A. That defendant Scophony Corporation of America is hereby ordered and directed to grant to each applicant making written request therefor a nonexclusive and non-assignable license, or sublicense, to make or have made for them, use and vend under any or all United States patents.

- (1) Issued on or before the date of the entry of this judgment which are owned or controlled by defendant Scophony Corporation of America; or
- (2) Issued or to be issued under any or all applications for United States patents filed by or on behalf of Scophony Corporation of America pending on the date of the entry of this judgment; or

- (4) Issued or to be issued under any or all applications for United States patents filed or to be filed after the date of entry of this judgment by or on behalf of Scophony Corporation of America on the basis of patents owned or controlled by defendant, Scophony, Limited, in the United Kingdom on or before December 18, 1945, or on the basis of patent applications of defendant Scophony, Limited, pending on December 18, 1945, in the United Kingdom; including, without limitation, all patents, reissue and patent applications listed in Appendix A annexed hereto, and any and all divisions, continuations, reissues or extensions thereof, all of such patents whether or not listed in Appendix A, and whether issued or to be issued, being hereinafter referred to as the Licensed Patents; and defendant Scophony Corporation of America is hereby enjoined and restrained from making any disposition of any said Licensed Patents which deprives it of the power or authority to grant such licenses, unless it sells, transfers or assigns such patents and requires, as a condition of such sale, transfer or assignment, that the purchaser, transferee or assignee thereof shall observe the requirements of this Section of this judgment and the purchaser, transferee or assignee shall file in this Court, prior to consummation of said transaction, an undertaking to be bound by the provisions of this Section of this Judgment.

B. That defendant Scophony Corporation of America is hereby enjoined and restrained from including any restriction or condition whatsoever in any license or sub-license granted by it pursuant to the provisions of this Section, except that (a) a reasonable non-discriminatory royalty may be charged; (b) reasonable provision may be made for a periodic inspection of the books and records of licensee by an independent auditor who shall report to the licensor only the amount of the royalty due and payable; (c) reasonable provision may be made for cancellation of the license upon failure of the licensee to pay the royalties or to permit the inspection of its books and records as hereinabove provided.

C. Upon receipt of written request for a license under the Licensed Patents, or any of them, defendant Scophony Corporation of America shall advise the license applicant in writing of the royalty which it deems reasonable for the claim or claims of the patent or patents to which the request pertains. If the parties are unable to agree upon a reasonable royalty within sixty (60) days from the date such request for the license was received by defendant Scophony Corporation of America, the license applicant may forthwith apply to this Court for the determination of a reasonable royalty, and defendant Scophony Corporation of America shall, upon receipt of notice of the filing of such court application, promptly give notice thereof to the Attorney General. If the Court fixes such interim royalty rate, defendant Scophony Corporation of America shall then issue, and the court applicant shall accept, a license, or, as the case may be, a sublicense, providing for the periodic payment of royalties at such interim rate from the date of the filing of such court application by the applicant. If the court applicant fails to accept such license or fails to pay the interim royalty in accordance therewith, such action shall be ground for the dismissal of his application and for the rescission of any and all of the applicant's rights under this subsection. Where an interim license or sublicense has been issued pursuant to this subsection, or where the applicant has exercised any right under any patent hereunder, reasonable royalty rates as finally determined by the Court shall be retroactive for the applicant and for all other licensees under this judgment under, the same claim or claims of the same patent or patents, to the date the applicant files his application with the Court.
