively, “government-sponsored enterprises” or “GSEs”), including investigating allegations asserted by:

- i. Relator, who filed a complaint on or about June 21, 2011, under the qui tam provisions of the False Claims Act, 31 U.S.C. §§ 3729, et seq., against Bank of America, three of its subsidiaries (Countrywide Financial Corporation, Landsafe Appraisal Services, Inc. and U.S. Trust), and another defendant, asserting inter alia, that, from 2004 to 2011, Bank of America and its subsidiaries originated residential mortgage loans using inflated appraisals and fraudulently sold those loans to the GSEs with misrepresentations as to the loans’ quality;
- ii. Relator, who filed a complaint on or about June 4, 2014, under the qui tam provisions of the False Claims Act against Countrywide and Bank of America, alleging, inter alia, that, from 2009 to 2014, these entities fraudulently sold defective residential mortgage loans originated by Countrywide's Consumer Markets Division and later Bank of America to the GSEs with misrepresentations as to the loans' quality; and

- iii. Relator, who filed a complaint on or about January 14, 2014, under the qui tam provisions of the False Claims Act against Defendants Countrywide, Bank of America, Merrill Lynch, and First Franklin, alleging, inter alia, that, from 2008 to 2013, those entities breached representations and warranties by failing to report thousands of defective loans to the GSEs.

Based on these investigations, the United States believes that there are potential legal claims by the United States against Bank of America for violations of federal law.

D. The United States Attorney's Office for the Western District of North Carolina has also conducted an investigation of Bank of America and Countrywide submitting false claims to the Federal Housing Administration ("FHA"), an agency within the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, including investigating allegations asserted by Mortgage Now, Inc., which filed a complaint on or about June 7, 2012, under the qui tam provisions of the False Claims Act against Bank of America alleging inter alia, that Bank of America and Countrywide submitted claims to FHA for reimbursement of amounts Bank of America and Countrywide already had recovered from third-party correspondent lenders. As part of this investigation, the United States Attorney's Office for the Western District of North Carolina examined whether Bank of America settled repurchase claims with Freddie Mac and Fannie Mae concerning residential mortgages for which Bank of America or Countrywide received compensation from third party correspondent lenders that Bank of America did not disclose to Freddie Mac and Fannie Mae.

E. The United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York has conducted an investigation of Bank of America's origination of loans insured by the FHA from May 1, 2009 through March 31, 2012.

F. The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development has conducted an investigation of Bank of America's performance as Master Subservicer under Contract Number C-OPC-23289 with the Government National Mortgage Association ("Ginnie Mae").
