(Originally In Equity No. 23-152)

DECLARATION OF PHILIP ANDRIOLE

I, Philip Andriole, do hereby declare and state as follows:

1. I am an attorney admitted to practice in New York State. I have served as a Trial Attorney in the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice since my admission in February 2020. Prior to my admission, since September 9, 2019, I served as a law clerk in the Antitrust Division in substantially the same capacity.

2. This Declaration is being submitted in support of the United States of America's Motion to Terminate a Legacy Antitrust Judgment in the above-captioned matter.

3. The statements made in this Declaration are based on the knowledge acquired by me in the performance of my official duties and in conjunction with factual research conducted by other attorneys and staff in the Antitrust Division.

4. In early 2018, the Department of Justice Antitrust Division implemented a program to review and, when appropriate, seek termination of older antitrust judgments in which parties were subjected to some type of affirmative obligation or express prohibition that did not have an expiration date. As part of this process, the Division researched the corporate status of entities subject to these older, legacy antitrust judgments.

5. For the judgment in this case, librarians of the Antitrust Division were instructed to research and confirm the corporate status of the corporate defendants. The librarians searched the following public sources to determine corporate status.

- a. A search of the New York Department of State Division of Corporations database. If the final judgment (as submitted to this Court) or other web search (see below) suggested incorporation information for a defendant in another state, the librarians also checked that state for corporate status.
- b. A search of the Encyclopedia of Associations and IRS Tax Exempt Organization Search, where such organizations or associations were subject to a judgment.
- c. A search of web-based resources for the existence (or succession) of the entity. In addition to general web-based searches, the search included research in one or more of the following resources:
 - i. Lexis and/or Westlaw (news, company, and/or litigation search);
 - ii. historical newspapers from Newsbank, ProQuest, and/or Newspapers.com; and
 - iii. historical company directories held by the Antitrust Division Library.

6. Based on the information provided to me by the librarians, I believe that Defendant Bricklayers', Masons' & Plasterers' International Union is still in business as the International Union of Bricklayers and Allied Craftworkers. On November 24, 2020, I contacted Ms. Bridget O'Connor, General Counsel of the International Union of Bricklayers and Allied Craftworkers and left a message asking to discuss the judgment and any objection Defendant might have to the Division's motion to terminate. On December 6, 2020, Ms. O'Connor responded via phone call and email. She stated that Defendant had no objection to the Division's proposed motion to terminate and added that the underlying local unions no longer exist, having long since been merged.

Having reviewed this Declaration, I declare, under penalty of perjury, that the foregoing is true and correct.
