

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,

v.

IMPERIAL WOOD STICK COMPANY,
INC., et al.,
Defendants.

1:21-mc-19

(Originally Civil Action No. 4-122)

DECLARATION OF T. JAKOB SEBROW

I, T. Jakob Sebrow, do hereby declare and state as follows:

1. I am a Trial Attorney with the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice (“Antitrust Division”). I am admitted to practice in the State of New York and in this District.

2. This Declaration is being submitted in support of the United States of America’s Motion to Terminate A Legacy Antitrust Judgment in the above-captioned matter.

3. The statements made in this Declaration are based on the knowledge acquired by me in the performance of my official duties and in conjunction with factual research conducted by other attorneys and staff in the Antitrust Division.

4. In early 2018, the Antitrust Division implemented a program to review and, when appropriate, seek termination of older antitrust judgments in which parties were subjected to some type of affirmative obligation or express prohibition that did not have an expiration date. As part of this process, the Antitrust Division researched the corporate status of entities subject to these older, legacy antitrust judgments.

5. For the judgment in this case, librarians of the Antitrust Division were instructed to research and confirm the corporate status of the corporate defendants. The librarians searched the following public sources to determine corporate status.

- a. A search of the New York Department of State Division of Corporations database. If the final judgment (as submitted to this Court) or other web search (see below) suggested incorporation information for a defendant in another state, the librarians also checked that state for corporate status.
- b. A search of the Encyclopedia of Associations and IRS Tax Exempt Organization Search, where such organizations or associations were subject to a judgment.
- c. A search of web-based resources for the existence (or succession) of the entity. In addition to general web-based searches, the search included research in one or more of the following resources:
  - i. Lexis and/or Westlaw (news, company, and/or litigation search);
  - ii. historical newspapers from Newsbank, ProQuest, and/or Newspapers.com; and
  - iii. historical company directories held by the Antitrust Division Library.

6. Based on the information provided to me by the librarians, I believe that Defendants Imperial Wood Stick Co., Inc., Setter Brothers, Inc., Morgan-Hitchcock Co., C.B. Cummings & Sons Co., Saunders Brothers, and Maine Skewer and Dowel Co. either have been dissolved or are no longer in business. With respect to Defendant Setter Brothers, Inc. (“Setter Brothers”), I contacted Andrew King, Chief Counsel for Competition and Anti-bribery at International Paper Company, a distant corporate successor of Setter Brothers, regarding this judgment. On January 7, 2020, Mr. King informed me that International Paper Company does not object to termination of the above-captioned judgment.

7. I also believe, based on the information provided to me by the librarians, that Defendant Hardwood Products Co. (“Hardwood Products”) is still in business as Hardwood Products Co. LP. I contacted Timothy Templet, Executive Vice President for Global Sales at Hardwood Products. On December 22, 2020, Mr. Templet informed me that Hardwood Products does not object to termination of the above-captioned judgment.

8. Having reviewed this Declaration, I declare, under penalty of perjury, that the foregoing is true and correct.
