FY 2019 Strategy:

The OIG is committed to assuring the Attorney General, Congress and taxpayers that the substantial funding provided to support the Department and its infrastructure investments are used efficiently, effectively, and for their intended purposes.

The OIG has jurisdiction over all complaints of misconduct against Department employees in the Federal Bureau of Investigation; Drug Enforcement Administration; Federal Bureau of Prisons; U.S. Marshals Service; Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives; U.S. Attorneys' Offices; Office of Justice Programs; and other Offices, Boards and Divisions.

In FY 2019, the OIG will continue to investigate alleged violations of criminal and civil law, regulations, and ethical standards arising from the conduct of Department employees in their numerous and diverse activities. The OIG will also audit and inspect Department programs and assist management in promoting integrity, economy, efficiency, and efficacy. The OIG also plans to fully meet its responsibilities to oversee the Department's critical counterterrorism, information technology, cybercrime, detention, incarceration, law enforcement, and grant-related activities.

This increase is for additional personnel to allow OIG to keep pace with the dramatic increase in whistleblower retaliation cases and to provide an important public service by improving government efficiency, transparency, and accountability.
